The King's Dream is fulfilled. Belshazzar's Feast and the Writing on the Wall

let [a]my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and [1][b]break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by [c]showing mercy to the poor; if there may be [2]a [d]lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 All this [e]came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. 29 At the end of [f]twelve months he was walking [3]in the royal palace of Babylon. 30 The king spake and said, Is not this [g]great Babylon, which [h]I have built for the royal dwelling-place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? 31 While the [i]word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice [k]from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from thee: 32 and thou shalt be [l]driven from men; and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen; and [m]seven times shall pass over thee; until thou know that the [n]Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was [o]driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the [p]end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine [q]understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the [r]Most High, and I praised and honored him that [s]liveth for ever; for his dominion is an [t]everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation; 35 and [u]all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and [v]he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and [x]none can [4]stay his hand, or say unto him, [y]What doest thou? 36 At the same time mine [z]understanding returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my [a]majesty and [b]brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was [c]established in my kingdom, and excellent [d]greatness was added unto me. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, [e]praise and extol and honor the King of [f]heaven; for [g]all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those that [h]walk in pride he is able to abase.

Belshazzar the king made a great [i]feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. 2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver [k]vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the [l]temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might [m]drink therefrom. 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. 4 They [n]drank wine, and praised the gods of [o]gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

lords came into the banquet house: the queen spake and said, [a]O king, live for ever; let not thy [b]thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: 11 there is a [c]man in thy kingdom, in whom is the [d]spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and [e]understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, [1]the king, I say, thy father, made him [f]master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; 12 forasmuch as an [g]excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and [h]dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named [i]Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, who art of the [k]children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father [l]brought out of Judah? 14 I have heard of thee, that the [m]spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in thee. 15 And now the [n]wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof; but they [o]could not show the interpretation of the thing. 16 But I have [p]heard of thee, that thou canst give interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the [q]interpretation thereof, thou shalt be [r]clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy [s]gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18 O thou king, the [t]Most High God [u]gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father the kingdom, and [v]greatness, and glory, and majesty: 19 and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: [x]whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. 20 But when his heart was [y]lifted up, and his spirit was [z]hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was [a]deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 21 and he was [b]driven from the sons of men, and his [c]heart was made like the beasts', and his dwelling was with the [d]wild asses; he was [e]fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the [f]Most High God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and that he setteth up over it whomsoever he will. 22 And [g]thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast [h]not humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this, 23 but hast [i]lifted up thyself against the [k]Lord of heaven; and they have brought the [l]vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine from them; and thou hast [m]praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which [n]see not, nor hear, nor know; and the God [o]in whose hand thy breath is, and [p]whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified: 24 then was the [q]part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.

25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: [2]MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and [r]brought it to an end. 27 TEKEL; thou art [s]weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. 28 [3]PERES; thy kingdom is divided, and given to the [t]Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with [u]purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Daniel is promoted by Darius. The Presidents and Satraps plot against him. He is cast into the Den of Lions

30 In that night [a] Belshazzar the Chaldean king was [b] slain.
31 And [c] Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

6 It pleased [d] Darius to set over the kingdom a [e] hundred and twenty [f] satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three presidents, of whom [g] Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account unto them, and that the king should have [h] no damage.
3 Then this Daniel was [i] distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an [k] excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the [l] whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and the satraps [m] sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find [n] no occasion nor fault, forasmuch as he was [o] faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the [p] law of his God. 6 Then these presidents and satraps [1] assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, [q] live for ever. 7 All the [r] presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors, have [s] consulted together [2] to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be [t] cast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, [u] establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the [v] law of the Medes and Persians, which [3] altereth not. 9 Wherefore king Darius [x] signed the writing and the interdict.

10 And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; (now his windows were open in his chamber [y] toward Jerusalem;) and he [z] kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and [a] prayed, and [b] gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. 11 Then these men [c] assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. 12 Then they came near, and [d] spake before the king concerning the king's interdict: Hast thou not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition unto any god or man within thirty days, save unto thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the [e] law of the Medes and Persians, which [3] altereth not.
13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the [f] children of the captivity of Judah, [g] regardeth not thee, O king, nor the [h] interdict that thou hast signed, but [i] maketh his petition three times a day. 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore [k] displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to rescue him. 15 Then these men assembled together unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that it is a [l] law of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and [m] cast him into the den of lions.
Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, [n] Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. 17 And a [o] stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; [4] that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night [p] fasting; neither were [5] instruments of music brought before him: and his [q] sleep fled from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.
20 And when he came near unto the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the [r] living God, is [s] thy God, whom thou servest continually, [t] able to deliver thee from the lions? 21 Then said

Daniel unto the king, [a] O king, live for ever. 22 My God hath [b] sent his angel, and hath [c] shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; forasmuch as before him [d] innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I [e] done no hurt. 23 Then was the king [f] exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and [g] no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had [h] trusted in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men that had accused Daniel, and they [i] cast them into the den of lions, them, their [k] children, and their wives; and the lions [l] had the mastery of them, and [m] brake all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote unto all the [n] peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: [o] Peace be multiplied unto you. 26 I [p] make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men [q] tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the [r] living God, and [s] stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall [t] not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even [u] unto the end: 27 he [v] delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh [x] signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of [y] Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the [z] first year of [a] Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel [1] had a [b] dream and [c] visions of his head upon his bed: then he [d] wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. 2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my [e] vision by night, and, behold, the [f] four winds of heaven brake forth upon the great sea. 3 And [g] four great [h] beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. 4 The [i] first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it. 5 And, behold, [k] another beast, a second, like to a bear; and [2] it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. 6 After this I beheld, and, lo, [l] another, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. 7 After this I saw in the [m] night-visions, and, behold, a [n] fourth beast, terrible and [3] powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had [o] ten horns. 8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them [p] another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking [q] great things.

9 I beheld till thrones were [4] placed, and one that was [r] ancient of days did sit: his [s] raiment was white as snow, and the [t] hair of his head like pure wool; his [u] throne was fiery flames, and the [v] wheels thereof burning fire. 10 A [x] fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: [y] thousands of thousands ministered unto him, and [z] ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: [a] the judgment was set, and [b] the books were opened. 11 I beheld at that time because of the voice of the [c] great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the [d] beast was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given [5] to be [e] burned with fire. 12 And as for the [f] rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 I saw in the [g] night-visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a [h] son of man, and he came even to the [a] ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. 14 And there was given him [b] dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that [c] all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an [d] everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall [e] not be destroyed.

15 As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of [1] my body, and the [f] visions of my head [g] troubled me. 16 I came near unto one of them that [h] stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he [i] told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. 17 These [k] great beasts, which are four, are four kings, that shall arise out of the earth. 18 But the [l] saints of the Most High shall [m] receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. 19 Then I desired to know the truth concerning the [n] fourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceeding terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. 21 I beheld, and the same horn [o] made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; 22 until the [p] ancient of days came, and [q] judgment was given [2] to the [r] saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The [s] fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall [3] tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 And as for the [t] ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. 25 And he shall [u] speak words against the [v] Most High, and shall [x] wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to [y] change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a [z] time and times and half a time. 26 But the [a] judgment shall be set, and they shall [b] take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. 27 And the [c] kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the [d] saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an [e] everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall [f] serve and obey him. 28 [4] Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much [g] troubled me, and my [5] countenance was changed in me: but I [h] kept the matter in my heart.

8 In the [i] third year of the reign of king [k] Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto [l] me, Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. 2 And I [m] saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in [n] Shushan the [6] palace, which is in the province of [o] Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river [p] Ulai. 3 Then I [q] lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a [r] ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram [s] pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that [t] could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a [u] he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and [7] touched not the ground: and the goat had a [v] notable horn between his eyes. 6 And he came to the [x] ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran upon him in the fury of his power. 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was [y] moved with anger against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he [a]cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8 And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and [b]when he was strong, the [c]great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the [d]four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a [e]little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the [f]glorious land. 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the [g]stars it cast down to the ground, and [h]trampled upon them. 11 Yea, it [i]magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and [1]it took away from him the [k]continual burnt-offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12 And [2]the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt-offering through transgression; and it [l]cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. 13 Then I heard a [m]holy one speaking; and another holy one said unto that certain one who spake, [n]How long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt-offering, and the transgression that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be [o]trodden under foot? 14 And he said unto me, Unto [p]two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be [3]cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even [q]I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought [4]to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a [r]man. 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the [s]Ulai, which called, and said, [t]Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. 17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was affrighted, and [u]fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for the vision belongeth to the [v]time of the end. 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I [x]fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he [y]touched me, and set me [5]upright. 19 And he said, Behold, I will [z]make thee know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongeth to the appointed time of the end. 20 The [a]ram which thou sawest, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21 And the rough [b]he-goat is the [c]king of [6]Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22 And as for [d]that which was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. 23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a [e]king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not [7]by his own power; and he shall [8]destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure; and he shall [8][f]destroy the mighty ones and [9]the holy people. 25 And through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall [g]magnify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he [8]destroy many: he shall also stand up against the [g]prince of princes; but he shall be broken [h]without hand. 26 And the vision of the evenings and mornings which hath been told is [i]true: but [k]shut thou up the vision; for it belongeth to [l]many days to come. 27 And I, Daniel, [m]fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the [n]king's business: and I wondered at the vision, [10]but [o]none understood it.

9 In the first year of [p]Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years whereof the word of Jehovah came to [q]Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even [q]seventy years.

3 And I set my face unto the [r]Lord God, [11]to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4 And

Daniel's Penitent Prayer for his People. Gabriel brings an Answer

I prayed unto Jehovah my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the [a]great and dreadful God, who [b]keepeth covenant and lovingkindness with them that love him and keep his commandments, 5 we have [c]sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have [d]rebelled, even [e]turning aside from thy precepts and from thine ordinances; 6 neither have we [f]hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, that spake in thy name to our [g]kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7 O Lord, [h]righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us [i]confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the [k]countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. 8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our [l]kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have [m]sinned against thee. 9 To the Lord our God belong [n]mercies and forgiveness; [1]for we have [o]rebelled against him; 10 neither have we obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God, to walk in his laws, which he [p]set before us by his servants the prophets. 11 Yea, [q]all Israel have transgressed thy law, even turning aside, that they should not obey thy voice: therefore hath the curse been poured out upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God; for we have sinned against him. 12 And he hath [r]confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our [s]judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven hath [t]not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. 13 As it is written in the [u]law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet have we [v]not entreated the favor of Jehovah our God, that we should [x]turn from our iniquities, and [2]have discernment in thy truth. 14 Therefore hath Jehovah [y]watched over the evil, and brought it upon us; for Jehovah our God is [z]righteous in all his works which he doeth, and we have [a]not obeyed his voice. 15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast [b]brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast [c]gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have [d]sinned, we have done wickedly. 16 O Lord, according to all thy [3][e]righteousness, let thine [f]anger and thy wrath, I pray thee, be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy [g]holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a [h]reproach to all that are round about us. 17 Now therefore, O our God, hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, and [i]cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is [k]desolate, for the [l]Lord's sake. 18 O my God, [m]incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and [n]behold our desolations, and the city which is [o]called by thy name: for we do not [4][p]present our supplications before thee for [q]our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies' sake. 19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; [r]defer not, for thine own sake, O my God, because thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And while I was [s]speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of [t]my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Jehovah my God for the holy mountain of my God; 21 yea, while I was speaking in prayer, the man [u]Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, [5]being caused to [v]fly swiftly, [6][x]touched me about the time of the [y]evening oblation. 22 And he [7]instructed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee wisdom and [z]understanding. 23 At the [a]beginning of thy supplications the commandment went forth, and I am come to tell thee; for thou art [8][b]greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and [c]understand the vision.

24 Seventy [a] weeks are decreed upon thy people and upon thy holy city, [1] to finish [2] transgression, and [3] to make an end of sins, and to [4] [b] make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in [c] everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and [5] prophecy, and to [d] anoint [6] the most [e] holy. 25 Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the [f] commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto [7] the [g] anointed one, the [h] prince, shall be [8] seven [i] weeks, and threescore and two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troublous times. 26 And after the threescore and two weeks shall the anointed one be [k] cut off, and [9] shall have nothing: and the people of the prince that shall come shall [l] destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a [m] flood, and even unto the end shall be war; [n] desolations are determined. 27 And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the [10] oblation to cease; and [11] upon the wing of [o] abominations shall come one that maketh desolate; and even unto the [p] full end, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out upon the desolate.

10 In the third year of [q] Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called [r] Belteshazzar; and the thing was [s] true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had [t] understanding of the vision. 2 In those days I, Daniel, was [u] mourning three whole weeks. 3 I ate [v] no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great [x] river, which is [12] [y] Hiddekel, 5 I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man [z] clothed in linen, whose loins were [a] girded with pure [b] gold of Uphaz: 6 his body also was like the [c] beryl, and his [d] face as the appearance of lightning, and his [e] eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like unto [f] burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the [g] voice of a multitude. 7 And I, Daniel, [h] alone saw the vision; for the [i] men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great [k] quaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8 So I was [l] left alone, and saw this great vision, and there [m] remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I [n] retained no strength. 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I [o] fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

10 And, behold, a hand [p] touched me, which [13] set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. 11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, thou man [q] greatly beloved, [r] understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [s] stand upright; for unto thee am I now sent: and when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood [t] trembling. 12 Then said he unto me, [u] Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst [v] set thy heart to understand, and to [x] humble thyself before thy God, thy words were heard: and I am come [y] for thy words' sake. 13 But the [z] prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, [a] Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I [14] remained there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I am come to make thee [b] understand what shall befall thy people in the [c] latter days; for the vision is yet for [d] many days. 15 And when he had spoken unto me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was [e] dumb. 16 And, behold, one in the [f] likeness of the sons of men [g] touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my [h] sorrows are turned upon me, and I retain no strength.

17 For [a]how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained [b]no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.

18 Then there touched me again one like the [c]appearance of a man, and he [d]strengthened me. 19 And he said, O man [e]greatly beloved, [f]fear not: peace be unto thee, be [g]strong, yea, be strong. And when he spake unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast [h]strengthened me. 20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the [i]prince of Persia: and when I go forth, lo, the [k]prince of [1]Greece shall come. 21 But I will [l]tell thee that which is inscribed in the writing of [m]truth: and there is none that [2]holdeth with me [3]against these, but [n]Michael your prince.

11 1 And as for me, in the [o]first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and [p]strengthen him.

2 And now will I show thee the [q]truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he is waxed strong through his riches, [4]he shall stir up all against the realm of [1][r]Greece. 3 And a [s]mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and [t]do according to his will. 4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided [u]toward the [v]four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith he ruled; for his kingdom shall be [x]plucked up, even for others besides these.

5 And the [y]king of the south [5]shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. 6 And at the [z]end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the [a]king of the north to make [6]an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in those times.

7 But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his [7]place, who shall come [8]unto the army, and shall enter into the [b]fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: 8 and also their [c]gods, with their [9]molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall [10]refrain some years from the king of the north. 9 And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land.

10 And his sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, [11]which shall come on, and [d]overflow, and pass through; and [12]they shall return and war, even to his [e]fortress. 11 And the [f]king of the south shall be moved with [g]anger, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall [h]set forth a great multitude, and the [i]multitude shall be given into his hand. 12 And the multitude shall [13]be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. 13 And the king of the north shall return, and shall [k]set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the [l]times, even [14]of years, with a great army and with much substance. 14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among thy people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall. 15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a [m]mound, and take [15]a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to stand. 16 But he that cometh against him shall [n]do according to his own will, and [o]none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the [a]glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction. 17 And he shall [b]set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him [1]equitable conditions; and he shall perform them: and he shall give him the daughter of women, [2]to corrupt her; but [3]she shall not stand, neither be for him. 18 After this shall he turn his face unto the [4][c]isles, and shall take many: but a [5]prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yea, moreover, he shall cause his [d]reproach to turn upon him. 19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall [e]stumble and fall, and shall [f]not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his [6]place one that shall cause an [g]exactor to pass through the glory of the kingdom; but within few days he shall be [7]destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. 21 And in his [6]place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come [h]in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by [i]flatteries. 22 And the overwhelming [k]forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of [8]the covenant. 23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. 24 [l]In time of security shall he come even upon the [m]fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yea, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. 25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the [n]king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him. 26 Yea, they that eat of his dainties shall [9]destroy him, and his army shall [o]overflow; and many shall fall down slain. 27 And as for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do [p]mischief, and they shall [q]speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the [r]end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great substance; and his heart shall be [s]against the holy covenant; and he shall do his pleasure, and return to his own land. 29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the [t]former. 30 For ships of [u]Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation [v]against the holy covenant, and shall [v]do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard unto them that forsake the holy covenant. 31 And forces shall stand on his part, and they shall [x]profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt-offering, and they shall set up the [y]abomination that maketh desolate. 32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he [10]pervert by [z]flatteries; but the people that know their God shall be [a]strong, and do exploits. 33 And [11][b]they that are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall [c]fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days. 34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall [d]join themselves unto them with [e]flatteries. 35 And some of [12]them that are wise shall fall, to [f]refine them, and to [g]purify, and to make them [h]white, even to the [i]time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

36 And the king shall [k]do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and [l]magnify himself above every god, and shall [m]speak marvellous things against the [n]God of gods; and he shall [o]prosper till the [p]indignation be accomplished; for that which is [q]determined shall be done. 37 Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall [r]magnify himself above 12 And at that time shall [n] Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, [o] such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the [p] book. 2 And [q] many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, [r] some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting [6] contempt. 3 And [7] they that are [s] wise shall [t] shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that [u] turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. 4 But thou, O Daniel, [v] shut up the words, and [x] seal the book, even to the [y] time of the end: [z] many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and, behold, there stood [a] other two, the one on the brink of the [b] river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side. 6 And [c] one said to the man [d] clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, [e] How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? 7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he [f] held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that [g] liveth for ever that it shall be for a [h] time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of [i] breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. 8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my lord, what shall be the [8] [k] issue of these things? 9 And he said, [l] Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are [m] shut up and sealed till the time of the end. 10 Many shall [n] purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the [o] wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but [9] they that are [p] wise shall understand. 11 And from the time that the [q] continual burnt-offering shall be taken away, and the [r] abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. 12 [s] Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the [t] thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. 13 But [u] go thou thy way till the [v] end be; for thou shalt [x] rest, and shalt stand in thy [y] lot, at the end of the days.

THE BOOK OF

HOSEA

Hosea's Wife and Children of Whoredom. Restoration of Israel and Judah. Their Unfaithfulness condemned

1 The word of Jehovah that came unto [a] Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of [b] Uzziah, [c] Jotham, [d] Ahaz, and [e] Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of [f] Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 When Jehovah spake at the first [1] by Hosea, Jehovah said unto Hosea, [g] Go, take unto thee a [h] wife of whoredom and children of whoredom; for the land doth [i] commit great whoredom, departing from Jehovah. 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and [k] bare him a son. 4 And Jehovah said unto him, Call his name [l] Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will [2] avenge the [m] blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will [n] break the bow of Israel in the [o] valley of Jezreel.
6 And she conceived again, and [p] bare a daughter. And Jehovah said unto him, Call her name [3][q] Lo-ruhamah; for I will [r] no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them. 7 But I will have [s] mercy upon the house of Judah, and will [t] save them by Jehovah their God, and will not save them by [u] bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and [v] bare a son. 9 And Jehovah said, Call his name [4][x] Lo-ammi; for ye are not my people, and I will not be [5] your God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the [y] sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and [z] it shall come to pass that, [6] in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are [a] not my people, it shall be said unto them, Ye are the [b] sons of the living God. 11 And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be [c] gathered together, and they shall appoint themselves [d] one head, and shall go up from the land; for great shall be the day of [e] Jezreel.

2 1 Say ye unto your brethren, [7][f] Ammi; and to your sisters, [8][f] Ruhamah.

2 Contend with your mother, [g] contend; for she is [h] not my wife, neither am I her husband; and let her put away her [i] whoredoms from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; 3 lest I strip her [k] naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and [l] make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with [m] thirst. 4 Yea, upon her [n] children will I have no mercy; for they are children of whoredom; 5 for their mother hath [o] played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully; for she said, [p] I will go after my lovers, that [q] give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my [9] drink. 6 Therefore, behold, I will [r] hedge up thy way with [s] thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she shall not find her [t] paths. 7 And she shall [u] follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my [v] first husband; for then was it [x] better with me than now.

8 For she did [y] not know that

wine, and the oil, and multiplied unto her [a]silver and gold, which they [1]used for Baal. 9 Therefore will I [2][b]take back my grain in the time thereof, and my new wine in the season thereof, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. 10 And now will I [c]uncover her [3]lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of my hand. 11 I will also [d]cause all her mirth to cease, her [e]feasts, her [f]new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her [4]solemn assemblies. 12 And I will [g]lay waste her vines and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, [h]These are my hire that my lovers have given me; and I will [i]make them a forest, and the [k]beasts of the field shall eat them. 13 And I will visit upon her the [l]days of the Baalim, [5]unto which she [m]burned incense, when she [n]decked herself with her [6]earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and [o]forgat me, saith Jehovah.

14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and [p]bring her into the wilderness, and speak [7]comfortably unto her. 15 And I will give her her [q]vineyards from thence, and the [r]valley of [8]Achor for a door of hope; and she shall [9][s]make answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the [t]day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. 16 And it shall be at that day, saith Jehovah, that thou shalt call me [10][u]Ishi, and shalt call me no more [11]Baali. 17 For I will [v]take away the names of the [x]Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be [12]mentioned by their name. 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the [y]beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will [z]break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land, and will make them to [a]lie down safely. 19 And I will [b]betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in [c]righteousness, and in justice, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies. 20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and thou shalt [d]know Jehovah.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, [e]I will answer, saith Jehovah, I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the earth; 22 and the [f]earth shall answer the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they shall answer [13][g]Jezreel. 23 And I will [h]sow her unto me in the [14]earth; and I will have mercy upon [15]her that had [i]not obtained mercy; and [k]I will say to [16]them that were [l]not my people, [m]Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

3 And Jehovah said unto me, [n]Go again, love a woman beloved [17]of her friend, and an adulteress, even as Jehovah loveth the children of Israel, though they turn unto other gods, and [18]love [o]cakes of raisins. 2 So I [p]bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and a homer of barley, and a [19]half-homer of barley; 3 and I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be any man's wife: so will I also be toward thee. 4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days [q]without king, and without prince, and [r]without sacrifice, and without [20][s]pillar, and without [t]ephod or [u]teraphim: 5 afterward shall the children of Israel [v]return, and seek Jehovah their God, and [x]David their king, and shall [y]come with fear unto Jehovah and to his goodness in the latter days.

4 [z]Hear the word of Jehovah, ye children of Israel; for Jehovah hath a [a]controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is [b]no truth, nor [c]goodness, nor [d]knowledge of God in the land. 2 There is nought but [e]swearing and [f]breaking faith, and [g]killing, and [h]stealing, and [i]committing adultery; they break out, and [k]blood toucheth blood. 3 Therefore shall the land [l]mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the [m]beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. 4 Yet let no man [a]strive, neither let any man reprove; for thy people are as they that [b]strive with the priest. 5 And thou shalt [c]stumble in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with thee in the night; and I will destroy thy [d]mother.

6 My people are destroyed for [e]lack of knowledge: because thou hast [f]rejected knowledge, [1]I will also [g]reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast [h]forgotten the [i]law of thy God, I also will forget thy children. 7 As they were [k]multiplied, so they sinned against me: I will [l]change their glory into [m]shame. 8 They [n]feed on the sin of my people, and [o]set their heart on their iniquity. 9 And it shall be, like people, [p]like priest; and I will [q]punish them for their ways, and will requite them their doings. 10 And they shall [r]eat, and not have enough; they shall [s]play the harlot, and shall not increase; because they have [t]left off taking heed to Jehovah.

11 [u]Whoredom and wine and new wine [v]take away the [2]understanding. 12 My people [x]ask counsel at their stock, and their staff declareth unto them; for the [y]spirit of whoredom hath caused them to err, and they have [z]played the harlot, departing from under their God. 13 They sacrifice upon the [a]tops of the mountains, and [b]burn incense upon the hills, [c]under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters play the harlot, and your [3]brides commit adultery. 14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the harlot, nor your [3]brides when they commit adultery; for the men themselves [d]go apart with harlots, and they sacrifice with the [e]prostitutes; and the people that doth [f]not understand shall be overthrown.

15 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah [4]offend; and come not ye unto [g]Gilgal, neither go ye up to [h]Beth-aven, [i]nor swear, As Jehovah liveth. 16 For Israel hath behaved himself [k]stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer: now will Jehovah [l]feed them as a lamb in a large place. 17 Ephraim is joined to [m]idols; [n]let him alone. 18 [5]Their drink is become sour; they [o]play the harlot continually; [6]her [7]rulers dearly love [p]shame. 19 [q]The wind hath wrapped her up in its [8]wings; and [9]they shall be put to shame because of their [r]sacrifices.

5 [s]Hear this, O ye priests, and hearken, O house of Israel, and give ear, O house of the king; for [10]unto you pertaineth the judgment; for ye have been a [t]snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor. 2 And the [u]revolters are [v]gone deep [11]in making slaughter; but I am a [12]rebuker of them all. 3 I [x]know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me; for now, O [y]Ephraim, thou hast played the harlot, Israel is defiled. 4 [13]Their doings will [z]not suffer them to turn unto their God; for the [a]spirit of whoredom is [14]within them, and they [b]know not Jehovah. 5 And the [15][c]pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore Israel and Ephraim shall [d]stumble in their iniquity; [e]Judah also shall stumble with them. 6 They shall [f]go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Jehovah; but they shall [g]not find him: he hath [h]withdrawn himself from them. 7 They have [i]dealt treacherously against Jehovah; for they have [16]borne [k]strange children: now shall [17]the [l]new moon devour them with their [18]fields.

8 Blow ye the cornet in [m]Gibeah, and the trumpet in [n]Ramah: sound an alarm at [o]Beth-aven; [19][p]behind thee, O Benjamin. 9 Ephraim shall become a [q]desolation in the [r]day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which [s]shall surely be. 10 The princes of Judah are like them that [t]remove the landmark: I will [u]pour out my wrath upon them [v]like water. 11 [x]Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; because he was content to walk after man's

Response to Jehovah's Rebuke. Ephraim and Judah expostulated with. Israel's Iniquity and Rebellion command. 12 [1]Therefore am I unto Ephraim as a [a]moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to [b]Assyria, and sent to [2][c]king Jareb: but he is [d]not able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound.
14 For I will be unto Ephraim [e]as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: [f]I, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there shall be [g]none to deliver. 15 I will go and return to my place, till they [3][h]acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will [i]seek me [4]earnestly.

6 [k]Come, and let us return unto Jehovah; for he hath [l]torn, and he will [m]heal us; he hath smitten, and he will [n]bind us up. 2 After two days will he [o]revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live before him. 3 And let us [p]know, let us follow on to know Jehovah: his [q]going forth is sure as the morning; and he will come unto us as the [r]rain, as the latter rain that watereth the earth.

4 O [s]Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your [5]goodness is as a [t]morning cloud, and as the dew that goeth early away.
5 Therefore have I [u]hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and [6]thy judgments are [v]as the light that goeth forth. 6 For [x]I desire [5]goodness, and not sacrifice; and the [y]knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings. 7 But they [7]like [8]Adam have [z]transgressed the covenant: there have they [a]dealt treacherously against me. 8 [b]Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity; it is stained with [c]blood. 9 [9]And as [d]troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests [e]murder in the way toward Shechem; yea, they have committed [f]lewdness.
10 In the house of Israel I have seen a [g]horrible thing: there [h]whoredom is found in Ephraim, Israel is defiled. 11 Also, O Judah, there is a [i]harvest appointed for thee, when I [10][k]bring back the captivity of my people.

7 When I [l]would heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim uncovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit [m]falsehood, and the thief entereth in, and the [n]troop of robbers [11]ravageth without. 2 And they consider not in their hearts that I [o]remember all their wickedness: now have their [p]own doings beset them about; they are before my face. 3 They make the [q]king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their [r]lies. 4 They are [s]all adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceaseth to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough, until it be leavened. 5 On the day of our [t]king the princes [u]made [12]themselves sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with [v]scoffers. 6 For they have [13]made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. 7 They are all hot as an [x]oven, and devour their [y]judges; all their [z]kings are fallen: there is none among them that [a]calleth unto me.

8 [b]Ephraim, he mixeth himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned. 9 [c]Strangers have devoured his strength, and he [d]knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are [14]here and there upon him, and he knoweth it not.
10 And the [15][e]pride of Israel doth testify to his face: yet they have [f]not returned unto Jehovah their God, nor sought him, for all this. 11 And Ephraim is like a silly dove, [g]without [16]understanding: they call unto [h]Egypt, they go to [i]Assyria. 12 When they shall go, I will [k]spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, [17]as their congregation hath heard. 13 [l]Woe unto them! for they have [m]wandered from me; destruction unto them! for they have trespassed against me: though I [n]would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me. 14 And they have not [o]cried unto me with their heart, but they howl upon their beds: they [a]assemble themselves for grain and new wine; they [b]rebel against me. 15 Though I have [1][c]taught and strengthened their arms, yet do they [d]devise mischief against me. 16 They return, but not to him that is on high; they are [e]like a deceitful bow; their [f]princes shall fall by the sword for the [g]rage of their tongue: this shall be their [h]derision in the land of [i]Egypt.

8 [2][k]Set the trumpet to thy mouth. [l]As an eagle he cometh against the house of Jehovah, because they have [m]transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my [n]law. 2 They shall [o]cry unto me, My God, we Israel know thee. 3 Israel hath cast off that which is [p]good: the enemy shall pursue him. 4 They have [q]set up kings, but not by me; [3]they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their [r]silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off. 5 He hath cast off thy [s]calf, O Samaria; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to [t]innocency? 6 For from Israel is even this; the [u]workman made it, and it is no God; yea, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces. 7 For they sow the [v]wind, and they shall reap the [x]whirlwind: [4]he hath no standing grain; the blade shall yield [y]no meal; if so be it yield, strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is [z]swallowed up: now are they among the nations as a [a]vessel wherein none delighteth.
9 For they are gone up to [b]Assyria, like a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath [c]hired [5]lovers. 10 Yea, though they hire among the nations, now will I [d]gather them; and they [6]begin to be [e]diminished by reason of the burden of the [f]king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath [g]multiplied altars for sinning, altars have been unto him for sinning.
12 I wrote for him the ten thousand things of my [h]law; but they are counted as a strange thing.
13 As for the [i]sacrifices of mine offerings, they [k]sacrifice flesh and eat it; but Jehovah accepteth them not: now will he [l]remember their iniquity, and [m]visit their sins; they shall return to [n]Egypt.
14 For Israel hath [o]forgotten his Maker, and [p]builded [7]palaces; and Judah hath multiplied fortified cities: but I will send a [q]fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the [8]castles thereof.

9 [r]Rejoice not, O Israel, [9]for joy, like the peoples; [10]for thou hast [s]played the harlot, departing from thy God; thou hast [t]loved hire upon every grain-floor.
2 The threshing-floor and the winepress shall [u]not feed them, and the new wine shall fail her. 3 They shall not dwell in Jehovah's land; but Ephraim shall return to [v]Egypt, and they shall eat [x]unclean food in [y]Assyria. 4 They shall not pour out [z]wine-offerings to Jehovah, [11]neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their [a]sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be [b]polluted; for their bread shall be for their appetite; it shall not come into the house of Jehovah.
5 [c]What will ye do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the [d]feast of Jehovah?
6 For, lo, they are gone away from destruction; yet [e]Egypt shall gather them up, [f]Memphis shall bury them; their pleasant things of silver, nettles shall possess them; [g]thorns shall be in their tents. 7 The days of [h]visitation are come, the days of [i]recompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a [k]fool, the man that hath the spirit is [l]mad, for the abundance of thine [m]iniquity, and because the enmity is great.
8 Ephraim [12]was a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a [n]fowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God. 9 They have [o]deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of [p]Gibeah: he will [q]remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like [r]grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the [s]first-ripe in the fig-tree at its first season: but they came to [t]Baal-peor, and [1][a] shameful thing, and became [b] abominable like that which they loved. 11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall [c] fly away like a bird: there shall be [d] no birth, and none with child, and no conception. 12 Though they [e] bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, so that not a man shall be left: yea, [f] woe also to them when I depart from them! 13 Ephraim, [2] like as I have seen [g] Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring out his children to the slayer. 14 Give them, O Jehovah: what wilt thou give? give them a [h] miscarrying womb and dry breasts. 15 All their wickedness is in [i] Gilgal; for there I hated them: because of the [k] wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house; I will love them no more; all their princes are [l] revolters. 16 [m] Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear [n] no fruit: yea, though they [o] bring forth, yet will I slay the [p] beloved fruit of their womb. 17 My God will cast them away, because they did [q] not hearken unto him; and they shall be [r] wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant [s] vine, that putteth forth his fruit: according to the abundance of his fruit he hath [t] multiplied his altars; according to the [3] goodness of their land they have made goodly [4][u] pillars. 2 [5] Their heart is [6][v] divided; now shall they be found [x] guilty: he will [y] smite their altars, he will destroy their [4] pillars. 3 Surely now shall they say, We have [z] no king; for we fear not Jehovah; and the king, what can he do for us?

4 They speak vain words, [7][a] swearing falsely in making covenants: therefore [b] judgment [8] springeth up as [9] hemlock in the furrows of the field. 5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall be in terror for the [c] calves of [d] Beth-aven; for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and [10] the priests thereof that rejoiced over it, for the [e] glory thereof, because it is departed from it. 6 It also shall be carried unto [f] Assyria for a present to [g] king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive [h] shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his [i] own counsel. 7 [11] As for Samaria, her king is [k] cut off, as [12] foam upon the water. 8 The [l] high places also of [m] Aven, the [n] sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the [o] thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and [p] they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned [13] from the days of [q] Gibeah: [14] there they stood; [15] the battle against the children of iniquity doth not overtake them in Gibeah. 10 When it is my [r] desire, I will [s] chastise them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they are [16] bound [17] to their two transgressions. 11 And Ephraim is a [t] heifer that is taught, that loveth to tread out the grain; but I have [u] passed over upon her fair neck: I will set a [v] rider on Ephraim; Judah shall plow, Jacob shall break his clods.

12 [x] Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness; [y] break up your fallow ground; for it is time to [z] seek Jehovah, till he [a] come and [18][b] rain righteousness upon you. 13 Ye have [c] plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of [19][d] lies; for thou didst trust in thy way, in the [e] multitude of thy mighty men. 14 Therefore shall a tumult arise [20] among thy [21] people, and all thy [f] fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the [g] mother was dashed in pieces with her children. 15 [22] So shall [h] Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: at daybreak shall the [i] king of Israel be utterly cut off.

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and [k] called my son [l] out of Egypt. 2 The more the [m] prophets called them, the more they went from them: they [n] sacrificed unto the Baalim, and [o] burned incense to graven images. 3 Yet I [p] taught Ephraim to walk; [23] I [q] took them on my arms; but they knew not that I [r] healed them. 4 I [s] drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that lift up the yoke on their jaws; and I [a]laid food before them.

5 They shall not return into the land of Egypt; but the [b]Assyrian shall be their king, because they [c]refused to return to me. 6 And the [d]sword shall [1]fall upon their cities, and shall [e]consume their bars, and devour them, because of their [f]own counsels. 7 And my people are bent on [g]backsliding from me: though [h]they call them to him that is on high, none at all will [2]exalt him.

8 [i]How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I cast thee off, Israel? how shall I make thee as [k]Admah? how shall I set thee as [k]Zeboiim? my heart is turned within me, my compassions are kindled together. 9 I will [l]not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not [m]return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the [n]Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not [3]come in wrath. 10 They shall [o]walk after Jehovah, who will [p]roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children shall come [q]trembling from the west. 11 They shall come trembling as a bird out of [r]Egypt, and as a [s]dove out of the land of [r]Assyria; and I will make them to [t]dwell in their houses, saith Jehovah.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with [u]falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit; [4]but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the Holy One.

1 Ephraim feedeth on [v]wind, and followeth after the [x]east wind: he continually [y]multiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with [z]Assyria, and oil is carried into [a]Egypt. 2 Jehovah hath also a [b]controversy with Judah, and will [5]punish Jacob [c]according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. 3 In the womb he [d]took his brother by the heel; and in his [6]manhood he [7]had [e]power with God: 4 yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and [f]made supplication unto him: he found him at [g]Beth-el, and there he spake with us, 5 [8]even Jehovah, the God of hosts; Jehovah is his [h]memorial name. 6 Therefore [i]turn thou to thy God: keep [k]kindness and justice, and [l]wait for thy God continually.

7 [9]He is [10]a [m]trafficker, the [n]balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to [11]oppress. 8 And Ephraim said, Surely I am become [o]rich, I have found me wealth: in all my labors they shall find in me [p]no iniquity that were sin. 9 But I am Jehovah thy God from the land of [q]Egypt: I will yet again make thee to [r]dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. 10 I have also spoken unto the [s]prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and [12]by the ministry of the prophets have I used [t]similitudes. 11 Is [u]Gilead iniquity? they are altogether false; in [v]Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks; yea, [x]their altars [13]are as heaps in the furrows of the field. 12 And [y]Jacob fled into the field of Aram, and [z]Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. 13 And by a [a]prophet Jehovah brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he [14]preserved. 14 [b]Ephraim hath provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore shall his [c]blood be left upon him, and his [d]reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

[e]When Ephraim [15]spake, there was trembling; he [f]exalted himself in Israel; but when he [16]offended in [g]Baal, he died. 2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them [h]molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own [i]understanding, all of them the [k]work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let [17]the men that sacrifice kiss the [l]calves. 3 Therefore they shall be as the [m]morning cloud, and as the dew that passeth early away, as the [n]chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the [o]smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am [p]Jehovah thy God from the land of Egypt; and thou [18]shalt know [q]no god but me, and [r]besides me there is no saviour. 5 I did [s]know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. 6 According to their pasture, so were they [a]filled; they were filled, and their [b]heart was exalted: therefore have they [c]forgotten me. 7 Therefore am I unto them as a [d]lion; as a [e]leopard will I watch by the way; 8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart; and there will I [f]devour them like a lioness; the wild beast shall tear them.

9 [1]It is thy destruction, O Israel, [2]that thou art [g]against me, against thy [h]help. 10 Where now is thy [i]king, that he may save thee in all thy cities? and thy [k]judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes? 11 I have [l]given thee a king in mine anger, and have [m]taken him away in my wrath. 12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is [n]laid up in store. 13 The sorrows of a [o]travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an [p]unwise son; [3]for it is time he should [q]not tarry in the place of the breaking forth of children. 14 I will [r]ransom them from the [4]power of Sheol; I will redeem them from death: [s]O death, [5]where are thy plagues? O Sheol, [5]where is thy destruction? [t]repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be [u]fruitful among his brethren, an [v]east wind shall come, the [6]breath of Jehovah coming up from the wilderness; and his spring shall [x]become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: [7]he shall [y]make spoil of the treasure of all goodly vessels. 16 Samaria shall [8]bear her [z]guilt; for she hath [a]rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the [b]sword; their infants shall be [c]dashed in pieces, and their [d]women with child shall be ripped up.

O Israel, [e]return unto Jehovah thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine [f]iniquity. 2 Take with you words, and return unto Jehovah: say unto him, [g]Take away all iniquity, and [9]accept that which is good: so will we [h]render as bullocks the offering of our lips. 3 [i]Assyria shall not save us; we will [k]not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the [l]work of our hands, [m]Ye are our gods; for in [n]thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 I will [o]heal their backsliding, I will [p]love them freely; for mine anger is [q]turned away from him. 5 I will be as the [r]dew unto Israel; he shall blossom as the [s]lily, and cast forth his roots as [t]Lebanon. 6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the [u]olive-tree, and his smell as [v]Lebanon. 7 They that [x]dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the [y]grain, and blossom as the vine: [10]the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon. 8 [11]Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with [z]idols? I have answered, and will regard him: I am like a green [a]fir-tree; from [b]me is thy fruit found.

9 [c]Who is wise, that he may understand these things? prudent, that he may know them? for the [d]ways of Jehovah are right, and the [e]just shall walk in them; but [f]transgressors shall fall therein.

THE BOOK OF

JOEL

A Devastation of the Land by Locusts. Terribleness of the Visitation

1. 1

1 The [a] word of Jehovah that came to [b] Joel the son of Pethuel.
2 [c] Hear this, ye [d] old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in [e] your days, or in the days of your fathers?
3 [f] Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. 4 That which [1] the [g] palmer-worm hath left hath [1] the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath [1] the [h] canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath [1] the [i] caterpillar eaten.
5 Awake, ye [k] drunkards, and weep; and wail, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is [l] cut off from your mouth. 6 For a [m] nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number; his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the jaw-teeth of a lioness. 7 He hath [n] laid my vine waste, and [2] barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it [3] away; the branches thereof are made white.
8 Lament like a virgin [o] girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. 9 The [p] meal-offering and the drink-offering are cut off from the house of Jehovah; the [q] priests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn. 10 The field is [r] laid waste, the land mourneth; for the grain is destroyed, the [s] new wine is [4] dried up, the oil languisheth.
11 [5] Be [t] confounded, O ye husbandmen, wail, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the [u] harvest of the field is perished. 12 The [v] vine is [6] withered, and the fig-tree languisheth; the [x] pomegranate-tree, the [y] palm-tree also, and the [z] apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for [a] joy is [6] withered away from the sons of men.
13 [b] Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye [c] priests; [d] wail, ye ministers of the altar; come, [e] lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meal-offering and the drink-offering are withholden from the house of your God. 14 [f] Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the [7] [g] old men and all the inhabitants of the land unto the house of Jehovah your God, and [h] cry unto Jehovah.
15 [i] Alas for the day! for the [k] day of Jehovah is at hand, and as [l] destruction from [8] the Almighty shall it come. 16 Is not the [m] food cut off before our eyes, yea, [n] joy and gladness from the house of our God? 17 The [o] seeds [9] rot under their clods; the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the grain is [6] withered. 18 How do the [p] beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep [10] are made desolate. 19 O Jehovah, to [q] thee do I cry; for the [r] fire hath devoured the [11] pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field. 20 Yea, the beasts of the field [s] pant unto thee; for the [t] water brooks are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the [11] pastures of the wilderness.

2. 2

2 [u] Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the [v] day of Jehovah cometh, for it is nigh at hand; 2 a day of [x] darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as the dawn spread upon the mountains; a [a] great people and a strong; there hath [b] not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. 3 A [c] fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is [d] as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a [e] desolate wilderness; yea, and none hath escaped them.

4 The [f] appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as [1] horsemen, so do they run. 5 Like the [g] noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a [h] flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. 6 At their presence the peoples are in [i] anguish; all [k] faces are waxed pale. 7 They run like [l] mighty men; they [m] climb the wall like men of war; and they [n] march every one on his ways, and they break not their ranks. 8 Neither doth one thrust another; they march every one in his path; and [2] they burst through the weapons, and [3] break not off their course. 9 They [o] leap upon the city; they run upon the wall; they climb up into the [p] houses; they [q] enter in at the windows like a thief. 10 The earth [r] quaketh before them; the heavens tremble; the [s] sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining: 11 and Jehovah [t] uttereth his voice before [u] his army; for his camp is very great; for he is [v] strong that executeth his word; for the [x] day of Jehovah is great and very terrible; and [y] who can abide it?

12 Yet even now, saith Jehovah, [z] turn ye unto me with all your heart, and with [a] fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: 13 and rend your [b] heart, and [c] not your garments, and turn unto Jehovah your God; for he is [d] gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and [e] repenteth him of the evil. 14 Who knoweth [f] whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a [g] blessing behind him, even a [h] meal-offering and a drink-offering unto Jehovah your God?

18 Then was Jehovah [s] jealous for his land, and had [t] pity on his people. 19 And Jehovah answered and said unto his people, Behold, I will send you [u] grain, and new wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will [v] no more make you a reproach among the nations; 20 but I will remove far off from you the [x] northern army, and will drive it into a land barren and desolate, [6] its forepart [7] into the [y] eastern sea, and its hinder part [7] into the [z] western sea; and its [a] stench shall come up, and its ill savor shall come up, because it hath done great things.

3 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall [2][r]bring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2 I will [s]gather all nations, and will bring them down into the [t]valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will [u]execute judgment upon them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have [v]scattered among the nations: and they have [x]parted my land, 3 and have [y]cast lots for my people, and have [z]given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. 4 Yea, and what are ye to me, O [a]Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of [b]Philistia? [3]will ye [c]render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I [d]return your [4]recompense upon your own head. 5 Forasmuch as ye have [e]taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly precious things, 6 and have sold the [f]children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem unto the sons of the Grecians, that ye may remove them far from their border; 7 behold, I will [g]stir them up out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will [h]return your [4]recompense upon your own head; 8 and I will sell [i]your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the men of [k]Sheba, to a nation far off: for Jehovah hath spoken it.

AMOS

God's Judgments on neighboring Nations

1 The words of Amos, who was among the [a]herdsmen of [b]Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of [c]Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of [d]Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the [e]earthquake.

2 And he said, [f]Jehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the [1][g]pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the [h]top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith Jehovah: [i]For three transgressions of [k]Damascus, yea, for four, I will [l]not [2]turn away [3]the punishment thereof; because they have threshed [m]Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: 4 but I will send a [n]fire into the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of [o]Ben-hadad. 5 And I will [p]break the bar of Damascus, and cut off [4]the inhabitant from the valley of [5]Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from [6]the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto [q]Kir, saith Jehovah.

6 Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of [r]Gaza, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive [7]the [s]whole people, to deliver them up to [t]Edom: 7 but I will send a fire on the wall of [u]Gaza, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. 8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from [v]Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from [x]Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the [y]Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord Jehovah.

9 Thus saith Jehovah: [z]For three transgressions of [a]Tyre, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they [b]delivered up [7]the whole people to Edom, and remembered not [8]the [c]brotherly covenant: 10 but I will [d]send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 Thus saith Jehovah: [e]For three transgressions of [f]Edom, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did [g]pursue his brother with the sword, and [9]did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he [h]kept his wrath for ever: 12 but I will send a fire upon [i]Teman, and it shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 Thus saith Jehovah: [k]For three transgressions of the children of [l]Ammon, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [m]ripped up the women with child of [n]Gilead, that they may [o]enlarge their border: 14 but I will kindle a fire in the wall of [p]Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with [q]shouting in the day of battle, with a [r]tempest in the day of the whirlwind; 15 and their [s]king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith Jehovah.

2 Thus saith Jehovah: [t]For three transgressions of [u]Moab, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime: 2 but I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of [v]Kerioth; and Moab shall die with [x]tumult, with [y]shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet; 3 and I will cut off the [z]judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the [a]princes thereof with him, saith Jehovah.

4 Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of [b]Judah, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [c]rejected the law of Jehovah, and have not kept his statutes, and their [d]lies have caused them to err, after which their [e]fathers did walk: 5 but I will [f]send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 Thus saith Jehovah: [g]For three transgressions of [h]Israel, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [i]sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; 7 they that pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the [k]poor, and [l]turn aside the way of the meek: and a [m]man and his father go unto the same maiden, to profane my holy name: 8 and they lay themselves down beside every [n]altar upon clothes [o]taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they [p]drink the wine of such as have been fined.

9 Yet destroyed I the [q]Amorite before them, whose [r]height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his [s]fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. 10 Also I brought you up out of the land of [t]Egypt, and led you [u]forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the [v]Amorite. 11 And I [x]raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for [y]Nazirites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith Jehovah. 12 But ye gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, [z]Prophesy not.

13 Behold, [1]I will [a]press you in your place, as a cart presseth that is full of sheaves. 14 And [2] [b]flight shall perish from the swift; and the strong shall not strengthen his force; neither shall the [c]mighty deliver [3]himself; 15 neither shall he stand that [d]handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself; neither shall he that [e]rideth the horse deliver [3]himself; 16 and he that is courageous among the mighty shall [f]flee away naked in that day, saith Jehovah.

3 Hear this word that Jehovah hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the [g]whole family which I brought up out of the land of [h]Egypt, saying, 2 [i]You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will [k]visit upon you all your iniquities. 3 Shall two [l]walk together, except they have [4]agreed? 4 Will a lion [m]roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? 5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is set for him? shall a snare spring up from the ground, and have taken nothing at all? 6 Shall the [n]trumpet be blown in a city, and the people not be afraid? shall [o]evil befall a city, and Jehovah hath not done it? 7 Surely the Lord Jehovah will do nothing, except he [p]reveal his secret unto his servants the prophets. 8 The [q]lion hath roared; who will not fear? The [r]Lord Jehovah hath spoken; [s]who can but prophesy?

9 Publish ye [5]in the palaces at [t]Ashdod, and [5]in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the [u]mountains of Samaria, and behold what great tumults are therein, and what [v]oppressions in the midst thereof. 10 For they [x]know not to do right, saith Jehovah, who [y]store up violence and robbery in their palaces. 11 Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: An [z]adversary there shall be, even round about the land; and he shall [a]bring down thy strength from thee, and thy [b]palaces shall be plundered. 12 Thus saith Jehovah: As the shepherd [c]rescueth out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the [d]children of Israel be rescued that sit in Samaria in the corner of a [e]couch, and [6]on the silken cushions of a [f]bed.

[1] Or, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves

13 Hear ye, and [a]testify against the house of Jacob, saith the Lord Jehovah, the God of hosts. 14 For in the day that I shall [b]visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of [c]Beth-el; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. 15 And I will smite the [d]winter-house with the [e]summer-house; and the houses of [f]ivory shall perish, and [1]the [g]great houses shall have an end, saith Jehovah.

ladies of Samaria

4 Hear this word, ye kine of [h]Bashan, that are in the [i]mountain of Samaria, that [k]oppress the poor, that crush the needy, that say unto their lords, Bring, and let us [l]drink. 2 The Lord Jehovah hath [m]sworn by his [n]holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that they shall take you away with [o]hooks, and your residue with [p]fish-hooks. 3 And ye shall [q]go out at the breaches, every one straight before her; [2]and ye shall cast yourselves into Harmon, saith Jehovah.

4 Come to [r]Beth-el, and transgress; to [s]Gilgal, and multiply transgression; and [t]bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes every three days; 5 and [3]offer a sacrifice of [u]thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim [v]freewill-offerings and publish them: for this [x]pleaseth you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah.

6 And I also have given you [y]cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye [z]not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. 7 And I also have [a]withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon [b]another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered. 8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city to drink [c]water, and were [d]not satisfied: yet have ye [e]not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. 9 I have [f]smitten you with blasting and mildew: the multitude of your gardens and your vineyards and your fig-trees and your olive-trees hath the [g]palmer-worm devoured: yet have ye [h]not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. 10 I have sent among you the [i]pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your [k]young men have I slain with the sword, [4]and have [l]carried away your horses; and I have made the [m]stench of your camp to come up even into your nostrils: yet have ye [n]not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. 11 I have overthrown cities among you, as when [o]God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as [p]a brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye [q]not returned unto me, saith Jehovah.

12 Therefore [r]thus will I do unto thee, O Israel; and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to [s]meet thy God, O Israel. 13 For, lo, he that [t]formeth the mountains, and [u]createth the wind, and [v]declareth unto man what is his thought; that [x]maketh the morning darkness, and [y]treadeth upon the high places of the earth; [z]Jehovah, the God of hosts, is his name.

5 Hear ye this word which I take up for a [a]lamentation over you, O house of Israel. 2 The [b]virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall [c]no more rise: she [5]is cast down upon her land; there is [d]none to raise her up. 3 For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: The city that went forth a thousand shall have a [e]hundred left, and that which went forth a hundred shall have [f]ten left, to the house of Israel.

[5] Or, lieth forsaken

4 For thus saith Jehovah unto the house of Israel, [g]Seek ye me, and ye shall live; 5 but seek not [h]Beth-el, nor enter into [i]Gilgal, and pass not to [k]Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall [6]come to nought. 6 [l]Seek Jehovah, and ye shall live; lest he break out like [m]fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour and there be none to quench it in [n]Beth-el. 7 Ye who turn [o]justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth, 8 seek him that maketh the [a] Pleiades and Orion, and [b] turneth [1] the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day [c] dark with night; that [d] calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; ([e] Jehovah is his name;) 9 that [2] bringeth [f] sudden destruction upon the strong, so that [g] destruction cometh upon the fortress.

10 They hate him that [h] reproveth in the gate, and they [i] abhor him that speaketh uprightly.
11 Forasmuch therefore as ye [k] trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built [l] houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall [m] not drink the wine thereof. 12 For I know how manifold are your transgressions, and how mighty are your sins; ye that [n] afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the [o] needy in the gate from their right. 13 Therefore he that is prudent shall [p] keep silence in such a time; for it is an evil time.

14 [q] Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be with you, [r] as ye say. 15 [s] Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish justice in the gate: it [t] may be that Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be gracious unto the [u] remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore thus saith Jehovah, the God of hosts, the Lord: [v] Wailing shall be in all the broad ways; and they shall say in all the streets, Alas! alas! and they shall call the [x] husbandman to mourning, [3] and such as are [y] skilful in lamentation to wailing.
17 And in all [z] vineyards shall be wailing; for I will pass through the midst of thee, saith Jehovah.

18 Woe unto you that desire the [a] day of Jehovah! Wherefore would ye have the day of Jehovah?
It is [b] darkness, and not light. 19 As if a man did [c] flee from a lion, and a bear met him; [4] or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. 20 Shall not the day of Jehovah be [d] darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 I [e] hate, I despise your feasts, and I [5] will [f] take no delight in your solemn assemblies. 22 Yea, though ye [g] offer me [6] your burnt-offerings and meal-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the [7][h] peace-offerings of your fat beasts. 23 Take thou away from me the [i] noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols. 24 But let [k] justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a [8] mighty stream.

25 Did ye [l] bring unto me sacrifices and [9] offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel? 26 Yea, ye [10] have borne the tabernacle of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves. 27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity [m] beyond Damascus, saith [n] Jehovah, whose name is the God of hosts.

6 [o] Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and to them that are [p] secure in the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the [q] chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come! 2 Pass ye unto [r] Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to [s] Hamath the great; then go down to [t] Gath of the Philistines: are they better than these kingdoms? or is their border greater than your border?
3 — ye that [u] put far away the evil day, and [v] cause the [11] seat of [x] violence to come near; 4 that lie upon beds of [y] ivory, and stretch themselves upon their [z] couches, and [a] eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall; 5 that sing idle [b] songs to the sound of the viol; that invent for themselves [c] instruments of music, [12] like David; 6 that [d] drink [13] wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief oils; but they are not [e] grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore shall they now [f] go captive with the first that go captive; and the [g] revelry of them that [h] stretched themselves shall pass away. 8 The Lord Jehovah hath [a] sworn by himself, saith Jehovah, the God of hosts: [b] I abhor the [1] excellency of Jacob, and hate his [c] palaces; therefore will I [d] deliver up the city with all that is therein. 9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain [e] ten men in one house, that they shall die. 10 And when a man's [2] uncle shall take him up, even he that [f] burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is in the innermost parts of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No; then shall he say, [g] Hold thy peace; for we may [h] not make mention of the name of Jehovah. 11 For, behold, Jehovah commandeth, and [3] the [i] great house shall be smitten with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? that ye have turned [k] justice into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood; 13 ye that rejoice in a [l] thing of nought, that say, Have we not [m] taken to us horns by our own strength? 14 For, behold, I will [n] raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith Jehovah, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the [o] entrance of Hamath unto the [o] brook of the Arabah.

7 Thus the Lord Jehovah [p] showed me: and, behold, he formed [q] locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. 2 And it came to pass that, when they [r] made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, [s] O Lord Jehovah, forgive, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob stand? for he is [t] small. 3 Jehovah [u] repented concerning this: It shall not be, saith Jehovah.

4 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: and, behold, the Lord Jehovah called to contend by [v] fire; and it devoured the great deep, and would have eaten up the [4] land. 5 Then said I, [x] O Lord Jehovah, cease, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob stand? for he is small. 6 Jehovah [y] repented concerning this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord Jehovah.

7 Thus he showed me: and, behold, the Lord stood [5] beside a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand. 8 And Jehovah said unto me, [z] Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a [a] plumbline in the midst of my people Israel; I will [b] not again pass by them any more; 9 and the [c] high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the [d] sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will [e] rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the [f] priest of [g] Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath [h] conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For thus Amos saith, [i] Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and [k] Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land. 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, [l] go, flee thou away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: 13 but [m] prophesy not again any more at Beth-el; for it is the king's [n] sanctuary, and it is a royal house.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I [6] was no prophet, neither [6] was I [7] a [o] prophet's son; but I [6] was a [p] herdsman, and a dresser of [q] sycomore-trees: 15 and [r] Jehovah took me from following the flock, and [s] Jehovah said unto me, Go, [t] prophesy unto my people Israel. 16 Now therefore hear thou the word of Jehovah: Thou sayest, [u] Prophesy not against Israel, and [v] drop not thy word against the house of Isaac; 17 therefore thus saith Jehovah: Thy [x] wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy [y] sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by [z] line; and thou thyself shalt die in a land that is [a] unclean, and Israel shall surely be [b] led away captive out of his land.

Israel's near End foreshadowed. Jehovah's Judgments unavoidable

8 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: and, behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 And he said, [a] Amos, what seest thou? And [b] I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said Jehovah unto me, The [c] end is come upon my people Israel; I will [d] not again pass by them any more. 3 And the [e] songs of the [1] temple shall be [f] wailings in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah: the [g] dead bodies shall be many; in every place [2] shall they cast them forth with silence.

4 Hear this, O ye that would swallow up the [h] needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail, 5 saying, When will the [i] new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? and the [k] sabbath, that we may [3] set forth wheat, making the [l] ephah small, and the shekel great, and [m] dealing falsely with balances of deceit; 6 that we may buy the [n] poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the refuse of the wheat? 7 Jehovah hath [o] sworn by the [p] excellency of Jacob, Surely I will [q] never forget any of their works. 8 Shall not the land [r] tremble for this, and every one [s] mourn that dwelleth therein? yea, it shall [t] rise up wholly like the River; and it shall be troubled and sink again, like the River of Egypt. 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will cause the [u] sun to go down at noon, and I will [v] darken the earth in the clear day. 10 And I will turn your [x] feasts into mourning, and all your [y] songs into lamentation; and I will bring [z] sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it [a] as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but [b] of hearing the words of Jehovah. 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to [c] seek the word of Jehovah, and shall not find it. 13 In that day shall the fair [d] virgins and the young men [e] faint for thirst. 14 They that swear by the [f] sin of Samaria, and say, As thy god, O [g] Dan, liveth; and, As the [4] way of [h] Beer-sheba liveth; they shall fall, and [i] never rise up again.

9 I saw the Lord standing [5] beside the [k] altar: and he said, Smite the [l] capitals, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will [m] slay the last of them with the sword: [6] there shall [n] not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. 2 Though they dig into [o] Sheol, thence shall my hand take them; and though they [p] climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down. 3 And though they hide themselves in the [q] top of Carmel, I will [r] search and take them out thence; and though they be [s] hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the [t] serpent, and it shall bite them. 4 And though they go into [u] captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the [v] sword, and it shall slay them: and I will [x] set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 For the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, is he that [y] toucheth the land and it melteth, and [z] all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall [z] rise up wholly like the River, and shall sink again, like the River of Egypt; 6 it is he that buildeth his [a] chambers in the heavens, and hath founded his vault upon the earth; he that [b] calleth for the waters of the sea, and [c] poureth them out upon the face of the earth; Jehovah is his name.

7 Are ye not as the children of the [d] Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith Jehovah. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of [e] Egypt, and the Philistines from [f] Caphtor, and the Syrians from [g] Kir? 8 Behold, the [h] eyes of the Lord Jehovah are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will [i] destroy it from off the face of the earth; save that

OBADIAH

Edom did nothing in a day of need

The Pride of Edom shall be humbled. Israel shall be exalted 1 The vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord Jehovah concerning [a] Edom: [b] We have heard tidings from Jehovah, and an [c] ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, [d] Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. 2 Behold, I have made thee [e] small among the nations: thou art greatly despised. 3 The [f] pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of [1] the [g] rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, [h] Who shall bring me down to the ground? 4 Though thou [i] mount on high as the eagle, and though thy nest be set among the [k] stars, I will bring thee down from thence, saith Jehovah.

5 If [l] thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou [m] cut off!) would they not steal only till they had enough? if grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some [n] gleaning grapes? 6 How are [2] the things of Esau [o] searched! how are his hidden treasures sought out! 7 All the [p] men of thy confederacy have [3] brought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at [q] peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; [4] they that eat thy [r] bread lay a [5] snare under thee: there is [s] no understanding [6] in him. 8 Shall I not in that day, saith Jehovah, [t] destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? 9 And thy [u] mighty men, O [v] Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be [x] cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter.

10 For the [y] violence done to thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. 11 In the day that thou [z] stoodest [7] on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his [8] substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and [a] cast lots upon Jerusalem, even [b] thou wast as one of them. 12 But [c] look not thou on the day of thy brother in [9] the day of his disaster, and [d] rejoice not over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither [e] speak proudly in the day of distress. 13 Enter not into the gate of my people in the [f] day of their calamity; yea, look not thou on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither [g] lay ye hands on their substance in the day of their calamity. 14 And [h] stand thou not in the crossway, to cut off those of his that escape; and deliver not up those of his that remain in the day of distress.

15 For the [i] day of Jehovah is near upon all the nations: [k] as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee; thy [10] [l] dealing shall return upon thine own head. 16 For as ye have [m] drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations [n] drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and [11] swallow down, and shall be as though they had not been.

17 But in mount [o] Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall [p] possess their possessions. 18 And the house of Jacob shall be a [q] fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall burn among them, and devour them; and there shall [r] not be any remaining to the house of

Jonah's Disobedience and Punishment. His Prayer

1 Now the word of Jehovah came unto [a] Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 Arise, go to [b] Nineveh, that [c] great city, and [d] cry against it; for their [e] wickedness is come up before me. 3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto [f] Tarshish [g] from the presence of Jehovah; and he went down to [h] Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah.

4 But [i] Jehovah [1] sent out a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto [k] his god; and they [l] cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. 6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, [m] call upon thy God, if so be that [n] God will think upon us, that we perish not. 7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us [o] cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the [p] lot fell upon Jonah. 8 Then said they unto him, [q] Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine [r] occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? 9 And he said unto them, I am a [s] Hebrew; and I [t] fear Jehovah, the [u] God of heaven, who hath [v] made the sea and the dry land. 10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done? For the men knew that he was [x] fleeing from the presence of Jehovah, because he had told them.

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous. 12 And he said unto them, [y] Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that [z] for my sake this great tempest is upon you. 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they [a] could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. 14 Wherefore they cried unto [b] Jehovah, and said, We beseech thee, O Jehovah, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood; for [c] thou, O Jehovah, hast done as it pleased thee. 15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea [d] ceased from its raging. 16 Then the men feared [e] Jehovah exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice unto Jehovah, and made [f] vows.

17 And [g] Jehovah prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the [h] belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 1 Then Jonah prayed unto Jehovah his God [i] out of the fish's belly. 2 And he said,

I [k] called [2] by reason of mine affliction unto Jehovah, And he answered me;
Out of the belly of [l] Sheol cried I,
And thou heardest my voice.
3 For thou didst [m] cast me into the depth, in the heart of the seas,

THE BOOK OF

MICAH

1 The word of Jehovah that came to [a] Micah the [b] Morashtite in the days of [c] Jotham, [d] Ahaz, and [e] Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you; [f] hearken, O earth, and [1] all that therein is: and let the Lord Jehovah be [g] witness [2] against you, the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For, behold, Jehovah [h] cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and [i] tread upon the high places of the earth. 4 And [k] the mountains shall be melted under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. 5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not [l] Samaria? and what are the [m] high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? 6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a [n] heap of the field, and as places for [o] planting vineyards; and I will [p] pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will [q] uncover the foundations thereof. 7 And all her [r] graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her [s] hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate; for of the hire of a harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of a harlot shall they return.

8 For this will I lament and wail; I will go [t] stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the [u] jackals, and a lamentation like the ostriches. 9 For her [v] wounds are incurable; for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the [x] gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. 10 [y] Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all: at [3] Beth-le-aphrah [4] have I rolled myself in the dust. 11 Pass away, O [5] inhabitant of Shaphir, in [z] nakedness and shame: the [5] inhabitant of [a] Zaanan is not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel shall take from you the [6] stay thereof. 12 For the [5] inhabitant of Maroth [7] [b] waiteth anxiously for good, because evil is come down from Jehovah unto the [c] gate of Jerusalem. 13 [d] Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O [5] inhabitant of [e] Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the [f] transgressions of Israel were found in thee. 14 Therefore shalt thou give a parting [g] gift to [h] Moresheth-gath: the houses of [i] Achzib shall be [8] a [k] deceitful thing unto the kings of Israel. 15 I will yet bring unto thee, O [5] inhabitant of [l] Mareshah, him that shall [m] possess thee: the glory of Israel shall come even unto [n] Adullam. 16 Make thee [o] bald, and cut off thy hair for the children of thy delight: enlarge thy baldness as the [9] eagle; for they are [p] gone into captivity from thee.

2 Woe to them that [q] devise iniquity and work evil upon their beds! [r] when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the [s] power of their hand. 2 And they [t] covet fields, and [u] seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they [v] oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. 3 Therefore thus saith Jehovah: Behold, against [x] this family do I [y] devise an evil, from which ye shall [z] not remove your necks, neither shall ye walk [a] haughtily; for it is an

[a]evil time. 4 In that day shall they [b]take up a parable against you, and [c]lament [1]with a doleful lamentation, and say, We are utterly [d]ruined: he changeth the portion of my people: how doth he [2]remove it from me! to the rebellious he [e]divideth our fields. 5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall [f]cast the line by lot in the assembly of Jehovah.

6 [3][g]Prophesy ye not, thus they prophesy. They shall [h]not prophesy [4]to these: [i]reproaches shall not depart. 7 [5]Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, Is the Spirit of Jehovah [6][k]straitened? are these his doings? Do not my words [l]do good to him that [m]walketh uprightly? 8 But [7]of late my people is risen up as an [n]enemy: ye [o]strip the robe from off the garment from them that pass by [p]securely as men averse from war. 9 The women of my people ye [q]cast out from their pleasant houses; from their young children ye take away my [r]glory for ever. 10 [s]Arise ye, and depart; for this is not [t]your resting-place; because of [u]uncleanness that destroyeth, even with a grievous destruction. 11 If a man walking [8]in a spirit of [v]falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of [x]wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of [y]this people.

12 I will surely [z]assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the [a]remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as a flock in the midst of their pasture; they shall make great noise by reason of the [b]multitude of men. 13 The breaker is gone up before them: they have broken forth and passed on to the gate, and are gone out thereat: and their king is passed on before them, and [c]Jehovah at the head of them.

3 And I said, [d]Hear, I pray you, ye heads of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel: is it not for you to [e]know justice? 2 ye who hate the good, and love the evil; who [f]pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones; 3 who also [g]eat the flesh of my people, and [h]flay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and [i]chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. 4 Then shall they [k]cry unto Jehovah, but he will not answer them; yea, he will [l]hide his face from them at that time, according as they have [m]wrought evil in their doings.

5 Thus saith Jehovah concerning the prophets that [n]make my people to err; that [o]bite with their teeth, and [p]cry, Peace; and whoso [q]putteth not into their mouths, they even [9]prepare war against him: 6 Therefore it shall be [r]night unto you, that ye shall have no vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the [s]sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them. 7 And the seers shall be [t]put to shame, and the [u]diviners confounded; yea, they shall all [v]cover their lips; for there is [x]no answer of God. 8 But as for me, [y]I am full of power [10]by the Spirit of Jehovah, and of judgment, and of might, to [z]declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye [a]heads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, that [b]abhor justice, and pervert all equity. 10 They [c]build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. 11 The heads thereof judge for [d]reward, and the [e]priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet they lean upon Jehovah, and say, [f]Is not Jehovah in the midst of us? no evil shall come upon us. 12 Therefore shall [g]Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and [h]Jerusalem shall become [i]heaps, and the [k]mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

4 [l]But in the [m]latter days it shall come to pass, that the [n]mountain of Jehovah's house shall be established [11]on the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and [o]peoples shall flow unto it. 2 And [p]many nations shall go and say,

[a] Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and [b] he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. For [c] out of Zion shall go forth [1] the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem; 3 and he will [d] judge [2] between [3] many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. 4 But they shall [e] sit every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and [f] none shall make them afraid: for the [g] mouth of Jehovah of hosts hath spoken it. 5 For all the peoples walk every one in the [h] name of his god; and we will walk in the name of [i] Jehovah our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith Jehovah, will I [k] assemble that which is [l] lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; 7 and I will make that which was lame a [m] remnant, and that which was cast far off a [n] strong nation: and [o] Jehovah will reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever. 8 And thou, O [p] tower of [4] the [q] flock, [5] the hill of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, yea, the [r] former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou [s] cry out aloud? Is there no king in thee, is thy [t] counsellor perished, that pangs have taken hold of thee as of a woman in travail? 10 [u] Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now shalt thou [v] go forth out of the city, and shalt dwell in the field, and shalt come even unto Babylon: [x] there shalt thou be rescued; [y] there will Jehovah redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies. 11 And now [z] many nations are assembled against thee, that say, Let her be [a] defiled, and let our eye [6] see our desire upon Zion. 12 But they [b] know not the thoughts of Jehovah, neither understand they his counsel; for he hath gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor. 13 Arise and [c] thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt [d] beat in pieces many peoples: and I will [e] devote their gain unto Jehovah, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

1 Now shalt thou [f] gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall [g] smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But [h] thou, Beth-lehem [i] Ephrathah, which art little to be among the [7] thousands of Judah, out of [k] thee shall one come forth unto me that is to be [l] ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are [m] from of old, [8] from everlasting. 3 Therefore will he [n] give them up, until the time that she who [o] travaileth hath brought forth: then the [p] residue of his brethren shall return [9] unto the children of Israel. 4 And he shall stand, and shall [q] feed his flock in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah his God: and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the [r] ends of the earth. 5 And [s] this man shall be our peace. When the [t] Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight [10] principal men. 6 And they shall [u] waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of [v] Nimrod in the entrances thereof: and he shall [x] deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our border. 7 And the [y] remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as [z] dew from Jehovah, as [a] showers upon the grass; that tarry not for man, nor wait for the sons of men. 8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, [b] as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, [c] treadeth down and [a] teareth in pieces, and there is [b] none to deliver. 9 Let thy hand be [c] lifted up above thine adversaries, and let all thine enemies be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah, that I will cut off thy [d] horses out of the midst of thee, and will destroy thy chariots: 11 and I will cut off the [e] cities of thy land, and will throw down all thy [f] strongholds: 12 and I will cut off [g] witchcrafts out of thy hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers: 13 and [h] I will cut off thy out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands; 14 and I will pluck up thine [i] Asherim out of the midst of thee; and I will destroy thy [2] cities. 15 And I will [k] execute vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations [3] which hearkened not.

6 Hear ye now what Jehovah saith: Arise, [l] contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. 2 Hear, O ye mountains, Jehovah's controversy, and ye enduring [m] foundations of the earth; for [n] Jehovah hath a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. 3 [o] O my people, [p] what have I done unto thee? and [q] wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. 4 For I [r] brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and [s] redeemed thee out of the house of bondage; and I sent before thee [t] Moses, Aaron, and [u] Miriam. 5 O my people, remember now what [v] Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; remember from [x] Shittim unto [y] Gilgal, that ye may know the [z] righteous acts of Jehovah.

6 [a] Wherewith shall I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with [b] burnt-offerings, with calves a year old? 7 will Jehovah be pleased with [c] thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my [d] first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
8 He hath [e] showed thee, O man, what is good; and [f] what doth Jehovah require of thee, but to [g] do justly, and to [h] love kindness, and to walk [i] humbly with thy God?

9 The voice of Jehovah crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom will [4] see thy name: hear ye the [k] rod, and who hath appointed it. 10 Are there yet treasures of [l] wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a [m] scant [5] measure that is abominable?
11 Shall I be pure with wicked [n] balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights? 12 For the rich men thereof are full of [o] violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken [p] lies, and their [q] tongue is deceitful in their mouth. 13 Therefore I also have smitten thee with a [r] grievous wound; I have made thee [s] desolate because of thy sins. 14 Thou shalt eat, but [t] not be satisfied; and thy [6] humiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt put away, but shalt [u] not save; and that which thou savest will I give up to the sword.
15 Thou shalt sow, but shalt [v] not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not anoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt [x] not drink the wine.
16 For the statutes of [y] Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of [z] Ahab, and ye [a] walk in their counsels; that I may make thee [7] a [b] desolation, and the inhabitants thereof a [c] hissing: and ye shall bear the [d] reproach of my people.

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the [e] grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; [8] my soul desireth the [f] first-ripe fig. 2 The godly man is [g] perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for [h] blood; they hunt every man his brother with a [i] net.
3 [9] Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it [k] diligently; the prince asketh, and the judge is ready for a [a]reward; and the great man, he uttereth the evil desire of his soul: thus they weave it together. 4 The best of them is as a [b]brier; [1]the most upright is worse than a [c]thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen, even thy [d]visitation, is come;

now shall be their [e]perplexity.
5 [f]Trust ye not in a neighbor; put ye not confidence in a [2]friend; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom. 6 For the [g]son dishonoreth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; [h]a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 But as for me, [3]I will [i]look unto Jehovah; I will [k]wait for the God of my salvation: my [l]God will hear me. 8 [m]Rejoice not against me, O [n]mine enemy: when I fall, I shall [o]arise; when I sit in darkness, Jehovah will be a [p]light unto me. 9 I will [q]bear the indignation of Jehovah, because I have sinned against him, until he [r]plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the [s]light, and I shall behold his [t]righteousness.
10 Then mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her who [u]said unto me, Where is Jehovah thy God? [v]Mine eyes shall see my desire upon her; now shall she be [x]trodden down as the mire of the streets. 11 [4]A day for [y]building thy walls! in that day shall the [5][z]decree be far removed.
12 In that day shall they [a]come unto thee from Assyria and the cities of [6]Egypt, and from [6]Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.
13 Yet shall the land be [b]desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the [c]fruit of their doings.

14 [7][d]Feed thy people with thy [e]rod, the flock of thy heritage, which dwell solitarily, in the forest in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in [f]Bashan and Gilead, [g]as in the days of old. 15 As in the days of thy coming forth out of the land of Egypt will I show unto them [h]marvellous things.
16 The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; they shall [i]lay their hand upon their mouth; their ears shall be deaf.
17 They shall [k]lick the dust like a serpent; like [l]crawling things of the earth they shall come [m]trembling out of their close places; they shall come with [n]fear unto Jehovah our God, and shall be afraid because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that [o]pardoneth iniquity, and passeth over the transgression of the [p]remnant of his heritage? he [q]retaineth not his anger for ever, because he [r]delighteth in lovingkindness. 19 He will again have compassion upon us; [s]he will [8]tread our iniquities under foot; and thou wilt [t]cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. 20 [9]Thou wilt [10]perform the [u]truth to Jacob, and the lovingkindness to Abraham, which thou hast [v]sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

THE BOOK OF

NAHUM

Goodness and Severity of Jehovah. The Overthrow of Nineveh decreed 1 The [1][a]burden of [b]Nineveh.

The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
2 [c]Jehovah is a jealous God and avengeth; Jehovah [d]avengeth and is full of wrath; Jehovah taketh [e]vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.
3 Jehovah is [f]slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means clear the guilty: Jehovah hath his way in the [g]whirlwind and in the storm, and the [h]clouds are the dust of his feet. 4 He [i]rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: [k]Bashan languisheth, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languisheth. 5 The mountains [l]quake at him, and the hills [m]melt; and the earth is [n]upheaved at his presence, yea, the [o]world, and all that dwell therein.
6 Who can stand before his [p]indignation? and who can abide in the [q]fierceness of his anger? his [r]wrath is poured out like fire, and the [s]rocks are broken asunder by him.
7 Jehovah is [t]good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that take refuge in him. 8 But with an [u]overrunning flood he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into [v]darkness.

9 What do ye [x]devise against Jehovah? he will make a [y]full end; affliction shall not rise up the second time. 10 For entangled like [z]thorns, and [a]drunken as with their drink, they are [b]consumed [2]utterly as dry stubble.
11 There is one gone forth out of thee, that [c]deviseth evil against Jehovah, [3]that [d]counselleth [4]wickedness.
12 Thus saith Jehovah: Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so shall they be [e]cut down, and he shall pass away. [5]Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee [f]no more. 13 And now will I [g]break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And Jehovah hath given commandment concerning thee, that [h]no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the [i]graven image and the molten image; I will make thy [k]grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold, [l]upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! Isa. 52 [m]Keep thy feasts, O Judah, perform thy vows; for [6]the [n]wicked one shall [o]no more pass through thee; he is [p]utterly cut off.

2 He that [q]dasheth in pieces is come up against thee: [r]keep the fortress, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. 2 For Jehovah restoreth the [s]excellency of Jacob, [t]as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have [u]emptied them out, and [v]destroyed their vine branches. 3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in [x]scarlet: the chariots [7]flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the [8]cypress [y]spears are brandished. 4 The [z]chariots rage in the streets; they rush to and fro in the broad ways: the appearance of them is like torches; they [a]run like the lightnings. 5 He remembereth his [b]nobles: they [c]stumble in their march; they make haste to the wall thereof, and the mantelet is prepared.
6 The [d]gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved.
7 [9]And it is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her handmaids [10][e]moan as with the voice of doves, [f]beating upon their [11]breasts.

8 But [g]Nineveh hath been [12]from they flee away. Stand, stand, they cry; but [a]none [1]looketh back. 9 [b]Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; for there is no end of the store, the [2]glory of all goodly furniture. 10 She is [c]empty, and void, and waste; and the [d]heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and anguish is in all loins, and the [e]faces of them all are waxed pale. 11 Where is the [f]den of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid? 12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and [g]filled his caves with prey, and his dens with ravin. 13 Behold, [h]I am against thee, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will [i]burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will [k]cut off thy prey from the earth, and the [l]voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

3 [m]Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and rapine; the prey departeth not. 2 The [n]noise of the whip, and the noise of the rattling of wheels, and prancing horses, and bounding chariots, 3 the horseman [3]mounting, and the flashing sword, and the [o]glittering spear, and a [p]multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is [q]no end of the bodies; they stumble upon their bodies;—4 because of the [r]multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favored harlot, the [s]mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth [t]nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts. 5 Behold, [u]I am against thee, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will [v]uncover thy skirts [4]upon thy face; and I will [x]show the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame. 6 And I will [y]cast abominable filth upon thee, and [z]make thee vile, and will set thee as a [a]gazing-stock. 7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall [b]flee from thee, and say, [c]Nineveh is laid waste: [d]who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than [e]No-amon, that was situate among the [5]rivers, that had the [f]waters round about her; whose rampart was [6]the sea, and her wall was of the sea? 9 [g]Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; [h]Put and [i]Lubim were thy helpers. 10 Yet was she [k]carried away, she went into captivity; her [l]young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets; and they [m]cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. 11 Thou also shalt be [n]drunken; thou shalt be [o]hid; thou also shalt seek [7]a stronghold because of the enemy. 12 All thy fortresses shall be like fig-trees with the [p]first-ripe figs: if they be shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. 13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are [q]women; the gates of thy land are set wide [r]open unto thine enemies: the fire hath devoured thy bars. 14 [s]Draw thee water for the siege; [t]strengthen thy fortresses; go into the clay, and tread the mortar; [8]make strong the brickkiln. 15 There shall the [u]fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off; it shall devour thee like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the [v]canker-worm; make thyself many as the locust. 16 Thou hast multiplied thy [x]merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm [9]ravageth, and fleeth away. 17 Thy [x]princes are as the locusts, and thy [10][y]marshals as the swarms of grasshoppers, which encamp in the [11]hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. 18 Thy shepherds [z]slumber, O king of Assyria; thy [a]nobles are at rest; thy people are [b]scattered upon the mountains, and there is none to gather them. 19 There is [c]no assuaging of thy hurt; thy [d]wound is grievous: all that hear the report of thee [e]clap their hands over thee; for upon whom hath not thy [f]wickedness passed continually?

---

1 The [1][a]burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O Jehovah, [b]how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt [c]not save. 3 Why dost thou show me [d]iniquity, and [2]look upon perverseness? for [e]destruction and violence are before me; and there is [f]strife, and contention riseth up. 4 Therefore the [g]law is slacked, and justice [3]doth never go forth; for the wicked doth [h]compass about the righteous; therefore justice goeth forth [i]perverted.

5 [k]Behold ye [l]among the nations, and look, and [m]wonder marvellously; for [4]I am working a [n]work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. 6 For, lo, I [o]raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to [p]possess dwelling-places that are not theirs. 7 [5]They are [q]terrible and dreadful; their [r]judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their [s]horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the [t]evening wolves; and their horsemen [6]press proudly on: yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an [u]eagle that hasteth to devour. 9 They come all of them for violence; [7]the [v]set of their faces is [8]forwards; and they [x]gather captives as the sand. 10 [9]Yea, he [y]scoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision unto him; he [z]derideth every stronghold; for he [a]heapeth up dust, and taketh it. 11 [10]Then shall he sweep by as a [b]wind, and shall [11]pass over, and be [c]guilty, even he whose [d]might is his god.

12 Art not thou from [e]everlasting, O Jehovah my God, my Holy One? we shall not die. O Jehovah, thou hast [f]ordained him for judgment; and thou, O [g]Rock, hast established him for correction. 13 Thou that art of [h]purer eyes than to behold evil, and that canst not look on perverseness, wherefore [i]lookest thou upon them that deal [k]treacherously, and [l]holdest thy peace when the wicked [m]swalloweth up the man that is more righteous than he; 14 and makest men [n]as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? 15 He [o]taketh up all of them with the angle, he [p]catcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag: therefore he rejoiceth and is glad. 16 Therefore he [q]sacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by [r]them his portion is fat, and his food [12]plenteous. 17 Shall he therefore empty his [s]net, and spare not to [t]slay the nations continually?

2 I will [u]stand upon my watch, and set me upon the [13]tower, and will [v]look forth to see [x]what he will speak [14]with me, and what I shall answer concerning my complaint. 2 And Jehovah answered me, and said, [y]Write the vision, and make it plain upon tablets, that he may run that readeth it. 3 For the vision is yet for the [z]appointed time, and it [15]hasteth toward the end, and shall [a]not lie: though it tarry, [b]wait for it; because it will [c]surely come, it will not delay.

4 Behold, his soul is [d]puffed up, it is not [16]upright in him; but the [e]righteous shall live [17]by his faith. 5 [18]Yea, moreover, [f]wine is treacherous, a [g]haughty man, Woes pronounced on the Chaldeans. God's Deliverance of his ancient People

[1] that [a] keepeth not at home; who [b] enlargeth his desire [c] as Sheol, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but [d] gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all peoples. 6 Shall not all these [e] take up a parable against him, and a taunting [2] proverb against him, and say, [f] Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that ladeth himself with [g] pledges! 7 Shall they not [h] rise up suddenly that shall [3] bite thee, and awake that shall [4] vex thee, and thou shalt be for booty unto them? 8 Because thou hast [i] plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee, [k] because of men's blood, and for the [l] violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that getteth an [m] evil gain for his house, that he may [n] set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 Thou hast devised [o] shame to thy house, by cutting off many peoples, and hast [p] sinned against thy soul. 11 For the [q] stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him that [r] buildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, is it not of Jehovah of hosts that the peoples [s] labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for [s] vanity? 14 For the earth shall be [t] filled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor [u] drink, to thee that [5] addest thy [6] venom, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! 16 Thou art filled with [v] shame, and not glory: [x] drink thou also, and [7] be as one uncircumcised; the [y] cup of Jehovah's right hand shall come round unto thee, and [z] foul shame shall be upon thy glory. 17 For the [a] violence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of the beasts, which made them afraid; [b] because of men's blood, and for the [c] violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

18 What [d] profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, even the [e] teacher of lies, that he that fashioneth its form [f] trusteth therein, to make dumb idols? 19 Woe unto him that [g] saith to the wood, [h] Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise! Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with [i] gold and silver, and there is [k] no breath at all in the midst of it. 20 But [l] Jehovah is in his holy temple: [8] let all the earth [m] keep silence before him.

A [n] prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, ~~set to [o] Shigionoth.~~ for adversity. cf. Ps. 77 15-20

2 O Jehovah, I have [p] heard [9] the report of thee, and [10] am [q] afraid: O Jehovah, [r] revive [s] thy work in the midst of the years;
In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath remember [t] mercy.
3 God [11] came from [u] Teman, And the Holy One from mount [v] Paran. [Selah His [x] glory covered the heavens, And the [y] earth was full of his praise.
4 And his [z] brightness was as the light;
He had [12] rays coming forth [13] from his hand;
And there was the hiding of his [a] power.
5 Before him went the [b] pestilence, And [14] [c] fiery bolts went forth at his feet.
6 He stood, and [15] measured the earth; He beheld, and [d] drove asunder the nations;
And the eternal [e] mountains were scattered;
The everlasting hills did bow; [16] His goings were as [f] of old.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in [g] affliction;
The curtains of the land of [h] Midian did tremble.
8 Was Jehovah displeased with the [i] rivers?
Was thine anger against the rivers, Or thy wrath against the [k] sea,

That thou didst [a] ride upon thy [b] horses, Upon thy [c] chariots of salvation?
9 Thy [d] bow was made quite bare; [1] The [e] oaths to the tribes were a sure word. [Selah Thou didst [f] cleave the earth with rivers.
10 The [g] mountains saw thee, and [2] were afraid; The tempest of [h] waters passed by;
The deep [i] uttered its voice,
And lifted up its hands on high.
11 The [k] sun and moon stood still in their habitation, At the [l] light of thine arrows as they went,
At the shining of thy glittering spear.
12 Thou didst [m] march through the land in indignation; Thou didst [n] thresh the nations in anger.
13 Thou [3] wentest forth for the [o] salvation of thy people, [4] For the salvation of thine [p] anointed; [5] Thou [6] woundedst the [q] head out of the house of the wicked man, Laying bare the [r] foundation even unto the neck. [Selah 14 Thou [7] didst pierce with his [s] own staves the head of his [8] warriors: They came as a [t] whirlwind to scatter me;
Their rejoicing was as to [u] devour the poor secretly.
15 Thou [9] didst [v] tread the sea with thy horses, The [10] [x] heap of mighty waters.
16 I heard, and my body [y] trembled, My lips quivered at the voice; Rottenness entereth into my [z] bones, and I tremble in my place; Because I must [a] wait quietly for the day of trouble, [11] For the [b] coming up of the people that invadeth us.
17 For though the [c] fig-tree shall not flourish, Neither shall fruit be in the [d] vines;
The labor of the [e] olive shall fail,
And the fields shall yield no food;
The [f] flock shall be cut off from the fold,
And there shall be [g] no herd in the stalls: 18 Yet I will [h] rejoice in Jehovah, I will [i] joy in the [k] God of my salvation.
19 Jehovah, the Lord, is my [l] strength;
And he maketh my feet like hinds' feet,
And will make me to walk upon my [m] high places.

Jehovah's Day of Wrath coming upon Judah

1 The word of Jehovah which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of [a] Josiah the son of [b] Amon, king of Judah.

2 I will utterly [c] consume all things from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. 3 I will consume [d] man and beast; I will consume the [e] birds of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, and the [f] stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. 4 And I will [g] stretch out my hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will [h] cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the [i] Chemarim with the priests; 5 and them that worship the [k] host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship, that [l] swear to Jehovah and swear by [1] [m] Malcam; 6 and them that are [n] turned back from following Jehovah; and those that have [o] not sought Jehovah, nor inquired after him.

7 [p] Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord Jehovah; for the [q] day of Jehovah is at hand: for Jehovah hath prepared a [r] sacrifice, he hath [s] consecrated his guests. 8 And it shall come to pass in the day of Jehovah's sacrifice, that I will [2] [t] punish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with [u] foreign apparel. 9 And in that day I will [2] punish all those that leap over the threshold, that fill their master's house with [v] violence and deceit. 10 And in that day, saith Jehovah, there shall be the noise of a [x] cry from the [y] fish gate, and a wailing from the [3] [z] second quarter, and a great crashing from the [a] hills. 11 Wail, ye inhabitants of [4] Maktesh; for all [5] the people of [b] Canaan are undone; all they that were laden with [c] silver are cut off. 12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will [d] search Jerusalem with lamps; and I will [2] punish the men that are [6] [e] settled on their lees, that say in their heart, Jehovah will [f] not do good, neither will he do evil. 13 And their wealth shall become a [g] spoil, and their houses a desolation: yea, [h] they shall build houses, but shall not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the wine thereof.

14 The [i] great [k] day of Jehovah is near, it is near and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of Jehovah; the mighty man [l] crieth there bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of [m] trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of [n] darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 a day of the [o] trumpet and alarm, against the [p] fortified cities, and against the high [7] battlements. 17 And I will bring [q] distress upon men, that they shall walk [r] like blind men, because they have sinned against Jehovah; and their [s] blood shall be poured out as dust, and their [t] flesh as dung. 18 [u] Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath; but the whole land shall be [v] devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will [x] make an end, yea, a [8] terrible end, of all them that dwell in the land.

4 For [i]Gaza shall be forsaken, and [i]Ashkelon a desolation; they shall drive out [i]Ashdod at noonday, and [i]Ekron shall be rooted up. 5 Woe unto the inhabitants of [2]the sea-coast, the nation of the [k]Cherethites! The word of Jehovah is [l]against you, O [m]Canaan, the land of the Philistines; I will [n]destroy thee, that there shall be [o]no inhabitant. 6 And the sea-coast shall be [p]pastures, with [3]cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. 7 And the coast shall be for the [q]remnant of the house of Judah; they shall [r]feed their flocks thereupon; in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening; for Jehovah their God will [s]visit them, and [4][t]bring back their captivity.

8 I have heard the [u]reproach of Moab, and the [v]revilings of the children of Ammon, wherewith they have reproached my people, and [x]magnified themselves against their border. 9 Therefore as I live, saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely [y]Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of [z]Ammon as [a]Gomorrah, a possession of [5]nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall [b]make a prey of them, and the remnant of my nation shall inherit them. 10 This shall they have for their [c]pride, because they have [d]reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Jehovah of hosts. 11 Jehovah will be [e]terrible unto them; for he will famish all the [f]gods of the earth; and [g]men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the [6][h]isles of the nations.

12 Ye [i]Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword. 13 And he will [k]stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy [l]Assyria, and will make [m]Nineveh a desolation, and dry like the wilderness. 14 And herds shall lie down in the midst of her, [7]all the beasts of the nations: both the [n]pelican and the porcupine shall lodge in the capitals thereof; their voice shall sing in the windows; [8]desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he hath laid bare the cedar-work. 15 This is the [o]joyous city that [p]dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, [q]I am, and there is none besides me: how is she become a [r]desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! [s]every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

3 Woe to her that is [t]rebellious and [u]polluted! to the [v]oppressing city! 2 She [x]obeyed not the voice; she [y]received not [9]correction; she [z]trusted not in Jehovah; she [a]drew not near to her God. 3 Her [b]princes in the midst of her are roaring lions; her judges are [c]evening wolves; they [10]leave nothing till the morrow. 4 Her prophets are [d]light and treacherous persons; her [e]priests have profaned the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. 5 Jehovah [f]in the midst of her is [g]righteous; he will [h]not do iniquity; [11][i]every morning doth he bring his justice to light, he faileth not; but the unjust [k]knoweth no shame. 6 I have cut off nations; their [12][l]battlements are desolate; I have made their streets [m]waste, so that none passeth by; their [n]cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is [o]no inhabitant. 7 I said, Only fear thou me; [p]receive [9]correction; so her dwelling shall [q]not be cut off, [13]according to all that I have appointed concerning her: but they rose early and [r]corrupted all their doings.

8 Therefore [s]wait ye for me, saith Jehovah, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my [14][t]determination is to [u]gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them

Restoration and Security of Israel mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for [a]all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the peoples a [b]pure [1]language, that they may [c]all call upon the name of Jehovah, to serve him with one [2]consent. 10 From beyond the rivers of [d]Ethiopia [3]my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall [e]bring mine offering.
11 In that day shalt thou not be [f]put to shame for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of thee [4]thy [g]proudly exulting ones, and thou shalt no more be haughty in my [h]holy mountain.
12 But I will leave in the midst of thee an [i]afflicted and poor people, and they shall [k]take refuge in the name of Jehovah.
13 The [l]remnant of Israel shall [m]not do iniquity, [n]nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth; for they shall [o]feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.
14 Sing, O daughter of Zion; [p]shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. 15 Jehovah hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy:
the King of Israel, even Jehovah, is [q]in the midst of thee; thou shalt [r]not [5]fear evil any more.
16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, [s]Fear thou not; [6]O Zion, let not thy hands be slack.
17 Jehovah thy God is [t]in the midst of thee, a [u]mighty one who will save; he will [v]rejoice over thee with joy; he will [7]rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing. 18 [8]I will gather them that [x]sorrow for the solemn assembly, who were of thee; to whom the burden upon [9]her was a reproach.
19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all them that [y]afflict thee; and I will save that which is [z]lame, and gather that which was driven away; and I will make them a [a]praise and a name, whose [b]shame hath been in all the earth. 20 At that time will I [c]bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will make you a [d]name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I [10][e]bring back your captivity before your eyes, saith Jehovah.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

Haggai exhorts the People to build the Temple. Zerubbabel and Joshua obey. The Builders encouraged

1 In the [a]second year of Darius the king, in the [b]sixth month, in the [c]first day of the month, came the word of Jehovah by [d]Haggai the prophet unto [e]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [f]governor of Judah, and to [g]Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 Thus speaketh Jehovah of hosts, saying, This people say, [1]It is not the time for us to come, the time for Jehovah's house to be built. 3 Then came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4 Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your ceiled [h]houses, while this house [i]lieth waste? 5 Now therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts: [2]Consider your ways. 6 Ye have [k]sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: [2]Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the [3][l]mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will [m]take pleasure in it, and I will be [n]glorified, saith Jehovah. 9 Ye [o]looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did [4][p]blow upon it. Why? saith Jehovah of hosts. Because of my house that [q]lieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house. 10 Therefore [5]for your sake the [r]heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholdeth its fruit. 11 And I called for a [s]drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon [t]men, and upon cattle, and upon [u]all the labor of the hands.

12 Then [v]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and [v]Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the [x]remnant of the people, [y]obeyed the voice of Jehovah their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as Jehovah their God had [z]sent him; and the people did [a]fear before Jehovah. 13 Then spake Haggai Jehovah's [b]messenger in Jehovah's message unto the people, saying, [c]I am with you, saith Jehovah. 14 And [d]Jehovah stirred up the spirit of [e]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [e]governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the [f]remnant of the people; and they came and did [g]work on the house of Jehovah of hosts, their God, 15 in the [h]four and twentieth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the [i]seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of Jehovah by [k]Haggai the prophet, saying, 2 Speak now to [k]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [k]governor of Judah, and to [k]Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the [l]remnant of the people, saying, 3 Who is [m]left among you that saw this house in its [n]former glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes as nothing? 4 Yet now [o]be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith Jehovah; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith Jehovah, and work: for [p]I am with you, saith Jehovah of hosts, 5 [1] according to the word that I [a] covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, and my [b] Spirit [2] abode among you: [c] fear ye not. 6 For thus saith Jehovah of hosts: [d] Yet once, it is a [e] little while, and I will [f] shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; 7 and I will shake [g] all nations; and [3] the [h] precious things of all nations shall come; and I will [i] fill this house with glory, saith Jehovah of hosts. 8 The [k] silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith Jehovah of hosts. 9 The latter [l] glory of this house shall be greater than the [m] former, saith Jehovah of hosts; and in this place will I give [n] peace, saith Jehovah of hosts.

10 In the [o] four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: [p] Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 If one bear [q] holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, shall it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No. 13 Then said Haggai, [r] If one that is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean?
And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.
14 Then answered Haggai and said, [s] So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith Jehovah; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. 15 And now, I pray you, [t] consider from this day and backward, before a [u] stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of Jehovah: 16 [4] through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but [v] ten; when one came to the winevat to draw out fifty vessels, there were but twenty. 17 I smote you with [x] blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the work of your hands; yet ye [y] turned not to me, saith Jehovah. 18 [z] Consider, I pray you, from this day and backward, from the [a] four and twentieth day of the ninth month, since the day that the [b] foundation of Jehovah's temple was laid, consider it. 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree have not brought forth; from this day will I [c] bless you.

20 And the word of Jehovah came the second time unto Haggai in the [d] four and twentieth day of the month, saying, 21 Speak to [e] Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will [f] shake the heavens and the earth; 22 and I will overthrow the [g] throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the [h] strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the [i] chariots, and those that ride in them; and the [k] horses and their riders shall come down, [l] every one by the sword of his brother. 23 In that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith Jehovah, and will make thee [m] as a signet; for [n] I have chosen thee, saith Jehovah of hosts.

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

Jehovah remonstrates with the People. Zechariah's Vision of Horses. Promise of Mercy to Zion

1 In the [a] eighth month, in the second year of [a] Darius, came the word of Jehovah unto [b] Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of [c] Iddo, the prophet, saying, 2 Jehovah was [d] sore displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: [e] Return unto me, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of hosts. 4 Be ye not [f] as your fathers, unto whom the [g] former prophets cried, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, [h] Return ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did [i] not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith Jehovah. 5 Your [k] fathers, where are they? and the [l] prophets, do they live for ever? 6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not [m] overtake your fathers? and they turned and said, [n] Like as Jehovah of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the [o] eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of [o] Darius, came the word of Jehovah unto [o] Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8 I saw in the night, and, behold, a man riding upon a [p] red horse, and he stood among the [q] myrtle-trees that were in the [1] bottom; and behind him there were horses, [r] red, sorrel, and white. 9 Then said I, O [s] my lord, what are these? And the [t] angel that talked with me said unto me, I will show thee what these are. 10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom Jehovah hath sent to [u] walk to and fro through the earth. 11 And they answered the angel of Jehovah that [v] stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, [x] all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the angel of Jehovah answered and said, O Jehovah of hosts, [y] how long wilt thou not [z] have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had [a] indignation these [b] threescore and ten years? 13 And Jehovah answered the [c] angel that talked with me with good words, even [d] comfortable words. 14 So the angel that talked with me said unto me, [e] Cry thou, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I am [f] jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15 And I am very [g] sore displeased with the nations that are [h] at ease; for I was but a little displeased, and they [2][i] helped forward the affliction. 16 Therefore thus saith Jehovah: I am [k] returned to Jerusalem with mercies; my [l] house shall be built in it, saith Jehovah of hosts, and a [m] line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem. 17 Cry yet again, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: My [n] cities [3] shall yet overflow with prosperity; and Jehovah shall yet [o] comfort Zion, and shall yet [p] choose Jerusalem.

18 And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns. 19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the [q] horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And Jehovah showed me four [a]smiths. 21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the [b]horns which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head; but these are come to terrify them, to [c]cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.

2 And I [d]lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, a man with a [e]measuring line in his hand. 2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To [f]measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. 3 And, behold, the [g]angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, 4 and said unto him, Run, speak to this [h]young man, saying, [i]Jerusalem shall [1]be inhabited as villages [k]without walls, by reason of the [l]multitude of men and cattle therein. 5 For I, saith Jehovah, will be unto her a [m]wall of fire round about, and I will be the [n]glory in the midst of her.

6 Ho, ho, [o]flee from the land of the north, saith Jehovah; for I have [p]spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, saith Jehovah. 7 Ho Zion, [q]escape, thou that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. 8 For thus saith Jehovah of hosts: [2]After [r]glory hath he sent me unto the nations which plundered you; for he that toucheth you toucheth the [s]apple of his eye. 9 For, behold, I will [t]shake my hand over them, and they shall be a [u]spoil to those that served them; and ye shall [v]know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me. 10 [x]Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for, lo, I come, and I will [y]dwell in the midst of thee, saith Jehovah. 11 And [z]many nations shall join themselves to Jehovah in that day, and shall be my people; and I will [a]dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt [b]know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me unto thee. 12 And Jehovah shall [c]inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and shall yet [d]choose Jerusalem. 13 [e]Be silent, all flesh, before Jehovah; for he is [f]waked up out of his holy habitation.

3 And he showed me [g]Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Jehovah, and [3][h]Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. 2 And Jehovah said unto Satan, [i]Jehovah rebuke thee, O Satan; yea, Jehovah that hath [k]chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a [l]brand plucked out of the fire? 3 Now Joshua was clothed with [m]filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. 4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, [n]Take the filthy garments from off him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have [o]caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will [p]clothe thee with rich apparel. 5 And I said, Let them set a clean [4][q]mitre upon his head. So they set a clean [4]mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of Jehovah was standing by.

6 And the angel of Jehovah protested unto Joshua, saying, 7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: If thou wilt [r]walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou also shalt [s]judge my house, and shalt also keep my [t]courts, and I will give thee [5]a place of access among these that stand by. 8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee; for they are men that are a [6][u]sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the [7][v]Branch. 9 For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; upon one stone are [x]seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will [y]remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 In that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, shall ye invite every man his neighbor under the [z]vine and under the fig-tree.

gold, with its bowl upon the top of it, and its [a]seven lamps thereon; [1]there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are upon the top thereof; 3 and [b]two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. 4 And I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, [c]my lord? 5 Then the [d]angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, [e]Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. 6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of Jehovah unto [f]Zerubbabel, saying, [g]Not by [2]might, nor by power, but by my [h]Spirit, saith Jehovah of hosts. 7 Who art thou, O great [i]mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain; and he shall bring forth the [k]top stone with [l]shoutings of Grace, grace, unto it. 8 Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 9 The hands of Zerubbabel have [m]laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also [n]finish it; and thou shalt know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me unto you. 10 For who hath despised the day of [o]small things? for these [p]seven shall rejoice, and shall see the [q]plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel; these are the eyes of Jehovah, which [r]run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these [s]two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? 12 And I answered the second time, and said unto him, What are these two olive branches, [3]which are beside the two golden spouts, that empty [4]the golden oil out of themselves? 13 And he answered me and said, [t]Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, [u]my lord. 14 Then said he, These are the two [v]anointed ones, that [x]stand by the [y]Lord of the whole earth.

5 Then again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, a flying [z]roll. 2 And he said unto me, [a]What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. 3 Then said he unto me, This is the [b]curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole land: for every one that [c]stealeth shall be cut off [5]on the one side according to it; and every one that [d]sweareth shall be cut off [5]on the other side according to it. 4 I will [e]cause it to go forth, saith Jehovah of hosts, and it shall [f]enter into the house of the [g]thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name; and it shall abide in the midst of his house, and shall [h]consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 Then the [i]angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, [k]Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. 6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the [l]ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their [6]appearance in all the land; 7 (and, behold, there was lifted up a [7]talent of lead;) and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah. 8 And he said, This is [m]Wickedness: and he cast her down into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the [n]weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. 9 Then [o]lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there came forth two women, and the wind was in their wings; now they had wings like the wings of a [p]stork; and they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven. 10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? 11 And he said unto me, To build her a house in the land of [q]Shinar: and when it is [8]prepared, she shall be set there [9]in her own place.

6 And again I [r]lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there came [s]four chariots out from between [10]two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. 2 In the first chariot were [t]red horses; and in the second chariot black horses; 3 and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grizzled strong horses. 4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, [a]What are these, my lord? 5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the [b]four [1]winds of heaven, which go forth from [2]standing before the Lord of all the earth. 6 The chariot wherein are the black horses goeth forth toward the [c]north country; and the white went forth after them; and the grizzled went forth toward the [d]south country. 7 And the [3]strong went forth, and sought to go that they might [e]walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. 8 Then cried he to me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, they that go toward the north country have [f]quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 And the [g]word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 10 [h]Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, whither they are come from Babylon; 11 yea, take of them silver and gold, and make [4][i]crowns, and set them upon the head of [k]Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; 12 and speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh Jehovah of hosts, saying, Behold, the man [5]whose name is the [6][l]Branch: and he shall [7][m]grow up out of his place; and he shall [n]build the temple of Jehovah; 13 even he shall build the temple of Jehovah; and he shall [o]bear the glory, and shall sit and [p]rule upon his throne; and [8]he shall be a [q]priest upon his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. 14 And the [9][r]crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and [10]to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of Jehovah. 15 And [s]they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of Jehovah; and ye shall [t]know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently [u]obey the voice of Jehovah your God.

7 And it came to pass in the [v]fourth year of king Darius, that the word of Jehovah came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in [x]Chislev. 2 [11]Now they of Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to [y]entreat the favor of Jehovah, 3 and to speak unto the [z]priests of the house of Jehovah of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the [a]fifth month, [b]separating myself, as I have done these so many years? 4 Then came the word of Jehovah of hosts unto me, saying, 5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye [c]fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the [d]seventh month, even these seventy years, did ye at all fast unto [e]me, even to me? 6 And when ye eat, and when ye drink, [12]do not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? 7 Should ye not hear the words which Jehovah [f]cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in [g]prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, and the [h]South and the lowland were inhabited?

8 And the word of Jehovah came unto Zechariah, saying, 9 Thus hath Jehovah of hosts spoken, saying, [i]Execute true judgment, and show [k]kindness and compassion every man to his brother; 10 and [l]oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the sojourner, nor the poor; and [m]let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart. 11 But they [n]refused to hearken, and [13][o]pulled away the shoulder, and [14][p]stopped their ears, that they might not hear. 12 Yea, they made their [q]hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the [r]words which Jehovah of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former [s]prophets: therefore there came great [t]wrath from Jehovah of hosts. 13 And it is come to pass, that, as [u]he cried, and they would not hear, so [v]they shall cry, and I will not hear, said Jehovah of hosts; 14 but I will [x]scatter them with a [y]whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was [a] desolate after them, so that [b] no man passed through nor returned: for they [c] laid the [1] pleasant land desolate.

8 And the word of Jehovah of hosts came to me, saying, 2 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I am [d] jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath. 3 Thus saith Jehovah: I am [e] returned unto Zion, and will [f] dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called The city of [g] truth; and the mountain of Jehovah of hosts, The [h] holy mountain. 4 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: There shall yet [i] old men and old women [2] dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand [3] for very age. 5 And the streets of the city shall be full of [k] boys and girls playing in the streets thereof. 6 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: If it be [l] marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in [m] mine eyes? saith Jehovah of hosts. 7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the [n] east country, and from the west country; 8 and I will [o] bring them, and they shall [p] dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be [q] my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

Children's Day text.

9 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Let your hands be [r] strong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the [s] prophets that were in the day that the foundation of the house of Jehovah of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. 10 For before those days there was [t] no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there [u] any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the adversary: for [v] I set all men every one against his neighbor. 11 But now I will [x] not be unto the remnant of this people as in the former days, saith Jehovah of hosts. 12 For there shall be the [y] seed of peace; the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their [z] dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit [a] all these things. 13 And it shall come to pass that, as ye were a [b] curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ye shall be a [c] blessing: fear not, but let your [d] hands be strong.

14 For thus saith Jehovah of hosts: As I [e] thought to do evil unto you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I [f] repented not; 15 so again have I thought in these days to [g] do good unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: [h] fear ye not. 16 These are the things that ye shall do: Speak ye every man the [i] truth with his neighbor; [4] [k] execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates; 17 and let none of you [l] devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor; and love no [m] false oath: for all these are things that I [n] hate, saith Jehovah.

18 And the word of Jehovah of hosts came unto me, saying, 19 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: The [o] fast of the [p] fourth month, and the fast of the [q] fifth, and the fast of the [r] seventh, and the fast of the [s] tenth, shall be to the house of Judah [t] joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore [u] love truth and peace. 20 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come [v] peoples, and the inhabitants of [5] many cities; 21 and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to [x] entreat the favor of Jehovah, and to seek Jehovah of hosts: I will go also. 22 Yea, [y] many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek Jehovah of hosts in Jerusalem, and to [z] entreat the favor of Jehovah. 23 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall [a] take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

9 The [1] burden of the word of Jehovah upon the land of Hadrach, and [a] Damascus shall be its resting-place; (for [2] the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Jehovah;) 2 and [b] Hamath, also, which bordereth thereon; [c] Tyre and [d] Sidon, [3] because they are [c] very wise. 3 And Tyre did build herself a [e] stronghold, and [f] heaped up silver as the dust, and fine [g] gold as the mire of the streets. 4 Behold, the Lord will [h] dispossess her, and he will smite [4] her power in the sea; and she shall be [i] devoured with fire. 5 [k] Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; [k] Gaza also, and shall be sore pained; and [k] Ekron, for her expectation shall be put to shame; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. 6 And [5] a bastard shall [6] dwell in [k] Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the [k] Philistines. 7 And I will [l] take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also shall be a remnant for our God; and he shall be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And I will [m] encamp about my house [7] against the army, that [n] none pass through or return; and [o] no [8] oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 [p] Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy [q] king cometh unto thee; he is [r] just, and [9] [s] having [10] salvation; [t] lowly, and riding upon an ass, even upon a colt the foal of an ass. 10 And I will cut off the [u] chariot from Ephraim, and the [v] horse from Jerusalem; and the [x] battle bow shall be cut off; and he shall speak [y] peace unto the nations: and his [z] dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, because of the [a] blood of thy covenant I have set free thy [b] prisoners from the pit wherein is no water. 12 [11] Turn you to the [c] stronghold, ye prisoners of [d] hope: even to-day do I declare that I will render [e] double unto thee. 13 For I have [f] bent Judah for me, I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O [12] [g] Greece, and will make thee as the [h] sword of a mighty man. 14 And Jehovah shall be seen [i] over them; and his [k] arrow shall go forth as the lightning; and the Lord Jehovah will blow the [l] trumpet, and will go with [m] whirlwinds of the south. 15 [n] Jehovah of hosts will defend them; and they shall [o] devour, and shall [p] tread down the sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a [q] noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like [r] bowls, like the [s] corners of the altar. 16 And Jehovah their God will [t] save them in that day as the flock of his people; for they shall be as the stones of a [u] crown, [13] lifted on high over his land. 17 For how great is [14] his [15] [v] goodness, and how great is [14] his [x] beauty! grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

10 Ask ye of Jehovah [y] rain in the time of the latter rain, even of Jehovah that [z] maketh lightnings; and he will give them [a] showers of rain, to every one grass in the field. 2 For the [b] teraphim have spoken vanity, and the [c] diviners have seen a lie; and [16] they have told [d] false dreams, they comfort in vain: therefore they go their way like [e] sheep, they are afflicted, because there is no shepherd. 3 Mine [f] anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the he-goats; for Jehovah of hosts hath [g] visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his goodly horse in the battle. 4 From him shall come forth the corner-stone, from him the nail, from him the [h] battle bow, from him every [17] ruler together. 5 And they shall be as mighty men, [i] treading down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because Jehovah is with them; and the [k] riders on horses shall be confounded. 6 And I will [l] strengthen the house of Judah, and I will [m] save the house of Joseph, and I will [18] [n] bring them back; for I have [o] mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had [a]not cast them off: for I am Jehovah their God, and I will [b]hear them. 7 And they of Ephraim shall be [c]like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine; yea, their [d]children shall see it, and rejoice; their heart shall be glad in Jehovah.

8 I will [e]hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them; and they shall [f]increase as they [g]have increased. 9 [1]And I will sow them among the peoples; and they shall [h]remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and shall return.
10 I will [i]bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of [k]Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall [l]not be found for them.
11 And he will pass through the [m]sea of affliction, and will smite [2]the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the [n]Nile shall dry up; and the pride of [o]Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of [p]Egypt shall depart. 12 And I will [q]strengthen them in Jehovah; and [r]they shall walk up and down in his name, saith Jehovah.

11 Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the [s]fire may devour thy [t]cedars. 2 Wail, O fir-tree, for the cedar is [u]fallen, because the [3]goodly ones are destroyed: wail, O ye oaks of Bashan, for the [4]strong forest is come down. 3 A voice of the [v]wailing of the shepherds! for their glory is destroyed: a voice of the [x]roaring of young lions! for the pride of the Jordan is laid waste.

4 Thus said Jehovah my God: Feed the flock of [y]slaughter; 5 whose [5]possessors slay them, and hold themselves [z]not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed be Jehovah, for [a]I am rich; and [6]their [b]own shepherds pity them not. 6 For I will [c]no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith Jehovah; but, lo, I will [d]deliver the men every one into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will [e]not deliver them.
7 So I [f]fed the flock of slaughter, verily [7]the [g]poor of the flock.
And I took unto me [h]two staves; the one I called [8][i]Beauty, and the other I called [9][k]Bands; and I fed the flock. 8 And I cut off the three shepherds in [l]one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me.
9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that which [m]dieth, let it die; and [10]that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them that are left eat every one the flesh of another. 10 And I took my staff [n]Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might [o]break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.
11 And it was broken in that day; and [11]thus [7]the [p]poor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was the word of Jehovah.
12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my [q]hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire [r]thirty pieces of silver. 13 And Jehovah said unto me, Cast it unto the [s]potter, the goodly price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them unto the potter, in the house of Jehovah. 14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [t]Bands, that I might [u]break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And Jehovah said unto me, Take unto thee yet again the instruments of a [v]foolish shepherd.
16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will [x]not [12]visit those that are [13]cut off, neither will seek [14]those that are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which [15]is sound; but he will [y]eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. 17 [z]Woe to the worthless shepherd that leaveth the flock! the [a]sword shall be upon his [b]arm, and upon his right [c]eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

12 The [16]burden of the word of Jehovah concerning Israel.

Thus saith Jehovah, who [d]stretcheth forth the heavens, and [e]layeth the foundation of the earth, and [a]formeth the spirit of man within him: 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a [b]cup of reeling unto all the peoples round about, and [1]~~upon~~ [c]Judah also [2]shall ~~it~~ be in the siege against Jerusalem. 3 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome [d]stone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be [e]sore wounded; and all the [f]nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it. 4 In that day, saith Jehovah, I will smite every [g]horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5 And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my [h]strength in Jehovah of hosts their God. 6 In that day will I make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of [i]fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and they of [k]Jerusalem shall yet again dwell in [3]their own place, even in Jerusalem. 7 Jehovah also shall [l]save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of [m]David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah. 8 In that day shall Jehovah [n]defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he [4]that is [o]feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as [p]God, as the [q]angel of Jehovah before them. 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will [r]seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will [s]pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of [t]grace and of supplication; and they shall look unto [5]me whom they have [u]pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one [v]mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. 11 In that day shall there be a great [x]mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. 12 And the land shall mourn, [y]every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; 13 the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; 14 all the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 In that day there shall be a [z]fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for [a]sin and for [b]uncleanness. 2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, that I will [c]cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the [d]prophets and the [e]unclean spirit to pass out of the land. 3 And it shall come to pass that, when any shall yet [f]prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt [g]not live; for thou speakest [h]lies in the name of Jehovah; and his [i]father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth. 4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be [k]ashamed every one of his vision, when he prophesieth; neither shall they wear a [l]hairy mantle to deceive: 5 but he shall say, I am [m]no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondman from my youth. 6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds [n]between thine [6]arms? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my [7]friends.

7 Awake, O [o]sword, against my [p]shepherd, and against the man that is my [q]fellow, saith Jehovah of hosts: [r]smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will [s]turn my hand upon the little ones. 8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith Jehovah, [t]two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. 9 And I will bring the third part into the [u]fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall [a]call on my name, and I will [b]hear them: I will say, It is [c]my people; and they shall say, Jehovah is my God.

14 Behold, a [d]day of Jehovah cometh, when thy [e]spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. 2 For I will [f]gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the [g]houses rifled, and the women ravished; and [h]half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. 3 Then shall Jehovah go forth, and [i]fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. 4 And his feet shall [k]stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall be [l]cleft in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. 5 And [1]ye shall flee [2]by the valley of [3]my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azel; yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the [m]earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah; and [n]Jehovah my God shall come, and all the holy ones with thee. 6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that [4]there shall [o]not be light; the bright ones shall withdraw themselves: 7 but it shall be [p]one day which is [q]known unto Jehovah; not day, and not night; but it shall come to pass, that at [r]evening time there shall be light. 8 And it shall come to pass in that day, that [s]living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And Jehovah shall be [t]King over all the earth: in that day shall Jehovah be [u]one, and his name one. 10 All the land shall be made like the Arabah, from [v]Geba to [x]Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she shall be [y]lifted up, and shall [z]dwell in her place, from [a]Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the [b]corner gate, and from the [c]tower of Hananel unto the king's winepresses. 11 And men shall [d]dwell therein, and there shall be [e]no more [5]curse; but Jerusalem shall [f]dwell safely.

12 And this shall be the plague wherewith Jehovah will smite all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh shall [g]consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their sockets, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. 13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great [6]tumult from Jehovah shall be among them; and they shall [h]lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor. 14 And [i]Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the [k]wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. 15 And so shall be the [l]plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in those camps, as that plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem shall [m]go up from year to year to worship the [n]King, Jehovah of hosts, and to keep the [o]feast of tabernacles. 17 And it shall be, that whoso of all the families of the earth goeth not up unto Jerusalem to worship the [p]King, Jehovah of hosts, upon them there shall be [q]no rain. 18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, neither shall it be upon them; there shall be the [r]plague wherewith Jehovah will smite the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. 19 This shall be the [7][s]punishment of Egypt, and the [7]punishment of all the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. 20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, [t]HOLY UNTO JEHOVAH; and the [u]pots in Jehovah's house shall be like the [v]bowls

MALACHI = מַלְאָכִי ([illegible])

Jehovah's Love of Jacob. Impious Priests rebuked

1 The [1][a]burden of the word of Jehovah to Israel by [2]Malachi.
2 I have [b]loved you, saith Jehovah.
Yet ye say, [c]Wherein hast thou loved us? [3]Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith Jehovah: yet I [d]loved Jacob; 3 but Esau I hated, and [e]made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness. 4 [4]Whereas Edom saith, We are [5][f]beaten down, but we will [g]return and build the waste places; thus saith Jehovah of hosts, They shall [h]build, but I will throw down; and men shall call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom Jehovah hath indignation [i]for ever. 5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, Jehovah [6]be [k]magnified [7]beyond the border of Israel.
6 A son [l]honoreth his father, and a servant his master: if then I am a [m]father, where is mine honor? and if I am a master, where is my [n]fear? saith Jehovah of hosts unto you, O [o]priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? 7 Ye offer [p]polluted [q]bread upon mine altar. And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The [r]table of Jehovah is contemptible. 8 And when ye offer the [s]blind for sacrifice, it is no evil! and when ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee? or will he accept thy person? saith Jehovah of hosts.
9 And now, I pray you, [t]entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious unto us: this hath been [8]by your means: will he [9][u]accept any of your persons? saith Jehovah of hosts. 10 Oh that there were one among you that would [v]shut the doors, that ye might not kindle fire on mine altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, saith Jehovah of hosts, neither will I [x]accept an offering at your hand.
11 For from the [y]rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name [10]shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place [11][z]incense [10]shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name [10]shall be [a]great among the Gentiles, saith Jehovah of hosts. 12 But ye [b]profane it, in that ye say, The table of Jehovah is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even its food, is contemptible.
13 Ye say also, Behold, what a [c]weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith Jehovah of hosts; and ye have brought that which was taken by [d]violence, and the [e]lame, and the sick; thus ye bring the offering: should I [f]accept this at your hand? saith Jehovah. 14 But cursed be the deceiver, who hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a [g]blemished thing; for I am a great [h]King, saith Jehovah of hosts, and my name is [i]terrible among the Gentiles.

2 And now, O ye [k]priests, this commandment is for you.
2 If ye will [l]not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith Jehovah of hosts, then will I send the [m]curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have [n]cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. 3 Behold, I will [o]rebuke [12]your seed, and will [p]spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your [q]feasts; and ye shall be taken away [13]with it. 4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my

[a] covenant may be with Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 5 My covenant was with him of life and [b] peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear; and he [c] feared me, and stood in awe of my name. 6 The [d] law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips: he walked [e] with me in peace and uprightness, and [f] turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest's lips should keep [g] knowledge, and they should [h] seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of hosts. 8 But ye are [i] turned aside out of the way; ye have caused many to [k] stumble in the law; ye have [l] corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 9 Therefore have I also made you [m] contemptible and [n] base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had [o] respect of persons in the law.

10 Have we not all [p] one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal [q] treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the [r] covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah hath dealt [s] treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath [t] profaned the [1] holiness of Jehovah which he loveth, and hath married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 [u] Jehovah will cut off, to the man that doeth this, him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that [v] offereth an offering unto Jehovah of hosts. 13 And this [2] again ye do: ye cover the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he [x] regardeth not the offering any more, neither receiveth it with good will at your hand. 14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because Jehovah hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt [y] treacherously, though she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. 15 [3] And did he not [z] make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? And wherefore one? He sought a [a] godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal [b] treacherously against the wife of his youth. 16 For [4] I hate [c] putting away, saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, and him that covereth his garment with [d] violence, saith Jehovah of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have [e] wearied Jehovah with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? In that ye say, [f] Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of Jehovah, and he [g] delighteth in them; or where is the God of [h] justice?

3 [i] Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye [k] seek, will suddenly come to his temple; [5] and the [6] [l] messenger of the covenant, whom ye desire, behold, he cometh, saith Jehovah of hosts. 2 But who can [m] abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a [n] refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: 3 and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will [o] purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall [p] offer unto Jehovah offerings in righteousness. 4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be [q] pleasant unto Jehovah, as in the [r] days of old, and as in ancient years. 5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the [s] sorcerers, and against the [t] adulterers, and against the [u] false swearers, and against those that oppress the [v] hireling in his wages, the [x] widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the [y] sojourner from his right, and fear not me, saith Jehovah of hosts. 6 For I, Jehovah, [z] change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

7 From the [a] days of your fathers ye have turned aside from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. [b] Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of hosts. But ye say, Wherein shall we return? 8 Will a man rob God? yet ye rob me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In [c] tithes and [7] offerings. 9 Ye are [d] cursed with the curse; 13 Your words have been [g] stout against me, saith Jehovah. Yet ye say, What have we spoken against thee? 14 Ye have said, It is [h] vain to serve God; and what [i] profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked [1] mournfully before Jehovah of hosts? 15 and now we call the [k] proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are built up; yea, they tempt God, and [l] escape.

APPENDIX

List of Particulars in which the Revised Old Testament of 1885 differs from the Present Edition

CLASSES OF PASSAGES

I. Retain "the LORD," "LORD," or "GOD" for "Jehovah," except in Ex. vi. 2, 3; Ps. lxxxiii. 18; Isa. xii. 2; xxvi. 4; xlix. 14; Jer. xvi. 21; Hab. iii. 19. But put "Jah" for "Jehovah" in Ps. lxviii. 4; lxxxix. 8.

II. Retain, instead of "Sheol," the rendering "the grave" in Gen. xxxvii. 35; xlii. 38; xliv. 29, 31; 1 S. ii. 6; 1 K. ii. 6, 9; Ps. cxli. 7; Prov. xxx. 16; Eccl. ix. 10; S. of S. viii. 6; Is. xxxviii. 10, 18; Hos. xiii. 14 (twice); "the pit" in Num. xvi. 30, 33; Deut. xxxii. 22; Ps. lv. 15; lxxxvi. 13; "hell" in Is. v. 14; xiv. 9, 11, 15; xxviii. 15, 18; lvii. 9; Ezek. xxxi. 15, 16, 17; xxxii. 21, 27; Am. ix. 2; Jon. ii. 2; Hab. ii. 5.

III. Retain the ordinary use of "an" for "a," "mine" for "my," and "thine" for "thy," when followed by "h" aspirated.

IV. Retain the frequent use of "which" when used of persons.

V. Retain the occasional use of "be" for "are" in the present indicative, and of "for" before infinitives.

VI. Have marginal references to readings of the ancient versions in 240 passages, whereas this edition retains them (sometimes more or less modified) in only the following 42: Gen. vi. 3; xlvii. 21; xlix. 10; Ex. xiv. 25; Lev. x. 6; xxv. 33; Josh. ix. 4; Ruth iii. 15; iv. 4; 1 S. i. 24; vi. 18; viii. 16; xii. 11; xiv. 18; xvii. 52; xxiii. 7; xxv. 22; xxvii. 10; xxviii. 17; 2 S. ii. 9; xv. 7; xviii. 3; 1 K. vii. 18; 2 Chr. i. 13; xx. 25; xxiv. 25; xxviii. 16; xxxii. 5; Job v. 5; Ps. xxii. 16; lix. 9; Eccl. ii. 25; Jer. xi. 15; Ezek. xl. 43, 44, 49; xlii. 4; xlv. 1, 5; Mic. vi. 9; Zech. iv. 2; vi. 7; giving in 11 others (Lev. viii. 31; Deut. xxviii. 22; 1 K. xiii. 12; Ps. lxxxix. 19; Is. xxx. 8; Ezek. xxvii. 19; xxxvii. 23; Hos. vi. 5; Zeph. iii. 18; Hag. i. 2; Mal. ii. 3) the variant translation as another reading of the Hebrew text; and in four others (1 S. xxx. 30; 1 Chr. vii. 14; Job xxxiv. 18; Ezek. xlvii. 13) transferring the variant translation from the margin to the text.

PREFACE TO THE AMERICAN EDITION

THIS edition of the Revised New Testament of 1881 embodies a purpose entertained by many members of the American Revision Committee almost from the publication of the work. The list of passages in which the New Testament Company dissented from the decisions of their English associates, when it was transmitted to them, bore the heading, "The American New Testament Revision Company, having in many cases yielded their preference for certain readings and renderings, present the following instances in which they differ from the English Company, as in their view of sufficient importance to be appended to the revision, in accordance with an understanding between the Companies."

The knowledge of the existence of these suppressed deviations naturally stirred a desire that they should be made accessible to at least the American public. This desire, especially on the part of those whose generous interest in the work from its inception had enabled the American revisers to meet the pecuniary outlay its preparation involved, they were not unwilling to gratify. The obligation they felt, however, to guard as far as they might the purity and integrity of the version, led them to pledge their support for fourteen years to the editions issued by the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge. But the reiterated suggestion to those Presses to publish an edition especially for American readers not having met with favor, they acceded to the overtures of the Messrs. Nelson and engaged in preparing gratuitously the desired edition, to be issued when the expiration of the period specified should open the way for its honorable publication. The publishers, on their part, agreed to protect the version in its integrity, and to sell the book at a price not exceeding a fair profit on its cost.

In the preparation of this edition no attempt has been made to preserve a full record of the other readings and renderings than those that appeared in the work as published in 1881 which were preferred by the American revisers. The Appendix of that edition, however, was not only hastily compiled under pressure from the University Presses, but its necessarily limited compass compelled, as the original heading intimated, the exclusion of many suggestions that the American Company held to be of interest and importance. These, amounting in the aggregate to a considerable number, have been incorporated in the present edition. The opportunity has been taken also to introduce not a few alterations, individually of slight importance, yet as a body contributing decidedly to the perfection of the work. But the survivors of the New Testament Company have not felt at liberty to make new changes of moment which were not favorably passed upon by their associates at one stage or another of the original preparation of the work.

The deviating readings and renderings preferred by the English revisers are exhibited in the Appendix to this edition.

Respecting details, but little need be added to the ample statements made in the Preface prefixed to the work on its first appearance and reproduced in the present volume.

In the delicate matter of rendering the names of the several coins that occur in the New Testament, we have departed somewhat from our English brethren. For the Greek λεπτόν the term "mite" has been retained, and for κοδράντης the rendering "farthing" (see Mk. xii. 42).

But ἀσσάριον has been translated "penny" (Matt. x. 29; Lk. xii. 6); while in thirteen out of the sixteen instances where in the edition of 1881 the Greek δηνάριον was represented by this English word, the term "shilling" has been substituted, not only as corresponding more nearly to the coin's relative value, but also because "penny," according to its modern use, is in some cases highly inappropriate (see Matt. xx. 2; Lk. x. 35; Rev. vi. 6). In the three remaining instances (Matt. xxii. 19; Mk. xii. 15; Lk. xx. 24), the Greek name of the coin has been introduced, in order to meet the obvious requirement of the context. Where the English value of coins is given in the margin, we have added the equivalents in our national currency; but in the case of the talent (Matt. xviii. 24) what is believed to be a more accurate valuation has been given.

In formal particulars, this new edition will show but slight and infrequent deviations from its predecessor. The division of the text into paragraphs in that edition has not been often departed from; and then chiefly in cases where the same matter is found in more than one of the Gospels, and hence uniformity of division seemed desirable. Further, in the Epistles and the Revelation the more decided transitions to a new topic have been indicated by leaving a line blank. The somewhat ponderous and peculiar system of punctuation of the original edition has been in the main adhered to; although, pursuant to the principle there followed (see its Preface, paragraph d, p. xv.), a comma has here and there been dropped which seemed likely to obstruct the reader, and the gradations of thought have been occasionally indicated more distinctly by substituting a semicolon for the overworked colon. The titles of the books, which in the former edition were given as printed in 1611, have been somewhat abbreviated, at the dictate of convenience, and agreeably to usage, ancient as well as modern. They have been altered only in the few instances where the former heading was erroneous (as in the case of the Epistle to the Hebrews), or apt to mislead (as in the case of the Book of Acts), or hardly intelligible to the ordinary reader (as the "General" in the heading of some of the shorter Epistles), or founded in a misapprehension (as in the case of "Saint" prefixed to the names of the Evangelists). Moreover, the alternate title of the New Testament, and the mode of printing the headings of the Four Evangelists' narratives, are designed to recall to mind the inherent signification and primitive use of the terms "Testament" (compare Hebrews ix. 15 f.), and "Gospel." In the Book of Revelation, also, the "Glorias," "Trisagia," etc., have been marked typographically.

In dealing with the Language, the American revisers have endeavored to act with becoming deference and reserve. A few archaisms, such as "how that," "for to," "the which," "howbeit," etc., which are becoming uncouth to a modern ear, have been generally although not invariably discarded. Not a few of the instances of the superfluous use of "do" and "did" as auxiliaries, of "that" as equivalent to "that which," and the like, have also been removed; and current usage has been recognized in the case of forms which King James's revision employed indiscriminately, as "beside" and "besides" (see Mk. iii. 21; 2 Cor. v. 13). But in making these and other slight changes, the American editors have not forgotten that they were dealing with a venerable monument of English usage, and have been careful not to obliterate the traces of its historic origin and descent.

The two most obvious departures of this edition from that of 1881 consist in the addition of references to parallel and illustrative Biblical passages, and of running headings to indicate the contents of the pages.

The references have been selected in the main from a numerous collection provisionally attached to the text at one stage of the preparation of the original work, but withheld at the time of its publication. In selecting them, however, other similar collections and the better commentaries have not been neglected; but the aim has been to avoid multiplying them to such a degree as to embarrass or discourage a student. Accordingly, references which may be said to be of a hortatory or dogmatic character have been comparatively neglected, as belonging less to the study of Scripture than to its application, whether in the realm of thought or of life. On the other hand, prominence has been given to those which illustrate national customs, characteristic phrases, peculiarities of vocabulary or style, correspondences between different Biblical books, and the like. Some attempt has been made, also, to group references topically; as for example, in the case of Matthew's allusions to the "words" of Christ; of the "we" sections in Acts; of the use of "brethren" in addressing Christians on the one hand, and Jews on the other; of "Jews" as employed in a national and a hierarchical reference; and the like. In order further to lessen the number of "superiors" tending to distract a reader's eye, the different references belonging to a verse have often been consolidated, with the result occasionally that in the given group of passages one may illustrate one part of a verse, another another. References printed in italics designate parallel passages; in such cases the comprehensive reference is generally held to suffice for all details falling within the limits of the parallels, especially in the Gospels. In many cases, however, striking aphorisms, particularly when not found in all of the parallel narratives, have received a notation of their own. As the references constitute an apparatus mainly for Biblical study, and as their selection has been inevitably influenced somewhat by modern exegetical opinion, they have been separated from the citations and express allusions for which the sacred writer is responsible, by printing this latter class with Roman chapter-numerals and setting them in the outer margins of the page.

Notwithstanding the caution — as wise perhaps as prudent — which led the English Company wholly to omit the headings of chapters and pages (see their Preface, p. x.), and in spite of the disfavor which has been the fate of many attempts to furnish them from the days of Dr. Blayney who, with four assistants, produced a set which speedily fell into neglect, it has been deemed best to equip the present edition, at least experimentally, with running headlines, which may serve in some sort instead of a detailed Table of Contents, and as landmarks to a reader familiar with the text. In preparing them it has been the constant aim to avoid as far as possible all pre-commitments, whether doctrinal or exegetical; and with this object in view, the forms of statement employed have been drawn in the main from the Biblical text. Often a fragmentary quotation which might serve as a catchword or reminder of a well-known passage has been deemed sufficient. The limitations of space have frequently compelled a partial selection from the contents of a given page, the continuation of a heading from one page to the next, or even the entry of the kernel of a statement on a page adjoining that on which it appears in the text. Slight displacement in such a case seemed preferable to total omission.

It is not superfluous to mention expressly the fact that in this edition the variant readings and renderings are placed in the margin in close juxtaposition with the passages to which they relate. The reader's attention is thus drawn at once to the circumstance that some degree of uncertainty still cleaves, in the judgment of scholars, either to the text of the passage before him, or to its translation, or to both. Accordingly, when he remembers that, by the rule of procedure which the Committee followed, the translation of 1611 held its place in every instance until an alteration commanded the votes of two-thirds of the revisers, it will become evident to him that a rendering given in the margin may have commended itself to a majority, while still falling short of the degree of approval necessary to enable it to supplant the text. It is known that this was the case in a considerable number of instances, of which the established term "Comforter" as the appellation of the Holy Spirit in the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel of John is a notable representative.

The present volume, it is believed, will on the one hand bring a plain reader more closely into contact with the exact thought of the sacred writers than any version now current in Christendom, and on the other hand prove itself especially serviceable to students of the Word. In this belief the editors bid it anew God-speed, and in the realization of this desired result they will find their all-sufficient reward.

THE English Version of the New Testament here presented to the reader is a Revision of the Translation published in the year of Our Lord 1611, and commonly known by the name of the Authorised Version.

That Translation was the work of many hands and of several generations. The foundation was laid by William Tyndale. His translation of the New Testament was the true primary Version. The Versions that followed were either substantially reproductions of Tyndale's translation in its final shape, or revisions of Versions that had been themselves almost entirely based on it. Three successive stages may be recognised in this continuous work of authoritative revision: first, the publication of the Great Bible of 1539–41 in the reign of Henry VIII; next, the publication of the Bishops' Bible of 1568 and 1572 in the reign of Elizabeth; and lastly, the publication of the King's Bible of 1611 in the reign of James I. Besides these, the Genevan Version of 1560, itself founded on Tyndale's translation, must here be named; which, though not put forth by authority, was widely circulated in this country, and largely used by King James' Translators. Thus the form in which the English New Testament has now been read for 270 years was the result of various revisions made between 1525 and 1611; and the present Revision is an attempt, after a long interval, to follow the example set by a succession of honoured predecessors.

I. Of the many points of interest connected with the Translation of 1611, two require special notice; first, the Greek Text which it appears to have represented; and secondly, the character of the Translation itself.

1. With regard to the Greek Text, it would appear that, if to some extent the Translators exercised an independent judgement, it was mainly in choosing amongst readings contained in the principal editions of the Greek Text that had appeared in the sixteenth century. Wherever they seem to have followed a reading which is not found in any of those editions, their rendering may probably be traced to the Latin Vulgate. Their chief guides appear to have been the later editions of Stephanus and of Beza, and also, to a certain extent, the Complutensian Polyglott. All these were founded for the most part on manuscripts of late date, few in number, and used with little critical skill. But in those days it could hardly have been otherwise. Nearly all the more ancient of the documentary authorities have become known only within the last two centuries; some of the most important of them, indeed, within the last few years. Their publication has called forth not only improved editions of the Greek Text, but a succession of instructive discussions on the variations which have been brought to light, and on the best modes of distinguishing original readings from changes introduced in the course of transcription. While therefore it has long been the opinion of all scholars that the commonly received text needed thorough revision, it is but recently that materials have been acquired for executing such a work with even approximate completeness.

2. The character of the Translation itself will be best estimated by considering the leading rules under which it was made, and the extent to which these rules appear to have been observed. The primary and fundamental rule was expressed in the following terms:—'The ordinary

Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops' Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the truth of the Original will permit.' There was, however, this subsequent provision:—'These translations to be used, when they agree better with the text than the Bishops' Bible: Tindale's, Matthew's, Coverdale's, Whithurch's, Geneva.' The first of these rules, which was substantially the same as that laid down at the revision of the Great Bible in the reign of Elizabeth, was strictly observed. The other rule was but partially followed. The Translators made much use of the Genevan Version. They do not however appear to have frequently returned to the renderings of the other Versions named in the rule, where those Versions differed from the Bishops' Bible. On the other hand, their work shows evident traces of the influence of a Version not specified in the rules, the Rhemish, made from the Latin Vulgate, but by scholars conversant with the Greek Original.

Another rule, on which it is stated that those in authority laid great stress, related to the rendering of words that admitted of different interpretations. It was as follows:—'When a word hath divers significations, that to be kept which hath been most commonly used by the most of the ancient fathers, being agreeable to the propriety of the place and the analogy of the faith.' With this rule was associated the following, on which equal stress appears to have been laid:—'The old ecclesiastical words to be kept, viz. the word Church not to be translated Congregation, &c.' This latter rule was for the most part carefully observed; but it may be doubted whether, in the case of words that admitted of different meanings, the instructions were at all closely followed. In dealing with the more difficult words of this class, the Translators appear to have paid much regard to traditional interpretations, and especially to the authority of the Vulgate; but, as to the large residue of words which might properly fall under the rule, they used considerable freedom. Moreover they profess in their Preface to have studiously adopted a variety of expression which would now be deemed hardly consistent with the requirements of faithful translation. They seem to have been guided by the feeling that their Version would secure for the words they used a lasting place in the language; and they express a fear lest they should 'be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words,' which, without this liberty on their part, would not have a place in the pages of the English Bible. Still it cannot be doubted that they carried this liberty too far, and that the studied avoidance of uniformity in the rendering of the same words, even when occurring in the same context, is one of the blemishes in their work.

A third leading rule was of a negative character, but was rendered necessary by the experience derived from former Versions. The words of the rule are as follows:—'No marginal notes at all to be affixed, but only for the explanation of the Hebrew or Greek words which cannot without some circumlocution so briefly and fitly be expressed in the text.' Here again the Translators used some liberty in their application of the rule. Out of more than 760 marginal notes originally appended to the Authorised Version of the New Testament, only a seventh part consists of explanations or literal renderings; the great majority of the notes being devoted to the useful and indeed necessary purpose of placing before the reader alternative renderings which it was judged that the passage or the words would fairly admit. The notes referring to variations in the Greek Text amount to about thirty-five.

Of the remaining rules it may be sufficient to notice one, which was for the most part consistently followed:—'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' The Translators had also the liberty, in 'any place of special obscurity,' to consult those who might be qualified to give an opinion.

Passing from these fundamental rules, which should be borne in mind by any one who would rightly understand the nature and character of the Authorised Version, we must call attention to the manner in which the actual work of the translation was carried on. The New Testament was assigned to two separate Companies, the one consisting of eight members, sitting at Oxford, the other consisting of seven members, sitting at Westminster. There is no reason to believe that these Companies ever sat together. They communicated to each other, and likewise to the four Companies to which the Old Testament and the Apocrypha had been committed, the results of their labors; and perhaps afterwards reconsidered them: but the fact that the New Testament was divided between two separate bodies of men involved a grave inconvenience, and was beyond all doubt the cause of many inconsistencies. These probably would have been much more serious, had it not been provided that there should be a final supervision of the whole Bible, by selected members from Oxford, Cambridge, and Westminster, the three centres at which the work had been carried on. These supervisors are said by one authority to have been six in number, and by another twelve. When it is remembered that this supervision was completed in nine months, we may wonder that the incongruities which remain are not more numerous.

The Companies appear to have been occupied in the actual business of revision about two years and three quarters.

Such, so far as can be gathered from the rules and modes of procedure, is the character of the time-honoured Version which we have been called upon to revise. We have had to study this great Version carefully and minutely, line by line; and the longer we have been engaged upon it the more we have learned to admire its simplicity, its dignity, its power, its happy turns of expression, its general accuracy, and, we must not fail to add, the music of its cadences, and the felicities of its rhythm. To render a work that had reached this high standard of excellence still more excellent, to increase its fidelity without destroying its charm, was the task committed to us. Of that task, and of the conditions under which we have attempted its fulfilment, it will now be necessary for us to speak.

II. The present Revision had its origin in action taken by the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury in February 1870, and it has been conducted throughout on the plan laid down in Resolutions of both Houses of the Province, and, more particularly, in accordance with Principles and Rules drawn up by a special Committee of Convocation in the following May. Two Companies, the one for the revision of the Authorised Version of the Old Testament, and the other for the revision of the same Version of the New Testament, were formed in the manner specified in the Resolutions, and the work was commenced on the twenty-second day of June 1870. Shortly afterwards, steps were taken, under a resolution passed by both Houses of Convocation, for inviting the co-operation of American scholars; and eventually two Companies were formed in America, for the purpose of acting with the two English Companies, on the basis of the Principles and Rules drawn up by the Committee of Convocation.

The fundamental Resolutions adopted by the Convocation of Canterbury on the third and fifth days of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. That it is desirable that a revision of the Authorised Version of the Holy Scriptures be undertaken.

'2. That the revision be so conducted as to comprise both marginal renderings and such emendations as it may be found necessary to insert in the text of the Authorised Version.

'3. That in the above resolutions we do not contemplate any new translation of the Bible, or any alteration of the language, except where in the judgement of the most competent scholars such change is necessary.

'4. That in such necessary changes, the style of the language employed in the existing Version be closely followed.

'5. That it is desirable that Convocation should nominate a body of its own members to undertake the work of revision, who shall be at liberty to invite the co-operation of any eminent for scholarship, to whatever nation or religious body they may belong.'

The Principles and Rules agreed to by the Committee of Convocation on the twenty-fifth day of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.

'3. Each Company to go twice over the portion to be revised, once provisionally, the second time finally, and on principles of voting as hereinafter provided.

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.

'5. To make or retain no change in the Text on the second final revision by each Company, except two thirds of those present approve of the same, but on the first revision to decide by simple majorities.

'6. In every case of proposed alteration that may have given rise to discussion, to defer the voting thereupon till the next Meeting, whensoever the same shall be required by one third of those present at the Meeting, such intended vote to be announced in the notice for the next Meeting.

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.

'8. To refer, on the part of each Company, when considered desirable, to Divines, Scholars, and Literary Men, whether at home or abroad, for their opinions.'

These rules it has been our endeavour faithfully and consistently to follow. One only of them we found ourselves unable to observe in all particulars. In accordance with the seventh rule, we have carefully revised the paragraphs, italics, and punctuation. But the revision of the headings of chapters and pages would have involved so much of indirect, and indeed frequently of direct interpretation, that we judged it best to omit them altogether.

Our communications with the American Committee have been of the following nature. We transmitted to them from time to time each several portion of our First Revision, and received from them in return their criticisms and suggestions. These we considered with much care and attention during the time we were engaged on our Second Revision. We then sent over to them the various portions of the Second Revision as they were completed, and received further suggestions, which, like the former, were closely and carefully considered. Last of all, we forwarded to them the Revised Version in its final form; and a list of those passages in which they desire to place on record their preference of other readings and renderings will be found at the end of the volume. We gratefully acknowledge their care, vigilance, and accuracy; and we humbly pray that their labours and our own, thus happily united, may be permitted to bear a blessing to both countries, and to all English-speaking people throughout the world.

The whole time devoted to the work has been ten years and a half. The First Revision occupied about six years; the Second, about two years and a half. The remaining time has been spent in the consideration of the suggestions from America on the Second Revision, and of many details and reserved questions arising out of our own labours. As a rule, a session of four days has been held every month (with the exception of August and September) in each year from the commencement of the work in June 1870. The average attendance for the whole time has been sixteen each day; the whole Company consisting at first of twenty-seven, but for the greater part of the time of twenty-four members, many of them residing at great distances from London. Of the original number four have been removed from us by death.

At an early stage in our labours, we entered into an agreement with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge for the conveyance to them of our copyright in the work. This arrangement provided for the necessary expenses of the undertaking; and procured for the Revised Version the advantage of being published by Bodies long connected with the publication of the Authorised Version.

III. We now pass onward to give a brief account of the particulars of the present work. This we propose to do under the four heads of Text, Translation, Language, and Marginal Notes.

1. A revision of the Greek text was the necessary foundation of our work; but it did not fall within our province to construct a continuous and complete Greek text. In many cases the English rendering was considered to represent correctly either of two competing readings in the Greek, and then the question of the text was usually not raised. A sufficiently laborious task remained in deciding between the rival claims of various readings which might properly affect the translation. When these were adjusted, our deviations from the text presumed to underlie the Authorised Version had next to be indicated, in accordance with the fourth rule; but it proved inconvenient to record them in the margin. A better mode however of giving them publicity has been found, as the University Presses have undertaken to print them in connexion with complete Greek texts of the New Testament.

In regard of the readings thus approved, it may be observed that the fourth rule, by requiring that 'the text to be adopted' should be 'that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating,' was in effect an instruction to follow the authority of documentary evidence without deference to any printed text of modern times, and therefore to employ the best resources of criticism for estimating the value of evidence. Textual criticism, as applied to the Greek New Testament, forms a special study of much intricacy and difficulty, and even now leaves room for considerable variety of opinion among competent critics. Different schools of criticism have been represented among us, and have together contributed to the final result. In the early part of the work every various reading requiring consideration was discussed and voted on by the Company. After a time the precedents thus established enabled the process to be safely shortened; but it was still at the option of every one to raise a full discussion on any particular reading, and the option was freely used. On the first revision, in accordance with the fifth rule, the decisions were arrived at by simple majorities. On the second revision, at which a majority of two thirds was required to retain or introduce a reading at variance with the reading presumed to underlie the Authorized Version, many readings previously adopted were brought again into debate, and either re-affirmed or set aside.

Many places still remain in which, for the present, it would not be safe to accept one reading to the absolute exclusion of others. In these cases we have given alternative readings in the margin, wherever they seem to be of sufficient importance or interest to deserve notice. In the introductory formula, the phrases 'many ancient authorities,' 'some ancient authorities,' are used with some latitude to denote a greater or lesser proportion of those authorities which have a distinctive right to be called ancient. These ancient authorities comprise not only Greek manuscripts, some of which were written in the fourth and fifth centuries, but versions of a still earlier date in different languages, and also quotations by Christian writers of the second and following centuries.

2. We pass now from the Text to the Translation. The character of the Revision was determined for us from the outset by the first rule, 'to introduce as few alterations as possible, consistently with faithfulness.' Our task was revision, not re-translation.

In the application however of this principle to the many and intricate details of our work, we have found ourselves constrained by faithfulness to introduce changes which might not at first sight appear to be included under the rule.

The alterations which we have made in the Authorised Version may be roughly grouped in five principal classes. First, alterations positively required by change of reading in the Greek Text. Secondly, alterations made where the Authorised Version appeared either to be incorrect, or to have chosen the less probable of two possible renderings. Thirdly, alterations of obscure or ambiguous renderings into such as are clear and express in their import. For it has been our principle not to leave any translation, or any arrangement of words, which could adapt itself to one or other of two interpretations, but rather to express as plainly as was possible that interpretation which seemed best to deserve a place in the text, and to put the other in the margin.

There remain yet two other classes of alterations which we have felt to be required by the same principle of faithfulness. These are,—Fourthly, alterations of the Authorised Version in cases where it was inconsistent with itself in the rendering of two or more passages confessedly alike or parallel. Fifthly, alterations rendered necessary by consequence, that is, arising out of changes already made, though not in themselves required by the general rule of faithfulness. Both these classes of alterations call for some further explanation.

The frequent inconsistencies in the Authorised Version have caused us much embarrassment from the fact already referred to, namely, that a studied variety of rendering, even in the same chapter and context, was a kind of principle with our predecessors, and was defended by them on grounds that have been mentioned above. The problem we had to solve was to discriminate between varieties of rendering which were compatible with fidelity to the true meaning of the text, and varieties which involved inconsistency, and were suggestive of differences that had no existence in the Greek. This problem we have solved to the best of our power, and for the most part in the following way.

Where there was a doubt as to the exact shade of meaning, we have looked to the context for guidance. If the meaning was fairly expressed by the word or phrase that was before us in the Authorised Version, we made no change, even where rigid adherence to the rule of translating, as far as possible, the same Greek word by the same English word might have prescribed some modification.

There are however numerous passages in the Authorised Version in which, whether regard be had to the recurrence (as in the first three Gospels) of identical clauses and sentences, to the repetition of the same word in the same passage, or to the characteristic use of particular words by the same writer, the studied variety adopted by the Translators of 1611 has produced a degree of inconsistency that cannot be reconciled with the principle of faithfulness. In such cases we have not hesitated to introduce alterations, even though the sense might not seem to the general reader to be materially affected.

The last class of alterations is that which we have described as rendered necessary by consequence; that is, by reason of some foregoing alteration. The cases in which these consequential changes have been found necessary are numerous and of very different kinds. Sometimes the change has been made to avoid tautology; sometimes to obviate an unpleasing alliteration or some other infelicity of sound; sometimes, in the case of smaller words, to preserve the familiar rhythm; sometimes for a convergence of reasons which, when explained, would at once be accepted, but until so explained might never be surmised even by intelligent readers.

This may be made plain by an example. When a particular word is found to recur with characteristic frequency in any one of the Sacred Writers, it is obviously desirable to adopt for it some uniform rendering. Again, where, as in the case of the first three Evangelists, precisely the same clauses or sentences are found in more than one of the Gospels, it is no less necessary to translate them in every place in the same way. These two principles may be illustrated by reference to a word that perpetually recurs in St. Mark's Gospel, and that may be translated either 'straightway,' 'forthwith,' or 'immediately.' Let it be supposed that the first rendering is chosen, and that the word, in accordance with the first of the above principles, is in that Gospel uniformly translated 'straightway.' Let it be further supposed that one of the passages of St. Mark in which it is so translated is found, word for word, in one of the other Gospels, but that there the rendering of the Authorized Version happens to be 'forthwith' or 'immediately.' That rendering must be changed on the second of the above principles; and yet such a change would not have been made but for this concurrence of two sound principles, and the consequent necessity of making a change on grounds extraneous to the passage itself.

This is but one of many instances of consequential alterations which might at first sight appear unnecessary, but which nevertheless have been deliberately made, and are not at variance with the rule of introducing as few changes in the Authorised Version as faithfulness would allow.

There are some other points of detail which it may be here convenient to notice. One of these, and perhaps the most important, is the rendering of the Greek aorist. There are numerous cases, especially in connexion with particles ordinarily expressive of present time, in which the use of the indefinite past tense in Greek and English is altogether different; and in such instances we have not attempted to violate the idiom of our language by forms of expression which it could not bear. But we have often ventured to represent the Greek aorist by the English preterite, even where the reader may find some passing difficulty in such a rendering because we have felt convinced that the true meaning of the original was obscured by the presence of the familiar auxiliary. A remarkable illustration may be found in the seventeenth chapter of St. John's Gospel, where the combination of the aorist and the perfect shews, beyond all reasonable doubt, that different relations of time were intended to be expressed.

Changes of translation will also be found in connexion with the aorist participle, arising from the fact that the usual periphrasis of this participle in the Vulgate, which was rendered necessary by Latin idiom, has been largely reproduced in the Authorised Version by 'when' with the past tense (as for example in the second chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel), even where the ordinary participial rendering would have been easier and more natural in English.

In reference to the perfect and the imperfect tenses but little needs to be said. The correct translation of the former has been for the most part, though with some striking exceptions, maintained in the Authorised Version: while with regard to the imperfect, clear as its meaning may be in the Greek, the power of expressing it is so limited in English, that we have been frequently compelled to leave the force of the tense to be inferred from the context. In a few instances, where faithfulness imperatively required it, and especially where, in the Greek, the significance of the imperfect tense seemed to be additionally marked by the use of the participle with the auxiliary verb, we have introduced the corresponding form in English. Still, in the great majority of cases we have been obliged to retain the English preterite, and to rely either on slight changes in the order of the words, or on prominence given to the accompanying temporal particles, for the indication of the meaning which, in the Greek, the imperfect tense was designed to convey.

On other points of grammar it may be sufficient to speak more briefly.

Many changes, as might be anticipated, have been made in the case of the definite article. Here again it was necessary to consider the peculiarities of English idiom, as well as the general tenor of each passage. Sometimes we have felt it enough to prefix the article to the first of a series of words to all of which it is prefixed in the Greek, and thus, as it were, to impart the idea of definiteness to the whole series, without running the risk of overloading the sentence. Sometimes, conversely, we have had to tolerate the presence of the definite article in our Version, when it is absent from the Greek, and perhaps not even grammatically latent; simply because English idiom would not allow the noun to stand alone, and because the introduction of the indefinite article might have introduced an idea of oneness or individuality, which was not in any degree traceable in the original. In a word, we have been careful to observe the use of the article wherever it seemed to be idiomatically possible: where it did not seem to be possible, we have yielded to necessity.

As to the pronouns and the place they occupy in the sentence, a subject often overlooked by our predecessors, we have been particularly careful; but here again we have frequently been baffled by structural or idiomatical peculiarities of the English language which precluded changes otherwise desirable.

In the case of the particles we have met with less difficulty, and have been able to maintain a reasonable amount of consistency. The particles in the Greek Testament are, as is well known, comparatively few, and they are commonly used with precision. It has therefore been the more necessary here to preserve a general uniformity of rendering, especially in the case of the particles of causality and inference, so far as English idiom would allow.

Lastly, many changes have been introduced in the rendering of the prepositions, especially where ideas of instrumentality or of mediate agency, distinctly marked in the original, had been confused or obscured in the translation. We have however borne in mind the comprehensive character of such prepositions as 'of' and 'by,' the one in reference to agency and the other in reference to means, especially in the English of the seventeenth century; and have rarely made any change where the true meaning of the original as expressed in the Authorised Version would be apparent to a reader of ordinary intelligence.

3. We now come to the subject of Language.

The second of the rules, by which the work has been governed, prescribed that the alterations to be introduced should be expressed, as far as possible, in the language of the Authorised Version or of the Versions that preceded it.

To this rule we have faithfully adhered. We have habitually consulted the earlier Versions and in our sparing introduction of words not found in them or in the Authorised Version we have usually satisfied ourselves that such words were employed by standard writers of nearly the same date, and had also that general hue which justified their introduction into a Version which has held the highest place in the classical literature of our language. We have never removed any archaisms, whether in structure or in words, except where we were persuaded either that the meaning of the words was not generally understood, or that the nature of the expression led to some misconception of the true sense of the passage. The frequent inversions of the strict order of the words, which add much to the strength and variety of the Authorised Version, and give an archaic colour to many felicities of diction, have been seldom modified. Indeed, we have often adopted the same arrangement in our own alterations; and in this, as in other particulars we have sought to assimilate the new work to the old.

In a few exceptional cases we have failed to find any word in the older stratum of our language that appeared to convey the precise meaning of the original. There, and there only, we have used words of a later date; but not without having first assured ourselves that they are to be found in the writings of the best authors of the period to which they belong.

In regard of Proper Names no rule was prescribed to us. In the case of names of frequent occurrence we have deemed it best to follow generally the rule laid down for our predecessors. That rule, it may be remembered, was to this effect, 'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' Some difficulty has been felt in dealing with names less familiarly known. Here our general practice has been to follow the Greek form of names, except in the case of persons and places mentioned in the Old Testament: in this case we have followed the Hebrew.

4. The subject of the Marginal Notes deserves special attention. They represent the result of a large amount of careful and elaborate discussion, and will, perhaps, by their very presence, indicate to some extent the intricacy of many of the questions that have almost daily come before us for decision. These Notes fall into four main groups: first, notes specifying such differences of reading as were judged to be of sufficient importance to require a particular notice; secondly, notes indicating the exact rendering of words to which, for the sake of English idiom, we were obliged to give a less exact rendering in the text; thirdly, notes, very few in number, affording some explanation which the original appeared to require; fourthly, alternative renderings in difficult or debateable passages. The notes of this last group are numerous, and largely in excess of those which were admitted by our predecessors. In the 270 years that have passed away since their labours were concluded, the Sacred Text has been minutely examined, discussed in every detail, and analysed with a grammatical precision unknown in the days of the last Revision. There has thus been accumulated a large amount of materials that have prepared the way for different renderings, which necessarily came under discussion. We have therefore placed before the reader in the margin other renderings than those which were adopted in the text, wherever such renderings seemed to deserve consideration. The rendering in the text, where it agrees with the Authorised Version, was supported by at least one third, and, where it differs from the Authorised Version, by at least two thirds of those who were present at the second revision of the passage in question.

A few supplementary matters have yet to be mentioned. These may be thus enumerated,—the use of Italics, the arrangement in Paragraphs, the mode of printing Quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament, the Punctuation, and, last of all, the Titles of the different Books that make up the New Testament, — all of them particulars on which it seems desirable to add a few explanatory remarks.

(a) The determination, in each place, of the words to be printed in italics has not been by any means easy; nor can we hope to be found in all cases perfectly consistent. In the earliest editions of the Authorised Version the use of a different type to indicate supplementary words not contained in the original was not very frequent, and cannot easily be reconciled with any settled principle. A review of the words so printed was made, after a lapse of some years, for the editions of the Authorised Version published at Cambridge in 1629 and 1638. Further, though slight, modifications were introduced at intervals between 1638 and the more systematic revisions undertaken respectively by Dr. Paris in the Cambridge Edition of 1762, and by Dr. Blayney in the Oxford Edition of 1769. None of them however rest on any higher authority than that of the persons who from time to time superintended the publication. The last attempt to bring the use of italics into uniformity and consistency was made by Dr. Scrivener in the Paragraph Bible published at Cambridge in 1870–73. In succeeding to these labours, we have acted on the general principle of printing in italics words which did not appear to be necessarily involved in the Greek. Our tendency has been to diminish rather than to increase the amount of italic printing; though, in the case of difference of readings, we have usually marked the absence of any words in the original which the sense might nevertheless require to be present in the Version; and again, in the case of inserted pronouns, where the reference did not appear to be perfectly certain, we have similarly had recourse to italics. Some of these cases, especially when there are slight differences of reading, are of singular intricacy, and make it impossible to maintain rigid uniformity.

(b) We have arranged the Sacred Text in paragraphs, after the precedent of the earliest English Versions, so as to assist the general reader in following the current of narrative or argument. The present arrangement will be found, we trust, to have preserved the due mean between a system of long portions which must often include several separate topics, and a system of frequent breaks which, though they may correctly indicate the separate movements of thought in the writer, often seriously impede a just perception of the true continuity of the passage. The traditional division into chapters, which the Authorised Version inherited from Latin Bibles of the later middle ages, is an illustration of the former method. These paragraphs, for such in fact they are, frequently include several distinct subjects. Moreover they sometimes, though rarely, end where there is no sufficient break in the sense. The division of chapters into verses, which was introduced into the New Testament for the first time in 1551, is an exaggeration of the latter method, with its accompanying inconveniences. The serious obstacles to the right understanding of Holy Scripture, which are interposed by minute subdivision, are often overlooked; but if any one will consider for a moment the injurious effect that would be produced by breaking up a portion of some great standard work into separate verses, he will at once perceive how necessary has been an alteration in this particular. The arrangement by chapters and verses undoubtedly affords facilities for reference: but this advantage we have been able to retain by placing the numerals on the inside margin of each page.

(c) A few words will suffice as to the mode of printing quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament. Wherever the quotation extends to two or more lines, our practice has been to recognise the parallelism of their structure by arranging the lines in a manner that appears to agree with the metrical divisions of the Hebrew original. Such an arrangement will be found helpful to the reader; not only as directing his attention to the poetical character of the quotation, but as also tending to make its force and pertinence more fully felt. We have treated in the same way the hymns in the first two chapters of the Gospel according to St. Luke.

(d) Great care has been bestowed on the punctuation. Our practice has been to maintain what is sometimes called the heavier system of stopping, or, in other words, that system which, especially for convenience in reading aloud, suggests such pauses as will best ensure a clear and intelligent setting forth of the true meaning of the words. This course has rendered necessary, especially in the Epistles, a larger use of colons and semicolons than is customary in modern English printing.

(e) We may in the last place notice one particular to which we were not expressly directed to extend our revision, namely, the titles of the Books of the New Testament. These titles are no part of the original text; and the titles found in the most ancient manuscripts are of too short a form to be convenient for use. Under these circumstances, we have deemed it best to leave unchanged the titles which are given in the Authorised Version as printed in 1611.

We now conclude, humbly commending our labours to Almighty God, and praying that his favour and blessing may be vouchsafed to that which has been done in his name. We recognised from the first the responsibility of the undertaking; and through our manifold experience of its abounding difficulties we have felt more and more, as we went onward, that such a work can never be accomplished by organised efforts of scholarship and criticism, unless assisted by Divine help.

We know full well that defects must have their place in a work so long and so arduous as this which has now come to an end. Blemishes and imperfections there are in the noble Translation which we have been called upon to revise; blemishes and imperfections will assuredly be found in our own Revision. All endeavours to translate the Holy Scriptures into another tongue must fall short of their aim, when the obligation is imposed of producing a Version that shall be alike literal and idiomatic, faithful to each thought of the original, and yet, in the expression of it, harmonious and free. While we dare to hope that in places not a few of the New Testament the introduction of slight changes has cast a new light upon much that was difficult and obscure, we cannot forget how often we have failed in expressing some finer shade of meaning which we recognised in the original, how often idiom has stood in the way of a perfect rendering, and how often the attempt to preserve a familiar form of words, or even a familiar cadence, has only added another perplexity to those which already beset us.

Thus, in the review of the work which we have been permitted to complete, our closing words must be words of mingled thanksgiving, humility, and prayer. Of thanksgiving, for the many blessings vouchsafed to us throughout the unbroken progress of our corporate labours; of humility, for our failings and imperfections in the fulfilment of our task; and of prayer to Almighty God, that the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may be more clearly and more freshly shewn forth to all who shall be readers of this Book.

1 [1]The book of the [2]generation of Jesus Christ, [a]the son of David, [bc]the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; 3 and Judah begat Perez and Zerah of Tamar; and [d]Perez begat Hezron; and Hezron begat [3]Ram; 4 and [3]Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon begat Salmon; 5 and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; 6 and Jesse begat David the king.

And David [e]begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Uriah; 7 and Solomon [f]begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat [4]Asa; 8 and [4]Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Uzziah; 9 and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; 10 and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat [5]Amon; and [5]Amon begat Josiah; 11 and Josiah begat Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the [6g]carrying away to Babylon.

12 And after the [6g]carrying away to Babylon, Jechoniah begat [7]Shealtiel; and [7]Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; 13 and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; 14 and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; 15 and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; 16 and Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, [h]who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the [6g]carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the [6g]carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations.

18 Now the [8]birth [9]of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his [i]mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was [k]found with child of the Holy Spirit. 19 And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. 20 But when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is [10]conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. 21 And she shall bring forth a son; and [l]thou shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that [m]shall save his people from their sins. 22 Now all this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, 23 Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, And they shall call his name [11]Immanuel; which is, being interpreted, God with us. 24 And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; 25 and knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and [n]he called his name JESUS.

Jerusalem, saying, 2 [1]Where is he that is born [a]King of the Jews? for we saw [b]his star in the east, and are come to [2]worship him. 3 And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. 5 And they said unto him, [c]In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written through the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah:
For out of thee shall come forth a governor, Who shall be [d]shepherd of my people Israel.

7 Then Herod privily called the [3]Wise-men, and learned of them exactly [4]what time the star appeared. 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and [2]worship him. 9 And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. 10 And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. 11 And they came into the house and saw the young child with [e]Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. 12 And being [f]warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord [g]appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. 14 And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; 15 and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt did I call [h]my son.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the [5]Wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had exactly learned of the [5]Wise-men. 17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

18 A voice was heard in Ramah, Weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children;
And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord [i]appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, 20 Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life. 21 And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. 22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being [k]warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, 23 and came and dwelt in a city called [l]Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, that he should be called a [m]Nazarene.

And [n]in those days cometh John the Baptist, preaching in [o]the wilderness of Judæa, saying, 2 [p]Repent ye; for [q]the kingdom of heaven is at hand. 3 For this is he that was spoken of through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness, [r]Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight.

4 Now John himself had [s]his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was [t]locusts and wild honey. 5 Then went out unto him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all [a]the region round about the Jordan; 6 and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 7 But when he saw many of the [b]Pharisees and [c]Sadducees coming [1]to his baptism, he said unto them, Ye [d]offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from [e]the wrath to come? 8 Bring forth therefore fruit [f]worthy of [2]repentance: 9 and think not to say within yourselves, [g]We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. 10 And even now the axe lieth at the root of the trees: [h]every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 11 [i]I indeed baptize you [3]in water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not [4]worthy to bear: [k]he shall baptize you [3]in the Holy Spirit and in fire: 12 whose [l]fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will [m]gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up with [n]unquenchable fire.

13 [o]Then cometh Jesus [p]from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? 15 But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer [5]it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened [6]unto him, and [q]he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; 17 and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, [7][r]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

4 [s]Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. 2 And when he had [t]fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. 3 And [u]the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art [v]the Son of God, command that these stones become [8]bread. 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. 5 Then the devil taketh him into [x]the holy city; and he set him on the [9]pinnacle of the temple, 6 and saith unto him, If thou art [v]the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:

and,

On their hands they shall bear thee up, Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord thy God. 8 Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; 9 and he said unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and [10]worship me. 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, [y]Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. 11 Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, [z]angels came and ministered unto him.

12 Now when he heard that [a]John was delivered up, [b]he withdrew into Galilee; 13 and leaving Nazareth, he came and [c]dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali: 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, [11]Toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the [12]Gentiles, 16 The people that sat in darkness Saw a great light,
And to them that sat in the region and shadow of death,
To them did light spring up.

17 [d]From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, [e]Repent ye; for the [e]kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 [a]And walking by [b]the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, [c]Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers. 19 And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men. 20 And they straightway left the nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from thence he saw other two brethren, [1][d]James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. 22 And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23 And [2]Jesus went about [e]in all Galilee, [f]teaching in their synagogues, and [g]preaching the [3]gospel of the kingdom, and [h]healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people. 24 And the report of him went forth [i]into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, [4][k]possessed with demons, and [l]epileptic, and [m]palsied; and he healed them. 25 And there [n]followed him great multitudes from Galilee and [o]Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judæa and from [p]beyond the Jordan.

5 [q]And seeing the multitudes, he went up into [r]the mountain: and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: 2 and he [s]opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 [t]Blessed are the poor in spirit: for [u]theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 [5]Blessed are [v]they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
5 Blessed are [x]the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are [y]they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
8 Blessed are [z]the pure in heart: for [a]they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for [b]they shall be called sons of God.
10 Blessed are they that have been [c]persecuted for righteousness' sake: for [u]theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 Blessed are ye when men shall [d]reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for [e]so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but [f]if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men. 14 Ye are [g]the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. 15 [h]Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house. 16 Even so let your light shine before men; that they may [i]see your good works, and [k]glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17 Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. 18 For verily I say unto you, [l]Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. 19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 [m]Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of [n]the judgment: 22 but I say unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother[6] shall be in danger of [n]the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother, [7]Raca, shall be in danger of [o]the council; and whosoever shall say, [1]Thou fool, shall be in danger [2]of the [3][a]hell of fire. 23 If therefore thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, 24 leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. 25 [b]Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge [4]deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. 26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.

27 [c]Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery: 28 but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29 And [d]if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body be cast into [5][e]hell. 30 And [f]if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body go into [5][e]hell. 31 It was said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: 32 [g]but I say unto you, that every one that putteth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when she is put away committeth adultery.

33 Again, [h]ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: 34 but I say unto you, [i]Swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is [k]the throne of God; 35 nor by the earth, for it is the [l]footstool of his feet; nor [6]by Jerusalem, for it is [m]the city of the great King. 36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black. 37 [7]But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and whatsoever is more than these is of [8][n]the evil one.

38 [o]Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: 39 but I say unto you, Resist not [9]him that is evil: but [p]whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40 And if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also. 41 And whosoever shall [10]compel thee to go one mile, go with him two. 42 [q]Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 [r]Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy: 44 but I say unto you, [s]Love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; 45 that ye may be [t]sons of your Father who is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. 46 For [u]if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the [11]publicans the same? 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the same? 48 [v]Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6 Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, [x]to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven.

2 When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they [x]may have glory of men. [y]Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. 3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: 4 that thine alms may be in secret: and [z]thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

5 And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to [a]stand and pray in the corners of the streets, that they [x]may be of Prayer, The Lord's Prayer, of Fasting, of True Treasure, of the Inner Light, of Anxiety, seen of men. [a]Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. 6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and [b]thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee. 7 And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for their [c]much speaking. 8 Be not therefore like unto them: for [1][d]your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. 9 [e]After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. 10 [f]Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. 11 [g]Give us this day [2]our daily bread. 12 And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. 13 And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from [3][h]the evil one.[4] 14 [i]For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover [k]when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. [l]Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; 18 that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father who is in secret: and [m]thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves [5]break through and steal: 20 but lay up for yourselves [n]treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not [5]break through nor steal: 21 for [o]where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. 22 [p]The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. 23 But if [q]thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness! 24 [r]No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and [s]mammon. 25 [t]Therefore I say unto you, Be not [u]anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? 26 [v]Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? 27 And which of you by being [u]anxious can [x]add one cubit unto [6]the measure of his life? 28 And why are ye [u]anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 yet I say unto you, that even [y]Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, [z]O ye of little faith? 31 Be not therefore [u]anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32 For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for [a]your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33 But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and [b]all these things shall be added unto you. 34 Be not therefore [u]anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

7 [c]Judge not, that ye be not judged. 2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and [d]with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you. 3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? 4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine own eye? 5 Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.
7 [a]Ask, and [b]it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: 8 for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; 10 or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent? 11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? 12 [c]All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for [d]this is the law and the prophets.
13 [e]Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide [1]is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many are they that enter in thereby. 14 [2]For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few are they that find it.
15 Beware of [f]false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are [g]ravening wolves. 16 [h]By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?
17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.
18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
19 [i]Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 20 Therefore [h]by their fruits ye shall know them. 21 [k]Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven.

22 [l]Many will say to me in [m]that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out demons, and by thy name do many [3]mighty works?
23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: [n]depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
24 [o]Every one therefore that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, who built his house upon the rock: 25 and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not:
for it was founded upon the rock.
26 And every one that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand: 27 and the rain descended, and the floods came,
and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof.
28 [p]And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these words, [q]the multitudes were astonished at his teaching: 29 for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

8 And when he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
2 And behold, [r]there came to him a leper and [4][s]worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 3 And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was cleansed.

Peter's Wife's Mother cured, and others. Discipleship exacting. The Tempest stilled. A Paralytic cured having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my [1] servant, Do this, and he doeth it. 10 And when Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, [2] I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. 11 And I say unto you, that many [a] shall come from the east and the west, and shall [3] sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: 12 but [b] the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into [c] the outer darkness: [d] there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as [e] thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And the [4] servant was healed in that hour.

14 [f] And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever. 15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and ministered unto him. 16 And when even was come, they brought unto him many [5g] possessed with demons: and he cast out the spirits with a word, and [h] healed all that were sick: 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, [i] he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. 19 [k] And there came [6] a scribe, and said unto him, Teacher, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. 20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have [7] nests; but [l] the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. 21 And another of the disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. 22 But Jesus saith unto him, [m] Follow me; and leave the dead to bury their own dead.

23 [n] And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. 24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. 25 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Save, Lord; we perish. 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, [o] O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. 27 And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

28 [p] And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two [5g] possessed with demons, coming forth out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man could pass by that way. 29 And behold, they cried out, saying, [q] What have we to do with thee, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? 30 Now there was afar off from them a herd of many swine feeding. 31 And the demons besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine. 32 And he said unto them, Go. And they came out, and went into the swine: and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, and perished in the waters. 33 And they that fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to them that were [5g] possessed with demons. 34 And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart from their borders.

9 And he entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into [r] his own city. 2 [s] And behold, they brought to him a man [t] sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, [8] Son, [u] be of good cheer; [v] thy sins are forgiven. 3 And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. 4 And Jesus [9x] knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? 5 For which is easier, to say, [v] Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and walk? 6 But that ye may know that [y] the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the [t] sick of the palsy), Arise, and take up thy bed, and go unto thy house. 7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they were afraid, and [a]glorified God, who had given such authority unto men.

9 [b]And as Jesus passed by from thence, he saw a man, called [c]Matthew, sitting at the place of toll: and he saith unto him, [d]Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as he [1]sat at meat in the house, behold, many [2]publicans and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, [e]Why eateth your Teacher with the [2]publicans and sinners? 12 But when he heard it, he said, [f]They that are [3]whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick. 13 But go ye and learn [g]what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice: for [h]I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

14 Then come to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and [i]the Pharisees fast [4]oft, but thy disciples fast not? 15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the [5]sons of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast. 16 And no man putteth a piece of undressed cloth upon an old garment; for that which should fill it up taketh from the garment, and a worse rent is made. 17 Neither do men put new wine into old [6]wine-skins: else the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins perish: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins, and both are preserved.

18 [k]While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came [7]a ruler, and [8][l]worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. 19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. 20 And behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched [m]the border of his garment: 21 for she said within herself, If I do but [n]touch his garment, I shall be [9]made whole. 22 But Jesus turning and seeing her said, Daughter, [o]be of good cheer; [p]thy faith hath [10]made thee whole. And the woman was [9]made whole from that hour. 23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw [q]the flute-players, and the crowd making a tumult, 24 he said, Give place: for the damsel [r]is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. 25 But when the crowd was put forth, he entered in, and took her by the hand; and the damsel arose. 26 And [11][s]the fame hereof went forth into all that land.

27 And as Jesus passed by from thence, two blind men followed him, crying out, and saying, Have mercy on us, thou [t]son of David. 28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. 29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, [u]According to your faith be it done unto you. 30 And their eyes were opened. And Jesus [12][v]strictly charged them, saying, See that no man know it. 31 But they went forth, and [s]spread abroad his fame in all that land.

32 And as they went forth, behold, [x]there was brought to him a dumb man [y]possessed with a demon. 33 And when the demon was cast out, the dumb man spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, [z]It was never so seen in Israel. 34 But the Pharisees said, [13][a]By the prince of the demons casteth he out demons.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, [b]teaching in their synagogues, and [c]preaching the [14]gospel of the kingdom, and [d]healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. 36 But when he [e]saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, [f]because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd. 37 Then saith he unto his disciples, [g]The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. 38 [g]Pray ye therefore the

The Twelve Apostles :— Commissioned ; Cautioned ; Encouraged ; Cost of the Service ;

Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest.

10 [a]And he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to [b]heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

2 [c]Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, [d]Simon, who is called Peter, and [d]Andrew his brother; [1][e]James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; 3 [f]Philip, and Bartholomew; [g]Thomas, and [h]Matthew the [2]publican; [1][i]James the son of Alphæus, and [k]Thaddæus; 4 Simon the [3]Cananæan, and [l]Judas Iscariot, who also [4]betrayed him.

5 [m]These twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying, Go not into any way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of the [n]Samaritans: 6 but go rather to [o]the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And as ye go, preach, saying, [p]The kingdom of heaven is at hand. 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons: freely ye received, freely give. 9 [q]Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your [5]purses; 10 no wallet for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for [r]the laborer is worthy of his food. 11 And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go forth. 12 And as ye enter into the house, [s]salute it. 13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, [t]shake off the dust of your feet. 15 Verily I say unto you, [u]It shall be more tolerable for the land of [v]Sodom and Gomorrah in [x]the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 [y]Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore [z]wise as serpents, and [6][a]harmless as doves. 17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to [b]councils, and [c]in their synagogues they will scourge you; 18 yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. 19 [d]But when they deliver you up, [e]be not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what ye shall speak. 20 For [f]it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you. 21 [g]And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall rise up against parents, and [7]cause them to be put to death. 22 And [h]ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but [i]he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. 23 But when they [k]persecute you in this city, flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, [l]till the Son of man be come.

24 [m]A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a [8]servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the [8]servant as his lord. [n]If they have called the master of the house [9][o]Beelzebub, how much more them of his household! 26 [p]Fear them not therefore: [q]for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 27 [r]What I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light; and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim [s]upon the housetops. 28 And be not afraid of them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather [t]fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in [10][u]hell. 29 [v]Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father: 30 but [x]the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Fear not therefore; [y]ye are of more value than many sparrows. 32 Every one therefore who shall confess [11]me before men, [12][z]him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven. 33 But [a]whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

34 [a]Think not that I came to [1]send peace on the earth: I came not to [1]send peace, but a sword. 35 For I came to set [b]a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law: 36 [b]and a man's foes shall be they of his own household. 37 [c]He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And [d]he that doth not take his cross and follow after me, is not worthy of me. 39 [e]He that [2]findeth his life shall lose it; and he that [3]loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 [f]He that receiveth you receiveth me, and [g]he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. 41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And [h]whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you he shall in no wise lose his reward.

11 [i]And it came to pass when Jesus had finished commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence [k]to teach and preach in their cities.

2 [l]Now when [m]John heard in the prison the works of the Christ, he sent by his disciples 3 and said unto him, Art thou [n]he that cometh, or look we for another? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and tell John the things which ye hear and see: 5 [o]the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have [4]good tidings preached to them. 6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall find [p]no occasion of stumbling in me.

7 And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into [q]the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? 8 But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in kings' houses. 9 [5]But wherefore went ye out? to see [r]a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. 10 This is he, of whom it is written,

> Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is [6]but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 And [t]from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by force. 13 For [t]all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if ye are willing to receive [7]it, this is [u]Elijah, that is to come. 15 [v]He that hath ears [8]to hear, let him hear. 16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the marketplaces, who call unto their fellows 17 and say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not [9]mourn. 18 For John came neither [x]eating nor [y]drinking, and they say, [z]He hath a demon. 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man and a winebibber, [a]a friend of [10]publicans and sinners! And wisdom [11]is justified by her [12]works.

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his [13]mighty works were done, because they repented not. 21 [b]Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, [c]Bethsaida! for if the [13]mighty works had been done in [d]Tyre and [d]Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in [e]sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I say unto you, [f]it shall be more tolerable for [d]Tyre and [d]Sidon in [g]the day of judgment, than for you. 23 And thou, [h]Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt [1][a]go down unto [b]Hades: for if the [2]mighty works had been done in [c]Sodom which were done in thee, it would have remained until this day. 24 But I say unto you that [d]it shall be more tolerable for the land of [c]Sodom in [e]the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 [f]At that season Jesus [g]answered and said, I [3]thank thee, O [h]Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that [i]thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: 26 yea, [h]Father, [4]for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. 27 [k]All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Father; neither doth any know the Father, [l]save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. 28 [m]Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you, and [n]learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and [o]ye shall find rest unto your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

12 [p]At that season Jesus went on the sabbath day through the grainfields; and his disciples were hungry and began to [q]pluck ears and to eat. 2 But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which [r]it is not lawful to do upon the sabbath. 3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was hungry, and they that were with him; 4 how he entered into the house of God, and [5]ate the showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him, but only for the priests? 5 Or have ye not read in the law, that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? 6 But I say unto you, that [6]one [s]greater than the temple is here. 7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. 8 For [t]the Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

9 [u]And he departed thence, and went into their synagogue: 10 and behold, a man having a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, [r]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? that they might accuse him. 11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be of you, that shall have one sheep, and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? 12 [v]How much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do good on the sabbath day. 13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, as the other. 14 But the Pharisees went out, and [x]took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

15 And Jesus perceiving it withdrew from thence: and many followed him; and [y]he healed them all, 16 and [z]charged them that they should not make him known: 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 Behold, my [7]servant whom I have chosen; [a]My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: [b]I will put my Spirit upon him, And he shall declare judgment to the [8]Gentiles.
19 He shall not strive, nor cry aloud; Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets.
20 A bruised reed shall he not break, And smoking flax shall he not quench, Till he send forth judgment unto victory.
21 [c]And in his name shall the [8]Gentiles hope.

22 [d]Then was brought unto him [9]one [e]possessed with a demon, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the dumb man spake and saw. 23 And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, Can this be the [f]son of David? 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out demons, but [10][g]by [11][h]Beelzebub the prince of the demons. 25 [i]And [k]knowing their thoughts he said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: 26 and if [a]Satan casteth out [a]Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand?

27 And if I [1][b]by [2][c]Beelzebub cast out demons, [1][d]by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 28 But if I [1]by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. 29 Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. 30 [e]He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.
31 [f]Therefore I say unto you, Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven. 32 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in [g]this [3]world, nor in that which is to come. 33 Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for [h]the tree is known by its fruit. 34 [i]Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? [k]for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. 35 The good man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.
36 And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in [l]the day of judgment. 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, Teacher, [m]we would see a sign from thee. 39 But he answered and said unto them, [n]An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: 40 for as [o]Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the [4]whale; so shall [p]the Son of man be [q]three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
41 [r]The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for [s]they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, [5][t]a greater than Jonah is here. 42 [u]The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, [5][v]a greater than Solomon is here. 43 [x]But the unclean spirit, when [6]he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not.
44 Then [6]he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when [6]he is come, [6]he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.
45 Then goeth [6]he, and taketh with [7]himself seven other spirits more evil than [7]himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and [y]the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

46 [z]While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his [a]mother and his [b]brethren stood without, seeking to speak to him.
47 [8]And one said unto him, Behold, thy [a]mother and thy [b]brethren stand without, seeking to speak to thee. 48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? 49 And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren!
50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 On that day went Jesus out of [c]the house, and sat [d]by the sea side. 2 And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so that [e]he entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach.
3 And he spake to them many things in [f]parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow;

4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: 5 and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. 7 And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked them: 8 and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a [a]hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 [b]He that hath ears,[1] let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? 11 And he answered and said unto them, [c]Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 [d]For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables; because [e]seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. 14 And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, [f]By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive: 15 For this people's heart is waxed gross,

And their ears are dull of hearing, And their eyes they have closed;
Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,
And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart,
And should turn again,
And I should heal them.

16 [g]But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17 For verily I say unto you, that [h]many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. 18 [i]Hear then ye the parable of the sower. 19 When any one heareth [k]the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh [l]the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side. 20 And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiveth it; 21 yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway he [m]stumbleth. 22 And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of [n]the [2]world, and the [o]deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. 23 And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some [p]a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, [q]The kingdom of heaven is likened unto [r]a man that sowed good seed in his field: 25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed [3]tares also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 And the [4]servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? 28 And he said unto them, [5]An enemy hath done this. And the [4]servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? 29 But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but [s]gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, [t][u]The kingdom of heaven is like unto [v]a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: 32 which indeed is less than all seeds;

[1]measures of meal, till it was all leavened.
34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and [e]without a parable spake he nothing unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden from the foundation [2]of the world.

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into [f]the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, [g]Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. 37 And he answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is [h]the Son of man; 38 and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are [i]the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are [k]the sons of [l]the evil one; 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is [3 m]the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. 40 As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in [3 m]the end of the world. 41 [h]The Son of man [n]shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, 42 and [o]shall cast them into the furnace of fire: [p]there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. [q]He that hath ears,[4] let him hear.
44 [r]The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and [5]in his joy he goeth and [s]selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.
45 Again, [r]the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: 46 and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.
47 Again, [t]the kingdom of heaven is like unto a [6]net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: 48 which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. 49 So shall it be in [7 u]the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, 50 and [o]shall cast them into the furnace of fire: [p]there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.
51 Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea. 52 And he said unto them, Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, who bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.
53 [v]And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.
54 [x]And coming into his own country he [y]taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that [z]they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these [8]mighty works? 55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not [a]his mother called Mary? and his [a]brethren, [9]James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? 56 And [b]his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? 57 And they were [10 c]offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, [d]A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house. 58 And he did not many [8]mighty works there because of their unbelief.

14 [e]At that season [f]Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, 2 and said unto his servants, [g]This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do these powers work in him. 3 For [f]Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him [h]in prison for the sake of [i]Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.

John the Baptist beheaded. The Five Thousand fed. Jesus walks on the Water. Jesus in Gennesaret

4 For John said unto him, [a]It is not lawful for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as [b]a prophet. 6 But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of [c]Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased [d]Herod.
7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she should ask. 8 And she, being put forward by her mother, saith, Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.
9 And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat with him, he commanded it to be given; 10 and he sent and beheaded John in the prison. 11 And his head was brought on a platter, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother. 12 And his disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.

13 [e]Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart: and when the multitudes heard thereof, they followed him [1]on foot from the cities. 14 And he came forth, and [f]saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, and [g]healed their sick. 15 And when even was come, the disciples came to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food.
16 But Jesus said unto them, They have no need to go away; give ye them to eat. 17 And they say unto him, We have here but [h]five loaves, and two fishes.
18 And he said, Bring them hither to me. 19 And he commanded the multitudes to [2]sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he [i]blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 20 And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, twelve [k]baskets full. 21 And they that did eat were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 [l]And straightway he constrained the disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away. 23 And after he had sent the multitudes away, [m]he went up into the mountain apart to pray: and when even was come, he was there alone.
24 But the boat [3]was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves; for the wind was contrary.
25 And in [n]the fourth watch of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea. 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is [o]a ghost; and they cried out for fear. 27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, [p]Be of good cheer; it is I; [q]be not afraid. 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee upon the waters.
29 And he said, Come. And Peter went down from the boat, and walked upon the waters [4]to come to Jesus. 30 But when he saw the [5]wind, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me. 31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith unto him, [r]O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? 32 And when they were gone up into the boat, the wind ceased. 33 And they that were in the boat [6]worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art [s]the Son of God.

34 [t]And when they had crossed over, they came to the land, unto [u]Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place knew him, they sent into all that region round about, and brought unto him all that were sick; 36 and they besought him that they might only touch [v]the border of his garment: and as many as [x]touched were made whole.

commandment of God because of your tradition? 4 For God said, Honor thy father and thy mother: and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him [1]die the death. 5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is given to God; 6 he shall not honor his father[2]. And ye have made void the [3]word of God because of your tradition. 7 Ye hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 This people honoreth me with their lips;
But their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as their [a]doctrines the precepts of men.

10 And he called to him the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand: 11 [b]Not that which entereth into the mouth defileth the man; but that which proceedeth out of the mouth, this defileth the man. 12 Then came the disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were [4]offended, when they heard this saying? 13 But he answered and said, [c]Every [5]plant which my heavenly Father planted not, shall be rooted up. 14 Let them alone: [d]they are blind guides. And [e]if the blind guide the blind, both shall fall into a pit. 15 And Peter answered and said unto him, [f]Declare unto us the parable. 16 And he said, Are ye also even yet without understanding? 17 Perceive ye not, that whatsoever goeth into the mouth passeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? 18 But [g]the things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and they defile the man. 19 [h]For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, railings: 20 these are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the man.

21 [i]And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts of [k]Tyre and [k]Sidon. 22 And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou [l]son of David; my daughter is grievously [m]vexed with a demon. 23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. 24 But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto [n]the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 25 But she came and [6][o]worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. 26 And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's [7]bread and cast it to the dogs. 27 But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. 28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, [p]great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 [q]And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto [r]the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. 30 And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and [s]he healed them: 31 insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they [t]glorified the God of Israel.

32 [u]And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, [v]I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint on the way. 33 And the disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place as to fill so great a multitude? 34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. 35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; 36 and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he [x]gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 37 And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven [a]baskets full. 38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into [b]the boat, and came into the borders of [c]Magadan.

16 [d]And the [e]Pharisees and Sadducees came, and trying him [f]asked him to show them a sign from heaven. 2 But he answered and said unto them, [1][g]When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the heaven is red. 3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowering. Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs of the times. 4 [h]An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

5 And the disciples came to the other side and forgot to take [2]bread. 6 And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and [i]beware of the leaven of the [e]Pharisees and Sadducees. 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, [3]We took no [2]bread. 8 And Jesus perceiving it said, [k]O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have no [2]bread? 9 Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember [l]the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many [4][m]baskets ye took up? 10 Neither [n]the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many [4][o]baskets ye took up? 11 How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning [2]bread? But [i]beware of the leaven of the [e]Pharisees and Sadducees. 12 Then understood they that he bade them not beware of the leaven of [2]bread, but of the teaching of the [e]Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 [p]Now when Jesus came into the parts of [q]Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say [5]that [r]the Son of man is? 14 And they said, Some say [s]John the Baptist; some, [t]Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets. 15 He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am? 16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art [u]the Christ, [v]the Son of [x]the living God. 17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, [y]Simon Bar-Jonah: for [z]flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven. 18 And I also say unto thee, that thou art [6][a]Peter, and upon this [7]rock I will build my church; and the gates of [b]Hades shall not prevail against it. 19 I will give unto thee [c]the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and [d]whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. 20 [e]Then charged he the disciples that they should tell no man that he was [u]the Christ.

21 [f]From that time began [8]Jesus to show unto his disciples, that he must go unto Jerusalem, and [g]suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up. 22 And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, [9]Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto thee. 23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, [h]Satan: thou art a stumbling-block unto me: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. 24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and [i]take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For [k]whosoever would save his life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake shall find it. 26 For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his life? 27 For the [l]Son of man [m]shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and [n]then shall he render unto every man according to his [10]deeds. 28 Verily I say unto you, There are some of them that stand here, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see [a] the Son of man [b] coming in his kingdom.

17 [c] And after six days Jesus taketh with him [d] Peter, and [1] James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: 2 and he was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. 3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. 4 And Peter [e] answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, [f] I will make here three [2] tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 5 While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, [g] a voice out of the cloud, saying, [h] This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. 7 And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and [i] be not afraid. 8 And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.

9 [k] And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, [l] Tell the vision to no man, until [m] the Son of man be [n] risen from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that [o] Elijah must first come? 11 And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all things: 12 but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they would. Even so shall [m] the Son of man also suffer of them. 13 Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 [p] And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is [q] epileptic, and suffereth grievously; for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into the water. 16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. 17 And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him hither to me. 18 And Jesus rebuked him; and the demon went out of him: and the boy was cured from that hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast it out? 20 And he saith unto them, Because of your little faith: for verily I say unto you, [r] If ye have faith as [s] a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto [t] this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and [u] nothing shall be impossible unto you. [3]

22 [v] And while they [4] abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be [5] delivered up into the hands of men; 23 and [x] they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised up. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received [y] the [6] half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth not your teacher pay [y] the [6] half-shekel? 25 He saith, Yea. And when he came into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they receive [z] toll or [a] tribute? from their sons, or from strangers? 26 And when he said, From strangers, Jesus said unto him, Therefore the sons are free. 27 But, lest we [b] cause them to stumble, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a [7] shekel: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

18 [c] In that hour came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who then is [8] greatest in the kingdom of heaven? 2 And he called to him a little child, and set him in the midst of them, 3 and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and [d] become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the [1]greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me: 6 but [a]whoso shall [b]cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that [2]a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for [c]it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom the occasion cometh! 8 And [d]if thy hand or thy foot [b]causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. 9 And [e]if thine eye [b]causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the [3][f]hell of fire. 10 See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven [g]their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.[4] 12 How think ye? [h]if any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not gone astray. 14 Even so it is not [5]the will of [6]your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 And [i]if thy brother sin [7]against thee, go, show him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. 16 But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that [k]at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. 17 And if he refuse to hear them, [l]tell it unto the [8]church: and if he refuse to hear the [8]church also, [m]let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the [9]publican. 18 Verily I say unto you, [n]What things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. 19 Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, [o]it [10]shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, [p]how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until [q]seven times? 22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until [11][r]seventy times seven. 23 Therefore is [s]the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would [t]make a reckoning with his [12]servants. 24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, that owed him ten thousand [13]talents. 25 But forasmuch as he [u]had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him [v]to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 The [14]servant therefore fell down and [15][x]worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. 27 And the lord of that [14]servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the [16]debt. 28 But that [14]servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred [17]shillings: and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. 29 So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. 30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due. 31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. 32 Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked [14]servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me: 33 shouldest not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? 34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due. 35 [a] So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

19 [b] And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and [c] came into the borders of Judæa beyond the Jordan; 2 and great multitudes followed him; and [d] he healed them there.

3 And there came unto him [1] Pharisees, trying him, and saying, [e] Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? 4 And he answered and said, Have ye not read, that he who [2] made them from the beginning made them male and female, 5 and said, [f] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and [g] the two shall become one flesh? 6 So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. 7 They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorcement, and to put her away? 8 He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been so. 9 And I say unto you, [h] Whosoever shall put away his wife, [3] except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: [4] and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth adultery. 10 The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not expedient to marry. 11 But he said unto them, [i] Not all men can receive this saying, but [k] they to whom it is given. 12 For there are eunuchs, that were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, that were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, that made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 [l] Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said, [m] Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for [5] to such belongeth [n] the kingdom of heaven. 15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 [o] And behold, one came to him and said, [6] Teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have [p] eternal life? 17 And he said unto him, [7] Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but [q] if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. 18 He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 [r] Honor thy father and thy mother; and, [s] Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I observed: what lack I yet? 21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go, [t] sell that which thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have [u] treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 22 But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful; for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, [v] It is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven. 24 And again I say unto you, [x] It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 25 And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? 26 And Jesus looking upon them said to them, [y] With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. 27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? 28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye who have followed me, in the regeneration when [z] the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, [a] ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And [a] every one that hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother,[1] or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive [2] a hundredfold, and shall inherit eternal life. 30 [b] But many shall be last that are first; and first that are last.

20 1 For [c] the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his [d] vineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the laborers for a [3] shilling a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; 4 and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. 8 And when [e] even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his [f] steward, Call the laborers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a [3] shilling. 10 And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a [3] shilling. 11 And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, 12 saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, who have borne the burden of the day and [g] the [4] scorching heat. 13 But he answered and said to one of them, [h] Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a [3] shilling? 14 Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto this last, even as unto thee. 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or is thine [i] eye evil, because I am good? 16 So [k] the last shall be first, and the first last.

17 [l] And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart, and on the way he said unto them, 18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man [m] shall be [5] delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, 19 and [n] shall deliver him unto the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and [m] the third day he shall be raised up.

20 [o] Then came to him the mother of [p] the sons of Zebedee with her sons, [6][q] worshipping him, and asking a certain thing of him. 21 And he said unto her, What wouldest thou? She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons [r] may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy kingdom. 22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able [s] to drink the cup that I am about to drink? They say unto him, We are able. 23 He saith unto them [t] My cup indeed ye shall drink: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give; [u] but it is for them for whom it hath been [v] prepared of my Father. 24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation concerning the two brethren. 25 [x] But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 26 Not so shall it be among you: [y] but whosoever would become great among you shall be your [7] minister; 27 and whosoever would be first among you shall be your [8] servant: 28 even as [z] the Son of man [a] came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 [b] And as they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. 30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, [c] have mercy on us, thou [d] son of David. 31 And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou [a] son of David. 32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you? 33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. 34 And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

21 [b] And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto [c] the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. 3 And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. 4 [d] Now this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

Is. lxii. 11. 5 Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Zech. ix. 9. Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, Meek, and riding upon an ass,
And upon a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed them, 7 and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon. 8 And the most part of the multitude [e] spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. 9 And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, [f] Hosanna to the [a] son of David: [f] Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna [g] in the highest. 10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this? 11 And the multitudes said, This is [h] the prophet, Jesus, from [i] Nazareth of Galilee.

12 [k] And Jesus entered into the temple [1] of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the [l] money-changers, and the seats of them that sold [m] the doves; 13 and he saith unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer: but ye make it a den of robbers. 14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and [n] he healed them. 15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the [a] son of David; they were moved with indignation, 16 and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? 17 And he left them, and went forth out of the city to [o] Bethany, and lodged there.

18 [p] Now in the morning as he returned to the city, he hungered. 19 And seeing [2] a fig tree by the way side, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig tree withered away. 20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig tree immediately wither away? 21 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [q] If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea, it shall be done. 22 And [r] all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 [s] And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? 24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one [3] question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him? 26 But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude; for all hold John as [a] a prophet. 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. 28 But what think ye? A man had two [1] sons; and he came to the first, and said, [2] Son, go work to-day in the [b] vineyard. 29 And he answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented himself, and went. 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that [c] the [3] publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but [d] the [3] publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even repent yourselves afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 Hear another parable: [e] There was a man that was a householder, who [f] planted a [b] vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a [g] winepress in it, and [g] built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and [h] went into another country. 34 And when the season of the fruits drew near, he [i] sent his [4] servants to the husbandmen, to receive [5] his fruits. 35 And the husbandmen took his [4] servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again, he [k] sent other [4] servants more than the first: and they did unto them in like manner. 37 But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. 38 But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and take his inheritance. 39 And they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40 When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do unto those husbandmen? 41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and [l] will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen, who shall render him the fruits in their seasons. 42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures,

The same was made the head of the corner;
This was from the Lord,
And it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. 44 [6] And he that falleth on this stone shall be broken to pieces: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust. 45 And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. 46 And when they sought to lay hold on him, they [n] feared the multitudes, because they took him for a [o] prophet.

22 And Jesus [p] answered and spake again in parables unto them, saying, 2 [q] [r] The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, 3 and [s] sent forth his [4] servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. 4 Again he [t] sent forth other [4] servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast. 5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise; 6 and the rest laid hold on his [4] servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. 7 But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. 8 Then saith he to his [4] servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not worthy. 9 Go ye therefore unto [u] the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. 10 And those

[1]servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests. 11 But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there [a]a man who had not on a wedding-garment: 12 and he saith unto him, [b]Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the [2]servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into [c]the outer darkness; [c]there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 14 For many are [d]called, but few [d]chosen.

15 [e]Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare him in his talk. 16 And they send to him their disciples, with the [f]Herodians, saying, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men. 17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give [g]tribute unto [h]Cæsar, or not? 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why make ye trial of me, ye hypocrites? 19 Show me the [g]tribute money. And they brought unto him a [3]denarius. 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? 21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, [i]Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. 22 And when they heard it, they marvelled, and [k]left him, and went away.

23 [l]On that day there came to him [m]Sadducees, [4] [n]they that say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, 24 saying, Teacher, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother [5]shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife unto his brother; 26 in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the [6]seventh. 27 And after them all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. 29 But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [o]not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither [p]marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels[7] in heaven. 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 33 And when the multitudes heard it, [q]they were astonished at his teaching.

34 [r]But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put [m]the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. 35 And one of them, [s]a lawyer, asked him a question, trying him: 36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? 37 And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the great and first commandment. 39 [8]And a second like unto it is this, [t]Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 40 [u]On these two commandments the whole law hangeth, and the prophets.

41 [v]Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, 42 saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, [x]The son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David [y]in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 [z]The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet?

45 If David then calleth him Lord, how is he his son? 46 And [a]no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

[b]Then spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, 2 saying, [c]The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat: 3 all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, these do and observe:

Pharisaism exposed; warned against; denounced:—the Seven Woes but do not ye after their works; for they say, and do not. 4 Yea, [a]they bind heavy burdens [1]and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger. 5 But all their works they do [b]to be seen of men: for they [c]make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge [d]the borders of their garments, 6 and [e]love the chief place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called of men, [f]Rabbi. 8 But [g]be not ye called [f]Rabbi: for one is your teacher, and all ye are brethren. 9 And call no man your father on the earth: for [h]one is your Father, [2]even he who is in heaven. 10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master, even the Christ. 11 [i]But he that is [3]greatest among you shall be your [4]servant. 12 And [k]whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 [l]But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [m]because ye shut the kingdom of heaven [5]against men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter.[6]

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one [n]proselyte; and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more a son of [7][o]hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye [p]blind guides, that say, [q]Whosoever shall swear by the [8]temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the [8]temple, he is [9]a debtor. 17 Ye fools and blind: for [r]which is greater, the gold, or the [8]temple that hath sanctified the gold? 18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is [9]a debtor. 19 Ye blind: for [s]which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? 20 He therefore that sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. 21 And he that sweareth by the [8]temple, sweareth by it, and by him that [t]dwelleth therein. 22 And he that sweareth by the heaven, sweareth [u]by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 [v]Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye tithe mint and [10]anise and cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, justice, and mercy, and faith: but these ye ought to have done, and not to have left the other undone. 24 Ye [x]blind guides, that strain out the gnat, and swallow the camel!

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for [y]ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full from extortion and excess. 26 Thou blind Pharisee, [y]cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside thereof may become clean also.

27 [z]Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. 28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 [a]Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, 30 and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. 31 Wherefore ye witness to yourselves, that [b]ye are sons of them that slew the prophets. 32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. 33 Ye serpents, [c]ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgment of [7][o]hell? 34 [d]Therefore, behold, [e]I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: some of them shall ye kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye [f]scourge in your synagogues, and [g]persecute from city to city: 35 that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of [h]Abel the righteous unto the blood of Zachariah [i]son of Barachiah, whom [k]ye slew between came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. 2 But he answered and said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [i]There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on [k]the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of [l]thy [2]coming, and of [3][m]the end of the world? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [n]Take heed that no man lead you astray.
5 For [o]many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and shall lead many astray. 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that ye be not troubled: for these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. 7 For [p]nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be [q]famines and earthquakes in divers places. 8 But all these things are the beginning of travail.
9 [r]Then shall they deliver you up unto tribulation, and shall kill you: and [s]ye shall be hated of all the nations for my name's sake.
10 And then shall many [t]stumble, and shall [4]deliver up one another, and shall hate one another.
11 And many [u]false prophets shall arise, and shall lead many astray. 12 And because iniquity shall be multiplied, the love of the many shall wax cold. 13 [v]But he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. 14 And [5]this [x]gospel of the kingdom [y]shall be preached in the whole [6][z]world for a testimony unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.
15 When therefore ye see the [a]abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in [7][b]the holy place ([c]let him that readeth understand), 16 then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: 17 let him that is on [d]the housetop not go down to take out the things that are in his house: 18 and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloak. 19 But [e]woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! 20 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sabbath: 21 for then shall be [f]great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. 22 And except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for [g]the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.
23 [h]Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe [8]it not. 24 For there shall arise false Christs, and [u]false prophets, and shall show great [i]signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even [g]the elect. 25 Behold, I have told you beforehand. 26 If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe [9]it not.
27 [h]For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be the [2][k]coming of the [l]Son of man.
28 [m]Wheresoever the carcase is, there will the [10]eagles be gathered together.
29 But immediately after the [n]tribulation of those days [o]the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and [p]the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the Lesson from the Fig Tree. Faithful and Unfaithful Servants and their Reward. The Ten Virgins

heavens shall be shaken: 30 and then shall appear the [a] sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see [b] the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 31 And [c] he shall send forth his angels [1] with [2] a great sound of [d] a trumpet, and they shall gather together his [e] elect from [f] the four winds, [g] from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; 33 even so ye also, when ye see all these things, know ye that [3] he is nigh, even [h] at the doors. 34 Verily I say unto you, [i] This generation shall not pass away, till all these things be accomplished. 35 [k] Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. 36 But [l] of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, [4] neither the Son, but the Father only. 37 [m] And as were the days of Noah, so shall be the [5] [b] coming of the Son of man. 38 For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, [n] marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, 39 and they knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall be the [5] [b] coming of the Son of man. 40 Then shall two men be in the field; one is taken, and one is left: 41 [o] two women shall be grinding at the [p] mill; one is taken, and one is left. 42 [q] Watch therefore: for ye know not on what day your Lord cometh. 43 [6] But know this, that [q] if the master of the house had known in what [r] watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be [7] broken through. 44 Therefore [q] be ye also ready; for in an hour that ye think not [s] the Son of man cometh.

45 [t] Who then is the [u] faithful and [v] wise [8] servant, whom his lord [x] hath set over his household, to give them their food in due season? 46 Blessed is that [8] servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. 47 Verily I say unto you, that [x] he will set him over all that he hath. 48 But if that evil [8] servant shall say in his heart, My lord tarrieth; 49 and shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and shall eat and drink with the drunken; 50 the lord of that [8] servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, 51 and shall [9] cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites: [y] there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

25 Then shall [z] the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, who took their [10] [a] lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. 2 And five of them were foolish, and five were [v] wise. 3 For the foolish, when they took their [10] lamps, took no oil with them: 4 but the [v] wise took oil in their vessels with their [10] lamps. 5 Now while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. 6 But at midnight there is a cry, Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him. 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their [10] lamps. 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our [10] lamps are going out. 9 But the [v] wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. 10 And while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were [b] ready went in with him to [c] the marriage feast: and [d] the door was shut. 11 Afterward come also the other virgins, saying, [d] Lord, Lord, open to us. 12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. 13 [b] Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour.

14 [e] For it is as when a man, [f] going into another country, called his own [11] servants, and delivered unto them his goods. 15 And unto one he gave five [g] talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his several ability; and he [f] went on his journey. 16 Straightway he that other five talents. 17 In like manner he also that received the two gained other two. 18 But he that received the one went away and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 Now after a long time the lord of those [1]servants cometh, and [b]maketh a reckoning with them. 20 And he that received the five [a]talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: lo, I have gained other five talents.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and [c]faithful [2]servant:
thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. 22 And he also that received the two [a]talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, I have gained other two talents.
23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and [c]faithful [2]servant:
thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over
many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. 24 And he also that had received the one [a]talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter; 25 and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine own. 26 But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful [2]servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter; 27 thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest. 28 Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath the ten talents. 29 [d]For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away. 30 And cast ye out the unprofitable [2]servant into [e]the outer darkness: [e]there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

X 31 But when [f]the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then [g]shall he sit on the throne of his glory: 32 and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, [h]as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats; 33 and he shall set the sheep [i]on his right hand, but the goats [k]on the left.
34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, [l]inherit the kingdom prepared for you [m]from the foundation of the world: 35 for [n]I was hungry, and ye gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; [o]I was a stranger, and ye took me in; 36 [n]naked, and ye clothed me; [p]I was sick, and ye [q]visited me; [r]I was in prison, and ye came unto me. 37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink? 38 And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? 39 And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? 40 And [s]the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, [t]Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me. 41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, [3][u]Depart from me, ye cursed, into the [v]eternal fire which is prepared for [x]the devil and his angels: 42 for I was hungry, and ye did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink; 43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.
44 Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?
45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me. 46 And these shall go away into [y]eternal punishment: but the righteous into [z]eternal life. X

The Plot to kill Jesus. The Precious Ointment. The Bargain of Judas. The Supper. Peter's Denial foretold

26

[a] And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, he said unto his disciples, 2 [b] Ye know that after two days [c] the passover cometh, and the Son of man is [1] delivered up to be crucified. 3 [d] Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto [e] the court of the high priest, who was called [f] Caiaphas; 4 and they [g] took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtlety, and kill him. 5 But they said, Not during the feast, [h] lest a tumult arise among the people.

6 [i] Now when Jesus was in [k] Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 there came unto him a woman having [2] an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, as [3] he sat at meat. 8 But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. 10 But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. 11 For [l] ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always. 12 For in that she [4] poured this ointment upon my body, she did it [m] to prepare me for burial. 13 Verily I say unto you, [n] Wheresoever [5] this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

14 [o] Then one of the twelve, who was called [p] Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will [6] deliver him unto you? And [q] they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to [6] deliver him unto them.

17 [r] Now on the first day of [s] unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the passover? 18 And he said, Go into the city to [t] such a man, and say unto him, The Teacher saith, [u] My time is at hand; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. 19 And the disciples did as Jesus appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 [v] Now when even was come, he was [7] sitting at meat with the twelve [8] disciples; 21 and as they were eating, he said, [x] Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall [9] betray me. 22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord? 23 And he answered and said, [y] He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall [9] betray me. 24 The Son of man goeth, [z] even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is [9] betrayed! [a] good were it [10] for that man if he had not been born. 25 And [b] Judas, who [9] betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, [c] Rabbi? He saith unto him, [d] Thou hast said.

26 [e] And as they were eating, Jesus took [11] bread, and [f] blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. 27 And he took [12] a cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; 28 for [g] this is my blood of the [13] covenant, which is poured out for [h] many unto remission of sins. 29 But I say unto you, I shall not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 [i] And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto [k] the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be [l] offended in me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be [m] scattered abroad. 32 But after I am raised up, [n] I will go before you into Galilee. 33 But Peter answered and said unto him, If all shall be [14] offended in thee, I will never be [14] offended. 34 Jesus said unto him, [o] Verily I say unto thee, that [p] this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. 35 Peter saith unto him, [q] Even if

Gethsemane. The Betrayal and Seizure. The Trial before the Sanhedrin

I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 [a]Then cometh Jesus with them unto [1]a place called [b]Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. 37 And he took with him [c]Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore troubled. 38 Then saith he unto them, [d]My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: abide ye here, and [e]watch with me. 39 And he went forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, My Father, if it be possible, let [f]this cup pass away from me: [g]nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. 40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not [h]watch with me one hour? 41 [2h]Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: [i]the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 42 Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, My Father, if this [f]cannot pass away, except I drink it, [g]thy will be done. 43 And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them again, and went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same words. 45 Then cometh he to the disciples, and saith unto them, [3]Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, [k]the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is [4]betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Arise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that [4]betrayeth me.

47 [l]And while he yet spake, lo, [m]Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now he that [4]betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he: take him. 49 And straightway he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, [n]Rabbi; and [5]kissed him. 50 And Jesus said unto him, [o]Friend, do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51 And behold, [p]one of them that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his [q]sword, and smote the [6p]servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 52 Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for [r]all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. 53 Or thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me more than twelve [s]legions of [t]angels? 54 How then should [u]the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? 55 In that hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to seize me? I [v]sat daily in the temple teaching, and ye took me not. 56 But all this is come to pass, that [u]the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

57 [x]And they that had taken Jesus led him away to the house of [y]Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. 58 But [z]Peter followed him afar off, unto the [a]court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with the [b]officers, to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests and the whole [c]council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to death; 60 and they found it not, though many false witnesses came. But afterward came [d]two, 61 and said, This man said, [e]I am able to destroy the [7]temple of God, and to build it in three days. 62 And the high priest stood up, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? 63 But [f]Jesus held his peace. [g]And the high priest said unto him, I [h]adjure thee by [i]the living God, that thou tell us whether thou art the Christ, [k]the Son of God. 64 Jesus saith unto him, [l]Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of Power, and [m]coming on the clouds of heaven. 65 Then the high priest [n]rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: 66 what think ye? They answered and said, [a]He is [1]worthy of death. 67 [b]Then did they [c]spit in his face and buffet him: and some smote him, [2]with the palms of their hands, 68 saying, [d]Prophesy unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee?

69 [e]Now Peter was sitting without in the [f]court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilæan. 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth. 72 And again he denied with an oath, I know not the man. 73 And after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art one of them; [g]for thy speech maketh thee known. 74 Then began he to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And straightway the cock crew. 75 And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, [h]Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 [i]Now when morning was come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: 2 and they bound him, and led him away, and [k]delivered him up to [l]Pilate the governor.

3 Then [m]Judas, who [3]betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back [n]the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying, I have sinned in that I [3]betrayed [4]innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us? [o]see thou to it. 5 And he cast down the pieces of silver into [p]the sanctuary, and departed; and [q]he went away and hanged himself. 6 And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the [5]treasury, since it is the price of blood. 7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. 8 [r]Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. 9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And [6]they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, [7]whom certain of the children of Israel did price; 10 and [8]they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

Zech. xi 12, 13.

11 [s]Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the [t]King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, [u]Thou sayest. 12 And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, [v]he answered nothing. 13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? 14 And [x]he gave him no answer, not even to one word: insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. 15 [y]Now at [9]the feast the governor was wont to release unto the multitude one prisoner, whom they would. 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus [z]who is called Christ? 18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him up. 19 And [a]while he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that [b]righteous man; for I have suffered many things this day [c]in a dream because of him. 20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should [d]ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. 21 But the governor answered and said unto them, Which of the two will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. 22 Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus [z]who is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. 23 And he said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified. 24 So when Pilate saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that [e]a tumult was arising, he took water, and [f]washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent [10]of the blood of this [g]righteous man; [h]see ye to it.

The Mockery. The Crucifixion. The Death of Jesus

25 And all the people answered and said, [a] His blood be on us, and on our children. 26 Then released he unto them Barabbas; but Jesus he [b] scourged and delivered to be crucified.

27 [c] Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into [d] the [1] Prætorium, and gathered unto him the whole [2][e] band. 28 And they [3] stripped him, and [f] put on him a scarlet robe. 29 [f] And they platted a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, [g] Hail, King of the Jews! 30 And [h] they spat upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head. 31 [i] And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him.

33 [m] And when they were come unto a place called [n] Golgotha, that is to say, The place of a skull, 34 they gave him [o] wine to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink. 35 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots; 36 and they sat and [p] watched him there. 37 And they set up over his head his accusation written, [q] THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. 38 Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand and one on the left. 39 And they that passed by railed on him, [r] wagging their heads, 40 and saying, [s] Thou that destroyest the [5] temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: [t] if thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross. 41 In like manner also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 [u] He saved others; [6] himself he cannot save. [v] He is the King of Israel; [t] let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. 43 [x] He trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: for he said, I am the Son of God. 44 [y] And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.

45 [z] Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the [7] land until the ninth hour. 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, [8] why hast thou forsaken me? 47 And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elijah. 48 And [a] straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. 49 And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to save him.[9] 50 And Jesus [b] cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. 51 [c] And behold, [d] the veil of the [5] temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom; and [e] the earth did quake; and the rocks were rent; 52 and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had [f] fallen asleep were raised; 53 and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into [g] the holy city and appeared unto many. 54 [h] Now the centurion, and they that were with him [i] watching Jesus, when they saw [e] the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was [10] the [k] Son of God. 55 [l] And many women were there beholding from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, [m] ministering unto him: 56 among whom was [n] Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of [11] James and Joses, and [o] the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 [p] And when even was come, there came a rich man from Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: 58 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. 59 And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled [a]a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. 61 And [b]Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now on the morrow, which is the day after [c]the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, 63 saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was yet alive, [d]After three days I rise again. 64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said unto them, [1]Ye have a [e]guard: go, [2]make it as sure as ye can. 66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [f]sealing [a]the stone, [e]the guard being with them.

28 [g]Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came [h]Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. 2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for [i]an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away [a]the stone, and sat upon it. 3 [k]His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow: 4 and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, [l]Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified. 6 He is not here; for he is risen, [m]even as he said. Come, see the place [3]where the Lord lay. 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you [n]into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. 8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. 9 And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet, and [4]worshipped him. 10 Then saith Jesus unto them, [l]Fear not: go tell [o]my brethren that they depart [n]into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of [e]the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass. 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave much money unto the soldiers, 13 saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14 And if this [5]come to [p]the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was [q]spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth [r]until this day.

16 But the eleven disciples went [n]into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they [4]worshipped him; but [s]some doubted. 18 And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, [t]All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth. 19 [u]Go ye therefore, and [v]make disciples of [x]all the nations, [y]baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: 20 teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, [z]I am with you [6]always, even unto [7][a]the end of the world.

ACCORDING TO MARK

1 x The beginning of the [1] gospel of Jesus Christ, x [2] [a] the Son of God.

2 [b] Even as it is written [3] in Isaiah the prophet, [c] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

Who shall prepare thy way; 3 [d] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight;

4 John came, who baptized in the wilderness and [e] preached the baptism of repentance unto [f] remission of sins. 5 And there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and wild honey. 7 And he preached, saying, There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not [4] worthy x to stoop down x and unloose. 8 I baptized you [5] in water; but he shall baptize you [5] in the Holy Spirit.

9 [g] And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus [h] came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John [6] in the Jordan. 10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: 11 and a voice came out of the heavens, [i] Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.

12 [k] And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilderness. 13 And he was in the wilderness forty days tempted of [l] Satan; x and he was with the wild beasts; x and the angels ministered unto him. x 14 [m] Now after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, [n] preaching the [1] gospel of God, 15 and saying, [o] The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: [p] repent ye, and believe in the [1] gospel.

16 [q] And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea; for they were fishers. 17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. 18 And straightway they left the nets, and followed him. 19 And going on a little further, he saw [7] James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets. 20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 [r] And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day [s] he entered into the synagogue and taught. 22 And [t] they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit: and he cried out, 24 saying, [u] What have we to do with thee, Jesus thou [v] Nazarene? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, [x] the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked [8] him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. 26 And the unclean spirit, [9] tearing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. 27 And they were all [y] amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him. 28 And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.

29 [z] And straightway, [10] when they were come [a] out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with [1] James and John. 30 Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway they tell him of her: 31 and he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 [b] And [c] at even, [c] when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were [2] [d] possessed with demons.
33 And all the [e] city was gathered together at the door. 34 And he [f] healed many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many demons; and he suffered not the demons to speak, because they knew him [3].
35 [g] And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and there [h] prayed.
36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him; 37 and they found him, and say unto him, All are seeking thee.
38 And he saith unto them, Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to this end came I forth. 39 [i] And he went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons.
40 [k] And there cometh to him a leper, beseeching him, [4] and [l] kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 41 And being moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou made clean.
42 And straightway the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. 43 And he [5] strictly charged him, and straightway sent him out, 44 and saith unto him, [m] See thou say nothing to any man: but [n] go show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. 45 But he went out, and began to [o] publish it much, and to [o] spread abroad the [6] matter, insomuch that [7] Jesus could no more openly enter into [8] a city, but was without in desert places: and [p] they came to him from every quarter.

2 And when he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was noised that he was [9] in the house. 2 And [q] many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not even about the door: and he spake the word unto them. 3 [r] And they come, bringing unto him a man [s] sick of the palsy, borne of four. 4 And when they could not [10] come nigh unto him for the crowd, they [t] uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the [11] bed whereon the [s] sick of the palsy lay. 5 And Jesus seeing their faith saith unto the sick of the palsy, [12] Son, [u] thy sins are forgiven.
6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doth this man thus speak? he blasphemeth: [v] who can forgive sins but one, even God? 8 And straightway Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, saith unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the [s] sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and take up thy [11] bed, and walk?
10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (he saith to the sick of the palsy), 11 I say unto thee, Arise, take up thy [11] bed, and go unto thy house. 12 And he arose, and straightway took up the [11] bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and [x] glorified God, saying, [y] We never saw it on this fashion.
13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and [z] all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. 14 [a] And as he passed by, he saw [b] Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the place of toll, and he saith unto him, [c] Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
15 And it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many [13] publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. 16 And [a]the scribes [1]of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and [2]publicans, said unto his disciples, [3][b]How is it that he eateth [4]and drinketh with [2]publicans and sinners? 17 And when Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, [c]They that are [5]whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

18 [d]And John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? 19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the [6]sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. 20 But [e]the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. 21 No man seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else that which should fill it up taketh from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made. 22 And no man putteth new wine into old [7]wine-skins; else the wine will burst the skins, and the wine perisheth, and the skins: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins.

23 [f]And it came to pass, that he was going on the sabbath day through the grainfields; and his disciples [8]began, as they went, to [g]pluck the ears. 24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, [h]why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? 25 And he said unto them, Did ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they that were with him? 26 How he entered into the house of God [9]when [i]Abiathar was high priest, and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him? 27 And he said unto them, [k]The sabbath was made for man, and [l]not man for the sabbath: 28 so that the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.

3 [m]And he [n]entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had his hand withered. 2 And [o]they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; [p]that they might accuse him. 3 And he saith unto the man that had his hand withered, [10]Stand forth. 4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they held their peace. 5 And when he had [q]looked round about on them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth: and his hand was restored. 6 And the Pharisees went out, and straightway with the [r]Herodians took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

7 [s]And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and [t]a great multitude from Galilee followed; and from Judæa, 8 and from Jerusalem, and from [u]Idumæa, and beyond the Jordan, and about [v]Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing [11]what great things he did, came unto him. 9 And he spake to his disciples, that a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they should throng him: 10 for he had [x]healed many; insomuch that as many as had [12][y]plagues [13]pressed upon him that they might [z]touch him. 11 And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art [a]the Son of God. 12 And he [b]charged them much that they should not make him known.

13 And he goeth up into [c]the mountain, and [d]calleth unto him whom he himself would: and they went unto him. 14 And he appointed twelve,[14] that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, 15 and to have authority to cast out demons: 16 [15][e]and Simon he surnamed Peter; 17 and [16]James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of [16]James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder: 18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and [16]James the son of Alphæus, and are chosen. Calumny of the Scribes refuted. Spiritual Kinship more than Natural. The Reason for Parables Thaddæus, and Simon the [1] Cananæan, 19 and Judas Iscariot, who also [2] betrayed him.

And he cometh [3][a] into a house. 20 And [b] the multitude cometh together again, [c] so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21 And when [d] his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, [e] He is beside himself. 22 And the scribes that came down [f] from Jerusalem said, He hath [4][g] Beelzebub, and, [5][h] By the prince of the demons casteth he out the demons. 23 [i] And he called them unto him, and said unto them in [k] parables, How can [l] Satan cast out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. 26 And if [l] Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. 27 [m] But no one can enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. 28 [n] Verily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewithsoever they shall blaspheme: 29 but whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: 30 because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 [o] And there come his mother and his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him. 32 And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. 33 And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my brethren? 34 And looking round on them that sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! 35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

4 [p] And again he began to teach [q] by the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land. 2 And he taught them many things in [k] parables, and said unto them in his teaching, 3 Hearken: Behold, the sower went forth to sow: 4 and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured it. 5 And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8 And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. 9 And he said, [r] Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables. 11 And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto [s] them that are without, all things are done [t] in parables: 12 [u] that seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. 13 [v] And he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables? 14 The sower soweth the word. 15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh [l] Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. 16 And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy; 17 and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. 18 And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, 19 and the cares of [a]the [1]world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. 20 And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.

21 And he said unto them, [b]Is the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? 22 [c]For there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23 [d]If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: [e]with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you; and more shall be given unto you. 25 [f]For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

26 And he said, [g]So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. 28 The earth [2]beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. 29 But when the fruit [3]is ripe, straightway he [4]putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

Divine or spiritual evolution

30 [h]And he said, How shall we [i]liken the kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? 31 [5]It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, 32 yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it; 34 and [k]without a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

35 [l]And on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. 36 And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was,[m] in the boat. And other boats were with him. 37 And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat was now filling. 38 And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, Teacher, carest thou not that we perish? 39 And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith? 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 [n]And they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. 2 And when he was come out of [m]the boat, straightway there met him out of the tombs a man [o]with an unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; 4 because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. 5 And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. 6 And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and [6]worshipped him; 7 and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, [p]What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou [q]Son of [r]the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. 8 For he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith unto him, My name is [s]Legion; for we are many. 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country. 11 Now there was there on the mountain side a great herd of swine feeding. 12 And they besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. 13 And he gave them leave. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, in number about two thousand; and they were drowned in the sea. 14 And they that fed them fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. 15 And they come to Jesus, and behold [1]him that was [a]possessed with demons sitting, [b]clothed and [c]in his right mind, even him that had the [d]legion: and they were afraid. 16 And they that saw it declared unto them how it befell [1]him that was [a]possessed with demons, and concerning the swine. 17 And they began to beseech him to depart from their borders. 18 [e]And as he was entering into the boat, [1]he that had been [a]possessed with demons besought him that he might be with him. 19 And he suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house unto thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how he had mercy on thee. 20 And he went his way, and began to publish in [f]Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men marvelled.

21 [g]And when Jesus had crossed over again in [h]the boat unto the other side, a great multitude was gathered unto him; and he was [i]by the sea. 22 [k]And there cometh one of [l]the rulers of the synagogue, Jaïrus by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his feet, 23 and beseecheth him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou come and [m]lay thy hands on her, that she may be [2]made whole, and live. 24 And he went with him; and a great multitude followed him, and they thronged him. cont'd in 35-43

25 And a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 having heard the things concerning Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment. 28 For she said, If I touch but his garments, I shall be [2]made whole. 29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her [3][n]plague. 30 And straightway Jesus, perceiving in himself that [o]the power proceeding from him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, and said, Who touched my garments? 31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? 32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. 34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [p]thy faith hath [4]made thee whole; [q]go in peace, and be whole of thy [3][n]plague.

35 While he yet spake, they come from [r]the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Teacher any further? 36 But Jesus, [5]not heeding the word spoken, saith unto [r]the ruler of the synagogue, [s]Fear not, only believe. 37 And he suffered no man to follow with him, save [t]Peter, and [6]James, and John the brother of [6]James. 38 And they come to the house of [r]the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and wailing greatly. 39 And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult, and weep? the child is not dead, but sleepeth. 40 And they laughed him to scorn. But he, having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with him, and goeth in where the child was. 41 And taking the child by the hand, he saith unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, [a] I say unto thee, Arise. 42 And straightway the damsel rose up, and walked; for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed straightway with a great amazement. 43 And he [b] charged them much that no man should know this: and he commanded that something should be given her to eat.

6 [c] And he went out from thence; and he cometh into [d] his own country; and his disciples follow him. 2 And when the sabbath was come, he began [e] to teach in the synagogue: and [1] [f] many hearing him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things? and, What is the wisdom that is given unto this man, and what mean such [2] mighty works wrought by his hands? 3 Is not this [g] the carpenter, [h] the son of Mary, and brother of [3] James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? and are not [i] his sisters here with us? And they were [4] [k] offended in him. 4 And Jesus said unto them, [l] A prophet is not without honor, save in [m] his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. 5 And he could there do no [5] mighty work, save that he [n] laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. 6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. [o] And he went round about the villages teaching.

7 [p] And [q] he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; as missionaries and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits; 8 [s] and he charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no bread, no wallet, no [6] money in their [7] purse; 9 but to go shod with sandals: and, said he, put not on two coats. 10 And he said unto them, Wheresoever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart thence. 11 And whatsoever place shall not receive you, and they hear you not, as ye go forth thence, [t] shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony unto them. 12 [u] And they went out, and preached that men should repent. 13 And they cast out many demons, and [v] anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 [x] And king Herod heard thereof; for his name had become known: and [8] he said, [y] John the Baptizer is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers work in him. 15 But others said, It is [z] Elijah. And others said, It is [a] a prophet, even as one of the prophets. 16 But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I beheaded, he is risen. 17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of [b] Herodias, (2nd wife) his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. 18 For John said unto Herod, [c] It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. 19 And [b] Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; 20 for [d] Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he [9] was much perplexed; and he heard him gladly. 21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday [e] made a supper to his lords, and the [10] high captains, and the chief men [f] of Galilee; 22 and when [11] the daughter of [b] Herodias herself came in and danced, Salome [12] she pleased Herod and them that sat at meat with him; and the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. 23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto [g] the half of my kingdom. 24 And she went out, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptizer. 25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me on a platter the head of John the Baptist. 26 And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat, he would not reject her. 27 And straightway the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head:

and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. 29 And when his disciples heard thereof, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 [a]And the [b]apostles gather themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they had done, and whatsoever they had taught. 31 And he saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and [c]they had no leisure ([illegible]) so much as to eat. 32 [d]And they went away in [e]the boat to a desert place apart. 33 And the people saw them going, and many knew them, and they ran together there [1]on foot from all the cities, and outwent them. 34 And he came forth and [f]saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because [g]they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, The place is desert, and the day is now far spent; 36 send them away, that they may go into the [illegible] country and villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat. 37 But he answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. [h]And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred $32.00 [2][i]shillings' worth of bread, and give them to eat? 38 And he saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. 39 And he commanded them that all should [3]sit down by companies upon the green grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. 41 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he [k]blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. 42 And they all ate, and were filled. 43 And they took up broken pieces, twelve [l]basketfuls, and also of the fishes. 44 And they that ate the loaves were [m]five thousand men.

45 [n]And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into [o]the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to [p]Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. John 6:15 46 And after he had [q]taken leave of them, he departed [r]into the mountain to pray. 47 And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. 48 And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the [s]fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them: 49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, [t]Be of good cheer: it is I; [u]be not afraid. 51 And he went up unto them into [v]the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; 52 for [x]they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart [y]was hardened.

53 [z]And when they had [4]crossed over, they came to the land unto Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. 54 And when they were come out of the boat, straightway the people knew him, 55 and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about on their [5]beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. 56 And wheresoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and besought him that they might [a]touch if it were but [b]the border of his garment: and as many as touched [6]him were made whole.

7 [c]And there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, who had come [d]from Jerusalem, 100 mi. 2 and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with [7][e]defiled, that is, unwashen, hands. 3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [1]diligently, eat not, holding the [a]tradition of the elders; 4 and when they come from the marketplace, except they [2]bathe themselves, they eat not; and many other things there are, which they have received to hold, [3]washings of [b]cups, and pots, and brasen vessels [4].) 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the [a]tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with [5][c]defiled hands? 6 And he said unto them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

This people honoreth me with their lips,
But their heart is far from me.
7 But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.

8 Ye leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the [a]tradition of men. 9 And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your [a]tradition. 10 For Moses said, Honor thy father and thy mother; and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him [6]die the death: 11 but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is [d]Corban, that is to say, Given to God; 12 ye no longer suffer him to do aught for his father or his mother; 13 making void the word of God by your [a]tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things ye do. 14 And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, Hear me all of you, and understand: 15 there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.[7] 17 And when he was entered [e]into the house from the multitude, [f]his disciples asked of him the parable. 18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, it cannot defile him; 19 because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This he said, [g]making all meats [h]clean. 20 And he said, [i]That which proceedeth out of the man, that defileth the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, [8]evil thoughts proceed, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, 22 covetings, wickednesses, deceit, lasciviousness, an [k]evil eye, railing, pride, foolishness: 23 all these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man.

24 [l]And from thence he arose, and went away into the borders of [m]Tyre [9]and Sidon. And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it; and he could not be hid. 25 But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. 26 Now the woman was a [10]Greek, a Syrophœnician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. 27 And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's [11]bread and cast it to the dogs. 28 But she answered and saith unto him, Yea, Lord; even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. 29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the demon is gone out of thy daughter. 30 And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the demon gone out.

31 [n]And again he went out from the borders of [m]Tyre, and came through Sidon unto [o]the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of [p]Decapolis. 32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to [q]lay his hand upon him. 33 And [r]he took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he [r]spat, and touched his tongue; 34 and looking up to heaven, he [s]sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. 35 And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. 36 And [t]he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they [u]published it.

37 And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

8 In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, [a] he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, 2 [b] I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: 3 and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way; and some of them are come from far. 4 And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with [1] bread here in a desert place? 5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. 6 And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. 7 And they had a few small fishes: and [c] having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. 8 And they ate, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, seven [d] baskets. 9 And they were about four thousand: and he sent them away. 10 And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of [e] Dalmanutha.

11 [f] And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, [g] seeking of him a sign from heaven, trying him. 12 And he [h] sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. 13 And he left them, and again entering into the boat departed to the other side.

14 And they forgot to take bread; and they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. 15 And he charged them, saying, [i] Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of [k] Herod. 16 And they reasoned one with another, [2] saying, [3] We have no bread. 17 And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? [l] do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart hardened? 18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? 19 When I brake [m] the five loaves among the five thousand, how many [4] [n] baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. 20 And when [o] the seven among the four thousand, how many [4] [p] basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up? Beware of blind traditionalism 22 And they come unto [q] Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to [r] touch him. 23 And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and [s] brought him out of the village; and when he had [s] spit on his eyes, and [t] laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest thou aught? 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, walking. 25 Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly. 26 And he sent him away to his home, saying, [u] Do not even enter into [v] the village.

27 [x] And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of [y] Cæsarea Philippi: and on the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am? 28 [z] And they told him, saying, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets. 29 And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. 30 And [a] he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

2 [g] And after six days Jesus taketh with him [h] Peter, and [2] James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them; 3 and [i] his garments became glistering, exceeding white, so as no fuller on earth can whiten them.
4 And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, [k] Rabbi, it is good for us to be here: and [l] let us make three [3] tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.
6 For he knew not what to answer; for they became sore afraid.
7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there came [m] a voice out of the cloud, [n] This is my beloved Son: hear ye him.
8 And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 [o] And as they were coming down from the mountain, he [p] charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. 10 And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, [4] How is it that the scribes say that [q] Elijah must first come? 12 And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of [r] the Son of man, that [s] he should suffer many things and be set at nought?
13 But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they would, even as it is written of him.

14 [t] And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning with them. 15 And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, were [u] greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. 16 And he asked them, What question ye with them? 17 And one of the multitude answered him, Teacher, I brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; 18 and where-soever it taketh him, it [5] dasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able. 19 And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit [6] tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. 21 And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. 22 And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. 23 And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! [v] All things are possible to him that believeth. 24 Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said[1], I believe; help thou mine unbelief. 25 And when Jesus saw that [a]a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. 26 And having cried out, and [2]torn him much, he came out: and the boy became as one dead; insomuch that the more part said, He is dead. 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose. 28 And when he was come [b]into the house, his disciples asked him privately, [3]How is it that we could not cast it out? 29 And he said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer[4].

30 [c]And they went forth from thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. 31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, [d]The Son of man is [5]delivered up into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he shall rise again. 32 But [e]they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

38 [l]John said unto him, Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and [m]we forbade him, because he followed not us. 39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man who shall do a [8]mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. 40 [n]For he that is not against us is for us. 41 For [o]whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink, [9]because ye are Christ's, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. 42 And [p]whosoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe [10]on me to stumble, it were better for him if [11]a great millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. 43 And [q]if thy hand cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed, rather than having thy two hands to go into [12][r]hell, into the [s]unquenchable fire.[13] 45 And if thy foot cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life halt, rather than having thy two feet to be cast into [12][r]hell. 47 And [t]if thine eye cause thee to stumble, cast it out: it is good for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into [12][r]hell; 48 [u]where their worm dieth not, and [s]the fire is not quenched. 49 For every one shall be salted with fire[14]. 50 Salt is good: but [v]if the salt have lost its saltness, wherewith will ye season it? two, but one flesh. 9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. 10 And in the house the disciples asked him again of this matter. 11 And he saith unto them, [a] Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her: 12 and [b] if she herself shall put away her husband, and marry another, she committeth adultery.

13 [c] And they were bringing unto him little children, that he should touch them: and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: [d] for [1] to such belongeth the kingdom of God. 15 Verily I say unto you, [e] Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. 16 And he [f] took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them.

17 [g] And as he was going forth [2] into the way, there ran one to him, and [h] kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may [i] inherit eternal life? 18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, even God. 19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor thy father and mother. 20 And he said unto him, Teacher, [k] all these things have I observed w the letter from my youth. 21 And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have [l] treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 22 But his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, [m] How hardly shall they that ~~have~~ trust riches enter into the kingdom of God! 24 And the disciples [n] were amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it [3] for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 [o] It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they were astonished exceedingly, saying [4] unto him, Then who can be saved? 27 Jesus looking upon them saith, [p] With men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God. 28 [q] Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. 29 Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, [r] There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for my sake, and for the [5] gospel's sake, 30 but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in [s] the [6] world to come eternal life. 31 But [t] many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 [u] And they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they [v] were amazed; and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him, 33 saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and [x] the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles: 34 and they shall mock him, and [y] shall spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again.

46 [f] And they come to Jericho: and [g] as he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timæus, Bartimæus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the way side. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus the [h] Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou [i] son of David, have mercy on me. 48 And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou [i] son of David, have mercy on me. 49 And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, [k] Be of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee. 50 And he, casting away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus answered him, and said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, [4] [l] Rabboni, that I may receive my sight. 52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; [m] thy faith hath [5] made thee whole. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him in the way.

11 [n] And when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and [o] Bethany, at [p] the mount of Olives, he sendeth two of his disciples, 2 and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat; loose him, and bring him. 3 And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him; and straightway he [6] will send him [7] back hither. 4 And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without in the open street; and they loose him. 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had said: and they let them go. 7 [q] And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him. 8 And many spread their garments upon the way; and others [8] branches, which they had cut from the fields. 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, [r] Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: 10 Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the kingdom of our father David: Hosanna [r] in the highest.

11 And [s] he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, [t] he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 [u] And on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he hungered. 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. 14 And he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 [v] And they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; 16 and he would not suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the temple. 17 And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but ye have made it a den of robbers. 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and [a]sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for [b]all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

20 [d]And as they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, [e]Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, [f]Have faith in God. 23 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith cometh to pass; he shall have it. 24 Therefore I say unto you, [g]All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye [3]receive them, and ye shall have them. 25 And whensoever ye [h]stand praying, [i]forgive, if ye have aught against any one; that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.[4]

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: [k]and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders; 28 and they said unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this authority to do these things? 29 And Jesus said unto them, I will ask of you one [5]question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me. 31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? 32 [6]But should we say, From men — they feared the people: [7]for all verily held John to be a prophet. 33 And they answered Jesus and say, We know not. And Jesus saith unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

12 [l]And he began to speak unto them in parables. [m]A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and [n]digged a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country. 2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a [8]servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard. 3 And they took him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. 4 And again he sent unto them another [8]servant; and him they wounded in the head, and handled shamefully. 5 And he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some. 6 He had yet one, a beloved son: he sent him last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. 7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. 8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard. 9 What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. 10 Have ye not read even this scripture:

> The stone which the builders rejected,
> The same was made the head of the corner;
> 11 This was from the Lord,
> And it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And [o]they sought to lay hold on him; and they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spake the parable against them: and [p]they left him, and went away.

13 [q]And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the [r]Herodians, that they might [s]catch him in talk. 14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one; for thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why make ye trial of me? bring me a [1] denarius, that I may see it. 16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's. 17 And Jesus said unto them, [a] Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him.

18 [b] And there come unto him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, 19 Teacher, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 20 There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed; 21 and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed behind him; and the third likewise: 22 and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. 24 Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. 26 But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, [c] in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? 27 [d] He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.

28 [e] And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and [f] knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? 29 Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel; [2] The Lord our God, the Lord is one: 30 and thou shalt love the Lord thy God [3] with all thy heart, and [3] with all thy soul, and [3] with all thy mind, and [3] with all thy strength. 31 The second is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. 32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, Teacher, thou hast well said that [g] he is one; and [h] there is none other but he: 33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, [i] is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. [k] And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 [l] And Jesus answered and said, as he [m] taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the [n] son of David? 36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit,

> The Lord said unto my Lord,
> Sit thou on my right hand, > Till I make thine enemies [4] the > footstool of thy feet.

37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And [5] [o] the common people heard him gladly.

38 [p] And in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and to have [q] salutations in the marketplaces, 39 and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts: 40 [r] they that devour widows' houses, [6] and for a pretence make long prayers; these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 [s] And he sat down over against [t] the treasury, and beheld how the multitude [u] cast [7] money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. 42 And there came [8] a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a farthing. 43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they that are casting into the treasury: 44 for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her [a] living.

13 [b] And as he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Teacher, behold, what manner of stones and what manner of buildings! 2 And Jesus said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? [c] there shall not be left here one stone upon another, which shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on [d] the mount of Olives over against the temple, [e] Peter and [1] James and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are all about to be accomplished? 5 And Jesus began to say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. 6 Many shall come in my name, saying, [f] I am he; and shall lead many astray. 7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of travail.

9 But take ye heed to yourselves: for they shall [g] deliver you up to councils; and [h] in synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. 10 [i] And the [2] gospel must first be preached unto all the nations. 11 [k] And when they lead you to judgment, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye; for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 And brother shall [3] deliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children shall rise up against parents, and [4] cause them to be put to death. 13 And [l] ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But [m] when ye see the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: 15 and let him that is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house: 16 and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloak. 17 But woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! 18 And pray ye that it be not in the winter. 19 For those days shall be tribulation, such as there hath not been the like [n] from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. 20 And except the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days. 21 And then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, Lo, there; believe [5] it not: 22 for there shall arise false Christs and [o] false prophets, and shall show [p] signs and [p] wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, the elect. 23 But take ye heed: behold, I have told you all things beforehand.

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 25 and the stars shall be falling from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens shall be shaken. 26 And then shall they see the Son of man [q] coming in clouds with great power and glory. 27 And then shall he send forth the angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; 29 even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that [6] he is nigh, even at the doors. 30 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accomplished. 31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. 32 [r] But of that day or that hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

Peter's Denial foretold. Gethsemane. The Betrayal. The Trial before the Sanhedrin

All ye shall be [1]offended: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad. 28 Howbeit, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee. 16:7 29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be [1]offended, yet will not I. 30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that thou [a]to-day, even this night, before [b]the cock crow twice, shalt deny me thrice. 31 But he spake exceeding vehemently, If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And in like manner also said they all. Peter only returned from his flight and John 18:15

32 [c]And they come unto [2]a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray. 33 And he taketh with him Peter and [3]James and John, and began to be [d]greatly amazed, and sore troubled. 34 And he saith unto them, [e]My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: abide ye here, and watch. 35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, [f]the hour might pass away from him. 36 And he said, [g]Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: [h]howbeit not what I will, but what thou wilt. 37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not watch one hour? 38 [4][i]Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 39 And again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. 40 And again he came, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they knew not what to answer him. 41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, [5]Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough; [k]the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is [6]betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Arise, let us be going: behold, he that [6]betrayeth me is at hand.

43 [l]And straightway, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 Now he that [6]betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he; take him, and lead him away safely. 45 And when he was come, straightway he came to him, and saith, [m]Rabbi; and [7]kissed him. 46 And they laid hands on him, and took him. 47 But a certain one of them that stood by drew his sword, and smote the [8]servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves to seize me? 49 I was daily with you [n]in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but this is done that the scriptures might be fulfilled. 50 And they all left him, and fled.

53 [o]And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and there come together with him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. Sanhedrin 54 And Peter had followed him afar off, [p]even within, into [q]the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers, and [r]warming himself in the light of the fire. 55 Now the chief priests and the whole [s]council sought witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found it not. 56 For many bare false witness against him, and their witness agreed not together. Before Caiaphas and Sanhedrin 57 And there stood up certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, 58 We heard him say, [t]I will destroy this [9]temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands. 59×And not even so did their witness agree together.× 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? 61 [u]But he held his peace, and answered nothing. [v]Again the high priest asked him, and saith unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

Peter's Denial. Jesus before Pilate. Not Jesus, but Barabbas. The Mockery. The Crucifixion

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of Power, and [a]coming with the clouds of heaven.
63 And the high priest [b]rent his clothes, and saith, What further need have we of witnesses? 64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be [1]worthy of death. 65 And some began to [c]spit on him, and [d]to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, [e]Prophesy: and the officers received him with [2]blows of their hands.

66 [f]And as Peter was beneath in [g]the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; 67 and seeing Peter [g]warming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, Thou also wast with the [h]Nazarene, even Jesus. 68 But he denied, saying, [3]I neither know, nor understand what thou sayest: and he [i]went out into the [4]porch; [5]and [k]the cock crew. 69 And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. 70 But [l]he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, Of a truth thou art one of them; [m]for thou art a Galilæan. 71 But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak.
72 And straightway the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, Before [k]the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. [6]And when he thought thereon, he wept.

15 [n]And straightway in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole [o]council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. 2 [p]And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering saith unto him, Thou sayest.
3 And the chief priests accused him of many things. 4 And Pilate again asked him, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse thee of. 5 But Jesus [q]no more answered anything; insomuch that Pilate marvelled.

6 [r]Now at [7]the feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. 7 And there was one called Barabbas, lying bound with them that had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. 8 And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to do unto them. 9 And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 10 For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, [s]that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. 12 And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him. 14 And Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, Crucify him. 15 And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had [t]scourged him, to be crucified.

16 [u]And the soldiers led him away within [v]the court, which is the [8]Prætorium; and they call together the whole [9][x]band.
17 And they clothe him with purple, and platting a crown of thorns, they put it on him; 18 and they began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! 19 And they smote his head with a reed, and spat upon him, and bowing their knees [10]worshipped him. 20 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.

21 [y]And they [11]compel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross.

22 [z]And they bring carry him unto the place [a]Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. 23 And they offered him [b]wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. 24 And they crucify him, and part his garments among them, [c]casting lots upon them, what each should take.

The Death of Jesus. The Entombment. The Empty Tomb

John 19:14

33 [h] And when the [i] sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole [4] land until the [i] ninth hour. 34 And at the [i] ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, [k] Eloi, Eloi, lāmă sābăchthānī? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, [5] why hast thou forsaken me? 35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. 36 And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down. 37 [l] And Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. 38 [m] And the veil of the [2] temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. 39 [n] And when the centurion, who stood by over against him, saw that he [6] so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was [7] the Son of God. 40 [o] And there were also women beholding from afar: among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of [8] James [p] the [9] less and of Joses, and [q] Salome; 41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and [r] ministered unto him; and many other women that came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 [s] And when even was now come, because it was [t] the Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Arimathæa, a [u] councillor [v] of honorable estate, who also himself was [x] looking for the kingdom of God; and he [y] boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he [10] had been any while dead. 45 And when he learned it of [z] the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. 46 And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 And [a] Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

[b] And when the sabbath was past, [c] Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of [8] James, and Salome, [d] bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen. 3 And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away [e] the stone from the door of the tomb? 4 and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding great. 5 And [f] entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they [g] were amazed. 6 And he saith unto them, [g] Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the [h] Nazarene, who hath been crucified: [i] he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him! 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, [k] He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. 8 And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

The Risen One — appears to Mary Magdalene; to the Two; to the Eleven; is received up into Heaven

he appeared first to [a] Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10 [b] She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, [c] disbelieved.

12 And after these things [d] he was manifested in another form [e] unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. 13 And they went away and told it unto the rest: neither [c] believed they them.

14 And afterward [d] he was manifested [f] unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their [c] unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them that had seen him after he was risen. 15 And he said unto them, [g] Go ye into all the world, and preach the [1] gospel to the whole creation. 16 [h] He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. 17 And these signs shall accompany them that believe: [i] in my name shall they cast out demons; they shall [k] speak with [2] new tongues; 18 they shall [l] take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall [m] lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had [n] spoken unto them, [o] was received up into heaven, and [p] sat down at the right hand of God. 20 And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

ACCORDING TO LUKE

Preface. Birth of the Baptist foretold

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which [a] have been [1] fulfilled among us, 2 even as they delivered them unto us, who [b] from the beginning were [c] eyewitnesses and [d] ministers of [e] the word, 3 it seemed good to me also, [f] having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee [g] in order, [h] most excellent [i] Theophilus; 4 that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the [2] things [3] wherein thou [k] wast instructed.

5 There was [l] in the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the [m] course of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. 6 And they were both [n] righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord [o] blameless. 7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now [4] well stricken in years.

8 Now it came to pass, while [p] he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was [q] to enter into the [5] temple of the Lord and burn incense. 10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying [r] without at the hour of incense. 11 And there appeared unto him [s] an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said unto him, [t] Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and [u] thou shalt call his name John. 14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. 15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall [v] drink no wine nor [6] strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. 17 And he shall [7] [x] go before his face in the spirit and power of [y] Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to [x] make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. 18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife [8] well stricken in years. 19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [z] Gabriel, that [a] stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. 20 And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. 21 And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled [9] while he tarried in the [5] temple. 22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the [5] temple: and he [b] continued making signs unto them, and remained dumb. 23 And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

24 And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to [c] take away my reproach among men.

26 Now in the sixth month the angel [d] Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named

Birth of Jesus foretold. The Annunciation. Mary visits Elisabeth. The 'Magnificat.' Naming of the Baptist

[a] Nazareth, 27 to [b] a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, [c] of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art [1] highly favored, the Lord is with thee[2]. 29 But she [d] was greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be.
30 And the angel said unto her, [e] Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found [3] favor with God. 31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and [f] shalt call his name JESUS.
32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of [g] the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: 33 [h] and he shall reign over the house of Jacob [4] for ever; [i] and of his kingdom there shall be no end. 34 And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? 35 And the angel answered and said unto her, [k] The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of [l] the Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also [5] [m] the holy thing which is begotten [6] shall be called [n] the Son of God. 36 And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her that [7] was called barren. 37 For [o] no word from God shall be void of power.
38 And Mary said, Behold, the [8] handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word.
And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in these days and went into [p] the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. 41 And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was [q] filled with the Holy Spirit; 42 and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. 43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of [r] my Lord should come unto me?
44 For behold, when the voice of thy salutation came into mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. 45 And [s] blessed is she that [9] believed; for there shall be a fulfilment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord. 46 And Mary said,

Magnificat

[t] My soul [u] doth magnify the Lord,
47 And [v] my spirit hath rejoiced in [x] God my Saviour.
48 For he hath looked upon the low estate of his [8] handmaid: For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me [y] blessed.
49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things;
And holy is his name.
50 And his mercy is unto generations and generations
On them that fear him.
51 [z] He hath showed strength with his arm;
He hath scattered the proud [10] in the imagination of their heart.
52 He hath put down princes from their thrones, And hath exalted them of low degree.
53 The hungry he hath filled with good things;
And the rich he hath sent empty away.
54 He hath given help to Israel his servant,
That he might remember mercy 55 ([a] As he spake unto our fathers) Toward Abraham and his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned unto her house.

57 Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.
58 And her neighbors and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had [b] magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her. 59 And it came to pass on [c] the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. 60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but [d] he shall be called John. 61 And

The 'Benedictus.' The Birth of Jesus. The Shepherds and the Angels they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. 62 And they [a] made signs to his father, what he would have him called. 63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, [b] His name is John. And they marvelled all. 64 [c] And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God. 65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all [d] the hill country of Judæa. 66 And all that heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then shall this child be? For [e] the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias [f] was filled with the Holy Spirit, and [g] prophesied, saying,

Benedictus

68 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; For he hath visited and wrought [h] redemption for his people, 69 And hath raised up a [i] horn of salvation for us In the house of [k] his servant
David 70 ([l] As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets [m] that have been from of old), 71 [n] Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; 72 [o] To show mercy towards our fathers, [p] And to remember his holy covenant; 73 [q] The oath which he sware unto Abraham our father, 74 To grant unto us that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies Should serve him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before him all our days.
76 Yea and thou, child, shalt be called the [r] prophet of [s] the Most High:
For thou [t] shalt go before the face of the Lord to [t] make ready his ways; 77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people In [u] the remission of their sins, 78 Because of the [1] tender mercy of our God, [2] Whereby [v] the dayspring from on high [3] shall visit us, 79 [x] To shine upon them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death;
To guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 [y] And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

2 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from [z] Cæsar Augustus, that [a] all [4] the world should be enrolled. 2 This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of [b] Syria. 3 And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city. 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because [c] he was of the house and family of David; 5 to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. 6 And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. 7 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping [5] watch by night over their flock. 9 And [d] an angel of the Lord [e] stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. 10 And the angel said unto them, [f] Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: 11 for there is born to you this day in the city of David a [g] Saviour, who is [6] [h] Christ [i] the Lord. 12 And [k] this is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 [l] Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth [7] peace among [8] men [m] in whom he is well pleased.

The Naming of Jesus. His Presentation in the Temple. The 'Nunc dimittis.' The Boy Jesus in the Temple

15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this [1] thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. 16 And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. 17 And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child. 18 And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto them by the shepherds. 19 But Mary [a] kept all these [2] sayings, pondering them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, [b] glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

21 And when [c] eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, [d] his name was called Jesus, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. 25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was [e] righteous and devout, [f] looking for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 And [g] it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not [h] see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, [i] that they might do concerning him after the custom of the law, 28 then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, 29 Now lettest thou thy [3] servant [k] depart, [4] Lord, [l] According to thy word, in peace; 30 For mine eyes have [m] seen thy salvation, 31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples; 32 [n] A light for [5] revelation to the Gentiles, And the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And his father and [o] his mother were marvelling at the things which were spoken concerning him; 34 and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary [o] his mother, Behold, this child is set for [p] the falling and the rising of many in Israel; and for a sign which is spoken against; 35 yea and a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed. 36 And there was one Anna, a [q] prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of [r] the tribe of Asher (she was [6] of a great age, [s] having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 and she had been a widow even unto fourscore and four years), who departed not from the temple, worshipping with [t] fastings and supplications night and day. 38 And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were [u] looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. 39 And when they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to [v] their own city Nazareth.

40 [x] And the child grew, and waxed strong, [7] filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 And his parents went every year to Jerusalem at [y] the feast of the passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up after the custom of the feast; 43 and when they had [z] fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not; 44 but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance:

The Baptist appears and preaches; announces the Christ; reproves Herod and is imprisoned 45 and when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him. 46 And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the [1]teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions: 47 and all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. 48 And when they saw him, they were astonished; and [a]his mother said unto him, [2]Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, [b]thy father and I sought thee sorrowing. 49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must be [3]in my Father's house? 50 And [c]they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. 51 And he went down with them, and came to [d]Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and [a]his mother [e]kept all these [4]sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus advanced in wisdom and [5]stature, and in [6][f]favor with God and men.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, [g]Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and [h]Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituræa and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 in the high-priesthood of [i]Annas and [k]Caiaphas, [l]the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. 3 And he came into all [m]the region round about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins; 4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight.
5 Every valley shall be filled, And every mountain and hill shall be brought low;
And the crooked shall become straight,
And the rough ways smooth; 6 And all flesh shall [n]see the salvation of God.

7 He said therefore to the multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of [7]repentance, and [o]begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. 9 And even now the axe also lieth at the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 10 And the multitudes asked him, saying, What then must we do? 11 And he answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. 12 And there came also [8]publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, Teacher, what must we do? 13 And he said unto them, Extort no more than that which is appointed you. 14 And [9]soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Extort from no man by violence, neither accuse any one wrongfully; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, [p]whether haply he were the Christ; 16 [q]John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but there cometh he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not [10]worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you [11]in the Holy Spirit and in fire: 17 whose [r]fan is in his hand, thoroughly to cleanse his threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn up with [s]unquenchable fire.

18 With many other exhortations therefore preached he [12]good tidings unto the people; 19 but [t]Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for [t]Herodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which [u]Herod had done, 20 added this also to them all, that [v]he shut up John in prison.

21 [x]Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also having been baptized,

4 [i]And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, [k]returned from the Jordan, and was led in the Spirit in the wilderness 2 during forty days, being tempted of the devil. And he did eat nothing in those days: and when they were completed, he hungered.
3 And the devil said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it become [5]bread. 4 And Jesus answered unto him, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone. 5 [l]And he led him up, and showed him all the kingdoms of [6][m]the world in a moment of time. 6 And the devil said unto him, To thee will I give all this authority, and the glory of them: [n]for it hath been delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. 7 If thou therefore wilt [7]worship before me, it shall all be thine. 8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, It is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. 9 [o]And he led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the [8]pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: 10 for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, to guard thee:

11 and,

On their hands they shall bear thee up, Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord thy God.
13 And when the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him [9]for a season.
14 And [p]Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a [q]fame went out concerning him through all the region round about. 15 And he [r]taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.
16 And he came to [s]Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and [t]he entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and [u]stood up to read. 17 And there was delivered unto him [10]the book of the prophet Isaiah. And he opened the [11]book, and found the place where it was written, preach [1]good tidings to the poor:

He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives, And recovering of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 [a]To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he [b]closed the [2]book, and gave it back to the attendant, and [c]sat down: and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. 21 And he began to say unto them, To-day hath this scripture been fulfilled in your ears. 22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth: and they said, [d]Is not this Joseph's son? 23 And he said unto them, Doubtless ye will say unto me this parable, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done [e]at Capernaum, do also here in [f]thine own country. 24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, [g]No prophet is acceptable in his own country. 25 But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel [h]in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land; 26 and unto none of them was Elijah sent, but [i]only to [3]Zarephath, in the land of [k]Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. 27 And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but [l]only Naaman the Syrian. 28 And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things; 29 and they rose up, and [m]cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong. 30 But he [n]passing through the midst of them went his way.

31 And [o]he came down to [p]Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And he was teaching them on the sabbath day: 32 and [q]they were astonished at his teaching; for [r]his word was with authority. 33 And in the synagogue there was a man, that had a spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 [4]Ah! [s]what have we to do with thee, Jesus thou [t]Nazarene? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, [u]the Holy One of God. 35 And Jesus [v]rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the demon had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no hurt. 36 And amazement came upon all, and they spake together, one with another, saying, What is [5]this word? for [x]with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. 37 And [y]there went forth a rumor concerning him into every place of the region round about.

38 [z]And he rose up from the synagogue, and entered into the house of Simon. And Simon's wife's mother was [a]holden with a great fever; and they besought him for her. 39 And he stood over her, and [b]rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she rose up and ministered unto them.

40 [c]And when [d]the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he [e]laid his hands on every one of them, and [f]healed them. 41 And demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, Thou art [g]the Son of God. And [h]rebuking them, [i]he suffered them not to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

42 [k]And when it was day, he came out and went into a desert place: and the multitudes sought after him, and came unto him, and would have stayed him, that he should not go from them. 43 But he said unto them, I must preach [1]the good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: [l]for therefore was I sent.

44 And he was preaching in the synagogues [m]of [6]Galilee.

two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. 3 And [a] he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat. 4 And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and [b] let down your nets for a draught. 5 And Simon answered and said, [c] Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. 6 And when they had done this, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; 7 and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.
9 For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; 10 and so were also [1] James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, [d] Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt [2] [e] catch men. 11 And when they had brought their boats to land, [f] they left all, and followed him.

12 [g] And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 13 And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy departed from him. 14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go thy way, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. 15 But so much the more went abroad [h] the report concerning him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities.
16 But he withdrew himself in the deserts, and [i] prayed.

17 And it came to pass on one of those days, that he was teaching; and [k] there were Pharisees and [l] doctors of the law sitting by, who were [m] come out of every village of Galilee and Judæa and Jerusalem: and [n] the power of the Lord was with him [3] to heal.
18 [o] And behold, men bring on a bed a man that was palsied: and they sought to bring him in, and to lay him before him. 19 And not finding by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to [p] the housetop, and let him down [q] through the tiles with his couch into the midst before Jesus.
20 And seeing their faith, he said, Man, [r] thy sins are forgiven thee.
21 And the scribes and the Pharisees [s] began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies?
[t] Who can forgive sins, but God alone? 22 But Jesus perceiving their [4] reasonings, answered and said unto them, [5] Why reason ye in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk? 24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (he said unto him that was [u] palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house. 25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his house, [v] glorifying God. 26 And amazement took hold on all, and they [v] glorified God; and they were filled [x] with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 [y] And after these things he went forth, and beheld a [6] publican, named [z] Levi, sitting at the place of toll, and said unto him, Follow me. 28 And he [a] forsook all, and rose up and followed him.

29 And [z] Levi made him a great feast in his house: and there was a great multitude of [6] [b] publicans and of others that were sitting at meat with them. 30 And [7] the Pharisees and [c] their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with the [6] publicans and sinners?
31 And Jesus answering said unto them, [d] They that are [8] in health have no need of a physician; but they that are sick. 32 I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

33 And they said unto him, [a] The disciples of John fast often, and make supplications; likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink. 34 And Jesus said unto them, Can ye make the [1] sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? 35 [b] But the days will come; and when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, then will they fast in those days. 36 And he spake also a parable unto them: No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree with the old. 37 And no man putteth new wine into old [2] wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, and the skins will perish. 38 But new wine must be put into fresh wine-skins. 39 And no man having drunk old wine desireth new; for he saith, The old is [3] good.

6 [c] Now it came to pass on a [4] sabbath, that he was going through the grainfields; and his disciples [d] plucked the ears, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. 2 But certain of the Pharisees said, Why do ye that which [e] it is not lawful to do on the sabbath day? 3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read even this, what David did, when he was hungry, he, and they that were with him; 4 how he entered into the house of God, and took and ate the showbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests alone? 5 And he said unto them, The Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

6 [f] And it came to pass [g] on another sabbath, that he entered into [h] the synagogue and taught: and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. 7 And the scribes and the Pharisees [i] watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find how to accuse him. 8 But he [k] knew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. 9 And Jesus said unto them, I ask you, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to destroy it? 10 And he [l] looked round about on them all, and said unto him, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored. 11 But they were filled with [5] madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in these days, that he went out into [m] the mountain to [n] pray; and he continued all night in prayer to God. 13 And when it was day, [o] he called his disciples; and he chose from them twelve, whom also he named [p] apostles: 14 Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and [6] James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, 15 and [q] Matthew and Thomas, and [6] James the son of Alphæus, and Simon who was called the Zealot, 16 and Judas the [7] son of [6] James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor; 17 and he [r] came down with them, and stood on a level place, and [s] a great multitude of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judæa and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of [t] Tyre and [t] Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; 18 and they that were troubled with unclean spirits were healed. 19 And all the multitude sought to [u] touch him; for [v] power came forth from him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [x] Blessed are ye poor: for [y] yours is the kingdom of God. 21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. 22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall [z] separate you from their company, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. 23 Rejoice in that day, and [a] leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for in the same manner did their fathers unto the prophets. 24 But woe unto [a]you that are rich! for [b]ye have received your consolation. 25 Woe unto you, ye that are full now! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you, ye that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. 26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for in the same manner did their fathers to the [c]false prophets.

27 But I say unto you that hear, [d]Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, 28 bless them that curse you, [d]pray for them that despitefully use you. 29 [e]To him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from him that taketh away thy cloak withhold not thy coat also. 30 Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. 31 [f]And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. 32 And [g]if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? for even sinners love those that love them. 33 And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for even sinners do the same. 34 [h]And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to sinners, to receive again as much. 35 But [i]love your enemies, and do them good, and lend, [1]never despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be [k]sons of [l]the Most High: for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil. 36 Be ye merciful, even as your Father is merciful. 37 [m]And judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: [n]release, and ye shall be released: 38 give, and it shall be given unto you; [o]good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give [p]into your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake also a parable unto them, [q]Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit? 40 [r]The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one when he is perfected shall be as his teacher. 41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? 42 Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. 43 [s]For there is no good tree that bringeth forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bringeth forth good fruit. 44 [t]For each tree is known by its own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. 45 [u]The good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth that which is evil: [v]for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And [x]why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? 47 [y]Every one that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like: 48 he is like a man building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: [2]because it had been well builded. 49 But he that [3]heareth, and [4]doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

is worthy that thou shouldest do this for him; 5 for he loveth our nation, and himself built us our synagogue. 6 And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not [1] worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: 7 wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say [2] the word, and my [3] servant shall be healed. 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my [4] servant, Do this, and he doeth it. 9 And when Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto you, [a] I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. 10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the [4] servant whole.

11 And it came to pass [5] soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. 12 Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. 13 And when [b] the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. 14 And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. 15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. 16 And [c] fear took hold on all: and they [d] glorified God, saying, A great [e] prophet is arisen among us: and, God hath visited his people. 17 [f] And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judæa, and all the region round about.

18 [g] And the disciples of John told him of all these things. 19 And John calling unto him [6] two of his disciples sent them to [b] the Lord, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? 20 And when the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? 21 In that hour he [h] cured many of diseases and [7] [i] plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he bestowed sight. 22 And he answered and said unto them, Go and tell John the things which ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have [8] good tidings preached to them. 23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in me.

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? 25 But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. 26 But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he of whom it is written,

Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John: yet he that is [9] but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. 29 And all the people when they heard, and the [10] publicans, [l] justified God, [11] [m] being baptized with [n] the baptism of John. 30 But the Pharisees and the [o] lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God, [12] being not baptized of him. 31 Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they like? 32 They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; who say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not weep. 33 For John the Baptist is come [p] eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon. 34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of [1] publicans and sinners! 35 And wisdom [2] [a] is justified of all her children.

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he entered into the Pharisee's house, and [3] sat down to meat. 37 [b] And behold, a woman who was in the city, a sinner; and when she knew that he was [4] sitting at meat in the Pharisee's house, she brought [5] an alabaster cruse of ointment, 38 and standing behind at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and [6] kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. 39 Now when the Pharisee that had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were [7] [c] a prophet, would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him, that she is a sinner. 40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Teacher, say on. 41 A certain lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred [8] [d] shillings, and the other fifty. 42 When they [e] had not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most? 43 Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. 44 And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thy house, thou [f] gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair. 45 Thou [g] gavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to [9] kiss my feet. 46 [h] My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. 48 And he said unto her, [i] Thy sins are forgiven. 49 And they that [10] sat at meat with him began to say [11] within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? 50 And he said unto the woman, [k] Thy faith hath saved thee; [l] go in peace.

8 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, [m] preaching and bringing the [12] good tidings of the kingdom of God, and with him the twelve, 2 and [n] certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: [n] Mary that was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, 3 and Joanna the wife of Chuzas [o] Herod's [p] steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered unto [13] them of their substance.

4 [q] And when a great multitude came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a parable: 5 The sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it. 6 And other fell on the rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. 7 And other fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. 8 And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he cried, [r] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 [s] And his disciples asked him what this parable might be. 10 And he said, [t] Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; [u] that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. 11 Now the parable is this: [v] The seed is the word of God. 12 And those by the way side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13 And those on the rock are they who, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. 15 And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with [1] patience.

16 And [a] no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they that enter in may see the light. 17 [b] For nothing is hid, that shall not be made manifest; nor anything secret, that shall not be known and come to light. 18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: [c] for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he [2] thinketh he hath.

19 [d] And there came to him his mother and brethren, and they could not come at him for the crowd. 20 And it was told him, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. 21 But he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these [e] that hear the word of God, and do it.

22 [f] Now it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of [g] the lake: and they launched forth. 23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on [g] the lake; and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. 24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, [h] Master, master, we perish. And he awoke, and [i] rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And being afraid they marvelled, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?

26 [k] And they arrived at the country of the [3] Gerasenes, which is over against Galilee. 27 And when he was come forth upon the land, there met him a certain man out of the city, who had demons; and for a long time he had worn no clothes, and abode not in any house, but in the tombs. 28 And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, [l] What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of [m] the Most High God? I beseech thee, torment me not. 29 For he was commanding the unclean spirit to come out from the man. For [4] often-times it had seized him: and he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters; and breaking the bands asunder, he was driven of the demon into the deserts. 30 And Jesus asked him, What is thy name? And he said, [n] Legion; for many demons were entered into him. 31 And they entreated him that he would not command them to depart into [o] the abyss. 32 Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they entreated him that he would give them leave to enter into them. And he gave them leave. 33 And the demons came out from the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into [g] the lake, and were drowned. 34 And when they that fed them saw what had come to pass, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. 35 And they went out to see what had come to pass; and they came to Jesus, and found the man, from whom the demons were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, [p] at the feet of Jesus: and they were afraid. 36 And they that saw it told them how he that was [q] possessed with demons was [5] made whole. 37 And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them; for they were holden with great fear: and he entered into a boat, and returned. 38 [r] But the man from whom the demons were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for him.

40 [a] And as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him.
41 [b] And behold, there came a man named Jaïrus, and he was [c] a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his house; 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went the multitudes thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, who [1] had spent all her [d] living upon physicians, and could not be healed of any, 44 came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately the issue of her blood stanched.
45 And Jesus said, Who is it that touched me? And when all denied, Peter said, [2] and they that were with him, [e] Master, the multitudes press thee and crush thee. 46 But Jesus said, Some one did touch me; for I perceived that [f] power had gone forth from me. 47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people for what cause she touched him, and how she was healed immediately. 48 And he said unto her, Daughter, [g] thy faith hath [3] made thee whole; [h] go in peace.

49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from [i] the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Teacher. 50 But Jesus hearing it, answered him, [k] Fear not: only believe, and she shall be [4] made whole. 51 And when he came to the house, he suffered not any man to enter in with him, save Peter, and John, and James, and the father of the maiden and her mother. 52 And all were weeping, and [l] bewailing her: but he said, Weep not; for she is not dead, but [m] sleepeth.
53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. 54 But he, taking her by the hand, called, saying, Maiden, arise. 55 And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately: and he commanded that something be given her to eat.
56 And her parents were amazed: but he [n] charged them to tell no man what had been done.

9 [o] And he called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.
2 And he sent them forth to [p] preach the kingdom of God, and to heal [5] the sick. 3 And he said unto them, [q] Take nothing for your journey, [r] neither staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats. 4 And into whatsoever house ye enter, there abide, and thence depart.
5 And as many as receive you not, when ye depart from that city, [s] shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them. 6 And they departed, and went throughout the villages, [t] preaching the [6] gospel, and healing everywhere.

7 [u] Now [v] Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that [x] John was risen from the dead; 8 and by some, that [y] Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. 9 And Herod said, John I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things?
And [z] he sought to see him.

10 [a] And the [b] apostles, when they were returned, declared unto him what things they had done.
[c] And he took them, and withdrew apart to a city called [d] Bethsaida.
11 But the multitudes perceiving it followed him: and he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdom of God, and them that had need of healing he cured. 12 And the day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get provisions: for we are here in a desert place. 13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this people. 14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said unto his disciples, Make them [1] sit down [a] in companies, about fifty each. 15 And they did so, and made them all [1] sit down. 16 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17 And they ate, and were all filled: and there was taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve [b] baskets.

18 [c] And it came to pass, as he was [d] praying apart, the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say that I am? 19 And they answering said, John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again. 20 And he said unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, [e] The Christ of God. 21 But he [f] charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no man; 22 [g] saying, [h] The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up. 23 And he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and [i] take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24 For [k] whosoever would save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. 25 For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and [l] lose or forfeit his own self? 26 [m] For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you of a truth, [n] There are some of them that stand here, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 [o] And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him [p] Peter and John and James, and [q] went up into the mountain [r] to pray. 29 And as he was [r] praying, the fashion of his countenance [s] was altered, and his raiment became white and dazzling. 30 And behold, there talked with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah; 31 who appeared in glory, and spake of his [2] [t] decease which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 Now Peter and they that were with him [u] were heavy with sleep: but [3] when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. 33 And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto Jesus, [v] Master, it is good for us to be here: and [x] let us make three [4] tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: [y] not knowing what he said. 34 And while he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And [z] a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [a] This is [5] my Son, my chosen: hear ye him. 36 And when the voice [6] came, Jesus was found alone. And [b] they held their peace, and told no man in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 [c] And it came to pass, on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. 38 And behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, Teacher, I beseech thee to look upon my son; for he is mine only child: 39 and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it [7] teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. 40 And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not. 41 And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. 42 And as he was yet a coming, the demon [8] dashed him down, and [9] tare him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43 And they were all astonished at the [a]majesty of God.

[b]But while all were marvelling at all the things which he did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these words sink into your ears: [c]for the Son of man shall be [1]delivered up into the hands of men. 45 But [d]they understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46 [e]And there arose a [2]reasoning among them, which of them was the [3]greatest. 47 But when Jesus [f]saw the [2]reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, and set him by his side, 48 and said unto them, [g]Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: [h]for he that is [4]least among you all, the same is great.

49 [i]And John answered and said, [k]Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. 50 But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: [l]for he that is not against you is for you.

51 And it came to pass, when the days [5]were well-nigh come that [m]he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face [n]to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the [o]Samaritans, to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him, [p]because his face was as though he were going to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples [q]James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to come down from heaven, and consume them[6]? 55 But he turned, and rebuked them[7]. 56 And they went to another village.

57 And [r]as they went on the way, [s]a certain man said unto him, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. 58 And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have [8]nests; but [t]the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. 59 And he said unto another, [u]Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. 60 But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and [v]publish abroad the kingdom of God. 61 And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but [x]first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are at my house. 62 But Jesus said unto him, [y]No man, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

10 Now after these things [z]the Lord appointed seventy[9] [a]others, and sent them [b]two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself was about to come. 2 And he said unto them, [c]The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest. 3 Go your ways; [d]behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. 4 [e]Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes; and salute no man on the way. 5 And into whatsoever house ye shall [10]enter, first say, Peace be to this house. 6 And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon [11]him: but if not, it shall turn to you again. 7 And in that same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for [f]the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. 8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, [g]eat such things as are set before you: 9 and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, [h]The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. 10 But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets thereof and say, 11 [i]Even the dust from your city, that cleaveth to our feet, we wipe off against you: nevertheless know this, that [h]the kingdom of God is come nigh. 12 I say unto you, [k]It shall be more tolerable in that day for [l]Sodom, than for that city. 13 [m]Woe unto thee, [n]Chorazin! woe unto thee, [n]Bethsaida! for if the [12]mighty works had been done in [a]Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in [b]sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it shall be more tolerable for [a]Tyre and Sidon in the judgment, than for you. 15 And thou, [c]Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt be brought down unto [d]Hades. 16 [e]He that heareth you heareth me; and [f]he that rejecteth you rejecteth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me.

17 And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even [g]the demons are subject unto us in thy name. 18 And he said unto them, I beheld [h]Satan fallen as lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I have given you authority to [i]tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall in any wise hurt you. 20 Nevertheless in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rejoice that [k]your names are written in heaven.

21 [l]In that same hour he rejoiced [1]in the Holy Spirit, and said, I [2]thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; [3]for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. 22 All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. 23 [m]And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: 24 for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

25 [n]And behold, a certain [o]lawyer stood up and made trial of him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? 26 And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? 27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God [4]with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. 28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: [p]this do, and thou shalt live. 29 But he, desiring [q]to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor? 30 Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was [r]going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain [s]Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, 34 and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 And on the morrow he took out two [5]shillings, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will repay thee. 36 Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbor unto him that fell among the robbers? 37 And he said, He that showed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named [t]Martha received him into her house. 39 And she had a sister called [u]Mary, which also [v]sat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. 40 But [t]Martha was [6]cumbered about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. 41 But the Lord answered and said unto her, [7][t]Martha, Martha, thou art [x]anxious and troubled about many things: 42 [8][y]but one thing is needful: for [a] Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

11 And it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, [b] Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also taught his disciples. 2 And he said unto them, [c] When ye pray, say, [1] Father, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.[2] 3 Give us [d] day by day [3] our daily bread. 4 And forgive us our sins; for we ourselves also forgive every one that [e] is indebted to us. And bring us not into temptation [4].

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves; 6 for a friend of mine is come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him; 7 and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee? 8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet [f] because of his importunity he will arise and give him [5] as many as he needeth. 9 And I say unto you, [g] Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. 10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. 11 And of which of you that is a father shall his son ask [6] a loaf, and he give him a stone? or a fish, and he for a fish give him a serpent? 12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he give him a scorpion? 13 [h] If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the [i] Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 [k] And he was casting out a demon that was dumb. And it came to pass, when the demon was gone out, the dumb man spake; and the multitudes marvelled. 15 But some of them said, [7] [l] By [8] [m] Beelzebub the prince of the demons casteth he out demons. 16 And others, trying him, [n] sought of him a sign from heaven. 17 [o] But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; [9] and a house divided against a house falleth. 18 And if [p] Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out demons [7] by [8] [m] Beelzebub. 19 And if I [7] by [8] [m] Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 20 But if I by the [q] finger of God cast out demons, then is [r] the kingdom of God come upon you. 21 When the strong man fully armed guardeth his own [s] court, his goods are in peace: 22 but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole armor wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. 23 [t] He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. 24 [u] The unclean spirit when [10] he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest; and finding none, [10] he saith, I will turn back unto my house whence I came out. 25 And when [10] he is come, [10] he findeth it swept and garnished. 26 Then goeth [10] he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than [11] himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [v] Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. 28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are [x] they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, [y] This generation is an evil generation: it [z] seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah. 30 For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to Pharisaism exposed and denounced:—Six Woes. His Enemies seek to ensnare him. Charge to the Disciples this generation. 31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, [1]a greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, [1]a greater than Jonah is here.

33 No [a]man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light. 34 [b]The lamp of thy body is thine eye: when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. 35 Look therefore whether the light that is in thee be not darkness. 36 If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining doth give thee light.

37 Now as he spake, a Pharisee asketh him to [2]dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first [c]bathed himself before [2]dinner. 39 And [d]the Lord said unto him, Now [e]ye the Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40 [f]Ye foolish ones, did not he that made the outside make the inside also? 41 But [g]give for alms those things which [3]are within; and behold, all things are [h]clean unto you.

42 [i]But woe unto you Pharisees! for ye [k]tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over justice and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. 43 Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye [l]love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces. 44 [m]Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

45 And one of the [n]lawyers answering saith unto him, Teacher, in saying this thou reproachest us also. 46 And he said, Woe unto you [n]lawyers also! for [o]ye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. 47 [p]Woe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their tombs. 49 Therefore also said [q]the wisdom of God, [r]I will send unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute; 50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed [s]from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51 from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the [4]sanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. 52 Woe unto you [n]lawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: [t]ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And when he was come out from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to [5]press upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of [6]many things; 54 [u]laying wait for him, [v]to catch something out of his mouth.

12 In the mean time, when [7]the many thousands of the multitude were gathered together, insomuch that they trod one upon another, he began to [8]say unto his disciples first of all, [x]Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 [y][z]But there is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 3 Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon [a]the housetops. 4 And I say unto you [b]my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: [a]Fear him, who after he hath killed hath [1]power to cast into [2][b]hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. 6 Are not [c]five sparrows sold for two pence? and not one of them is forgotten in the sight of God. 7 [d]But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not: ye are of more value than many sparrows. 8 And I say unto you, Every one who shall confess [3]me before men, [4]him shall the Son of man also confess [e]before the angels of God: 9 but [f]he that denieth me in the presence of men shall be denied [e]in the presence of the angels of God. 10 [g]And every one who shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven. 11 And when they bring you before [h]the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not [i]anxious how or what ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: 12 for [k]the Holy Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one out of the multitude said unto him, Teacher, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me. 14 But he said unto him, [l]Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? 15 And he said unto them, [m]Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: [5]for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. 16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: 17 and he reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits? 18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my grain and my goods. 19 And I will say to my [6]soul, [6]Soul, [n]thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. 20 But God said unto him, [o]Thou foolish one, this night [7][p]is thy [6]soul required of thee; and [q]the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be? 21 So is he that [r]layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, [s]Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your [8]life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. 23 For the [8]life is more than the food, and the body than the raiment. 24 Consider the [t]ravens, that they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor [u]barn; and God feedeth them: of how much more value are ye than the birds! 25 And which of you by being anxious can add a [v]cubit unto [9]the measure of his life? 26 If then ye are not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even [x]Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more shall he clothe you, [y]O ye of little faith? 29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink, neither be ye [z]of doubtful mind. 30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: but your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. 31 Yet seek ye [10]his kingdom, and [a]these things shall be added unto you. 32 [b]Fear not, [c]little flock; for it is [d]your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33 [e]Sell that which ye have, and give alms; make for yourselves purses which wax not old, [f]a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief draweth near, neither moth destroyeth. 34 For [g]where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 [h]Let your [i]loins be girded about, and your lamps burning; 36 and be ye yourselves like unto men looking for their lord, when he shall return from the marriage feast; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may straightway open unto him. 37 Blessed are those [1]servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find [a]watching: verily I say unto you, that [b]he shall gird himself, and make them sit down to meat, and shall come and serve them. 38 And if he shall come in the [c]second watch, and if in the [c]third, and find them so, blessed are those servants. 39 [2][d]But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have left his house to be [3][e]broken through. 40 [f]Be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh.

41 And Peter said, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even [g]unto all? 42 And [h]the Lord said, [i]Who then is [4]the faithful and wise [k]steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? 43 Blessed is that [5][l]servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. 44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will set him over all that he hath. 45 But if that [5]servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; 46 the lord of that [5]servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall [6]cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the unfaithful. 47 And that [5]servant, who knew his lord's will, and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be [m]beaten with many stripes; 48 but he that [n]knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. [o]And to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom they commit much, of him will they ask the more.

49 I came to cast fire upon the earth; and [7]what do I desire, if it is already kindled? 50 But I have a [p]baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! 51 [q]Think ye that I am come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: 52 for there shall be from henceforth five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. 53 They shall be divided, [r]father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 And he said to the multitudes also, [s]When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it cometh to pass. 55 And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a [8][t]scorching heat; and it cometh to pass. 56 Ye hypocrites, [u]ye know how to [9]interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know not how to [9]interpret this time? 57 And [v]why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? 58 For [x]as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he drag thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the [10]officer, and the [10]officer shall cast thee into prison. 59 I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the very last [y]mite.

13 Now there were some present at that very season who told him of the Galilæans, whose blood [z]Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2 And he answered and said unto them, [a]Think ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they have suffered these things? 3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish. 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in [b]Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were [11][c]offenders above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 And he spake this parable; A certain man had [d]a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. 7 And he said unto the vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: [a]cut it down; why doth it also cumber the ground? 8 And he answering saith unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: 9 and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was [b]teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day. 11 And behold, a woman that had [c]a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up. 12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. 13 And he [d]laid his hands upon her: and immediately she was made straight, and [e]glorified God. 14 And [f]the ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus [g]had healed on the sabbath, answered and said to the multitude, [h]There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. 15 But [i]the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, [k]doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the [1]stall, and lead him away to watering? 16 And ought not this woman, being [l]a daughter of Abraham, whom [m]Satan had bound, lo, these eighteen years, to have been loosed from this bond on the day of the sabbath? 17 And as he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame: and [n]all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 [o]He said therefore, [p]Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I liken it? 19 It is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven lodged in the branches thereof.

20 And again he said, [p]Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21 [q]It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in [r]three [2]measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

22 And he went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and [s]journeying on unto Jerusalem. 23 And one said unto him, Lord, are they few that are saved? And he said unto them, 24 [t]Strive to enter in by the narrow door: for many, I say unto you, shall seek to enter in, and shall not be [3]able. 25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and [u]hath shut to the door, and ye [v]begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [x]Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to you, [y]I know you not whence ye are; 26 then shall ye [v]begin to say, We did eat and drink in thy presence, and thou didst teach in our streets; 27 and he shall say, I tell you, [z]I know not whence ye are; [a]depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. 28 [b]There shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves cast forth without. 29 And they [c]shall come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and shall [4]sit down in the kingdom of God. 30 And behold, [d]there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.

31 In that very hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Get thee out, and go hence: for [e]Herod would fain kill thee. 32 And he said unto them, Go and say to that fox, Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I [5][f]am perfected. 33 Nevertheless [g]I must go on my way to-day and to-morrow and the day following: for it cannot be that a [h]prophet perish out of Jerusalem. 34 [i]O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, [k]even as a hen gathereth her own brood under her wings, and ye would not! 35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, [l]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that [a] they were watching him. 2 And behold, there was before him a certain man that had the dropsy. 3 And Jesus [b] answering spake unto the [c] lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [d] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not?
4 But they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5 And he said unto them, [e] Which of you shall have [1] an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? 6 [f] And they could not answer again unto these things.

7 And he spake a parable unto those that were bidden, when he marked how [g] they chose out the chief seats; saying unto them, 8 When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, [2] [h] sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him, 9 and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt [i] begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, [h] go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that [3] sit at meat with thee. 11 [k] For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbors; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee. 13 But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: 14 and thou shalt be blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in [l] the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that [4] sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [m] Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. 16 But he said unto him, [n] A certain man made a great supper; and he bade many: 17 and he sent forth his [5] servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.
18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it; I pray thee have me excused.
19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused. 20 And another said, [o] I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. 21 And the [5] servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his [5] servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame.
22 And the [5] servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room.
23 And the lord said unto the [5] servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I say unto you, that none of those men that were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 [p] If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.
27 Whosoever doth not [q] bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it?
29 Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, 30 saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. 31 Or what king, as God's Interest in Sinners: — The Lost Sheep; the Lost Piece of Silver; the Prodigal Son he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh conditions of peace. 33 So therefore whosoever he be of you that [a]renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. 34 Salt therefore is good: but [b]if even the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned? 35 It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill: men cast it out. [c]He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

15 Now all the [1][d]publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him to hear him. 2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and [e]eateth with them.

3 And he spake unto them this parable, saying, 4 [f]What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? 5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. 7 I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

8 Or what woman having ten [2]pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? 9 And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. 10 Even so, I say unto you, there is joy [g]in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons: 12 and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me [h]the portion of [3]thy substance that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his [i]living. 13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. 14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. 15 And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he would fain [4]have filled his belly with [5]the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. 17 But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here with hunger! 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: 19 I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. 20 And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and [k]fell on his neck, and [6]kissed him. 21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son[7]. 22 But the father said to his [8]servants, Bring forth quickly [l]the best robe, and put it on him; and [m]put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: 23 and bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merry: 24 for this my son was [n]dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. 25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 And he called to him one of the servants, and inquired what these things might be. 27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. 28 But he was angry, and would not go in: and his father came out, and entreated him. 29 But he answered and said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: 30 but when this thy son came, who hath devoured thy [a]living with harlots, thou killedst for him the fatted calf. 31 And he said unto him, [1]Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. 32 But it was meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was [b]dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

16 And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was [c]wasting his goods. 2 And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. 3 And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, A hundred [2]measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy [3]bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty. 7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred [4]measures of wheat. He saith unto him, Take thy [3]bond, and write fourscore. 8 And his lord commended [5]the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of [d]this [6]world are for their own generation wiser than the [e]sons of the light. 9 And I say unto you, [f]Make to yourselves friends [7]by means of the [g]mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, [h]they may receive you into the eternal tabernacles. 10 [i]He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. 11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous [k]mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is [8]your own? 13 [l]No [9]servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and [k]mammon.

14 And the Pharisees, who were [m]lovers of money, heard all these things; and they [n]scoffed at him. 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they that [o]justify yourselves in the sight of men; but [p]God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. 16 [q]The law and the prophets were until John: from that time [r]the [10]gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it. 17 [s]But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall.

18 [t]Every one that putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth one that is put away from a husband committeth adultery.

19 Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, [11]faring sumptuously every day: 20 and a certain beggar named Lazarus [u]was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into [v]Abraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. 23 And in [x]Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, [y]Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in

[11] Or, living in mirth and splendor every day

Of Stumbling-blocks. Of Faith. The Samaritan Leper. The Coming of the Kingdom

[a] this flame. 25 But Abraham said, [1] Son, remember that [b] thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. 26 And [2] besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they that would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. 27 And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; 28 for I have five brethren; that he may [c] testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 But Abraham saith, They have [d] Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. 30 And he said, Nay, [e] father Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. 31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

And he said unto his disciples, [f] It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come; but woe unto him, through whom they come! 2 [g] It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Take heed to yourselves: [h] if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. 4 And if he sin against thee [i] seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And [k] the apostles said unto [l] the Lord, Increase our faith. 6 And [l] the Lord said, If ye had faith as [m] a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this [n] sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would obey you. 7 But who is there of you, having a [3] servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to meat; 8 and will not rather say unto him, [o] Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? 9 Doth he thank the [3] servant because he did the things that were commanded? 10 Even so ye also, when ye shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable [4] servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, [5] as they were [p] on the way to Jerusalem, that [q] he was passing [6] along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. 12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who [r] stood afar off: 13 and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, [s] Master, have mercy on us. 14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, [t] Go and show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice [u] glorifying God; 16 and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a [v] Samaritan. 17 And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? 18 [7] Were there none found that returned to [u] give glory to God, save this [8] stranger? 19 And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: [x] thy faith hath [9] made thee whole.

20 And being asked by the Pharisees, [y] when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with [z] observation: 21 neither shall [a] they say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is [10] within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, [b] The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. 23 [c] And they shall say to you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after them: 24 [d] for as the lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the Son of man be [11] in his day. 25 [e] But first must he suffer many things and be rejected of this generation.

26 [a] And as it came to pass [b] in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise even as it came to pass in [c] the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; 29 but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: 30 after the same manner shall it be in the day that the Son of man [d] is revealed. 31 In that day, he that shall be [e] on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him that is in the field likewise not return back. 32 [f] Remember Lot's wife. 33 [g] Whosoever shall seek to gain his life shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life shall [1] preserve it. 34 I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. 35 [h] There shall be two women grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.[2] 37 And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, [i] Where the body is, thither will the [3] eagles also be gathered together.

18 And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they [k] ought always to pray, and not to [l] faint; 2 saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, and [m] regarded not man: 3 and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, [4] Avenge me of mine adversary. 4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor [m] regard man; 5 yet [n] because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, [5] lest she [6] [o] wear me out by her continual coming. 6 And [p] the Lord said, Hear what [7] the unrighteous judge saith. 7 And shall not God [q] avenge his [r] elect, that cry to him day and night, [8] and yet he is [s] longsuffering over them? 8 I say unto you, that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, [t] shall he find [9] faith on the earth?

9 And he spake also this parable unto certain who [u] trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and [v] set [10] all others at nought: 10 Two men [x] went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a [11] publican. 11 The Pharisee [y] stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this [11] publican. 12 I [z] fast twice in the week; I [a] give tithes of all that I get. 13 But the [11] publican, [y] standing afar off, [b] would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but [c] smote his breast, saying, God, [12] be thou merciful to me [13] a sinner. 14 I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: [d] for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 [e] And they were bringing unto him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [14] to such belongeth the kingdom of God. 17 Verily I say unto you, [f] Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

18 [g] And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? 19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. 20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and mother. 21 And he said, All these things have I observed from my youth up. 22 And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: [h] sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have [i] treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 23 But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich. 24 And Jesus seeing him said, [a] How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! 25 For [b] it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they that heard it said, Then who can be saved? 27 But he said, [c] The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. 28 And Peter said, Lo, [d] we have left [1] our own, and followed thee. 29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [e] There is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 who shall not receive manifold more in this time, and in [f] the [2] world to come eternal life.

31 [g] And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, [h] we go up to Jerusalem, and [i] all the things that are written through the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. 32 [k] For he shall be [3] delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully treated, and spit upon: 33 and they shall scourge and kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. 34 And [l] they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

35 [m] And it came to pass, [n] as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: 36 and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. 37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. 38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou [o] son of David, have mercy on me. 39 And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou [p] son of David, have mercy on me. 40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. 42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: [q] thy faith hath [4] made thee whole. 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, [r] glorifying God: and [s] all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

19 And he [t] entered and was passing through Jericho. 2 And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature. 4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into a [u] sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. 6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. 8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto [v] the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have [x] wrongfully exacted aught of any man, I restore [y] fourfold. 9 And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is [z] a son of Abraham. 10 For [a] the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because [b] he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that [c] the kingdom of God was immediately to appear. 12 He said therefore, [d] A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And he called ten [5] servants of his, and gave them ten [6] pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till I come. 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. 15 And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these [5] servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. 16 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. 17 And he said unto him, Well done, thou good [1] servant: because thou wast found [a] faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. 18 And the second came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. 19 And he said unto him also, Be thou also over five cities. 20 And [2] another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: 21 for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that which thou layedst not down, and reapest that which thou didst not sow. 22 He saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked [1] servant. Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that which I laid not down, and reaping that which I did not sow; 23 then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and [3] I at my coming should have required it with interest? 24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. 25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds. 26 [b] I say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him. 27 But [c] these mine enemies, that would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and [d] slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he [e] went on before, [f] going up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, [g] when he drew nigh unto Bethphage and [h] Bethany, at the mount that is called [i] Olivet, he sent two of the disciples, 30 saying, Go your way into the village over against you; in which as ye enter ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat: loose him, and bring him. 31 And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say, The Lord hath need of him. 32 And they that were sent went away, and found even as he had said unto them. 33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt? 34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him. 35 And they brought him to Jesus: [k] and they threw their garments upon the colt, and set Jesus thereon. 36 And as he went, they spread their garments in the way. 37 And as he was now drawing nigh, even at the descent of [l] the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and [m] praise God with a loud voice for all the [4] mighty works which they had seen; 38 saying, [n] Blessed is the [o] King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and [p] glory in the highest. 39 [q] And some of the Pharisees from the multitude said unto him, Teacher, rebuke thy disciples. 40 And he answered and said, I tell you that, if these shall hold their peace, [r] the stones will cry out.

41 And when he drew nigh, he saw the city and [s] wept over it, 42 saying, [5] If thou hadst known in [6] this day, even thou, the things which belong unto [7] peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. 43 For the days shall come upon thee, when thine enemies shall [t] cast up a [8] bank about thee, and [u] compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 and shall dash thee to the ground, and thy children within thee; and [v] they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not [x] the time of thy visitation.

45 [y] And he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold, 46 saying unto them, It is written, [z] And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers. Is. lvi. 7. Jer. vii. 11

47 And [a] he was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people [b] sought to destroy him: 48 and they could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

Jesus' Authority questioned. The Parable of the Husbandmen. Captious Questions:—Pay tribute to Cæsar?

20 [a] And it came to pass, on one of the days, as [b] he was teaching the people in the temple, and [c] preaching the [1] gospel, there [d] came upon him the chief priests and the scribes with the elders; 2 and they spake, saying unto him, Tell us: By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? 3 And he answered and said unto them, I also will ask you a [2] question; and tell me: 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why did ye not believe him? 6 But if we shall say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a [e] prophet. 7 And they answered, that they knew not whence it was. 8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 [f] And he began to speak unto the people this parable: A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country for a long time. 10 And at the season he sent unto the husbandmen a [3] servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 And he sent yet another [3] servant: and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 And he sent yet a third: and him also they wounded, and cast him forth. 13 And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; it may be they will [g] reverence him. 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. 15 And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them? 16 He will come and [h] destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. And when they heard it, they said, [4] [i] God forbid. 17 But he looked upon them, and said, What then is this that is written,

The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made [k] the head of the corner?

18 [l] Every one that falleth on that stone shall be broken to pieces; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust.

19 And the scribes and the chief priests [m] sought to lay hands on him in that very hour; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake this parable against them. 20 [n] [o] And they watched him, and sent forth spies, who feigned themselves to be righteous, [p] that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver him up to the [5] rule and to the authority of [q] the governor. 21 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and acceptest not the person of any, but of a truth teachest the way of God: 22 Is it lawful for us [r] to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? 23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, 24 Show me a [6] denarius. Whose image and superscription hath it? And they said, Cæsar's. 25 And he said unto them, Then [s] render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. 26 And they were not able to [p] take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 [t] And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they that say that there is no resurrection; 28 and they asked him, saying, Teacher, Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; 30 and the second; 31 and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. 34 And Jesus said unto them, The sons of [a]this [1]world marry, and are given in marriage: 35 but they that are accounted worthy to attain to [a]that [1]world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: 36 for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are [b]sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in [c]the place concerning the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. 38 [d]Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for [e]all live unto him. 39 And certain of the scribes answering said, Teacher, thou hast well said. 40 For [f]they durst not any more ask him any question.

41 [g]And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is [h]David's son? 42 For David himself saith in the book of Psalms,

The Lord said unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies the
footstool of thy feet.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?

45 [i]And in the hearing of all the people he said unto his disciples, 46 Beware of the scribes, [k]who desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; 47 who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

21 [l]And he looked up, [2]and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury. 2 And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither [m]two mites. 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they all: 4 for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts; but she of her want did cast in all the [n]living that she had.

5 [o]And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which [p]there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 7 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? 8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, [q]I am he; and, The time is at hand: [r]go ye not after them. 9 And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; 11 and there shall be great earthquakes, and in divers places famines and pestilences; and there shall be terrors and great signs from heaven. 12 But before all these things, [s]they shall lay their hands on you, and shall persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, [3]bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. [t]13 It shall turn out unto you for a testimony. 14 [u]Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how to answer: 15 for [v]I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to withstand or to gainsay. 16 But ye shall be [4]delivered up even by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends; and some of you [5]shall they cause to be put to death. 17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. 18 And [x]not a hair of your head shall perish. 19 [y]In your [6]patience ye shall win your [7]souls.

20 But when ye see Jerusalem [z]compassed with armies, then know that her desolation is at hand. 21 Then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of her depart out; and [a]let not them that are in the country enter therein. 22 For these are [b]days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23 Woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! for

Lesson from the Fig Tree. The Rulers plot to kill Jesus. The Bargain of Judas. The Last Supper

[a]there shall be great distress upon the [1]land, and wrath unto this people. 24 And they shall fall by [b]the edge of the sword, and shall be led captive into all the nations: and [c]Jerusalem shall be [d]trodden down of the Gentiles, until [e]the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 And there shall be signs in sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the billows; 26 men [2]fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on [3]the world: for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. 27 And [f]then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 But when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads; because [g]your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees: 30 when they now shoot forth, ye see it and [h]know of your own selves that the summer is now nigh. 31 Even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that [i]the kingdom of God is nigh. 32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accomplished. 33 [k]Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 [l]But take heed to yourselves, lest haply your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day come on you suddenly as a snare: 35 for so shall it come upon all them that dwell on the face of all the earth. 36 But [m]watch ye at every season, making supplication, that ye may prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to [n]stand before the Son of man.

37 And every day he was [o]teaching in the temple; and [p]every night he went out, and lodged in [q]the mount that is called Olivet. 38 And all the people came [r]early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

22 [s]Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the [t]Passover. 2 And the chief priests and the scribes [u]sought how they might put him to death; for they feared the people.

3 [v]And [x]Satan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. 4 And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and [y]captains, how he might [4]deliver him unto them. 5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. 6 And he consented, and sought opportunity to [4]deliver him unto them [5]in the absence of the multitude.

7 [z]And the day of unleavened bread came, on which [a]the passover must be sacrificed. 8 And he sent [b]Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for us the passover, that we may eat. 9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we make ready? 10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house whereinto he goeth. 11 And ye shall say unto the master of the house, The Teacher saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? 12 And he will show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready. 13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 [c]And when the hour was come, he sat down, and [d]the apostles with him. 15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: 16 for I say unto you, I shall not eat it, [e]until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. 17 [f]And he received a cup, and [g]when he had given thanks, he said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: 18 for [h]I say unto you, I shall not drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. 19 And he took [6]bread, and [g]when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body [7]which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. 20 And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, This cup is the [a]new covenant in my blood, even that which is [b]poured out for you. 21 [c]But behold, the hand of him that [1]betrayeth me is with me on the table. 22 For the Son of man indeed goeth, [d]as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man through whom he is [1]betrayed! 23 And they began to question among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 And there arose also [e]a contention among them, which of them was accounted to be [2]greatest. 25 [f]And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them are called Benefactors. 26 But ye shall not be so: [g]but he that is the greater among you, let him become as [h]the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. 27 For [i]which is greater, he that [3]sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that [3]sitteth at meat? but [k]I am in the midst of you as he that serveth. 28 But ye are they that have continued with me in my [l]temptations; 29 and [4]I appoint unto you a [m]kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, 30 that ye may [n]eat and drink at my table in my [m]kingdom; and [o]ye shall sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 Simon, Simon, behold, [p]Satan [5]asked to have you, that he might [q]sift you as wheat: 32 but I [r]made supplication for thee, that thy faith fail not; and do thou, when once thou hast turned again, [s]establish thy brethren. 33 [t]And he said unto him, Lord, with thee I am ready to go both to prison and to death. 34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, until thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, [u]When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, and shoes, lacked ye anything? And they said, Nothing. 36 And he said unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet; [6]and he that hath none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword. 37 For I say unto you, that this which is written must be fulfilled in me, And he was reckoned with transgressors: for [v]that which concerneth me hath [7]fulfilment. 38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two [x]swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 [y]And he came out, and went, [z]as his custom was, unto [a]the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him. 40 [b]And when he was at the place, he said unto them, [c]Pray that ye enter not into temptation. 41 And he was parted from them about a stone's cast; and he [d]kneeled down and prayed, 42 saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this [e]cup from me: [f]nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. 43 [8]And there appeared unto him an [g]angel from heaven, strengthening him. 44 And [h]being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat became as it were great drops of blood falling down upon the ground. 45 And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto the disciples, and found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and [i]pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

47 [k]While he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, [1]betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? 49 And when they that were about him saw what would follow, they said, Lord, shall we smite with the [l]sword? 50 And a certain one of them smote the [9]servant of the high priest, and struck off his right ear. 51 But Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye them thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. 52 And Jesus said unto the chief priests, and [m]captains of the temple, and elders, that were come against him, Are ye come out, [n]as against a robber, with swords and staves? 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye

And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. 61 And [g] the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said unto him, [h] Before the cock crow this day, thou shalt deny me thrice. 62 And he went out, and wept bitterly.

63 [i] And the men that held [1] Jesus mocked him, and beat him. 64 And they blindfolded him, and asked him, saying, [k] Prophesy: who is he that struck thee? 65 And many other things spake they against him, [l] reviling him.

66 [m] And as soon as it was day, [n] the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; and they led him away into their [o] council, saying, 67 [p] If thou art the Christ, tell us. But he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: 68 and if I ask you, ye will not answer. 69 [q] But from henceforth shall the Son of man be seated at the right hand of the power of God. 70 And they all said, Art thou then [r] the Son of God? And he said unto them, [2] [s] Ye say that I am. 71 And they said, What further need have we of witness? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

23 And the whole company of them rose up, and [t] brought him before Pilate. 2 [u] And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man [v] perverting our nation, and [x] forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, and saying that he himself is Christ a king. 3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, [y] Thou sayest. 4 And Pilate said unto the chief priests and the multitudes, [z] I find no fault in this man. 5 But they were the more urgent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judæa, and [a] beginning from Galilee even unto this place. 6 But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan. 7 And when he knew that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto [b] Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in these days.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for [c] he was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see some [3] miracle done by him. 9 And he questioned him in many words; but [d] he answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and [e] arraying him in gorgeous apparel sent him back to Pilate. 12 And [f] Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate called together the chief priests and the [g] rulers and the people, 14 and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that [h] perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, [i] found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: 15 no, nor yet [c] Herod: for [4] he sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. 16 I will therefore [k] chastise him, and release him.[5] 18 But they cried out all together, saying, [a] Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: — 19 one who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. 20 And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; 21 but they shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify him. 22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore [b] chastise him and release him. 23 But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. And their voices prevailed. 24 And Pilate gave sentence that what they asked for should be done. 25 And he released him that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

26 [c] And when they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of [d] Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who [e] bewailed and lamented him. 28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. 29 For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, [f] Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. 30 Then shall they begin to [g] say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. 31 For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 [h] And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 [i] And when they came unto the place which is called [1] The skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left. 34 [2] And Jesus said, [k] Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And parting his garments among them, they [l] cast lots. 35 And the people stood beholding. And the [m] rulers also scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; [n] let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen. 36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, [o] offering him vinegar, 37 and saying, [n] If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself. 38 And there was also a superscription over him, [p] THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 [q] And one of the malefactors that were hanged railed on him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? [r] save thyself and us. 40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. 42 And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest [3] in thy kingdom. 43 And he said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in [s] Paradise.

44 [t] And it was now about [u] the sixth hour, and a darkness came over the whole [4] land until the ninth hour, 45 [5] the sun's light failing: and [v] the veil of the [6] temple was rent in the midst. 46 [7] And Jesus, [x] crying with a loud voice, said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said this, he gave up the ghost. 47 [y] And when the centurion saw what was done, he [z] glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. 48 And all the multitudes that came together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned [a] smiting their breasts. 49 [b] And all his acquaintance, and [b] the women that followed with him from Galilee, stood afar off, seeing these things.

50 [c] And behold, a man named Joseph, who was a [d] councillor, a good and righteous man 51 (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), a man of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews, who was [e] looking for the kingdom of God: 52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain. 54 And it was the day of [a] the Preparation, and the sabbath [1] drew on. 55 And [b] the women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid. 56 And they returned, and [c] prepared spices and ointments.

And on the sabbath they rested according to [d] the commandment.

24 1 [e] But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 And they entered in, and found not the body [2] of [f] the Lord Jesus. 4 And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, [g] two men [h] stood by them in dazzling apparel: 5 and as they were affrighted and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [3] the living among the dead? 6 [4] He is not here, but [i] is risen: remember how he spake unto you [k] when he was yet in Galilee, 7 saying that [l] the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. 8 And [m] they remembered his words, 9 and returned [5] from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 Now they were [n] Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these things unto [o] the apostles. 11 And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk; and they [p] disbelieved them. 12 [6] But Peter arose, and [q] ran unto the tomb; and [q] stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves; and he [7] departed [r] to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass.

13 And behold, [s] two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was threescore furlongs from Jerusalem. 14 And they communed with each other of all these things which had happened. 15 And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. 16 But [t] their eyes were holden that they should not know him. 17 And he said unto them, [8] What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad. 18 And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, [9] Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days? 19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning [u] Jesus the Nazarene, who was a [v] prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: 20 and how the chief priests and our [x] rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. 21 But we hoped that it was he who should [y] redeem Israel. Yea and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things came to pass. 22 Moreover certain women of our company amazed us, [z] having been early at the tomb; 23 and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. 24 And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. 25 And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe [10] in all that [a] the prophets have spoken! 26 [b] Behooved it not the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory? 27 And beginning from [c] Moses and from all the [d] prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. 28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and [e] he made as though he would go further. 29 And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them. 30 And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the [11] bread and [f] blessed;

The Appearance in Jerusalem. Last Words. The Ascension and breaking it he gave to them.

31 And their [a] eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. 32 And they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he [b] opened to us the scriptures?
33 And they rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and [c] found the eleven gathered together, and [d] them that were with them, 34 saying, [e] The Lord is risen indeed, and [f] hath appeared to Simon. 35 And they rehearsed the things that happened in the way, and how [g] he was known of them in the breaking of the bread.

36 And as they spake these things, [h] he himself stood in the midst of them, [1] and saith unto them, [i] Peace be unto you. 37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they beheld [k] a spirit. 38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do questionings arise in your heart? 39 [l] See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: [m] handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold me having. 40 [2] And when he had said this, [p] he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 And while they still [n] disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, [o] Have ye here anything to eat? 42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish[3]. 43 And he took it, and [p] ate before them.

44 And he said unto them, [q] These are my words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must needs be fulfilled, which are written in the [r] law of Moses, and [r] the prophets, and [s] the psalms, concerning me. 45 Then [t] opened he their mind, that they might understand the scriptures; 46 and he said unto them, [u] Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and [v] rise again from the dead the third day; 47 and that [x] repentance [4] and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto [y] all the [5] nations, beginning from Jerusalem. 48 Ye are [z] witnesses of these things.
49 And behold, [a] I send forth the promise of my Father upon you: but [b] tarry ye in the city, until ye be clothed with power from on high.

50 And he led them out until they were over against [c] Bethany: and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. 51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he parted from them, [6] and [d] was carried up into heaven. 52 And they [7] worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: 53 and were continually in the temple, blessing God.

ACCORDING TO JOHN

The Prologue. The Baptist's Disclaimer. The Baptist's Testimony

1 [a] In the beginning was [b] the Word, and the Word was [c] with God, and [d] the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 [e] All things were made through him; and without him [1] was not anything made that hath been made. 4 [f] In him was life; and the life was [g] the light of men. 5 And [h] the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness [2] apprehended it not. 6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was [i] John. 7 The same came [k] for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, [l] that all might believe through him. 8 [m] He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the light. 9 [3] There was [n] the true light, even the light which lighteth [4] every man, coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and [e] the world was made through him, and the world knew him not. 11 He came unto [5] his own, and they that were his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become [o] children of God, even [p] to them that believe on his name: 13 [q] who were [6] born, not of [7] blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And [b] the Word [r] became flesh, and [8] [s] dwelt among us (and [t] we beheld his glory, glory as of [9] the only begotten from the Father), full of [u] grace and [v] truth. 15 John [x] beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, [10] This was he of whom I said, [y] He that cometh after me is become before me: [z] for he was [11] before me. 16 For of his [a] fulness we all received, and [12] grace for grace. 17 For [b] the law was given through Moses; [u] grace and [v] truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 [c] No man hath seen God at any time; [13] [d] the only begotten Son, who is in [e] the bosom of the Father, [f] he hath declared him.

19 And this is [x] the witness of John, when [g] the Jews sent unto him [h] from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? 20 And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, [i] I am not the Christ. 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou [k] Elijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou [l] the prophet? And he answered, No. 22 They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? 23 He said, [m] I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said Isaiah the prophet. 24 [14] And they had been sent from the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither [l] the prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, [n] I baptize [15] in water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, 27 even [y] he that cometh after me, the [o] latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. 28 These things were done in [16] Bethany [p] beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, [q] the Lamb of God, that [17] [r] taketh away the sin of the world! 30 This is he of whom I said, [y] After me cometh a man who is become before me: [s] for he was [11] before me. 31 And I knew him not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, for this cause came I baptizing [1]in water. 32 And John [a]bare witness, saying, [b]I have beheld the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven; and it abode upon him. 33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize [1]in water, he said unto me, Upon whomsoever thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and abiding upon him, the same is [c]he that baptizeth [1]in the Holy Spirit. 34 And I have seen, and have borne witness that this is [d]the Son of God.

35 Again [e]on the morrow John was standing, and two of his disciples; 36 and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith, Behold, [f]the Lamb of God! 37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38 And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? And they said unto him, [g]Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), where abidest thou? 39 He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day: it was about the tenth hour. 40 [h]One of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the [i]Messiah (which is, being interpreted, [2]Christ). 42 He brought him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of [3][k]John: thou shalt be called [l]Cephas (which is by interpretation, [4][m]Peter).

43 [n]On the morrow he was minded to go forth into [o]Galilee, and he findeth [p]Philip: and Jesus saith unto him, [q]Follow me. 44 Now [p]Philip was from [r]Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 [p]Philip findeth [s]Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom [t]Moses in the law, and [t]the prophets, wrote, Jesus of [u]Nazareth, [v]the son of Joseph. 46 And Nathanael said unto him, [x]Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? [p]Philip saith unto him, Come and see. 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold, an [y]Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! 48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before [p]Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. 49 Nathanael answered him, [z]Rabbi, thou art [a]the Son of God; thou art [b]King of Israel. 50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. 51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see [c]the heaven opened, and [d]the angels of God ascending and descending upon [e]the Son of man.

2 And [f]the third day there was a marriage in [g]Cana of Galilee; and the [h]mother of Jesus was there: 2 and Jesus also was bidden, and his [i]disciples, to the marriage. 3 And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. 4 And Jesus saith unto her, [k]Woman, [l]what have I to do with thee? [m]mine hour is not yet come. 5 His [h]mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. 6 Now there were six waterpots of stone set there [n]after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three firkins apiece. 7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. 8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the [5]ruler of the feast. And they bare it. 9 And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water [6][o]now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants that had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, 10 and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men [p]have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now. 11 This beginning of his [q]signs did Jesus in Cana of [r]Galilee, and manifested his [a]glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 After this he went down to [b]Capernaum, he, and his [c]mother, and his [c]brethren, and his [d]disciples; and there they abode not many days.

13 And [e]the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus [f]went up to Jerusalem. 14 [g]And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: 15 and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; 16 and to them that sold [h]the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not [i]my Father's house a house of merchandise.
17 His [d]disciples remembered that it was written, Zeal for thy house shall eat me up. 18 [k]The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, [l]What sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
19 Jesus answered and said unto them, [m]Destroy this [1]temple, and in three days I will raise it up.
20 [k]The Jews therefore said, [n]Forty and six years was this [1]temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? 21 But he spake of [o]the [1]temple of his body. 22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his [d]disciples [p]remembered that he spake this; and they believed [q]the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at [r]the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, [s]beholding his signs which he did. 24 But Jesus did not trust himself unto them, for that he knew all men, 25 and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning [2]man; [t]for he himself knew what was in man.

[1] Or, sanctuary

[2] Or, a man; for . . . the man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named [u]Nicodemus, a [v]ruler of the Jews: 2 the same came unto him by night, and said to him, [x]Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these [s]signs that thou doest, except [y]God be with him. 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one [z]be born [3]anew, he cannot see [a]the kingdom of God.
4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born of [b]water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into [a]the kingdom of God. 6 [c]That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born [3]anew. 8 [4][d]The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou [e]the teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things? 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [f]We speak that which we know, and [g]bear witness of that which we have seen; and [g]ye receive not our witness.
12 If I told you earthly things and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 And [h]no one hath ascended into heaven, but [i]he that descended out of heaven, even [k]the Son of man, [5]who is in heaven. 14 And as [l]Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must [k]the Son of man [m]be lifted up; 15 that whosoever [6]believeth may [n]in him have eternal life.

16 For God so [o]loved the world, that he [p]gave his [q]only begotten Son, that whosoever [r]believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. 17 For God [s]sent not the Son into the world [t]to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. 18 [a]He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of [b]the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the judgment, that [c]the light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for [d]their works were evil. 20 [e]For every one that [1]doeth evil hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be [2]reproved. 21 But he that [f]doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, [3]that they have been wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his [g]disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and [h]baptized. 23 And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there [4]was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. 24 For [i]John was not yet cast into prison. 25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about [k]purifying. 26 And they came unto John, and said to him, [l]Rabbi, he that was with thee [m]beyond the Jordan, to whom thou [n]hast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. 27 John answered and said, [o]A man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from heaven. 28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, [p]I am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him. 29 He that hath the bride is [q]the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, that standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my [r]joy therefore is made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 [s]He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and [t]of the earth he speaketh: [5][s]he that cometh from heaven is above all. 32 What he hath seen and heard, of that he [u]beareth witness; and [u]no man receiveth his witness. 33 He that hath received his witness [v]hath set his seal to this, that God is true. 34 For he whom God hath [x]sent speaketh the words of God: [y]for he giveth not the Spirit by measure. 35 [z]The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. 36 He that [a]believeth on the Son hath eternal life; but he that [6][b]obeyeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

4 When therefore [c]the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and [d]baptizing more disciples than John 2 (although [d]Jesus himself baptized not, but his [e]disciples), 3 he [f]left Judæa, and departed [g]again into Galilee. 4 And he must needs pass through [h]Samaria. 5 So he cometh to a city of [h]Samaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that [i]Jacob gave to his son Joseph: 6 and Jacob's [7]well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat [8]thus by the [7]well. It was about the sixth hour. 7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. 8 For his [e]disciples were gone away into [k]the city to buy food. 9 The [h]Samaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman? ([9]For [l]Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) 10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [m]living water. 11 The woman saith unto him, [10]Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: whence then hast thou that [m]living water? 12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who [n]gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle? 13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again: 14 but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him [o]shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a well of water springing up unto [p]eternal life. 15 The woman saith unto him, [1] Sir, [a] give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come all the way hither to draw. 16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. 17 The woman answered and said unto him, I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband: 18 for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly. 19 The woman saith unto him, [1] Sir, I perceive that thou art [b] a prophet. 20 [c] Our fathers worshipped in [d] this mountain; and ye say, that [e] in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. 21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, [f] the hour cometh, when [g] neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. 22 [h] Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know; for [i] salvation is from the Jews. 23 But [k] the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father [l] in spirit and truth: [2] for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. 24 [3] God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship [l] in spirit and truth. 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that [m] Messiah cometh ([n] he that is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things. 26 Jesus saith unto her, [o] I that speak unto thee am he.

27 And upon this [p] came his [q] disciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? 28 So the woman left her waterpot, and went away into the city, and saith to the people, 29 Come, see a man, [r] who told me all things that ever I did: [s] can this be the Christ? 30 They went out of the city, and were coming to him. 31 In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, [t] Rabbi, eat. 32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. 33 The [q] disciples therefore said one to another, Hath any man brought him aught to eat? 34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to [u] do the will of him that sent me, and to [v] accomplish his work. 35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are [4] white already [x] unto harvest. 36 He that reapeth receiveth [y] wages, and gathereth [z] fruit unto [a] life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. 37 For herein is the saying true, [b] One soweth, and another reapeth. 38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye have not labored: others have labored, and ye are entered into their labor.

39 And from [c] that city many of the Samaritans believed on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, [d] He told me all things that ever I did. 40 So when the Samaritans came unto him, they besought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. 41 And many more believed because of his word; 42 and they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed [e] the Saviour of the world.

43 And after [f] the two days he went forth from thence into Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified, that [g] a prophet hath no honor in his own country. 45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, [h] having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 He came therefore again unto [i] Cana of Galilee, [k] where he made the water wine. And there was a certain [5] nobleman, whose son was sick at [l] Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus was come [m] out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. 48 Jesus therefore said unto him, Except ye see [n] signs and [n] wonders, ye will in no wise believe. 49 The [5] nobleman saith unto him, [1] Sir, come down ere my child die. 50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy in Capernaum. The Cure at Bethesda. Jesus censured for Sabbath-breaking; makes his Defence; way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way. 51 And as he was now going down, his [1] servants met him, saying, that his son lived. 52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and [a] his whole house. 54 This is again the [b] second [c] sign that Jesus did, having [d] come out of Judæa into Galilee.

5 After these things there was [2] a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by [e] the sheep gate a pool, which is called [f] in Hebrew [3] Bethesda, having five porches. 3 In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, halt, withered[4]. 5 And a certain man was there, who had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity. 6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole? 7 The sick man answered him, [5] Sir, I have no man, when [g] the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. 8 Jesus saith unto him, [h] Arise, take up thy [6] bed, and walk. 9 And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his [6] bed and walked.

[i] Now it was the sabbath on that day. 10 So [k] the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and [l] it is not lawful for thee to take up thy [6] bed. 11 But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy [6] bed, and walk. 12 They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy [6] bed, and walk? 13 But he that was healed knew not who it was; for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in the place. 14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [m] sin no more, [n] lest a worse thing befall thee. 15 The man went away, and told [k] the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him whole. 16 And for this cause [k] the Jews persecuted Jesus, because he did these things on the sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until now, and I work. 18 For this cause therefore [k] the Jews [o] sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, [p] making himself equal with God.

19 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [q] The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. 20 [r] For the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and [s] greater works than these will he show him, that ye may marvel. 21 For as the Father raiseth the dead and [t] giveth them life, even so [u] the Son also giveth life to whom he will. 22 For neither doth the Father judge any man, but [v] he hath given all judgment unto the Son; 23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. [x] He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father that sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and [y] believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and [z] cometh not into judgment, but hath [a] passed out of death into life. 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [b] The hour cometh, and now is, when [c] the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that [7] [d] hear shall live. 26 For as the Father hath life in himself, even so [e] gave he to the Son also to have life in himself: 27 and he gave him authority to [v] execute judgment, because he is a son of man. 28 Marvel not at this: for [f] the hour cometh, in which [g] all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, 29 and shall come forth; [h] they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have [8] done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

30 [a]I can of myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and [b]my judgment is righteous; because I seek not mine own will, but [c]the will of him that sent me. 31 [d]If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. 32 It is [e]another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. 33 Ye have sent unto John, and he [f]hath borne witness unto the truth. 34 But [g]the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit I say these things, that ye may be saved. 35 He was [h]the lamp that burneth and shineth; and ye [i]were willing to rejoice for a season in his light. 36 But the witness which I have is greater than that of John; for [k]the works which the Father hath given me [l]to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father [m]hath sent me. 37 And the Father that sent me, [n]he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. 38 And ye have not [o]his word abiding in you: for whom he [m]sent, him ye believe not. 39 [1][p]Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and [q]these are they which bear witness of me; 40 and ye will not come to me, that ye may have life. 41 [r]I receive not glory from men. 42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in yourselves. 43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: [s]if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. 44 How can ye believe, who [t]receive glory one of another, and [u]the glory that cometh from [2][v]the only God ye seek not? 45 Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even [x]Moses, on whom ye have set your hope. 46 For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me; for [y]he wrote of me. 47 But [z]if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

6 After these things [a]Jesus went away to the other side of [b]the sea of Galilee, which is [c]the sea of Tiberias. 2 And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the [d]signs which he did on them that were sick. 3 And Jesus went up into [e]the mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. 4 Now [f]the passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. 5 Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto [g]Philip, Whence are we to buy [3]bread, that these may eat? 6 And this he said to [h]prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. 7 [g]Philip answered him, [i]Two hundred [4]shillings' worth of [3]bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. 8 One of his [k]disciples, [l]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, who hath five barley loaves, and two [m]fishes: but what are these among so many? 10 Jesus said, Make the people sit down. Now there was [n]much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about [o]five thousand. 11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and [p]having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the [m]fishes as much as they would. 12 And when they were filled, he saith unto his [k]disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost. 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve [q]baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the [5]sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth [r]the prophet that cometh into the world.

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, [s]to make him king, [t]withdrew again into [u]the mountain himself alone.

16 And when evening came, his [k]disciples went down unto the sea; 17 and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea [v]unto Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. 18 And the sea was rising by reason of a great wind that blew. 19 When therefore they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; [a] be not afraid. 21 They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.

22 On the morrow [b] the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other [1] boat there, save one, and that Jesus [c] entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone 23 (howbeit there came [2] boats from [d] Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after [e] the Lord [f] had given thanks): 24 when the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the [2] boats, and [g] came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25 And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, [h] Rabbi, when camest thou hither? 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye [i] seek me, not because ye saw [k] signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled. 27 [l] Work not for the food which perisheth, but for the food which abideth unto [m] eternal life, which [n] the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, [o] hath sealed. 28 They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the works of God?
29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is [p] the work of God, that ye believe on him whom [3] he [q] hath sent. 30 They said therefore unto him, [r] What then doest thou for a [s] sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? 31 [t] Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat. 32 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven.
33 For the bread of God is that which [u] cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. 34 They said therefore unto him, Lord, evermore [v] give us this bread. 35 Jesus said unto them, [x] I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me [y] shall never thirst. 36 But [z] I said unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not.
37 [a] All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. 38 For [b] I am come down from heaven, [c] not to do mine own will, but [d] the will of him that [e] sent me.
39 And this is the will of him that sent me, that of [a] all that which he hath given me I should [f] lose nothing, but should [g] raise it up at the last day. 40 For this is the will of my Father, that every one that [h] beholdeth the Son, and [i] believeth on him, should have eternal life; and [4] I will [g] raise him up at the last day.

41 [k] The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which [l] came down out of heaven.
42 And they said, [m] Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother [n] we know? how doth he now say, [o] I am come down out of heaven?
43 Jesus answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.
44 No man can come to me, except the Father that sent me [p] draw him: and I will [q] raise him up in the last day. 45 It is written [r] in the prophets, And they shall all be [s] taught of God.
Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath learned, cometh unto me. 46 [t] Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he that is from God, he hath seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth [u] hath eternal life. 48 [v] I am the bread of life. 49 [x] Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. 50 This is the bread which [y] cometh down out of heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and [u] not die. 51 [z] I am the living bread which [a] came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, [u] he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is [a] my flesh, [b] for the life of the world.

52 [c] The Jews therefore [d] strove one with another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? 53 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of [e] the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves.
54 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will [f] raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is [1] meat indeed, and my blood is [2] drink indeed. 56 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood [g] abideth in me, and I in him.
57 As the [h] living Father [i] sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of me.
58 This is the bread which [k] came down out of heaven: not as [l] the fathers ate, and died; he that eateth this bread [m] shall live for ever.
59 These things said he [n] in [3] the synagogue, as he taught [o] in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his [p] disciples, when they heard this, said, [q] This is a hard saying; who can hear [4] it? 61 But Jesus [r] knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this [s] cause you to stumble?
62 What then if ye should behold [e] the Son of man [t] ascending where he was before? 63 [u] It is the spirit that giveth life; the flesh profiteth nothing: [v] the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. 64 But there are [x] some of you that believe not.
For Jesus [y] knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and [z] who it was that should [5] betray him. 65 And he said, For this cause have I [a] said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except [b] it be given unto him of the Father.

66 Upon this many of his [p] disciples [c] went back, and walked no more with him. 67 Jesus said therefore unto [d] the twelve, Would ye also go away? 68 [e] Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou [6] hast the [f] words of eternal life. 69 And we have believed and know that thou art [g] the Holy One of God.
70 Jesus answered them, [h] Did not I choose you [d] the twelve, and one of you is [i] a devil? 71 Now he spake of Judas [k] the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that [l] should [5] betray him, being [m] one of [d] the twelve.

7 And after these things Jesus [n] walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because [o] the Jews [p] sought to kill him. 2 Now the feast of the Jews, [q] the feast of tabernacles, was at hand. 3 His [r] brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy [s] disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest.
4 For no man doeth anything in secret, [7] and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the world. 5 For even his [r] brethren did not believe on him.
6 Jesus therefore saith unto them, [t] My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. 7 [u] The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that [v] its works are evil. 8 Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up[8] unto this feast; because [x] my time is not yet fulfilled. 9 And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his [r] brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11 [o] The Jews therefore [y] sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? 12 And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: [z] some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. 13 Yet no man spake openly of him for [a] fear of the Jews.

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and [b] taught.
15 [o] The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man [c] letters, having never learned?
16 Jesus therefore answered them, and said, [d] My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. 17 [e] If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from myself. 18 He that speaketh from himself [a] seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 [b] Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you doeth the law? Why [c] seek ye to kill me? 20 The multitude answered, [d] Thou hast a demon: who seeketh to kill thee? 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I did [e] one work, and ye all marvel because thereof. 22 [f] Moses hath given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of [g] the fathers); and on the sabbath ye circumcise a man. 23 [h] If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made [1] a man every whit whole on the sabbath? 24 [i] Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom they seek to kill? 26 And lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. [k] Can it be that [l] the rulers indeed know that this is the Christ? 27 Howbeit [m] we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one knoweth whence he is. 28 Jesus therefore cried in the temple, [n] teaching and saying, [m] Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and [o] I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. 29 [p] I know him; because [q] I am from him, and [r] he sent me. 30 They [s] sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on him, because his [t] hour was not yet come. 31 But of the multitude [u] many believed on him; and they said, [v] When the Christ shall come, will he do more [x] signs than those which this man hath done? 32 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent [y] officers to [z] take him. 33 Jesus therefore said, [a] Yet a little while am I with you, and [b] I go unto him that sent me. 34 [c] Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come. 35 [d] The Jews therefore said among themselves, [e] Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto [f] the Dispersion [2] among [g] the Greeks, and teach [g] the Greeks? 36 What is this word that he said, [c] Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me; and where I am, ye cannot come?

37 Now on [h] the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, [i] If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. 38 He that believeth on me, [k] as the scripture hath said, [3] from within him shall flow rivers of [l] living water. 39 But this spake he [m] of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: [4] for [n] the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet [o] glorified. 40 Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This is of a truth [p] the prophet. 41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What, [q] doth the Christ come out of Galilee? 42 Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh of [r] the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? 43 So [s] there arose a division in the multitude because of him. 44 And [t] some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 The [u] officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why did ye not bring him? 46 The [u] officers answered, [v] Never man so spake. 47 The Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye [x] also led astray? 48 [y] Hath any of [z] the rulers believed on him, or of the Pharisees? 49 But this multitude that knoweth not the law are accursed. 50 [a] Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being one of them), 51 [b] Doth our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth? 52 They answered and said unto him, [q] Art thou also of Galilee?

[The Woman taken in Adultery.] "I am the Light of the World." "He that sent me is with me"

Search, and [1] see that [a] out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 [2][And they went every man unto his own house: 8 1 but Jesus went unto [b] the mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and [c] he sat down, and taught them. 3 And the scribes and the Pharisees bring a woman taken in adultery; and having set her in the midst, 4 they say unto him, Teacher, this woman hath been taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such: what then sayest thou of her? 6 And this they said, [d] trying him, [e] that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. 7 But when they continued asking him, [f] he lifted up himself, and said unto them, [g] He that is without sin among you, let him [h] first cast a stone at her. 8 And again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. 9 And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst. 10 And Jesus [f] lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they? did no man condemn thee? 11 And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, [i] Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth [k] sin no more.]

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, [l] I am the light of the world: [m] he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, [n] Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. 14 Jesus answered and said unto them, [o] Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know [p] whence I came, and whither I go; but [q] ye know not whence I come, or whither I go. 15 [r] Ye judge after the flesh; [s] I judge no man. 16 Yea and [t] if I judge, my judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. 17 Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of [u] two men is true. 18 I am he that beareth witness of myself, and [v] the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. 19 They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: [x] if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. 20 These words spake he in [y] the treasury, as [z] he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because [a] his hour was not yet come.

21 He said therefore again unto them, I go away, and [b] ye shall seek me, and [c] shall die in your sin: whither I go, ye cannot come. 22 [d] The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he saith, [e] Whither I go, ye cannot come? 23 And he said unto them, [f] Ye are from beneath; I am from above: [g] ye are of this world; [h] I am not of this world. 24 I said therefore unto you, that ye [c] shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that [i] I am he, [c] ye shall die in your sins. 25 They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? Jesus said unto them, [3] Even that which I have also spoken unto you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you: howbeit [k] he that sent me is true; and [l] the things which I heard from him, these speak I unto the world. 27 They perceived not that he spake to them of the Father. 28 Jesus therefore said, When ye have [m] lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that [4][i] I am he, and that [n] I do nothing of myself, but as the Father taught me, I speak these things. 29 And he that sent me is with me; [o] he hath not left me alone; for [p] I do always the things that are pleasing to him. 30 As he spake these things, [q] many believed on him.

31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews that had believed [2] Most of the ancient authorities omit John 7. 53 – 8. 11. Those which contain it vary much from each other.

The fact that this was not in original does not mean that it is not a true incident in the life of Christ. This incident is doubtless as authentic as rest of Gospels him, [a]If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my [b]disciples; 32 and [c]ye shall know the truth, and [d]the truth shall make you free. 33 They answered unto him, [e]We are Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? 34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [f]Every one that committeth sin is the bondservant of sin. 35 And [g]the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: [h]the son abideth for ever. 36 If therefore the Son [i]shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. 37 I know that ye are [e]Abraham's seed; yet [k]ye seek to kill me, because my word [1]hath not free course in you. 38 I speak the things which I have seen with [2]my Father: and ye also do the things which ye heard from [l]your father. 39 They answered and said unto him, [e]Our father is Abraham. Jesus saith unto them, [m]If ye [3]were Abraham's children, [4]ye would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now [k]ye seek to kill me, a man that hath [n]told you the truth, which I heard from God: this did not Abraham. 41 Ye do the works of [l]your father. They said unto him, We were not born of fornication; [o]we have one Father, even God. 42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, [p]ye would love me: [q]for I came forth and am come from God; for [r]neither have I come of myself, but [s]he sent me. 43 Why do ye not [5]understand [t]my speech? Even because ye cannot [u]hear my word. 44 [v]Ye are of [l]your father the devil, and the lusts of your father it is [x]your will to do. [y]He was a murderer from the beginning, and standeth not in the truth, because [z]there is no truth in him. [6]When he speaketh a lie, [a]speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof. 45 But because [b]I say the truth, ye believe me not. 46 Which of you convicteth me of sin? If [b]I say truth, why do ye not believe me? 47 [c]He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God. 48 [d]The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a [e]Samaritan, and [f]hast a demon? 49 Jesus answered, I [f]have not a demon; but I honor my Father, and ye dishonor me. 50 But [g]I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. 51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man [h]keep my word, he shall never [i]see death. 52 [d]The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou [f]hast a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man [h]keep my word, he shall never [k]taste of death. 53 [l]Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who died? and the prophets died: whom makest thou thyself? 54 Jesus answered, [m]If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: [n]it is my Father that glorifieth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; 55 and [o]ye have not known him: [p]but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, [q]a liar: [p]but I know him, and [r]keep his word. 56 [s]Your father Abraham [t]rejoiced [7]to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad. 57 [d]The Jews therefore said unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? 58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was born, [u]I am. 59 They [v]took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus [8][x]hid himself, and went out of the temple[9].

9 And as he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, [y]Rabbi, who sinned, [z]this man, or his [a]parents, that he should be born blind? 3 Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but [b]that the works of God should be made manifest in him. 4 We must work the works of him that sent me, [c]while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. 5 When I am in the world, I am [a] the light of the world. 6 When he had thus spoken, he [b] spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle,[1] and anointed his eyes with the clay, 7 and said unto him, Go, wash in [c] the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and [d] came seeing. 8 The neighbors therefore, and they that saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that [e] sat and begged? 9 Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. 10 They said therefore unto him, How then were thine eyes opened? 11 He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to [f] Siloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. 12 And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.

13 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. 14 [g] Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. 15 [h] Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and I see. 16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, [i] This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such [k] signs? And [l] there was a division among them. 17 They say therefore unto the blind man [m] again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a [n] prophet. 18 [o] The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, 19 and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? 20 His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: 21 but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. 22 These things said his parents, because they [p] feared the Jews: for the Jews [q] had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, [r] he should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore said his parents, [s] He is of age; ask him. 24 So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, [t] Give glory to God: we know that [u] this man is a sinner. 25 He therefore answered, Whether he is a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. 26 They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? 27 He answered them, [v] I told you even now, and ye did not [x] hear; wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? 28 And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but [y] we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, [z] we know not whence he is. 30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened mine eyes. 31 We know that [a] God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth. 32 Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. 33 [b] If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. 34 They answered and said unto him, [c] Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they [d] cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had [d] cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on [2] the [e] Son of God? 36 He answered and said, And [f] who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and [g] he it is that speaketh with thee. 38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he [3] [h] worshipped him. 39 And Jesus said, [i] For judgment came I into this world, that [k] they that see not may see; and that [l] they that see may become blind. 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him

[1] Or, and with the clay thereof anointed his eyes

[2] Many ancient authorities read the Son of man.

[3] The Greek word denotes an act of reverence, whether paid to a creature (as here) or to the Creator (see ch. 4. 20).

heard these things, and said unto him, [a]Are we also blind? 41 Jesus said unto them, [b]If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, [c]We see: your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is [d]a thief and a robber. 2 But he that entereth in by the door is [1][e]the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear [f]his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and [g]leadeth them out. 4 When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know [f]his voice. 5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not [f]the voice of strangers. 6 This [2][h]parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am [i]the door of the sheep. 8 All that came [3]before me are [k]thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. 9 [i]I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture. 10 The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they [l]may have life, and may [4]have it abundantly. 11 [m]I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd [n]layeth down his life for the sheep. 12 He that is a hireling, and not a [o]shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: 13 he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. 14 [p]I am the good shepherd; and [q]I know mine own, and mine own know me, 15 even as [r]the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and [s]I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And [t]other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must [5]bring, and they shall hear my voice; and [6]they shall become [u]one flock, [v]one shepherd. 17 Therefore doth the Father love me, because I [s]lay down my life, that I may take it again. 18 [x]No one [7]taketh it away from me, but I [s]lay it down of myself. I have [8]power to lay it down, and I have [8]power to take it again. [y]This commandment received I from my Father.

19 [z]There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words. 20 And many of them said, He [a]hath a demon, and [b]is mad; why hear ye him? 21 Others said, These are not the sayings of one [c]possessed with a demon. [d]Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?

22 [9]And it was [e]the feast of the dedication at Jerusalem: 23 it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the temple in [f]Solomon's [10]porch. 24 [g]The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us [h]plainly. 25 Jesus answered them, [i]I told you, and ye believe not: [k]the works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. 26 But ye believe not, because [l]ye are not of my sheep. 27 My sheep [m]hear my voice, and [q]I know them, and they follow me: 28 and I give unto them [n]eternal life; and they shall never perish, and [o]no one shall snatch them out of [p]my hand. 29 [11]My Father, who hath given them unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch [12]them out of [p]the Father's hand. 30 [q]I and the Father are one. 31 The Jews [r]took up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? 33 The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for [s]blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, [t]makest thyself God. 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in [u]your [v]law, I said, Ye are gods? 35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), 36 say ye of him, whom the Father [1][a] sanctified and [b] sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, [c] I am the Son of God? 37 [d] If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe [e] the works: that ye may know and understand that [f] the Father is in me, and I in the Father. 39 [g] They sought again to take him: and [h] he went forth out of their hand.

40 And he went away [i] again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and there he abode. 41 And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no [k] sign: but [l] all things whatsoever John spake of this man were true.
42 And [m] many believed on him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of [n] Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister [o] Martha. 2 And it was that Mary who [p] anointed [q] the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, [q] Lord, behold, [r] he whom thou lovest is sick. 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for [s] the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby. 5 Now Jesus loved [t] Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he saith to the disciples, [u] Let us go into Judæa again. 8 The disciples say unto him, [v] Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking [w] to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? 9 Jesus answered, [y] Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in him. 11 These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our [z] friend Lazarus [a] is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will [2] recover. 13 Now [b] Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.
16 [c] Thomas therefore, who is called [3][d] Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb [e] four days already. 18 Now [f] Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; 19 and many of [g] the Jews had come to [f] Martha and Mary, [h] to console them concerning their brother. 20 [i] Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but [i] Mary still sat in the house.
21 Martha therefore said unto Jesus, [k] Lord, [l] if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
22 And even now I know that, [m] whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee. 23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. 24 Martha saith unto him, [n] I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. 25 Jesus said unto her, [o] I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live; 26 and whosoever liveth and believeth on me [p] shall never die. Believest thou this? 27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art [q] the Christ, the Son of God, even [r] he that cometh into the world.
28 And when she had said this, she [s] went away, and called Mary [4] her sister secretly, saying, [t] The Teacher is here, and calleth thee.
29 And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto him. 30 (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but [u] was still in the place where Martha met him.) 31 [v] The Jews then who were with her in the house, and [a] were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to [1] weep there. 32 Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was,

and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, [b] Lord, [c] if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. 33 When Jesus therefore saw her [2] weeping, and [d] the Jews also [2] weeping who came with her, he [3] [e] groaned in the spirit, and [4] [f] was troubled, 34 and said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. 35 Jesus [g] wept.
36 [d] The Jews therefore said, Behold how he [h] loved him! 37 But some of them said, Could not this man, who [i] opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also should not die? 38 Jesus therefore again [5] [e] groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was [k] a cave, and [k] a stone lay [6] against it.
39 Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time [7] the body decayeth; for he hath been dead [l] four days. 40 Jesus saith unto her, [m] Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldest see the glory of God? 41 So they took away the [k] stone. And Jesus [n] lifted up his eyes, and said, [o] Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me. 42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [p] because of the multitude that standeth around I said it, that they may believe that [q] thou didst send me. 43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. 44 He that was dead came forth, [r] bound hand and foot with [8] grave-clothes; and [s] his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.
45 [t] Many therefore of the Jews, [u] who came to Mary and [v] beheld [9] that which he did, believed on him. 46 But some of them went away to the [x] Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.
47 [x] The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees [y] gathered a [z] council, and said, What do we?
for this man doeth many [a] signs.
48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take away both our [b] place and our nation. 49 But a certain one of them, [c] Caiaphas, [d] being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, 50 nor do ye take account that [e] it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.
51 Now this he said not of himself: but [d] being high priest that year, he [f] prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; 52 and not for the nation only, but that he might also [g] gather together into one the children of God that are scattered abroad. 53 So from that day forth they [h] took counsel that they might put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore [i] walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called [k] Ephraim; and there he tarried with the disciples.
55 Now [l] the passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, [m] to purify themselves. 56 They [n] sought therefore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come to the feast? 57 Now [o] the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should show it, that they might take him.

12 [p] Jesus therefore six days before [q] the passover came to [r] Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead. 2 So they made him a supper there: and [s] Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that [10] sat at meat with him. 3 [t] Mary therefore took a pound of ointment of [11] [u] pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. 4 But [a] Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, that should [1] betray him, saith, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred [2] shillings, and given to the poor? 6 Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [b] having the [3] bag [4] took away [c] what was put therein. 7 Jesus therefore said, [5] Suffer her to keep it against [d] the day of my burying. 8 [e] For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

9 The [f] common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, [g] whom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 because that [h] by reason of him [i] many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow [6] [k] a great multitude that had come to [l] the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took the [m] branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, [n] Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the [o] King of Israel. 14 And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. 16 [p] These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus [q] was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. 17 [r] The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness. 18 [s] For this cause also the multitude went and met him, [t] for that they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [7] Behold how ye prevail nothing; lo, the world is gone after him.

20 Now there were certain [u] Greeks among those that went up to worship at [l] the feast: 21 these therefore came to [v] Philip, who was of [x] Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. 22 Philip cometh and telleth [v] Andrew: Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they tell Jesus. 23 And Jesus answereth them, saying, [y] The hour is come, that the Son of man should [q] be glorified. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [z] Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth much fruit. 25 [a] He that loveth his [8] life loseth it; and he that [b] hateth his [8] life in this world shall keep it unto [9] life eternal. 26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [c] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will the Father [d] honor. 27 [e] Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? [f] Father, save me from [g] this [10] hour. But for this cause came I unto this hour. 28 [f] Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore a [h] voice out of heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. 29 The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, [i] An angel hath spoken to him. 30 Jesus answered and said, [k] This voice hath not come for my sake, but for your sakes. 31 [l] Now is [11] the judgment of this world: now shall [m] the prince of this world be cast out. 32 And I, if I [n] be lifted up [12] from the earth, will [o] draw all men unto myself. 33 But this he said, [p] signifying by what manner of death he should die. 34 The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of [q] the law that [r] the Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The [s] Son of man must be [n] lifted up? who is this [s] Son of man? 35 Jesus therefore said unto them, [t] Yet a little while is [u] the light [13] among you. [v] Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that [x] walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have the light, [a] believe on the light, that ye may become [b] sons of light.
These things spake Jesus, and he departed and [1][c] hid himself from them. 37 But though he had done so many [d] signs before them, yet they believed not on him: 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake,

[e] Lord, who hath believed our report?
And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah said again, 40 [f] He hath blinded their eyes, and he [g] hardened their heart; Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, And should turn,

And I should heal them.

41 These things said Isaiah, because [h] he saw his glory; and [i] he spake of him. 42 Nevertheless even of [k] the rulers [l] many believed on him; but [m] because of the Pharisees they did not confess [2] it, lest they should be [n] put out of the synagogue: 43 [o] for they loved the glory that is of men more than the glory that is of God.

44 And Jesus cried and said, [p] He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. 45 And [q] he that beholdeth me beholdeth him that sent me. 46 [r] I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness. 47 And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for [s] I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 [t] He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: [u] the word that I spake, the same shall judge him in [v] the last day. 49 [x] For I spake not from myself; but the Father that sent me, [y] he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. 50 And I know that [z] his commandment is life eternal: the things therefore which I speak, [a] even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

13 Now before the feast of [b] the passover, Jesus knowing that [c] his hour was come that he should depart out of this world [d] unto the Father, having loved his own that were in the world, he loved them [3] unto the end.
2 And during supper, [e] the devil having already put into the heart of [f] Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to [4] betray him, 3 Jesus, [g] knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that [h] he came forth from God, and goeth unto God, 4 riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments: and he took a towel, and [i] girded himself. 5 Then he poureth water into the basin, and began to [k] wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. 6 So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? 7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand [l] hereafter.
8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, [m] thou hast no part with me.
9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not [5] save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [n] ye are clean, but not all. 11 For [o] he knew him that should [4] betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So when he had washed their feet, and [p] taken his garments, and [6] sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? 13 Ye call me, [q] Teacher, and, [r] Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. 14 If I then, [r] the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For I have given you [s] an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. 16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [t] A [7] servant is not greater than his lord; neither [8][u] one that is sent greater than he that sent him. 17 If ye know these things, [v] blessed are ye if ye do them. 18 [x] I speak not of you all: I know whom I

Jesus points out the Betrayer. The New Commandment. Peter's Denial foretold. The Farewell Discourse

[1]have [a]chosen: but [b]that the scripture may be fulfilled, [c]He that eateth [2]my bread lifted up his heel against me. 19 From henceforth [d]I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that [e]I am he. 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [f]He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he [g]was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [c]one of you shall [3]betray me. 22 The disciples looked one on another, [c]doubting of whom he spake. 23 There was at the table reclining in [h]Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, [i]whom Jesus loved. 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. 25 He [k]leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? 26 Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, [l]the son of Simon Iscariot. 27 And after the sop, then [m]entered [n]Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, What thou doest, do quickly. 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. 29 For some thought, because Judas [o]had the [4]bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of [p]for the feast; or, that he should [q]give something to the poor. 30 He then having received the sop went out straightway: and [r]it was night.

31 When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now [5]is [s]the Son of man [t]glorified, and [u]God [5]is glorified in him; 32 and [v]God shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify him. 33 [x]Little children, [y]yet a little while I am with you. [z]Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. 34 A [a]new commandment I give unto you, [b]that ye love one another; [6][c]even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. 35 [d]By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, [e]Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but [f]thou shalt follow afterwards. 37 Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? [g]I will lay down my life for thee. 38 Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [h]The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

14 [i]Let not your heart be troubled: [7]believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many [8]mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for [k]I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [l]I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that [m]where I am, there ye may be also. 4 [9]And whither I go, ye know the way. 5 [n]Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; how know we the way? 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am [o]the way, and [p]the truth, and [q]the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but [10]by me. 7 [r]If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also: from henceforth ye [s]know him, and have [t]seen him. 8 [u]Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. 9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? [v]he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how sayest thou, Show us the Father? 10 Believest thou not that [x]I am in the Father, and the Father in me? [y]the words that I say unto you I speak not from myself: but the Father abiding in me doeth his works. 11 Believe me that [x]I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else [z]believe me for the very works' sake. 12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and [a]greater works than these shall he do; because [b]I go unto the Father.

13 And [c]whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that [d]the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If ye shall ask [1]anything [e]in my name, that will I do.
15 [f]If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments. 16 And I will [2]pray the Father, and he shall give you another [3][g]Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, 17 even [h]the Spirit of truth: [i]whom the world cannot receive; for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and shall be in you. 18 I will not leave you [4]desolate: [k]I come unto you.
19 [l]Yet a little while, and [m]the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: [n]because I live, [5]ye shall live also. 20 [o]In that day ye shall know that [p]I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. 21 [f]He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and [q]he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will [r]manifest myself unto him. 22 [s]Judas (not Iscariot) saith unto him, Lord, what is come to pass [t]that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? 23 Jesus answered and said unto him, [f]If a man love me, he will [u]keep my word: and [v]my Father will love him, and we [x]will come unto him, and make our abode with him. 24 He that loveth me not [y]keepeth not my words: and [z]the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, while yet abiding with you. 26 But the [3][a]Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, [b]whom the Father will send in my name, [c]he shall teach you all things, and [d]bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you. 27 [e]Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. [f]Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. 28 [g]Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and [h]I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because [i]I go unto the Father: for [k]the Father is greater than I. 29 And now [l]I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe. 30 I will no more speak much with you, for [m]the prince of the world cometh: and [n]he hath nothing [6]in me; 31 but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as [o]the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, [p]let us go hence.

15 [q]I am the true vine, and my Father is the [r]husbandman.
2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit. 3 Already [s]ye are clean because of the word which I have spoken unto you.
4 [t]Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me. 5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same [u]beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing. 6 If a man abide not in me, he is [v]cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, [x]ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
8 [y]Herein [7]is my Father glorified, [8]that ye bear much fruit; and so [z]shall ye be my disciples.
9 Even as [a]the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my love. 10 [b]If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as [c]I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. 11 [d]These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your [e]joy may be made full.
12 This is [f]my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you. 13 [a]Greater love hath no man than this, that a man [b]lay down his life for his friends. 14 Ye are my [c]friends, if [d]ye do the things which I command you. 15 No longer do I call you [1]servants; for the [2]servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for [e]all things that I heard from my Father I have made known unto you. 16 [f]Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and [g]bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that [h]whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. 17 These things [i]I command you, that ye may love one another. 18 [k]If the world hateth you, [3]ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. 19 [l]If ye were of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but [m]I chose you out of the world, [n]therefore the world hateth you. 20 Remember the word that I said unto you, [o]A [2]servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, [p]they will also persecute you; if they [q]kept my word, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things will they do unto you [r]for my name's sake, [s]because they know not him that sent me. 22 [t]If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also. 24 [t]If I had not done among them [u]the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. 25 But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their [v]law, They hated me without a cause. 26 But when the [4][x]Comforter is come, [y]whom I will send unto you from the Father, even [z]the Spirit of truth, which [5]proceedeth from the Father, [a]he shall bear witness of me: 27 [6]and [b]ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me [c]from the beginning.

16 [d]These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be caused to [e]stumble. 2 They shall [f]put you out of the synagogues: yea, [g]the hour cometh, that [h]whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth service unto God. 3 And these things will they do, [s]because they have not known the Father, nor me. 4 But these things have I spoken unto you, [i]that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you [c]from the beginning, because I was with you. 5 But now [k]I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, [l]Whither goest thou? 6 But because I have spoken these things unto you, [m]sorrow hath filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the [4][x]Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, [y]I will send him unto you. 8 And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: 9 of sin, [n]because they believe not on me; 10 of [o]righteousness, because [p]I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; 11 [q]of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged. 12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. 13 Howbeit when he, [r]the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall [s]guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come. 14 He shall [t]glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you. 15 [u]All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you. 16 [v]A little while, and [x]ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and [y]ye shall see me. 17 Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, [z]A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because [a] I go to the Father? 18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith. 19 [b] Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me? 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [c] ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but [d] your sorrow shall be turned into joy. 21 [e] A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. 22 And [f] ye therefore now have sorrow: but [g] I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you. 23 And [h] in that day [i] ye shall [1] ask me no question. Verily, verily, I say unto you, [k] If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name. 24 [l] Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your [m] joy may be made full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [2][n] dark sayings: [o] the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [2][n] dark sayings, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. 26 [h] In that day [i] ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will [3] pray the Father for you; 27 for [p] the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and [q] have believed that [r] I came forth from the Father. 28 [r] I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and [s] go unto the Father. 29 His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [4][n] dark saying. 30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we [q] believe that thou [r] camest forth from God. 31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? 32 Behold, [t] the hour cometh, yea, is come, that [u] ye shall be scattered, every man to [v] his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet [x] I am not alone, because the Father is with me. 33 These things have I spoken unto you, that [y] in me ye may have peace. [z] In the world ye have tribulation: but [a] be of good cheer; [b] I have overcome the world.

17 These things spake Jesus; and [c] lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the hour is come; [d] glorify thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee: 2 even as [e] thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that [5][f] to all whom thou hast given him, [g] he should give eternal life. 3 And this is life eternal, that they should know thee [h] the only true God, and him whom [i] thou didst send, even Jesus Christ. 4 [k] I glorified thee on the earth, [l] having accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do. 5 And now, Father, [m] glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had [n] with thee before the world was. 6 [o] I manifested thy name unto the men whom [f] thou gavest me out of the world: [p] thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have [q] kept thy word. 7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee: 8 for [r] the words which [r] thou gavest me [s] I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that [t] I came forth from thee, and they believed that [i] thou didst send me. 9 [u] I [6] pray for them: [v] I [6] pray not for the world, but for those whom [f] thou hast given me; for [p] they are thine: 10 and [x] all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them. 11 And I am no more in the world, and [y] these are in the world, and [z] I come to thee. [a] Holy Father, keep them in thy name [b] which thou hast given me, that [c] they may be one, even as we are.

The Betrayal. The Seizure

12 While I was with them, I kept them in thy name [a]which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and [b]not one of them perished, but [c]the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But now [d]I come to thee; and [e]these things I speak in the world, that they may have my [f]joy made full in themselves. 14 I have given them thy word; and [g]the world hated them, because [h]they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I [1]pray not that thou shouldest take them [2]from the world, but that thou shouldest keep them [2]from [3][i]the evil one. 16 [k]They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 17 [4][l]Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth. 18 As [m]thou didst send me into the world, [n]even so sent I them into the world. 19 And for their sakes I [4][o]sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be [l]sanctified [p]in truth.
20 Neither for these only do I [1]pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word; 21 that they may all be one; [q]even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: [r]that the world may believe that [m]thou didst send me. 22 And the [s]glory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we are one; 23 [q]I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that [m]thou didst send me, and [t]lovedst them, even as thou lovedst me. 24 Father, [5]I desire that [u]they also whom thou hast given me [v]be with me where I am, that they may behold my [s]glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before [x]the foundation of the world. 25 O [y]righteous Father, [z]the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that [m]thou didst send me; 26 and [a]I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that [b]the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, [c]he went forth with his disciples over [d]the [6]brook [7]Kidron, where was [e]a garden, into which he entered, himself and his disciples. 2 Now Judas also, who [8]betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus [f]oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. 3 [g]Judas then, having received [h]the [9]band of soldiers, and [i]officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and [k]torches and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, [l]knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, [m]Whom seek ye? 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, who [8]betrayed him, was standing with them. 6 When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. 7 Again therefore he asked them, [m]Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. 8 Jesus answered, I told you that I am he; if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: 9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, [n]Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. 10 Simon Peter therefore [o]having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's [10]servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the [10]servant's name was Malchus. 11 Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: [p]the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 [q]So [r]the [9]band and the [11]chief captain, and the [s]officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, 13 and led him to [t]Annas first; for he was father in law to [u]Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 Now Caiaphas was he that gave counsel to the Jews, that [v]it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And [x]Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple.
Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into [y]the court of the high priest; 16 [z]but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, who was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17 [a]The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Peter, [b]Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. 18 Now the [1]servants and the [c]officers were standing there, [d]having made [2][e]a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 [f]The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him, I [g]have spoken openly to the world; I ever [h]taught in [3]synagogues, and [i]in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing.
21 Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things which I said.
22 And when he had said this, one of the [c]officers standing by [k]struck Jesus [4]with his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? 23 [l]Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? 24 [m]Annas therefore sent him bound unto [m]Caiaphas the high priest.

25 [n]Now [o]Simon Peter was standing and warming himself.
They said therefore unto him, [p]Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. 26 One of the [1]servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him [q]whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in [r]the garden with him?
27 Peter therefore denied again:
and straightway [s]the cock crew.

28 [t]They lead Jesus therefore from [m]Caiaphas into [u]the [5]Prætorium: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into [u]the [5]Prætorium, that [v]they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover.
29 [x]Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? 30 They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee.
31 Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: 32 that [y]the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

33 Pilate therefore [z]entered again into the [5]Prætorium, and called Jesus, and said unto him, [a]Art thou the King of the Jews?
34 Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? 36 Jesus answered, [b]My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my [6]servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.
37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, [7][c]Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end am I come into the world, that [d]I should bear witness unto the truth. [e]Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. 38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he [f]went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, [g]I find no crime in him. 39 [h]But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?
40 They cried out therefore again, saying, [i]Not this man, but Barabbas.
Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and [k]scourged him. 2 [l]And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple garment; 3 and they came unto him, and said, [m]Hail, King of the Jews! and they [n]struck him [8]with their hands. 4 And garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the man! 6 When therefore the chief priests and the [a]officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for [b]I find no crime in him. 7 The Jews answered him, [c]We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he [d]made himself the Son of God. 8 When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he was the more afraid; 9 and he [e]entered into the [1]Prætorium again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But [f]Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have [2]power to release thee, and have [2]power to crucify thee? 11 Jesus answered him, [g]Thou wouldest have no [2]power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore [h]he that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin. 12 Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, [i]If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king [3]speaketh against Cæsar. 13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and [k]sat down on the judgment-seat at a place called The Pavement, but [l]in Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 Now it was [m]the Preparation of the passover: it was about the [n]sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, [o]your King! 15 They therefore cried out, [p]Away with him, away with him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. 16 Then therefore he [q]delivered him unto them to be crucified.

17 [r]They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, [s]bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called [t]The place of a skull, which is called [u]in Hebrew Golgotha: 18 where they crucified him, and with him [v]two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, [x]JESUS OF NAZARETH, [y]THE KING OF THE JEWS. 20 This title therefore read many of the Jews, [4]for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written [u]in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. 21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, [y]The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am [y]King of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, [z]What I have written I have written.

23 [a]The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made [b]four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the [5]coat: now the [5]coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 They said therefore one to another, [c]Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: [d]that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, Ps. xxii. 18.

They parted my garments among them,
And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

25 These things therefore the soldiers did. [e]But there were standing by the cross of Jesus [f]his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of [g]Clopas, and [h]Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and [i]the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, [k]Woman, behold, thy son! 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto [l]his own home.

28 After this Jesus, [m]knowing that all things are now finished, [n]that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. Ps. lxix. 21. 29 There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so [o]they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [p]It is finished: and he bowed his head, and [q]gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was [r]the Preparation, that [s]the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a [a] high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other that [b] was crucified with him: 33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out [c] blood and water. 35 And he that hath seen hath [d] borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. 36 For these things came to pass, [e] that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be [1] broken. 37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 [f] And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but [g] secretly for [h] fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. 39 And there came also [i] Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, [k] bringing a [2] mixture of [l] myrrh and aloes, about a [m] hundred pounds. 40 So they took the body of Jesus, and [n] bound it in [o] linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a [p] new tomb [q] wherein was never man yet laid. 42 There then because of the Jews' [r] Preparation (for the tomb was [s] nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 [t] Now on the first day of the week cometh [u] Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth [v] the stone taken away from the tomb. 2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other [x] disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, [y] They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him. 3 [z] Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. 4 And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and [a] stooping and looking in, he seeth the [b] linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. 6 Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, 7 and [c] the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the [b] linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who [d] came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet [e] they knew not the scripture, [f] that he must rise again from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again [g] unto their own home.

11 [h] But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she [i] stooped and looked into the tomb; 12 and she beholdeth [k] two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say unto her, [l] Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because [m] they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. 14 When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and [n] beholdeth Jesus standing, and [o] knew not that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus saith unto her, [p] Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. 16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth herself, and saith unto him [q] in Hebrew, [r] Rabboni; which is to say, Teacher. 17 Jesus saith to her, [3] Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto [s] my brethren, and say to them, I [t] ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God. 18 [u] Mary Magdalene cometh and [v] telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and that he had said these things unto her.

19 When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for [a]fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, [b]Peace be unto you. 20 And when he had said this, [c]he showed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore [d]were glad, when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus therefore said to them again, [b]Peace be unto you: [e]as the Father hath sent me, even so send I you. 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Spirit: 23 [f]whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 But [g]Thomas, one of [h]the twelve, called [1][g]Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in [i]his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into [k]his side, [l]I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, [b]Peace be unto you. 27 Then saith he to Thomas, [m]Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. 28 Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, [2]thou hast believed: [n]blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

Cf. II Cor. 4.18

30 [o]Many other [p]signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: 31 but these are written, [q]that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, [r]the Son of God; and that [s]believing ye may have life in his name.

21 After these things Jesus [t]manifested himself [u]again to the disciples at [v]the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. 2 There were together Simon Peter, and [x]Thomas called [1]Didymus, and [y]Nathanael of [z]Cana in Galilee, and [a]the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and [b]that night they took nothing. 4 But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: yet the disciples [c]knew not that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, [d]have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. 6 And he said unto them, [e]Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. 7 [f]That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he [3]was naked), and cast himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. 9 So when they got out upon the land, they see [4]a [g]fire of coals there, and [5][h]fish laid thereon, and [6]bread. 10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the [h]fish which ye have now taken. 11 Simon Peter therefore went [7]up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent. 12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and [i]break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus cometh, and taketh [k]the [8]bread, and giveth them, and the [h]fish likewise. 14 This is now the [l]third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had [i]broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of [9]John,

He saith unto him, [c] Tend my sheep. 17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of [3] John, [2] lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him [d] the third time, [2] Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [e] thou knowest all things; thou [4] knowest that I [2] love thee. Jesus saith unto him, [f] Feed my sheep. 18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. 19 Now this he spake, [g] signifying by [h] what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, [i] Follow me. 20 Peter, turning about, seeth [k] the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also [l] leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that [5] betrayeth thee? 21 Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, [6] and what shall this man do? 22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry [m] till I come, what is that to thee? [i] follow thou me. 23 This saying therefore went forth among [n] the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry [m] till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple that [o] beareth witness of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true.

25 And there are also [p] many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

THE ACTS

The Introduction. The Ascension. "The Upper Chamber." The Fate of Judas

1 The [1]former treatise I made, O [a]Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus [b]began both to do and to teach, 2 until the day in which he [c]was received up, after that he [d]had given commandment through the Holy Spirit unto [e]the apostles whom he had [f]chosen: 3 to whom [g]he also [2]showed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking [h]the things concerning the kingdom of God: 4 and, [3]being assembled together with them, he charged them [i]not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for [k]the promise of the Father, which, said he, ye heard from me: 5 for [l]John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized [4]in the Holy Spirit [m]not many days hence.

6 They therefore, when they were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, [n]dost thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel? 7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which [o]the Father hath [5]set within his own authority. 8 But ye shall receive power, [m]when the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be [p]my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and [q]Samaria, and unto [r]the uttermost part of the earth. 9 And when he had said these things, as they were looking, [s]he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. 10 And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold, [t]two men stood by them in white apparel; 11 who also said, [u]Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, who [c]was received up from you into heaven, shall so [v]come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

12 Then [x]returned they unto Jerusalem from the [y]mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey off. 13 And when they were come in, they went up into [z]the upper chamber, where they were abiding; [a]both Peter and John and [6]James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, [6]James the son of Alphæus, and Simon the Zealot, and [b]Judas the [7]son of [6]James. 14 These all with one accord [c]continued stedfastly in prayer, [8]with [d]the women, and Mary the [e]mother of Jesus, and with his [e]brethren.

15 And in these days Peter stood up in the midst of [f]the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of [9]persons gathered together, about a hundred and twenty), 16 Brethren, it was needful that [g]the scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spake before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, [h]who was guide to them that took Jesus. 17 For he was [i]numbered among us, and received his [10]portion in [k]this ministry. 18 (Now this man [l]obtained a field with [m]the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. 19 And it became known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch that in [n]their language that field was called Akeldama, that is, The field of blood.) 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be made desolate, And let no man dwell therein:

and,
His [11]office let another take.

have companied with us all the time that [a]the Lord Jesus went in and went out [1]among us, 22 [b]beginning from the baptism of John, unto the day that he [c]was received up from us, of these must one become a [d]witness with us of his resurrection.
23 And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and [e]Matthias.
24 And they [f]prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, [g]who knowest the hearts of all men, show of these two the one whom thou hast chosen, 25 to take the place in [h]this ministry and [i]apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they [k]gave lots [2]for them; and the lot fell upon [e]Matthias; and he was numbered with [l]the eleven apostles.

2 And when [m]the day of Pentecost [3]was now come, they were all together in one place. 2 And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled [n]all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared unto them tongues [4]parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them.
4 And they were all [o]filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to [p]speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, [q]devout men, from every nation under heaven.
6 And when [r]this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language.
7 And [s]they were all amazed and marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these that speak [t]Galilæans? 8 And how hear we, every man in our own language wherein we were born?

and spake forth unto them, saying, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and give ear unto my words. 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose; [g]seeing it is but the third hour of the day; 16 but this is that which hath been spoken through the prophet Joel: Joel ii. 28 ff.

17 And it shall be in the last days, saith God,
I will pour forth of my Spirit upon all flesh:
And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, And your young men shall see visions,
And your old men shall dream dreams: 18 Yea and on my [5]servants and on my [6]handmaidens in those days Will I pour forth of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.
19 And I will show wonders in the heaven above,
And signs on the earth beneath; Blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke: 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood, Before the day of the Lord come,
That great and notable day: 21 And it shall be, that [h]whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: [i]Jesus of Nazareth, [k]a by [7]mighty works and [l]wonders and [l]signs which God did by him in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves know; 23 him,

I beheld the Lord always before my face;
For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: 26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; Moreover my flesh also shall [1]dwell in hope: 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul unto [c]Hades, [d]Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.

Thou shalt make me full of gladness [2]with thy countenance.

29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the [e]patriarch David, that he both [f]died and [g]was buried, and [h]his tomb is with us unto this day. 30 Being therefore [i]a prophet, and knowing that [k]God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins [3]he would set one upon his throne; 31 he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left unto [c]Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. 32 This Jesus did [a]God raise up, [4]whereof we all are [l]witnesses. 33 Being therefore [5][m]by the right hand of God exalted, and [n]having received of the Father [o]the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath [p]poured forth this, which ye see and hear. 34 For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself, 37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, [u]what shall we do? 38 And Peter said unto them, [v]Repent ye, and be [x]baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For to you is [y]the promise, and to your children, and to all that are [z]afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. 40 And with many other words he [a]testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this [b]crooked generation. 41 They then [7]that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand [c]souls. 42 And they [d]continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and [8]fellowship, in [e]the breaking of bread and [d]the prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many [f]wonders and signs were done through the apostles.[9] 44 And all that believed were together, and [g]had all things common; 45 and they [h]sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. 46 [i]And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and [e]breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and [k]having favor with all the people. And the Lord [l]added [10]to them day by day [m]those that [11]were saved.

he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength. 8 [a] And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And [b] all the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 and they took knowledge of him, that it was he that [c] sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as he held [d] Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the [1] [e] porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he [f] answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this [2] man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? 13 [g] The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, [h] the God of our fathers, hath glorified his [3] [i] Servant Jesus; whom [k] ye delivered up, and denied before the face of [l] Pilate, when he had [m] determined to release him. 14 But ye denied [n] the Holy and Righteous One, and [o] asked for a murderer to be granted unto you, 15 and killed the [4] [p] Prince of life; whom [q] God raised from the dead; [5] whereof we are [r] witnesses. 16 And [6] by faith [s] in his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, brethren, I know that [t] in ignorance ye did it, as did also your [u] rulers. 18 But the things which [v] God foreshowed by the mouth of all the prophets, [x] that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 [y] Repent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come [z] seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; 20 and that he may send the Christ who hath been appointed for you, even Jesus: 21 [a] whom the heaven must receive until the times of [b] restoration of all things, whereof [c] God spake by the mouth of his holy prophets that have been from of old. 22 Moses indeed said, [d] A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, [7] like unto me; to him shall ye hearken in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto you. 23 And it shall be, that every [e] soul that shall not hearken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people. 24 Yea and [x] all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. 25 Ye are [f] the sons of the prophets, and of the [g] covenant which God [8] made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. 26 Unto you [h] first God, having [q] raised up his [3] Servant, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

4 And as they spake unto the people, [9] the priests and [i] the captain of the temple and [k] the Sadducees [l] came upon them, 2 being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed [m] in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them, and [n] put them in ward unto the morrow: for it was now eventide. 4 But many of them that heard the word believed; and [o] the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their [p] rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; 6 and [q] Annas the high priest was there, and [r] Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, By what power, or in what name, have ye done this? 8 Then Peter, [s] filled with the Holy Spirit, said unto them, Ye [p] rulers of the people, and elders, 9 if we this day are examined concerning [t] a good deed done to an impotent man, [10] by what means this man is made whole; 10 be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that [a] in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom [b] God raised from the dead, even in [1] him doth this man stand here before you whole. 11 [c] He is the stone which was [d] set at nought of you the builders, which was made the head of the corner. 12 And in [e] none other is there salvation: for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved.

13 Now when they beheld the [f] boldness of [g] Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and [h] they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man that was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the [i] council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, [k] What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a [l] notable [2] miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man [m] in this name. 18 And they called them, and [n] charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But [o] Peter and John answered and said unto them, [n] Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: 20 for [p] we cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard. 21 And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, [q] because of the people; for all men [r] glorified God for that which was done. 22 For the man was more than forty years old, on whom this [2] miracle of healing was wrought.

23 And being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said unto them. 24 And they, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, O [3] Lord, [4] thou that didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 25 [5] who [s] by the Holy Spirit, by the mouth of our father David thy servant, didst say,

Why did the [6] Gentiles rage,
And the peoples [7] imagine vain things?
26 The kings of the earth set themselves in array, And the rulers were gathered together, Against the Lord, and against his [8] [t] Anointed:

27 for of a truth in this city against thy holy [9] [u] Servant Jesus, whom thou didst anoint, both [v] Herod and [x] Pontius Pilate, with [y] the [6] Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, were gathered together, 28 to do whatsoever thy hand and [z] thy counsel foreordained to come to pass. 29 And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings: and grant unto thy [10] servants to [a] speak thy word with all [b] boldness, 30 while thou stretchest forth thy hand to heal; and that [c] signs and [c] wonders may be done through the name of thy holy [9] [u] Servant Jesus. 31 And when they had prayed, the [d] place was shaken wherein they were gathered together; and they were all [e] filled with the Holy Spirit, and they [a] spake the word of God with [b] boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul: and not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but [f] they had all things common. 33 And [g] with great power gave the apostles their [h] witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus[11]: and great grace was upon them all. 34 For neither was there among them any that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses [i] sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 and [k] laid them at the apostles' feet: and [l] distribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed [m] Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of [12] [n] exhortation), a Levite, a man of [a] Cyprus by race, 37 having a field, sold it, and brought the money and [b] laid it at the apostles' feet.

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 and [c] kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and [d] laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath [e] Satan filled thy heart to [1] lie [f] to the Holy Spirit, and to [g] keep back part of the price of the land? 4 While it remained, did it not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but [f] unto God. 5 And Ananias hearing these words [h] fell down and gave up the ghost: and [i] great fear came upon all that heard it. 6 And the [2] young men arose and [k] wrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. 8 And Peter [l] answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land [m] for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. 9 But Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to [n] try [f] the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. 10 And she [h] fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11 And [i] great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the apostles were many [o] signs and [o] wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in [p] Solomon's [3] porch. 13 But of the rest durst no man join himself to them: howbeit [q] the people magnified them; 14 [4] and [r] believers were the more [s] added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women; 15 insomuch that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and [5] couches, that, as Peter came by, [t] at the least his shadow might overshadow some one of them. 16 And there also came together the multitude from the cities round about Jerusalem, bringing sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is [u] the sect of [v] the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, 18 and laid hands on the apostles, and [x] put them in public ward. 19 But [y] an angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, 20 Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all [z] the words of this Life. 21 And when they heard this, they entered into the temple [a] about daybreak, and taught. But [b] the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called [c] the council together, and all [d] the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have them brought. 22 But [e] the officers that came found them not in the prison; and they returned, and told, 23 saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. 24 Now when [f] the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow. 25 And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people. 26 Then went [g] the captain with [h] the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for [i] they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. 27 And when they had brought them, they set them before [c] the council. And the high priest asked them, 28 saying, We [k] strictly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and [l] intend to bring this man's blood upon us. 29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, [a] We must obey God rather than men. 30 [b] The God of our fathers [c] raised up Jesus, whom ye [d] slew, hanging him on a tree. 31 [e] Him did God exalt [1] with his right hand to be a [f] Prince and a [g] Saviour, to give [h] repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 And we are [i] witnesses [2] of these [3] things; [4] and [k] so is the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 But they, when they heard this, were [l] cut to the heart, and were minded to slay them.
34 But there stood up one in [m] the council, a Pharisee, named [n] Gamaliel, a [o] doctor of the law, had in honor of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. 35 And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, [p] giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of [q] the enrolment, and drew away some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work [r] be of men, it will be overthrown: 39 but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be [s] fighting against God. 40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they [t] beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 They therefore departed from the presence of the [m] council, [u] rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor [v] for the Name.
42 [x] And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to [5] [y] preach Jesus as the Christ.

6 Now in these days, when [z] the number of the [a] disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the [6] [b] Grecian Jews against the [c] Hebrews, because their [d] widows were neglected in [e] the daily ministration. 2 And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not [7] fit that we should forsake the word of God, and [8] serve tables. 3 [9] Look ye out therefore, [f] brethren, from among you seven men of good report, [g] full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But we will [h] continue stedfastly in prayer, and in the ministry of the word. 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose [i] Stephen, a man [k] full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and [l] Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaüs a [m] proselyte of [n] Antioch; 6 whom they set before the apostles: and when they had [o] prayed, they [p] laid their hands upon them.

7 And [q] the word of God increased; and [z] the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to [r] the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought great [s] wonders and [s] signs among the people.
9 But there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the [10] Libertines, and of the [t] Cyrenians, and of the [u] Alexandrians, and of them of [v] Cilicia and [x] Asia, disputing with Stephen. 10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake.
11 Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and [y] came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into [z] the council, 13 and set up [a] false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this [a] holy place, and the law: 14 for we have heard him say, that [b] this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change [c] the customs which Moses delivered unto us. 15 And all that sat in the [d] council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7 And the high priest said, Are these things so? 2 And he said,

[e] Brethren and fathers, hearken: [f] The God of glory [g] appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3 and said unto him, [h] Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee. 4 [g] Then came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in Haran: and [i] from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: 5 and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and [k] he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.
6 And [l] God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill, four hundred years. 7 And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and [m] after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. 8 And he [n] gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so [o] Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and [p] Isaac begat Jacob, and [q] Jacob the twelve [r] patriarchs.
9 And the patriarchs, [s] moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and [t] gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now [u] there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.
12 But when [v] Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time.
13 And at the second time [x] Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's race became manifest unto Pharaoh.
14 And [y] Joseph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, [z] threescore and fifteen [a] souls. 15 And [b] Jacob went down into Egypt; and he died, himself and our fathers; 16 and they were carried over unto [c] Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of [1] Hamor in Shechem. 17 But as the time of the promise drew nigh which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, [d] the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 till there arose another king over Egypt, who knew not Joseph. 19 The same [e] dealt craftily with our race, and ill-treated our fathers, that [2] they should cast out their babes to the end they might not [3] live. 20 At which season [f] Moses was born, and was [4] exceeding fair; and he was nourished three months in his father's house: 21 and when he was cast out, [g] Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. 22 And Moses was instructed in all [h] the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was mighty in his words and works. 23 But when he was well-nigh forty years old, [i] it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.
24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting the Egyptian: 25 and he supposed that his brethren understood that God by his hand was giving them [5] deliverance; but they understood not. 26 [k] And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?
27 But he that did his neighbor wrong [l] thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Wouldest thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yesterday? 29 And [m] Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. 30 And when forty years were fulfilled, [a] an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there came a voice of the Lord, 32 [b] I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst not behold. 33 And the Lord said unto him, [c] Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. 34 [d] I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them: and [e] now come, I will send thee into Egypt. 35 This Moses whom they [f] refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a [1] deliverer with the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush. 36 [g] This man led them forth, having wrought [h] wonders and [h] signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and [i] in the wilderness forty years. 37 This is that Moses, who said unto the children of Israel, [k] A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your brethren, [2] like unto me. 38 This is he that was in [l] the [3] church in the wilderness with [m] the angel that spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received [n] living [o] oracles to give unto us: 39 to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but [p] thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto Egypt, 40 saying unto Aaron, [q] Make us gods that shall go before us: for as for this Moses, who led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. 41 And [r] they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in [s] the works of their hands. 42 But God [t] turned, and gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets,

Did ye offer unto me slain beasts and sacrifices [u] Forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?
43 And ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, And the star of the god Rephan, The figures which ye made to worship them:
And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had [v] the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he appointed who spake unto Moses, that he should make it according to the figure that he had seen. 45 Which also our fathers, in their turn, [x] brought in with [4] Joshua when they entered on the possession of the [5] nations, that God thrust out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David; 46 [y] who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob. 47 But [z] Solomon built him a house. 48 Howbeit [a] the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 [b] The heaven is my throne, And the earth the footstool of my feet:

What manner of house will ye build me? saith the Lord: Or what is the place of my rest?
50 Did not my hand make all these things?

51 Ye [c] stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers did, so do ye. 52 [d] Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they killed them that showed before of the coming of [e] the Righteous One; of whom [f] ye have now become betrayers and murderers; 53 ye who received the law [6] as it was [g] ordained by angels, and kept it not.

54 Now when they heard these things, they were [h] cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. 55 But he, being [i] full of the Holy Spirit, [k] looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing [l] on the right hand of God, 56 and said, Behold, I see [m] the heavens opened, and

The Church persecuted and scattered. Simon the Sorcerer. Peter and John preach to many Samaritan Villages

[a] the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. 57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; 58 and they [b] cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and [c] the witnesses [d] laid down their garments at the feet of [e] a young man named Saul. 59 And they stoned Stephen, [f] calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. 60 And he [g] kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, [h] lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he [i] fell asleep.

8 1 And [e] Saul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against [k] the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all [l] scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and [m] Samaria, except the apostles. 2 And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. 3 But [n] Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and [o] dragging men and women committed them to prison.

4 They therefore that [p] were scattered abroad went about [1 q] preaching the word. 5 And [r] Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. 6 And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. 7 [2] For from many of those that had [s] unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were [t] palsied, and that were lame, were healed. 8 And there was [u] much joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, which beforetime in the city used [v] sorcery, and amazed the [3] people of Samaria, [x] giving out that himself was some great one: 10 to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, [y] This man is that power of God which is called Great. 11 And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them with his [v] sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip [1 z] preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were [a] baptized, both men and women. 13 And Simon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Philip; and beholding [b] signs and [c] great [4] miracles wrought, he was amazed.

14 Now when [d] the apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them [e] Peter and John: 15 who, when they were come down, prayed for them, [f] that they might receive the Holy Spirit: 16 for as yet it was fallen upon none of them: only they had been [g] baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then [h] laid they their hands on them, and they [i] received the Holy Spirit. 18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the [5] Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought [k] to obtain the gift of God with money. 21 Thou hast [l] neither part nor lot in this [6] matter: for thy heart is not [m] right before God. 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. 23 For I see that thou [7] art in the gall of bitterness and in [n] the bond of iniquity. 24 And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 They therefore, when they had [o] testified and spoken [p] the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and [8 q] preached the gospel to many villages of the [r] Samaritans.

26 But [s] an angel of the Lord spake unto [t] Philip, saying, Arise, and go [9] toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto [a] Gaza : the same is desert. 27 And he arose and went : and behold, [b] a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who [c] had come to Jerusalem to worship ; 28 and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 And [d] the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. 30 And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest ? 31 And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me ? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this, Is. liii. 7 f.

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter ;
And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb, So he openeth not his mouth :
33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away :
His generation who shall declare ?
For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this ? of himself, or of some other ? 35 And Philip [e] opened his mouth, and [f] beginning from this scripture, [1] [g] preached unto him Jesus. 36 And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water ; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water ; [h] what doth hinder me to be baptized ? [2] 38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still : and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch ; and he baptized him. 39 And when they came up out of the water, [i] the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip ; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at [k] Azotus : and passing through he [1] [l] preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to [m] Cæsarea.

9 [n] But Saul, yet [o] breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, 2 and asked of him [p] letters to [q] Damascus unto [r] the synagogues, that if he found any that were of [s] the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus : and [t] suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven : 4 and [u] he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me ? 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord ? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest : 6 but rise, and enter into the city, and [v] it shall be told thee what thou must do. 7 And the men that journeyed with him [x] stood speechless, [y] hearing the [3] voice, but beholding no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth ; and [z] when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing ; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into [q] Damascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at [q] Damascus, named [a] Ananias ; and the Lord said unto him in [b] a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. 11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of [c] Tarsus : for behold, he prayeth ; 12 and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and [d] laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. 13 But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, [e] how much evil he did to [f] thy saints at Jerusalem : 14 and here he [g] hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that [h] call upon thy name. 15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way : for [i] he is a [4] chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [k] the Gentiles and [l] kings, and the children of Israel : 16 for [m] I will show him how many things he and preaches at Damascus. He escapes the Jews' Plot, and is sent to Tarsus. Peter cures Æneas, and raises Dorcas must suffer for my name's sake. 17 And Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and [a]laying his hands on him said, [b]Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be [c]filled with the Holy Spirit. 18 And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized; 19 and he took food and was strengthened.

And [d]he was certain days with [e]the disciples that were at Damascus. 20 And straightway [f]in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is [g]the Son of God. 21 And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem [h]made havoc of them that [i]called on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests. 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews that dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23 And when [k]many days were fulfilled, [l]the Jews took counsel together to kill him: 24 but [m]their plot became known to Saul. And [n]they watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: 25 but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a [o]basket.

26 And [p]when he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to [e]the disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But [q]Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had [r]seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how [s]at Damascus he had [t]preached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, 29 [t]preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the [1][u]Grecian Jews; but they were seeking to kill him. 30 And when [v]the brethren knew it, they brought him down to [x]Cæsarea, and [y]sent him forth to [z]Tarsus.

31 So [a]the church throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being [2]edified; and, walking [3]in the fear of the Lord and [3]in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to [b]the saints that dwelt at [c]Lydda. 33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, who had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. 34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. 35 And all that dwelt at [c]Lydda and in [d]Sharon saw him, and they [e]turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at [f]Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called [4]Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an [g]upper chamber. 38 And as Lydda was nigh unto [f]Joppa, [h]the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, entreating him, Delay not to come on unto us. 39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the [g]upper chamber: and all the [i]widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter [k]put them all forth, and [l]kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, [m]Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling [b]the saints and [i]widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all [f]Joppa: and [n]many believed on the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he abode many days in [f]Joppa with [o]one Simon a tanner.

that feared God with all his house, who [a] gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. 3 He saw [b] in a vision openly, as it were about [c] the ninth hour of the day, [d] an angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. 4 And he, [e] fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms [f] are gone up [g] for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to [h] Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter: 6 he lodgeth with [i] one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. 7 And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; 8 and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to [h] Joppa.

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, [k] Peter went up upon [l] the housetop to pray, about [m] the sixth hour: 10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he [n] fell into a trance; 11 and he beholdeth [o] the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: 12 wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of the heaven. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, [p] Lord; for [q] I have never eaten anything that is common and unclean. 15 And a voice came unto him again the second time, [r] What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 16 And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what [s] the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, [t] the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. 19 And while Peter thought on [s] the vision, [u] the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 20 But arise, and get thee down, and [v] go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. 21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? 22 And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and [x] one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, [y] was warned of God by a [z] holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear [a] words from thee. 23 So he called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and [b] certain of [c] the brethren from [h] Joppa accompanied him. 24 And on the morrow [1] they entered into [d] Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near friends. 25 And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and [2] [e] worshipped him. 26 But Peter raised him up, saying, [f] Stand up; I myself also am a man. 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth [g] many come together: 28 and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know [3] how [h] it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet [i] unto me hath God showed that I should not call any man common or unclean: 29 wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore with what intent ye sent for me. 30 And Cornelius said, [k] Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping [l] the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, [m] a man stood before me in bright apparel, 31 and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to [h] Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side. 33 Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to

Peter [a]opened his mouth, and said, bear [v]all the prophets witness, that through [x]his name every one that believeth on him shall receive 44 While Peter yet spake these words, [y]the Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word.

45 And [z]they of the circumcision that believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was [a]poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. 46 For they heard them [b]speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then [c]answered Peter, 47 [d]Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who [e]have received the Holy Spirit as well as we? 48 And he [f]commanded them to be baptized [g]in the name of Jesus Christ.
Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 Now the apostles and [h]the brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. 2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, [i]they that were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 saying, [k]Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. 4 But Peter began, and expounded the matter unto them [l]in order, saying, 5 [m]I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw [n]a vision, a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even unto me: 6 upon which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw the fourfooted beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and birds of the heaven. 7 And I heard also a voice saying unto me, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath ever entered into my mouth. 9 But a voice answered the second time out of heaven, [o]What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 10 And this was done thrice: and all were drawn up again into heaven.
11 And behold, forthwith three men stood before the house in which we were, having been sent from [p]Cæsarea unto me. 12 And [q]the Spirit bade me go with them, [r]making no distinction. And [s]these six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered into the man's house: 13 and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send to Joppa, and fetch Simon, whose surname is Peter; 14 who shall speak unto thee [t]words, whereby thou shalt be saved, thou and [u]all thy house. 15 And as I began to speak, [v]the Holy Spirit fell on them, even [x]as on us at the beginning. 16 And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, [y]John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall

The Disciples are called "Christians" in Antioch. Herod Agrippa I. kills James and imprisons Peter, who is us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, [a]who was I, that I could withstand God? 18 And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and [b]glorified God, saying, Then to the Gentiles also hath God granted [c]repentance unto life.

19 [d]They therefore that were scattered abroad upon the tribulation that arose about Stephen travelled as far as [e]Phœnicia, and [f]Cyprus, and [g]Antioch, speaking the word to none save only to Jews. 20 But there were some of them, men of [f]Cyprus and [h]Cyrene, who, when they were come to [g]Antioch, spake unto the [1][i]Greeks also, [2][k]preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And [l]the hand of the Lord was with them: and [m]a great number that believed turned unto the Lord. 22 And the report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth [n]Barnabas as far as [g]Antioch: 23 who, when he was come, and had seen [o]the grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, [3]that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord: 24 for he was a good man, and [p]full of the Holy Spirit and of faith: and [q]much people was added unto the Lord. 25 And he went forth to [r]Tarsus to seek for Saul; 26 and when he had found him, he brought him unto [g]Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together [4]with the church, and taught much people; and that [s]the disciples were called [t]Christians first in [g]Antioch.

27 Now in these days there [u]came down [v]prophets from Jerusalem unto [g]Antioch. 28 And there stood up one of them named [x]Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over [y]all [5]the world: which came to pass in the days of [z]Claudius. 29 And [s]the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send [6]relief unto [a]the brethren that dwelt in Judæa: 30 [b]which also they did, sending it to the [c]elders by the hand of [n]Barnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time Herod the king put forth his hands to afflict certain of the church. 2 And he [d]killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3 And when he saw that it [e]pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And those were [f]the days of unleavened bread. 4 And when he had taken him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four [g]quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after [h]the Passover to bring him forth to the people. 5 Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him. 6 And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, [i]bound with two chains: and guards before the door kept the prison. 7 And behold, [k]an angel of the Lord [l]stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And [m]his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. 9 And he went out, and followed; and he knew not that it was true which was done [7]by the angel, but thought he saw [n]a vision. 10 And when they were past the first and the second guard, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which [o]opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway the angel departed from him. 11 And when Peter [p]was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that [q]the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of [r]John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and [s]were praying. 13 And when he knocked at the door of the gate, [a]a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. 14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate [b]for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before the gate. 15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they said, It is [c]his angel. 16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17 But he, [d]beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto [e]James, and to [f]the brethren. And he departed, and went to another place. 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should [g]be [1]put to death. And he went down from Judæa to [h]Cæsarea, and tarried there.

20 Now he was highly displeased with them of [i]Tyre and [i]Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because [k]their country was fed from the king's country. 21 And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the [2]throne, and made an oration unto them. 22 And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man. 23 And immediately [l]an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he [m]was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But [n]the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And [o]Barnabas and [o]Saul returned [3]from Jerusalem, [p]when they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them [q]John whose surname was Mark.

13 Now there were at [r]Antioch, in the [s]church that was there, [t]prophets and [u]teachers, [o]Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of [v]Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of [x]Herod the tetrarch, and [o]Saul. 2 And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, [y]the Holy Spirit said, Separate me [o]Barnabas and [o]Saul for [z]the work whereunto I have called them. 3 Then, when they had fasted and [a]prayed and [b]laid their hands on them, [c]they sent them away.

4 So they, being [d]sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to [e]Cyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in [f]the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [g]John as their attendant. 6 And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain [4][h]sorcerer, a [i]false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus; 7 who was with the [k]proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the [4][h]sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the [k]proconsul from [l]the faith. 9 But Saul, who is also called Paul, [m]filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, 10 and said, O full of all guile and all villany, thou [n]son of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert [o]the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, behold, [p]the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun [5]for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the [k]proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at [q]the teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his company set sail from [r]Paphos, and came to [s]Perga in [t]Pamphylia: and [g]John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they, passing through from Perga, came to [u]Antioch of [v]Pisidia; and they went into [a] the synagogue on [b] the sabbath day, and sat down. 15 And after [c] the reading of the law and [d] the prophets [e] the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. 16 And Paul stood up, and [f] beckoning with the hand said,

Men of Israel, and [g] ye that fear God, hearken: 17 The God of this people Israel [h] chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he them forth out of it. 18 And for about [i] the time of forty years [1] [k] as a nursing-father bare he them in the wilderness. 19 And [l] when he had destroyed [m] seven nations in the land of Canaan, he [n] gave them their land for an inheritance, for [o] about four hundred and fifty years: 20 and after these things he [p] gave them judges until [q] Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterward they [r] asked for a king: and God gave unto them [s] Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years. 22 And when he had [t] removed him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness and said, I have found [u] David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who shall do all my [2] will. 23 [v] Of this man's seed hath God [x] according to promise brought unto Israel [y] a Saviour, Jesus; 24 when [z] John had first preached [3] before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John [a] was fulfilling his course, [b] he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. 26 Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of [c] this salvation sent forth. 27 For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their [d] rulers, [e] because they knew him not, nor the voices of [f] the prophets which are [g] read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet [h] asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. 29 And when they had [i] fulfilled all things that were written of him, [k] they took him down from [l] the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God [m] raised him from the dead: 31 and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him [n] from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now [o] his witnesses unto the people. 32 And we [p] bring you good tidings of [q] the promise made unto the fathers, 33 that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he [m] raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. 34 And as concerning that he [m] raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David. 35 Because he saith also in another psalm, [r] Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to see corruption. 36 For [s] David, after he had [4] in his own generation served [t] the counsel of God, [u] fell asleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: 37 but he whom God [m] raised up saw no corruption. 38 Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that [v] through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins: 39 and by him [x] every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken [y] in the prophets:

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and [5] perish; For I work a work in your days, A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.

42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next [z] sabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the [a] devout [b] prose-they are opposed, "turn to the Gentiles," and are cast out. At Lystra the Multitudes would do Sacrifice to them lytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in [a] the grace of God.

44 And the next [b] sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of [1] God. 45 But when [c] the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and [2] blasphemed. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should [d] first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, [e] we turn to the Gentiles. 47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying,

Is. xlix. 6. I have set thee for a [f] light of the Gentiles, That thou shouldest be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

48 And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified [g] the word of [1] God: and as many as were [h] ordained to eternal life believed. 49 And [g] the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. 50 But [c] the Jews urged on the [i] devout women [k] of honorable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. 51 But [l] they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto [m] Iconium. 52 And the disciples were [n] filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14 And it came to pass in [m] Iconium that [o] they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake [p] that a great multitude both of Jews and of [q] Greeks believed. 2 But [c] the Jews that were [r] disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against [s] the brethren. 3 Long time therefore they tarried there [t] speaking boldly in the Lord, who bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting [u] signs and [u] wonders to be done by their hands. 4 [v] But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with [c] the Jews, and part with [x] the apostles. 5 And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of [c] the Jews with their rulers, to treat them shamefully and to [y] stone them, 6 they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of [z] Lycaonia, [a] Lystra and [b] Derbe, and the region round about: 7 and there they [3] [c] preached the gospel.

8 And at [a] Lystra there sat [d] a certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9 The same heard Paul speaking: who, [e] fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had [f] faith to be made whole, 10 said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. [g] And he leaped up and walked. 11 And when the multitudes saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of [z] Lycaonia, [h] The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. 12 And they called Barnabas, [4] Jupiter; and Paul, [5] Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. 13 And the priest of [4] Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and [i] would have done sacrifice with the multitudes. 14 But when [x] the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they [k] rent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out 15 and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are [l] men of like [6] passions with you, and [m] bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these [n] vain things unto a [o] living God, who [p] made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 16 who in the generations gone by [q] suffered all the [7] nations to [r] walk in their own ways. 17 And yet [s] he left not himself without witness, in that he did good and [t] gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. 18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.

19 But there came [c] Jews thither

Hostile Jews cause Paul to be stoned. The Deputation to Jerusalem and Conference. James gives Judgment from [a]Antioch and [b]Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they [c]stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. 20 But as [d]the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Barnabas to [e]Derbe. 21 And when they had [1][f]preached the gospel to that city, and had [g]made many disciples, they returned to [h]Lystra, and to [b]Iconium, and to [a]Antioch, 22 confirming the souls of [d]the disciples, exhorting them to continue in [i]the faith, and that [k]through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of God. 23 And when [l]they had appointed for them [m]elders in every church, and had [n]prayed with fasting, they [o]commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. 24 And they passed through [p]Pisidia, and came to [q]Pamphylia. 25 And when they had spoken the word in [r]Perga, they went down to Attalia; 26 and thence they sailed to [s]Antioch, from [t]whence they had been [u]committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. 27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they [v]rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a [x]door of faith unto the Gentiles. 28 And they tarried no little time with [d]the disciples.

15 And [y]certain men came down from Judæa and taught [z]the brethren, saying, Except ye be [a]circumcised after [b]the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved. 2 And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and [c]questioning with them, [d]the brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the [e]apostles and elders about this question. 3 They therefore, being [f]brought on their way by the church, passed through both [g]Phœnicia and Samaria, [h]declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all [z]the brethren. 4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church and [e]the apostles and the elders, and they [h]rehearsed all things that God had done with them. 5 But there rose up certain of [i]the sect of the [k]Pharisees who believed, saying, It is needful to [a]circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And [e]the apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider of this matter. 7 And when there had been much [c]questioning, Peter rose up, and said unto them,

Brethren, ye know that [2]a good while ago [l]God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of [m]the [3]gospel, and believe. 8 And God, [n]who knoweth the heart, bare them witness, [o]giving them the Holy Spirit, even as he did unto us; 9 and [p]he made no distinction between us and them, [q]cleansing their hearts by faith. 10 Now therefore why [r]make ye trial of God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples which [s]neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But we believe that we shall be saved through [t]the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they.

12 And all the multitude kept silence; and they hearkened unto Barnabas and Paul [h]rehearsing what [u]signs and [u]wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles through them. 13 And after they had held their peace, [v]James answered, saying,

Brethren, hearken unto me: 14 [x]Symeon hath rehearsed how first God visited the [4]Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. 15 And to this agree the words of [y]the prophets; as it is written,

16 After these things [z]I will return,
And I will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen;
And I will build again the ruins thereof,
And I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men may seek after the Lord, And all the [1]Gentiles, [a]upon whom my name is called, 18 Saith the Lord, [2]who [b]maketh these things known from of old.

19 Wherefore [c]my judgment is, that we trouble not them that from among the Gentiles turn to God; 20 but that we [3]write unto them, that they abstain from the [d]pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from [e]what is strangled, and from blood. 21 For [f]Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to [g]the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to [h]Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and [i]Silas, chief men among [k]the brethren: 23 and they wrote thus by them, [4][g]The apostles and the elders, brethren, unto [k]the brethren who are of the Gentiles in [h]Antioch and [l]Syria and [m]Cilicia, [n]greeting: 24 Forasmuch as we have heard that [o]certain [5]who went out from us have [p]troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no commandment; 25 [q]it seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men that have [r]hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore [s]Judas and [t]Silas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For [q]it seemed good to [u]the Holy Spirit, and to [v]us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 that ye abstain from [x]things sacrificed to idols, and from [y]blood, and from [y]things strangled, and from [x]fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, [z]came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. 31 And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the [6]consolation. 32 And [s]Judas and [t]Silas, being themselves also [a]prophets, [7]exhorted [k]the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. 33 And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed [b]in peace from the brethren unto those that had [c]sent them forth.[8] 35 But [d]Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and [9][e]preaching [f]the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us return now and visit the brethren in [g]every city wherein we proclaimed [f]the word of the Lord, and see how they fare. 37 And Barnabas was minded to take with them [h]John also, who was called Mark. 38 But Paul thought not good to take with them him who [i]withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. 39 And there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and Barnabas took [k]Mark with him, and sailed away unto [l]Cyprus; 40 but Paul chose [m]Silas, and went forth, being [n]commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. 41 And he went through [o]Syria and [p]Cilicia, confirming the churches.

16 And he came also to [q]Derbe and to [q]Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named [r]Timothy, the son of [s]a Jewess that believed; but his father was a Greek. 2 The same was well reported of by [t]the brethren that were at [q]Lystra and [u]Iconium. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he [v]took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them [x]the decrees to keep which had been ordained of [y]the apostles and [z]elders that were at Jerusalem. 5 So [a]the churches were strengthened [1]in the faith, and [b]increased in number daily.

6 And they went through [2]the region of [c]Phrygia and [d]Galatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Spirit to speak the word in [e]Asia; 7 and when they were come over against [f]Mysia, they assayed to go into [g]Bithynia; and the [h]Spirit of Jesus suffered them not; 8 and passing by [f]Mysia, they came down to [i]Troas. 9 And [k]a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There was a man of [l]Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And when he had seen [k]the vision, straightway [m]we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to [3][n]preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from [i]Troas, we made [o]a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from thence to [p]Philippi, which is a city of [l]Macedonia, the first of the district, [q]a Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying certain days. 13 And on [r]the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, [4]where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women that were come together. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of [s]Thyatira, [t]one that worshipped God, heard us: [u]whose heart the Lord opened to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, and [v]her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to [x]the place of prayer, that a certain maid having [5][y]a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are [6]servants of [z]the Most High God, who proclaim unto you [7]the way of salvation. 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee [a]in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their [b]gain was [8]gone, they laid hold on [c]Paul and Silas, and [d]dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 and when they had brought them unto the [9]magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 and [e]set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, being [f]Romans. 22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the [9]magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded to [g]beat them with rods. 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging [h]the jailor to keep them safely: 24 who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in [i]the stocks. 25 But about midnight [k]Paul and Silas were praying and [l]singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners were listening to them; 26 and suddenly [m]there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately [n]all the doors were opened; and every one's [o]bands were loosed. 27 And [h]the jailor, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about [p]to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. 29 And he called for lights and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell down before [k]Paul and Silas, 30 and brought them out and said, Sirs, [q]what must I do to be saved? 31 And they said, [r]Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and [s]thy house. 32 And they spake the word of [10]the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. 33 And he took them [t]the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. 34 And he brought them up into his house, and set [1]food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with [a]all his house, [2]having believed in God.

35 But when it was day, the [3]magistrates sent the [4]serjeants, saying, Let those men go. 36 And [b]the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The [3]magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go [c]in peace. 37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, [d]men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and bring us out. 38 And the [4]serjeants reported these words unto the [3]magistrates: and [e]they feared when they heard that they were Romans; 39 and they came and besought them; and when they had brought them out, they asked them [f]to go away from the city. 40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of [g]Lydia: and when they had seen [h]the brethren, they [5]comforted them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to [i]Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 and Paul, [k]as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three [6][l]sabbath days reasoned with them from [m]the scriptures, 3 opening and alleging that [n]it behooved the Christ to suffer, and [o]to rise again from the dead; and that [p]this Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim unto you, is the Christ. 4 [q]And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with [r]Paul and Silas; and of the [s]devout [t]Greeks a great multitude, and of the [u]chief women not a few. 5 But [v]the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaulting the house of [x]Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the people. 6 And when they found them not, they [y]dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned [7][z]the world upside down are come hither also; 7 whom Jason [a]hath received: and these all act [b]contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. 8 And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security from [c]Jason and the rest, they let them go.

10 And [d]the brethren immediately sent away [e]Paul and Silas by night unto [f]Berœa: who when they were come thither went into [g]the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble than those in [h]Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so. 12 [i]Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek [k]women [l]of honorable estate, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews of [h]Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at [f]Berœa also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. 14 And then immediately [d]the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea: and [m]Silas and [n]Timothy abode there still. 15 But [o]they that conducted Paul brought him as far as [p]Athens: and receiving a commandment unto [q]Silas and Timothy that they should [r]come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at [p]Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he beheld the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned [s]in the synagogue with the Jews and the [t]devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met him. 18 And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would [u]this babbler say? others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of [8]strange [9]gods: because he [10]preached [v]Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And they [x]took hold of him, and brought him [11]unto [12][y]the Areopagus, saying, May we know what [a] this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. 21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers [b] sojourning there [1] spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) 22 And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said,

Ye men of [c] Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are [2] very [d] religious. 23 For as I passed along, and observed the [e] objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore [f] ye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you. 24 [g] The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being [h] Lord of heaven and earth, [i] dwelleth not in [3] temples made with hands; 25 neither is he served by men's hands, [k] as though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 and [l] he made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having [m] determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him, [n] though he is not far from each one of us: 28 for [o] in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets [p] have said,

For we are also his offspring.

29 Being then the offspring of God, we [q] ought not to think that [4] the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. 30 [r] The times of ignorance therefore God [s] overlooked; but [t] now he [5] commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: 31 inasmuch as he hath appointed [u] a day in which [v] he will judge [6] [x] the world in righteousness [7] by [8] the man whom he hath [y] ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he [z] hath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of [a] the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. 33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the [b] Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things he departed from [c] Athens, and came to [d] Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named [e] Aquila, a man of [f] Pontus by race, lately come from [g] Italy, with his wife [e] Priscilla, because [h] Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto them; 3 and because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and [i] they wrought; for by their trade they were tentmakers. 4 And he reasoned [k] in the synagogue every [l] sabbath, and [9] persuaded [m] Jews and Greeks.

5 But when [n] Silas and Timothy [o] came down from [p] Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, [q] testifying to the Jews that [r] Jesus was the Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves and [10] blasphemed, he [s] shook out his raiment and said unto them, [t] Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go [u] unto the Gentiles. 7 And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, [v] one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. 8 And [x] Crispus, [y] the ruler of the synagogue, [11] believed in the Lord [z] with all his house; and many of the [d] Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. 9 And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by [a] a vision, Be not afraid, but speak and hold not thy peace: 10 for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city. 11 And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was [a] proconsul of [b] Achaia, [c] the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before [d] the judgment-seat, 13 saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to [e] the law. 14 But when Paul was about to [f] open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 but if they are [g] questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. 16 And he drove them from [d] the judgment-seat. 17 And they all laid hold on [h] Sosthenes, [i] the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before [d] the judgment-seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

18 And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, [k] took his leave of [l] the brethren, and sailed thence for [m] Syria, and with him [n] Priscilla and [n] Aquila: having [o] shorn his head in [p] Cenchreæ; [o] for he had a vow. 19 And they came to [q] Ephesus, and he left them there: but he himself entered into [r] the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. 20 And when they asked him to abide a longer time, he consented not; 21 but [k] taking his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you [s] if God will, he set sail from [q] Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at [t] Cæsarea, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to [u] Antioch. 23 And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of [v] Galatia, and [v] Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named [x] Apollos, an [y] Alexandrian by race, [1] an eloquent man, came to [q] Ephesus; and he was mighty in the scriptures. 25 This man had been [2] instructed in [z] the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spake and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, knowing only [a] the baptism of John: 26 and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when [n] Priscilla and [n] Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him [b] the way of God more accurately. 27 And when he was minded to pass over into [c] Achaia, [d] the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to [e] the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he [3] helped them much that had believed through grace; 28 for he powerfully confuted the Jews, [4] and that publicly, showing [f] by the scriptures that [g] Jesus was the Christ.

19 And it came to pass, that, while [x] Apollos was at [h] Corinth, Paul having passed through the [i] upper country came to [q] Ephesus, and found certain disciples: 2 and he said unto them, [k] Did ye receive the Holy Spirit when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, [l] we did not so much as hear whether [5] the Holy Spirit was given. 3 And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, [a] Into John's baptism. 4 And Paul said, [m] John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people [n] that they should believe on him that should come after him, that is, on Jesus. 5 And when they heard this, they were [o] baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul had [p] laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they [q] spake with tongues, and [r] prophesied. 7 And they were in all about twelve men.

8 And he entered into [s] the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to [t] the things concerning the kingdom of God. 9 But when [u] some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of [v] the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated [x] the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 And this continued for the space of [y] two years; so that all they that dwelt in [z] Asia heard [a]the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. 11 And God wrought [b]special [1]miracles by the hands of Paul: 12 [c]insomuch that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and [d]the evil spirits went out. 13 But certain also of the strolling Jews, [e]exorcists, took upon them to name over them that had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, who did this. 15 And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus I [2]know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at [f]Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 Many also of them that had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. 19 And not a few of them that practised magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand [g]pieces of silver. 20 So mightily [h]grew [i]the word of the Lord and prevailed.

21 Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, [k]when he had passed through [l][m]Macedonia and [n]Achaia, to [o]go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, [p]I must also see Rome. 22 And having sent into [m]Macedonia two of [q]them that ministered unto him, [r]Timothy and [s]Erastus, he himself stayed in [t]Asia for a while.

23 And about that time there arose no small stir concerning [u]the Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of [3]Diana, [v]brought no little business unto the craftsmen; 25 whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this business we have our wealth. 26 And ye see and hear, that not alone at [f]Ephesus, but almost throughout all [t]Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that [x]they are no gods, that are made with hands: 27 and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess [3]Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence whom all [t]Asia and [4][y]the world worshippeth. 28 And when they heard this they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is [3]Diana of the [f]Ephesians. 29 And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized [z]Gaius and [a]Aristarchus, men of [m]Macedonia, Paul's [q]companions in travel. 30 And when Paul was minded to enter in unto the people, [b]the disciples suffered him not. 31 And certain also of the [5]Asiarchs, being his friends, sent unto him and besought him not to adventure himself into the theatre. 32 [c]Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was in confusion; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. 33 [6]And they brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander [d]beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto the people. 34 But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is [3]Diana of the Ephesians. 35 And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of [f]Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great [3]Diana, and of the image which fell down from [7]Jupiter? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. 37 For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither [e]robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. 38 If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, [1] the courts are open, and there are [a] proconsuls: let them accuse one another. 39 But if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger to be [2] accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of this concourse. 41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 And after the uproar ceased, Paul having sent for [b] the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and departed [c] to go into [d] Macedonia. 2 And when he had gone through those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. 3 And when he had spent three months there, and [e] a plot was laid against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for [f] Syria, he determined to return through [d] Macedonia. 4 And there accompanied him [3] as far as [g] Asia, Sopater of [h] Berœa, the son of Pyrrhus; and of the [i] Thessalonians, [k] Aristarchus and Secundus; and [l] Gaius of [m] Derbe, and [n] Timothy; and of [g] Asia, [o] Tychicus and [p] Trophimus. 5 But these [4] had gone before, and were waiting for [q] us at [r] Troas. 6 And [q] we sailed away from [s] Philippi after [t] the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to [r] Troas in five days; where we tarried seven days.

7 And upon [u] the first day of the week, when [q] we were gathered together to [v] break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 And there were many [x] lights in the [y] upper chamber where we were gathered together. 9 And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. 10 And Paul went down, and [z] fell on him, and embracing him [a] said, Make ye no ado; for his life is in him. 11 And when he was gone up, and had [v] broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. 12 And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 But [q] we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go [5] by land. 14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. 15 And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and [6] the day after we came to [b] Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail past [c] Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in [g] Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, [d] to be at Jerusalem [e] the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to [c] Ephesus, and called to him [f] the [7] elders of the church. 18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them,

Ye yourselves know, [g] from the first day that I set foot in Asia, after what manner I was with you all the time, 19 serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and with tears, and with trials which befell me by [h] the plots of the Jews; 20 how I [i] shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to house, 21 [k] testifying both to Jews and to Greeks [l] repentance toward God, and [m] faith toward our Lord Jesus [8] Christ. 22 And now, behold, [n] I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: 23 save that [o] the Holy Spirit [k] testifieth unto me in every city, saying that [p] bonds and afflictions abide me. 24 But [q] I hold not my life of any account as dear unto myself, [9] so that I may [r] accomplish my course, and [s] the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to [k] testify the [10] gospel of [t] the grace of God. 25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about [u] preaching the kingdom,

Paul continues his Voyage and touches at Tyre. At Cæsarea Agabus foretells his Captivity shall see my face no more. 26 Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that [a] I am pure from the blood of all men. 27 For I [b] shrank not from declaring unto you the whole [c] counsel of God. 28 Take heed unto yourselves, and to all [d] the flock, in which the Holy Spirit hath made you [1] bishops, to feed [e] the church of [2] the Lord which [f] he [3] purchased with his own blood. 29 I know that after my departing [g] grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing [d] the flock; 30 and from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away [h] the disciples after them. 31 Wherefore watch ye, remembering that by the space of [i] three years I ceased not to admonish every one night and day [k] with tears. 32 And now I [l] commend you to [4] God, and to [m] the word of his grace, which is able to [n] build you up, and to give you [o] the inheritance among all them that are sanctified. 33 [p] I coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. 34 Ye yourselves know that [q] these hands ministered unto my necessities, and to [r] them that were with me. 35 In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring ye ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he [s] kneeled down and prayed with them all. 37 And they all wept sore, and [t] fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38 sorrowing most of all for [u] the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And they [v] brought him on his way unto the ship.

21 And when it came to pass that [x] we were parted from them and had set sail, we came with [y] a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara: 2 and having found a ship crossing over unto [z] Phœnicia, we went aboard, and set sail. 3 And when we had come in sight of [a] Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed unto [b] Syria, and landed at [c] Tyre; for [d] there the ship was to unlade her burden. 4 And having found [e] the disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul [f] through the Spirit, that he should not set foot in Jerusalem. 5 And when it came to pass that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, [g] brought us on our way till we were out of the city: and [s] kneeling down on the beach, we prayed, and bade each other farewell; 6 and we went on board the ship, but they returned [h] home again.

7 And when we had finished the voyage from [c] Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we saluted [i] the brethren, and abode with them one day. 8 And on the morrow we departed, and came unto [k] Cæsarea: and entering into the house of [l] Philip the [m] evangelist, who was [l] one of the seven, we abode with him. 9 Now this man had four virgin daughters, who [n] prophesied. 10 And as we tarried there some days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named [o] Agabus. 11 And coming to us, and [p] taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus [q] saith the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem [r] bind the man that owneth this girdle, and [s] shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. 12 And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him [t] not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for [u] I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for [v] the name of the Lord Jesus. 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [x] The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after these days we [5] took up our baggage and [y] went up to Jerusalem. 16 And there went with us also certain of [z] the disciples from [k] Cæsarea, [6] bringing with them one Mnason of

[a]Cyprus, an [b]early disciple, with whom we should lodge.
17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, [c]the brethren received us gladly. 18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [d]James; and all [e]the elders were present. 19 And when he had saluted them, he [f]rehearsed one by one the things which God had wrought among the Gentiles through his [g]ministry. 20 And they, when they heard it, [h]glorified God; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many [1]thousands there are among the Jews of them that have believed; and they are all [i]zealous for the law: 21 and they have been informed concerning thee, that thou [k]teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them [l]not to circumcise their children neither to walk after [m]the customs.
22 What is it therefore? they will certainly hear that thou art come. 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men that [n]have a vow on them; 24 these take, and [o]purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may [n]shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. 25 But as touching the Gentiles that have believed, we [2]wrote, [p]giving judgment that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication. 26 Then Paul [3]took the men, and the next day [o]purifying himself with them [q]went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

27 And when [r]the seven days were almost completed, [s]the Jews from [t]Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, Men of Israel, help: [u]This is the man that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place; and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath [v]defiled this [u]holy place.
29 For they had before seen with him in the city [x]Trophimus the [y]Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they laid hold on Paul, and [z]dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. 31 And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the [4]chief captain of the [5][a]band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. 32 And forthwith he [b]took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the [4]chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. 33 Then the [4]chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be [c]bound with [d]two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done. 34 And [e]some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into [f]the castle.
35 And when he came upon [g]the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, [h]Away with him.

37 And as Paul was about to be brought into [f]the castle, he saith unto the [4]chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Dost thou know Greek?
38 Art thou not then [i]the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out [k]into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins? 39 But Paul said, [l]I am a Jew, of Tarsus in [m]Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, give me leave to speak unto the people.
40 And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on [g]the stairs, [n]beckoned with the hand unto the people; and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the [o]Hebrew language, saying,

22 [p]Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.
2 And when they heard that he spake unto them in the [a]Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith, 3 [b]I am [c]a Jew, born in [d]Tarsus of [e]Cilicia, but brought up in this city, [f]at the feet of [g]Gamaliel, instructed according to the [h]strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as [i]ye all are this day: 4 and [k]I persecuted this [l]Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. 5 As also [m]the high priest doth bear me witness, and all [n]the estate of the elders: from whom also I [o]received letters unto [p]the brethren, and journeyed to [q]Damascus to bring them also that were there unto Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. 6 [r]And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. 7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am [s]Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. 9 And they that were with me [t]beheld indeed the light, but they [u]heard not the voice of him that spake to me. 10 And I said, [v]What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. 11 And when I [x]could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me I came into Damascus. 12 And one [y]Ananias, a devout man according to the law, [z]well reported of by all the Jews that dwelt there, 13 came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, [a]Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And [b]in that very hour I [1]looked up on him. 14 And he said, [c]The God of our fathers hath [d]appointed thee to know his will, and to [e]see the [f]Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. 15 For thou shalt be [g]a witness for him unto all men of [h]what thou hast seen and heard. 16 And now why tarriest thou? [i]arise, and be baptized, and [k]wash away thy sins, [l]calling on his name. 17 And it came to pass, that, when I had [m]returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I [n]fell into a trance, 18 and saw him saying unto me, [o]Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem; because they will not receive of thee testimony concerning me. 19 And I said, Lord, they themselves know that [p]I imprisoned and [q]beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: 20 and [r]when the blood of Stephen thy witness was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting, and keeping the garments of them that slew him. 21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth far hence [s]unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, and said, [t]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for [u]it is not fit that he should live. 23 And as they cried out, and [v]threw off their garments, and [x]cast dust into the air, 24 the [2]chief captain commanded him to be brought into [y]the castle, bidding that he should be [z]examined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they so shouted against him. 25 And when they had tied him up [3]with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge [a]a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? 26 And when the centurion heard it, he went to the [2]chief captain and told him, saying, What art thou about to do? for this man is a Roman. 27 And the [2]chief captain came and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? And he said, Yea. 28 And the [2]chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman born. 29 They then that were about to [b]examine him straightway departed from him: and the [2]chief captain also [c]was afraid when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had [d]bound him.

30 But on the morrow, [e]desiring to know the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he [a] loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all [b] the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 And Paul, looking stedfastly on [c] the council, said, [d] Brethren, [e] I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day. 2 And the high priest [f] Ananias commanded them that stood by him [g] to smite him on the mouth. 3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, [h] thou whited wall: and [i] sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? 4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? 5 And Paul said, I knew not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people. 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were [k] Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in [c] the council, [d] Brethren, [l] I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees: touching [m] the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. 7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the assembly was divided. 8 For [k] the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. 9 And there arose a great clamor: and some of [n] the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and strove, saying, [o] We find no evil in this man: and [p] what if a spirit hath spoken to him, or an angel? 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the [1] chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into [q] the castle.

11 And [r] the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, [s] Be of good cheer: for [t] as thou hast [u] testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou bear [u] witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, [v] the Jews banded together, and [x] bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. 13 And they were more than forty that made this conspiracy. 14 And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have [x] bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore do ye with [c] the council signify to the [1] chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, before he comes near, are ready to slay him. 16 But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, [2] and he came and entered into [q] the castle and told Paul. 17 And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the [1] chief captain: for he hath something to tell him. 18 So he took him, and brought him to the [1] chief captain, and saith, Paul [y] the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say to thee. 19 And the [1] chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is it that thou hast to tell me? 20 And he said, [z] The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto [c] the council, as though thou wouldest inquire somewhat more exactly concerning him. 21 Do not thou therefore yield unto them: for there [a] lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have [b] bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee. 22 So the [1] chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me. 23 And he called unto him two of the centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as [c] Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night: 24 and he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto [d] Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this form:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the [a]most excellent governor Felix, [b]greeting. 27 This man was seized by the Jews, and [c]was about to be slain of them, when [c]I came upon them with the soldiers and rescued him, [d]having learned that he was a Roman. 28 And [e]desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, [1]I [f]brought him down unto their [g]council: 29 whom I found to be accused about [h]questions of their law, but to have [i]nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. 30 And when it was [k]shown to me that there would be [l]a plot [2]against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging [m]his accusers also to speak against him before thee.[3]

31 So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the morrow they left [n]the horsemen to go with him, and returned to [o]the castle: 33 and they, when they came to [p]Cæsarea and delivered the letter to [q]the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And when he had read it, he asked of what [r]province he was; and when he understood that [s]he was of Cilicia, 35 I will hear thee fully, said he, when thine [m]accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be [t]kept in Herod's [4]palace.

24 And after [u]five days the high priest [v]Ananias came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they informed [x]the governor against Paul. 2 And when he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying,

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by thy providence evils are corrected for this nation, 3 we accept it in all ways and in all places, [y]most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I entreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. 5 For we have found this man [z]a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout [5]the world, and a ringleader of the [a]sect of the Nazarenes: 6 who moreover assayed to [b]profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold:[6] 8 from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him. 9 And [c]the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

10 And when [x]the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I cheerfully make my defence: 11 seeing that thou canst take knowledge that it is not more than [d]twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem: 12 and [e]neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or [f]stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. 13 [g]Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [h]the Way which they call a [a]sect, so serve I [i]the God of our fathers, [k]believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets; 15 having hope toward God, which [l]these also themselves [7]look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just and unjust. 16 [8]Herein [m]I also exercise myself to have a conscience void of offence toward God and men always. 17 Now [n]after some years I [o]came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: 18 [9]amidst which they found me [p]purified in the temple, with no [q]crowd, nor yet with tumult: but there were certain [r]Jews from Asia—19 who ought to have been here before thee, and to [s]make accusation, if they had aught against me. 20 Or else let these men themselves say what wrongdoing they found when I stood before [t]the council, 21 except it be for this one voice, that [u]I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

24 But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, [2]his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning [d]the faith in Christ Jesus. 25 And as he reasoned of [e]righteousness, and [f]self-control, and [g]the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me. 26 He hoped withal that [h]money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. 27 But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius [i]Festus; and [k]desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul [l]in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, [3]having come into [m]the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from [n]Cæsarea. 2 And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews [o]informed him against Paul; and they besought him, 3 asking a favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; [p]laying a plot to kill him on the way. 4 Howbeit Festus [q]answered, that Paul [r]was kept in charge at [n]Cæsarea, and that he himself was about to depart thither shortly. 5 Let them therefore, saith he, that are of power among you go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto [n]Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on [s]the judgment-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he was come, the Jews that had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him [t]many and grievous charges [u]which they could not prove; 8 while Paul said in his defence, [v]Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. 9 But Festus, [k]desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, [x]Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? 10 But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's [s]judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. 11 If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die; but if none of those things is true whereof these accuse me, no man can [4]give me up unto them. I [y]appeal unto Cæsar. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with [z]the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at [n]Cæsarea, [5]and saluted Festus. 14 And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man [a]left a prisoner by Felix; 15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews [o]informed me, asking for sentence against him. 16 To whom I [b]answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to [4]give up any man, before that [c]the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him. 17 When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat on [s]the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; 19 but had certain [d]questions against him of their own [6][e]religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And I, [f]being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and there be judged of these matters. 21 But when Paul

had [a] appealed to be kept for the decision of [1] the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Cæsar. 22 And [b] Agrippa said unto Festus, I also [2] could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

23 So on the morrow, when [c] Agrippa was come, and [c] Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing with the [3] chief captains and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom [d] all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that [e] he ought not to live any longer. 25 But I found that he had committed [f] nothing worthy of death: and as he himself [a] appealed to [1] the emperor I determined to send him. 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write. 27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

26 And [b] Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to make my defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: 3 [4] especially because thou art expert in all [g] customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. 4 [h] My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, that [i] after the straitest [k] sect of our religion I lived a [l] Pharisee. 6 And now I stand here to be judged [m] for the hope of [n] the promise made of God unto our fathers; 7 unto which promise [o] our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this [m] hope I am [p] accused by the Jews, O king! 8 Why is it judged incredible with you, [q] if God doth raise the dead? 9 [r] I verily thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to [s] the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 And this I also [t] did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having [u] received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I [v] gave my vote against them. 11 And [x] punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being [y] exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them [z] even unto foreign cities. 12 [5] Whereupon [a] as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me. 14 And when we were [b] all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the [c] Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against [6] the goad. 15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. 16 But arise, and [d] stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to [e] appoint thee a [f] minister and [g] a witness both of the things [7] wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; 17 [h] delivering thee [i] from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, 18 to [k] open their eyes, [8] that they may turn from [l] darkness to light and from the power of [m] Satan unto God, that they may receive [n] remission of sins and an [o] inheritance among them that are sanctified by [p] faith in me. 19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: 20 but declared both [q] to them of Damascus first, and [a] at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judæa, and also [b] to the Gentiles, that they should [c] repent and turn to God, doing works [d] worthy of [1] repentance. 21 For this cause the Jews [e] seized me in the temple, and assayed [f] to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day [g] testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what [h] the prophets and Moses did say should come; 23 [2] how [i] that the Christ [3] must suffer, and [2] how that [k] he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim [l] light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much [m] learning [4] is turning thee mad. 25 But Paul saith, I am not mad, [n] most excellent Festus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness. 26 For the king [o] knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. 28 And Agrippa said unto Paul, [5] With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a [p] Christian. 29 And Paul said, I would to God, that [6] whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these [q] bonds.

30 And [r] the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: 31 and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, [s] This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. 32 And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been [t] set at liberty, if he had not [u] appealed unto Cæsar.

27 And when it was determined that [v] we [x] should sail for [y] Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan [7] [z] band. 2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of [a] Asia, we put to sea, [b] Aristarchus, a [c] Macedonian of [d] Thessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at [e] Sidon: and Julius [f] treated Paul kindly, and [g] gave him leave to go unto his friends and [8] refresh himself. 4 And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of [h] Cyprus, because [i] the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed across the sea which is off [k] Cilicia and [l] Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a [m] ship of Alexandria sailing for [y] Italy; and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, [n] the wind not [9] further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of [o] Crete, over against Salmone; 8 and with difficulty [p] coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because [q] the Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with [r] injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. 11 But the centurion gave more heed to the [s] master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phœnix, and winter there; which is a haven of [o] Crete, looking [10] north-east and south-east. 13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and [t] sailed along [o] Crete, close in shore. 14 But after no long time there [u] beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euraquilo: 15 and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. 16 And running under the lee of a small island called [1]Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: 17 and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, under-girding the ship; and, fearing lest they should [a]be cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. 18 And as we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to [b]throw the freight overboard; 19 and the third day they cast out with their own hands the [2]tackling of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. 21 And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, [c]Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from [d]Crete, and have gotten this [c]injury and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to be [e]of good cheer; for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For [f]there stood by me this night [g]an angel of the God whose I am, [h]whom also I serve, 24 saying, Fear not, Paul; [i]thou must stand before Cæsar: and lo, God hath granted thee [k]all them that sail with thee. 25 Wherefore, sirs, be [e]of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. 26 But we must [a]be cast upon a certain [l]island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country: 28 and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms; and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. 29 And fearing lest haply we should [a]be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and [3]wished for the day. 30 And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered [m]the boat into the sea, under color as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut away the [n]ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for [o]there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. 35 And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he [p]gave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he brake it, and began to eat. 36 Then were they all [e]of good cheer, and themselves also took food. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen [q]souls. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, [b]throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 And when it was day, [r]they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could [4]drive the ship upon it. 40 And casting off [s]the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to [t]kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. 43 But the centurion, [u]desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they who could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land; 44 and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that [v]they all escaped safe to the land.

28 And when [x]we were escaped, [y]then we knew that [z]the island was called [5]Melita. 2 And [a]the barbarians showed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and [b]received us all, because of the present rain,

Paul is entertained by Publius. The Voyage resumed. The Arrival in Rome. Paul addresses the leading Jews and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out [1]by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 And when [a]the barbarians saw the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, [b]No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet [c]Justice hath not suffered to live. 5 Howbeit [d]he shook off the creature into the fire, and took no harm. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and [e]said that he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days courteously. 8 And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and [f]prayed, and [g]laying his hands on him healed him. 9 And when this was done, the rest also that had diseases in the island came, and were cured: 10 who also honored us with many honors; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

11 And after three months we set sail in [h]a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was [2]The Twin Brothers. 12 And touching at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. 13 And from thence we [3]made a circuit, and arrived at Rhegium: and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli; 14 where we found [i]brethren, and were entreated to tarry with them seven days: and so we came to Rome. 15 And from thence the [i]brethren, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns; whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we entered into Rome, [4]Paul was [k]suffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days he called together [5]those that were [l]the chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, [m]brethren, [n]though I had done nothing against the people, or [o]the customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans: 18 who, when they had examined me, [p]desired to set me at liberty, because there was [q]no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to [r]appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had aught whereof to accuse my nation. 20 For this cause therefore did I [6]entreat you to see and to speak with me: for [s]because of the hope of Israel I am bound with [t]this chain. 21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters from Judæa concerning thee, nor did any of [m]the brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. 22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this [u]sect, it is known to us that everywhere [v]it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, they came to him into [x]his lodging in great number; to whom he expounded the matter, [y]testifying the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both [z]from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. 24 And [a]some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Spirit through Isaiah the prophet unto your fathers, 26 saying,

Go thou unto this people, and say, [b]By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;
And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive: 27 For this people's heart is waxed gross,
And their ears are dull of hearing,

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

ROMANS

Salutation. Personal Explanations. The Gospel. The Gentiles' Need of Righteousness

1 Paul, a [1]servant of Jesus Christ, [a]called to be an apostle, [b]separated unto [c]the [2]gospel of God, 2 which he [d]promised afore through his [e]prophets in the holy scriptures, 3 concerning his Son, who was born [f]of the seed of David [g]according to the flesh, 4 who was [3]declared to be [h]the Son of God [4][i]with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection [5]from the dead; even Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through whom we received grace and [k]apostleship, unto [l]obedience [6]of faith among [m]all the [7]nations, for his name's sake; 6 among whom are ye also, [n]called to be Jesus Christ's: 7 to all that are in Rome, [o]beloved of God, [p]called to be [q]saints: [r]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, [s]I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, [8]that [t]your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. 9 For [u]God is my witness, whom I [v]serve in my spirit in the [2]gospel of his Son, how unceasingly [x]I make mention of you, always in my prayers 10 making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered [9]by [y]the will of God to come unto you. 11 For [z]I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; 12 that is, that I with you may be comforted [10]in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. 13 And [a]I would not have you ignorant, [b]brethren, that oftentimes I [c]purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some [d]fruit [10]in you also, even as [10]in the rest of the Gentiles. 14 [e]I am debtor both to Greeks and to [f]Barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. 15 So, [g]as much as in me is, I am ready to [11][h]preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome.

16 For I am not [i]ashamed of the [2]gospel: for [k]it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the [l]Jew first, and also to [m]the Greek. 17 For therein is revealed [n]a righteousness of God from faith unto faith: as it is written, But [o]the righteous shall live [12]by faith.

18 For [13][p]the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who [14][q]hinder the truth in unrighteousness; 19 because [r]that which is known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it unto them. 20 For the invisible things of him [s]since the creation of the world are clearly seen, [t]being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; [15]that they may be without excuse: 21 because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became [u]vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. 22 [v]Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 and [x]changed the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore [y]God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts unto uncleanness, that their bodies should be [z]dishonored among themselves: 25 for that they exchanged the truth of God for a [a] lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, [b] who is blessed [1] for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause [c] God gave them up unto [2][d] vile passions: for their women changed the natural use into that which is against nature: 27 and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, [e] men with men working unseemliness, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was due.

28 And even as they [3] refused to have God in their knowledge, [c] God gave them up unto a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; 29 being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; [f] whisperers, 30 backbiters, [4][g] hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, [h] disobedient to parents, 31 without understanding, covenant-breakers, [i] without natural affection, unmerciful: 32 who, knowing the ordinance of God, that they that practise such things are worthy of [k] death, not only do the same, but also [l] consent with them that practise them.

2 Wherefore thou art [m] without excuse, [n] O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein [o] thou judgest [5] another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest dost practise the same things. 2 [6] And we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against them that practise such things. 3 And reckonest thou this, [n] O man, who judgest them that practise such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? 4 Or despisest thou [p] the riches of his [q] goodness and [r] forbearance and [s] longsuffering, not knowing that [t] the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? 5 but after thy hardness and impenitent heart [u] treasurest up for thyself wrath [v] in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; 6 [x] who will render to every man according to his works: 7 to them that by [y][7] patience in well-doing seek for [z] glory and honor and [a] incorruption, [b] eternal life: 8 but unto them that are [c] factious, and [d] obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, shall be wrath and indignation, 9 [e] tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that worketh evil, of the Jew [f] first, and also of the Greek; 10 but [z] glory and honor and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew [g] first, and also to the Greek: 11 for [h] there is no respect of persons with God. 12 For as many as [8] have sinned [i] without the law shall also perish without the law: and as many as [8] have sinned under the law shall be judged by the law; 13 for [k] not the hearers of the law are [9] just before God, but the doers of the law shall be [10] justified: 14 (for when Gentiles that have not the law do [l] by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are the law unto themselves; 15 in that they show [m] the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness therewith, and [11] their [12] thoughts one with another accusing or else excusing them;) 16 in the day when [n] God [13] shall judge the secrets of men, [o] according to my [14] gospel, by Jesus Christ.

17 But if thou bearest the name of a Jew, and [p] restest upon the law, and gloriest in God, 18 and knowest [15] his will, and [16][q] approvest the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19 and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them that are in darkness, 20 [17] a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law [r] the form of knowledge and of the truth; 21 thou therefore [s] that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? 22 thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou [a]rob temples? 23 thou who [b]gloriest in the law, through thy transgression of the law dishonorest thou God? 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles [c]because of you, even as it is written. 25 For circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a [d]doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law, [e]thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. 26 [f]If therefore [g]the uncircumcision [h]keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? 27 and shall not [g]the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [i]judge thee, who with the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the law? 28 For [k]he is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: 29 but [l]he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in [m]the spirit not in the letter; [n]whose praise is not of men, but of God.

Is. lii. 5.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much every way: first of all, that [o]they were intrusted with the [p]oracles of God. 3 For what if [q]some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithfulness of God? 4 [r][1]God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man [s]a liar; as it is written,

That thou mightest be justified in thy words,
And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgment.

5 But if our unrighteousness [t]commendeth the righteousness of God, [u]what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth with wrath? ([v]I speak after the manner of men.) 6 [1][r]God forbid: for then how shall [x]God judge the world? 7 [2]But if [y]the truth of God through my lie abounded unto his glory, [z]why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 and why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), [a]Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.

9 What then? [b]are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both of [c]Jews and [d]Greeks, that they are [e]all under sin; 10 as it is written,

There is none righteous, no, not one; 11 There is none that understandeth, There is none that seeketh after God; 12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable; There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one: 13 Their throat is an open sepulchre;
With their tongues they have used deceit:
The poison of asps is under their lips: 14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood; 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways; 17 And the way of peace have they not known: 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

propitiation, through faith, [a]in his blood, to show his righteousness because of the [b]passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the [c]forbearance of God; 26 for the showing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be [1]just, and the [1]justifier of him that [2]hath faith [3]in Jesus. 27 Where then is [d]the glorying? It is excluded. By [e]what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. 28 [4][f]We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from [5]the works of the law. 29 Or [g]is God the God of Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: 30 if so be that [h]God is one, and [i]he shall justify the circumcision [6]by faith, and the uncircumcision [7]through faith.

31 Do we then make [8]the law of none effect [7]through faith? [k]God forbid: nay, we [l]establish [8]the law.

4 What then shall we say [9]that Abraham, [10]our forefather, hath found [m]according to the flesh? 2 For if Abraham was justified [6]by works, he hath whereof to glory; but [n]not toward God. 3 For what saith the scripture? And [o]Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 4 Now to him that [p]worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but [q]believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. 6 Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, 7 saying,

Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, And whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not [r]reckon sin.

9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon [s]the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for [t]we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. 10 How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: 11 and he [u]received the sign of circumcision, [v]a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be [x]the father of [y]all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; 12 and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. 13 For not [11]through the law was [z]the promise to Abraham or to his seed [a]that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For [b]if they that are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: 15 for [c]the law worketh wrath; but [d]where there is no law, neither is there transgression. 16 For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to [e]grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to [f]all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is [x]the father of us all 17 (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, [g]who giveth life to the dead, and [h]calleth the [i]things that are not, as though they were. 18 Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become [k]a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19 And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body [12]now [l]as good as dead ([m]he being about a hundred years old), and [n]the deadness of Sarah's [13]womb; 20 yet, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, [o]giving glory to God, 21 and [p]being fully assured that [q]what he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22 Wherefore also [r]it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 23 Now [s]it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; 24 but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, [a] who believe on him that [b] raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was [c] delivered up for our trespasses, and was [d] raised for our justification.

5 [e] Being therefore justified [1] by faith, [2][f] we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; 2 through whom also we have [g] had our access [3] by faith into this grace [h] wherein we stand; and [4] we [5] rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 [i] And not only so, but [6] we also [5][k] rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh [l] stedfastness; 4 and [l] stedfastness, [m] approvedness; and approvedness, hope: 5 and hope [n] putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been [7][o] shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given unto us. 6 For while we were yet [p] weak, [q] in due season [c] Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for the good man some one would even dare to die. 8 But God [r] commendeth [s] his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, [c] Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified [8][t] by his blood, shall we be saved [u] from the wrath of God through him. 10 For if, while we were [v] enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved [8][x] by his life; 11 [i] and not only so, [9] but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received [y] the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through [z] one man sin entered into the world, and [a] death through sin; and [b] so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:—13 for until the law sin was in the world; but [c] sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned [d] after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a [e] figure of him that was to come.
15 But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of [f] the one [g] the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by [h] the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto [g] the many. 16 And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for [i] the judgment came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto [10] justification. 17 For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned [z] through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and [11] of the gift of righteousness [k] reign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ. 18 So then as through [f] one trespass the judgment came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one [l] act of righteousness the free gift came unto all men to [m] justification of life. 19 For as through the one man's disobedience [g] the many [n] were made sinners, even so through [o] the obedience of the one shall [g] the many be made righteous. 20 And [12][p] the law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, [q] grace did abound more exceedingly: 21 that, as [r] sin reigned in death, even so might [s] grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 [t] What shall we say then?
Shall we [u] continue in sin, that grace may abound? 2 [v] God forbid. We who [x] died to sin, how shall we any longer live therein? 3 Or are ye ignorant that all we who were [y] baptized into [z] Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 We were [a] buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was [b] raised from the dead through the [c] glory of the Father, so we also might walk in [d] newness of life. 5 For [e] if we have become [13] united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection; 6 knowing this, that our [f] old man was [g] crucified with him, that the [a] body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; 7 for [b] he that hath died is [1] justified from sin. 8 But [c] if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; 9 knowing that Christ being [d] raised from the dead dieth no more; [e] death no more hath dominion over him. 10 For [2] the death that he died, he died unto sin [3] once: but [2] the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. 11 Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be [f] dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

12 Let not sin therefore [g] reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof: 13 neither [h] present your members unto sin as [4] instruments of unrighteousness; but [i] present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as [4] instruments of righteousness unto God. 14 For [k] sin shall not [l] have dominion over you: for [m] ye are not under law, but [n] under grace.

15 What then? [o] shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? [p] God forbid. 16 [q] Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as [5] servants unto obedience, his [5] [r] servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of [s] sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? 17 But [t] thanks be to God, [6] that, whereas ye were [5] servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that [7] [u] form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; 18 and being [v] made free from sin, ye became [5] servants of righteousness. 19 [x] I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for [y] as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. 20 For [z] when ye were [5] servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. 21 What [a] fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is [b] death. 22 But now being [v] made free from sin and become [c] servants to God, ye have your [d] fruit unto sanctification, and [e] the end eternal life. 23 For the wages of [b] sin is death; but the free gift of God is [f] eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, [g] brethren (for I speak to men who know [8] the law), that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? 2 For [h] the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. 3 So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. 4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were [i] made dead [k] to the law [l] through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. 5 For when we were [m] in the flesh, the [9] sinful passions, which were [n] through the law, wrought [o] in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. 6 But now we have been [p] discharged from the law, having [q] died to that wherein we were held; so that we serve in [r] newness of [s] the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

7 [t] What shall we say then? Is the law sin? [u] God forbid. Howbeit, [v] I had not known sin, except through [8] the law: for I had not known [10] coveting, except the law had said, Thou shalt not [10] covet: 8 but sin, [x] finding occasion, wrought in me [y] through the commandment all manner of [10] coveting: for [z] apart from [8] the law sin is dead. 9 And I was alive apart from [8] the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; 10 and the commandment, which was [a] unto life, this I found to be unto death: 11 for sin, [x] finding occasion, [y] through the commandment [b] beguiled me, and through it slew me. 12 [a]So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. 13 Did then that which is good become death unto me? [b]God forbid. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good;—that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is [c]spiritual: but I am [c]carnal, [d]sold [e]under sin. 15 For that which I [1]do [f]I know not: for [g]not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto [a]the law that it is good. 17 So now [h]it is no more I that [1]do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my [i]flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to [1]do that which is good is not. 19 For [k]the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. 20 But if what I would not, that I do, [h]it is no more I that [1]do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 21 I find then [2][l]the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight [3]in the law of God after [m]the inward man: 23 but I see [n]a different law in my members, warring against the [o]law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity [4]under [l]the law of sin which is in my members. 24 Wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of [5][p]the body of this [q]death? 25 [6]I [r]thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I of myself with the mind, indeed, serve the law of God; but with the flesh [l]the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no [s]condemnation to them that are [t]in [u]Christ Jesus. 2 For [v]the law of the Spirit of life in [u]Christ Jesus [x]made me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For [y]what the law could not do, [7]in that it [z]was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in [a]the likeness of [8]sinful flesh [9]and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that the [10][b]ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who [c]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 5 For they that are after the flesh mind [d]the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit [e]the things of the Spirit. 6 [f]For the mind of the flesh is [g]death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace: 7 because the mind of the flesh is [h]enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: 8 and they that are [i]in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not [i]in the flesh but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God [k]dwelleth in you. But [l]if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And [m]if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him that [n]raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, [o]he that raised up [u]Christ Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies [11]through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: 13 for [p]if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye [q]put to death the [12]deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For as many as are [r]led by the Spirit of God, these are [s]sons of God. 15 For ye [t]received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye [u]received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, [v]Abba, Father. 16 The Spirit himself [x]beareth witness with our spirit, that we are [s]children of God: 17 and if children, then [y]heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; [z]if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time [a]are not worthy to be compared with the [b]glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. 19 For the [c]earnest expectation of the creation wait-eth for [a]the revealing of the [b]sons of God. 20 For the creation [c]was subjected to [d]vanity, not of its own will, but [e]by reason of him who subjected it, [1]in hope 21 that [f]the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.

22 For we know that [g]the whole creation [h]groaneth and travaileth in pain [2]together until now.
23 [i]And not only so, but ourselves also, who have [k]the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves [l]groan within ourselves, [m]waiting for our adoption, to wit, [n]the redemption of our body.
24 For [3][o]in hope were we saved: but [p]hope that is seen is not hope: [4]for who [5]hopeth for that which he seeth? 25 But [q]if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with [6]patience wait for it.
26 And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for [r]we know not how to pray as we ought; but [s]the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered; 27 and [t]he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is [u]the mind of the Spirit, [7]because he [v]maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.
28 And we know that to them that love God [8][x]all things work together for good, even to them that are [y]called according to his purpose. 29 For whom he [z]foreknew, he also [a]foreordained to be [b]conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the [c]firstborn among many brethren: 30 and whom he [a]foreordained, them he also [y]called: and whom he called, them he also [d]justified: and whom he justified, them he also [e]glorified.
31 [f]What then shall we say to these things? [g]If God is for us, who is against us? 32 He that [h]spared not his own Son, but [i]delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things? 33 Who shall lay anything to the charge of [k]God's elect? [9][l]It is God that justifieth; 34 who is he that [m]condemneth?
[10]It is Christ Jesus that [n]died, yea rather, that was [o]raised from the dead, who is [p]at the right hand of God, who also [q]maketh intercession for us.
35 Who shall separate us from [r]the love [11]of Christ? shall [s]tribulation, or anguish, or [t]persecution, or [t]famine, or [t]nakedness, or [t]peril, or sword? 36 Even as it is written,

[u]For thy sake we are killed all the day long;
We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than [v]conquerors through [x]him that loved us. 38 For I am persuaded, that neither [y]death, nor life, nor [z]angels, nor principalities, nor [a]things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other [12]creature, shall be able to separate us from [b]the love of God, which is [c]in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 [d]I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.
3 For [e]I could [13]wish that I myself were [f]anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen [g]according to the flesh: 4 who are [h]Israelites; whose is [i]the adoption, and [k]the glory, and [l]the covenants, and [m]the giving of the law, and [n]the service of God, and [o]the promises; 5 whose are [p]the fathers, and [q]of whom is Christ as concerning the [14]flesh, [r]who is over all, [s]God [t]blessed [15]for ever. Amen.
6 But it is not as though [u]the word of God hath come to nought.

are of Israel: 7 neither, [x]because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but, [a] In Isaac shall thy seed be called. 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are [b] children of God; but the [c] children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. 9 For this is a word of promise, According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. 10 [d] And not only so; but [e] Rebecca also having conceived by one, even by our father Isaac — 11 for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that [f] the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, 12 it was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. 13 Even as it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

14 [g] What shall we say then? [h] Is there unrighteousness with God? [i] God forbid. 15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that [k] runneth, but of [l] God that hath mercy. 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. 18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he [m] hardeneth.

19 [n] Thou wilt say then unto me, [o] Why doth he still find fault? For [p] who withstandeth his will? 20 Nay but, [q] O man, who art thou that [r] repliest against God? [s] Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why didst thou make me thus? 21 Or hath not the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor? 22 What if God, [1] willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much [t] longsuffering vessels of wrath [u] fitted unto destruction: 23 [2] and that he might make known [v] the riches of his glory upon [x] vessels of mercy, which he [y] afore prepared unto glory, 24 even us, whom he also [z] called, [a] not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? 25 As he saith also in Hosea, [b] I will call that my people, which was not my people;

And her beloved, that was not beloved.
26 And it shall be, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, There shall they be called sons of [c] the living God.

27 And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, If the number of the children of Israel be [d] as the sand of the sea, it is [e] the remnant that shall be saved: 28 for the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short. 29 And, as Isaiah hath said before,

Except [f] the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, [g] We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 [h] What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even [i] the righteousness which is of faith: 31 but Israel, [k] following after a law of righteousness, did not [l] arrive at that law. 32 Wherefore? [3] Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled at [m] the stone of stumbling; 33 even as it is written,

Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence: [n] And he that believeth on [4] him [o] shall not be put to shame.

10 Brethren, my heart's [5] desire and my supplication to God is for them, that they may be saved. 2 For I bear them witness that they have [p] a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of [q] God's righteousness, and [k] seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For [r] Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to [s] every one that believeth. 5 For Moses writeth that the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law [t] shall live thereby. 6 But [a]the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) 7 or,

Who shall descend into the [b]abyss? (that is, to [c]bring Christ up from the dead.) 8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: 9 [1]because [d]if thou shalt [2]confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt [e]believe in thy heart that [f]God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: 10 for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11 For the scripture saith, [g]Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. 12 For [h]there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is [i]Lord of [k]all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: 13 for, [l]Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him [m]whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without [n]a preacher? 15 and how shall they preach, except they be sent?
even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that [o]bring [3]glad tidings of good things!

16 But they [p]did not all hearken to the [4]glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, [q]Lord, who hath believed our report? 17 So belief cometh of [r]hearing, and hearing by [s]the word of Christ. 18 But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily, [t]Their sound went out into all the earth,

And their words unto the ends of [5]the world.

19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith,

I will [u]provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,
With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

20 And Isaiah is very bold, and saith,

[v]I was found of them that sought me not;
I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

21 But as to Israel he saith, All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

11 I say then, Did God [x]cast off his people? [y]God forbid. For [z]I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God [a]did not cast off his people which he [b]foreknew. [c]Or know ye not what the scripture saith [6]of Elijah? how he pleadeth with God against Israel: 3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. 4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. 5 Even so then at this present time also there is [d]a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 But [e]if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. 7 What then? That which [f]Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were [g]hardened: 8 according as it is written, [h]God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. 9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them: 10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see,

And bow thou down their back always.

11 [i]I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? [y]God forbid: but by their [7]fall [k]salvation is come unto the Gentiles, to [u]provoke them to jealousy.
12 Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their [l]fulness? 13 But I speak to you that are Gentiles.
Inasmuch then as [m]I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; 14 if by any means I may [u]provoke to jealousy them that are [n]my flesh, and may [o]save some of them. 15 For if the casting away of them is the [a]reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but [b]life from the dead? 16 And if the [c]firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches. 17 But if some of the [d]branches were broken off, and [e]thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them [1]of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; 18 glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, [f]it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee. 19 [g]Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. 20 Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou [h]standest by thy faith. [i]Be not highminded, but fear: 21 for if God spared not the natural branches, neither will he spare thee. 22 Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's [k]goodness, [l]if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also [m]shalt be cut off. 23 And they also, [n]if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For [o]I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this [p]mystery, lest ye be [q]wise in your own conceits, that a [r]hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until the [s]fulness of the Gentiles be come in; 26 and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written, Is. lix. 20 f.

There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer;
He shall turn away [2]ungodliness from Jacob:
Is. xxvii. 9. 27 [t]And this is [3]my covenant unto them, When I shall take away their sins.

28 As touching the [4]gospel, they are [u]enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for [v]the fathers' sake. 29 For the gifts and the [x]calling of God [y]are not repented of. 30 For as ye in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 31 even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they also may now obtain mercy. 32 For [z]God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth [5]of [a]the riches [6]both of the [b]wisdom and the knowledge of God! [c]how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out! 34 For [d]who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? 35 or [e]who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? 36 For [f]of him, and through him, and unto him, are all things. [g]To him be the glory [7]for ever. Amen.

12 [h]I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to [i]present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, [8]acceptable to God, which is your [9]spiritual [10]service. 2 And be not [k]fashioned according to [l]this [11]world: but be ye transformed by the [m]renewing of your mind, that ye may [n]prove what is [12]the good and [8]acceptable and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through [o]the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, [p]not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, [q]according as God hath dealt to each man a measure of faith. 4 For [r]even as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office: 5 so we, [s]who are many, are [t]one body in Christ, and severally members one of another. 6 And having gifts [u]differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether [v]prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; 7 or [a]ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that [b]teacheth, to his teaching; 8 or he that [c]exhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with [1][d]liberality; [e]he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with [f]cheerfulness.

9 Let [g]love be without hypocrisy. [h]Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. 10 In [i]love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; [k]in honor preferring one another; 11 in diligence not slothful; [l]fervent in spirit; [m]serving [2]the Lord; 12 [n]rejoicing in hope; [o]patient in tribulation; [p]continuing stedfastly in prayer; 13 [q]communicating to the necessities of the saints; [3][r]given to hospitality. 14 [s]Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. 15 [t]Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep. 16 [u]Be of the same mind one toward another. [v]Set not your mind on high things, but [4]condescend to [5]things that are lowly. [x]Be not wise in your own conceits. 17 [y]Render to no man evil for evil. [z]Take thought for things honorable in the sight of all men. 18 If it be possible, [a]as much as in you lieth, [b]be at peace with all men. 19 [y]Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto [6]the wrath of God: for it is written, [c]Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord. 20 But [d]if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for [e]in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. 21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

Let every [f]soul be in [g]subjection to the higher powers: for [h]there is no power but of God; and the powers that be are ordained of God. 2 Therefore he that resisteth the power, withstandeth the ordinance of God: and they that withstand shall receive to themselves judgment. 3 For [i]rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. And wouldest thou have no fear of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same: 4 for [7]he is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for [7]he beareth not the sword in vain: for [7]he is a minister of God, an [k]avenger for wrath to him that doeth evil. 5 Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also [l]for conscience' sake. 6 For for this cause ye pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually upon this very thing. 7 [m]Render to all their dues: [n]tribute to whom tribute is due; [o]custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

8 Owe no man anything, save to love one another: for [p]he that loveth [8]his neighbor hath fulfilled the law. 9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, [q]Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: [p]love therefore is the fulfilment of the law.

11 And this, knowing the season, that [r]already it is time for you to [s]awake out of sleep: for now is [9]salvation nearer to us than when we [t]first believed. 12 [r]The night is far spent, and [u]the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off [v]the works of darkness, and let us put on [x]the armor of light. 13 Let us [y]walk becomingly, as in the day; [z]not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. 14 But [a]put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, [b]to fulfil the lusts thereof.

things: but he that is [a]weak eateth herbs. 3 Let not him that eateth [b]set at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not [c]judge him that eateth: for God hath [d]received him. 4 [e]Who art thou that judgest the [1]servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. 5 [f]One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be [g]fully assured in his own mind. 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he [h]giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. 7 For none of us [i]liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: [k]whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end [l]Christ died and lived again, that he might be [m]Lord of both the dead and the living. 10 But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou [b]set at nought thy brother? for [n]we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God. 11 For it is written,

As I live, saith the Lord, to me [o]every knee shall bow, And every tongue shall [2]confess to God.

12 So then [p]each one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore [q]judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that [r]no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. 14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that [s]nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who [t]accounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou [u]walkest no longer in love. [v]Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. 16 [x]Let not then your good be evil spoken of: 17 for the kingdom of God [y]is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and [z]peace and [z]joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he that herein [a]serveth Christ is [b]well-pleasing to God, and approved of men. 19 So then [3]let us [c]follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may [d]edify one another. 20 [e]Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God. [s]All things indeed are clean; howbeit [f]it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. 21 [g]It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth[4]. 22 The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that [h]judgeth not himself in that which he [5]approveth. 23 But [i]he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin[6].

15 Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the [k]weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 Let each one of us [l]please his neighbor for that which is good, unto [d]edifying. 3 For [m]Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell upon me. 4 For [n]whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through [7]patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might have hope. 5 Now the [o]God of [7]patience and of comfort grant you [p]to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus: 6 that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify [8][q]the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. 7 Wherefore [r]receive ye one another, even as Christ also received [9]you, to the glory of God. 8 For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of [s]the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm [t]the promises given unto the fathers, 9 and that [u]the Gentiles might [v]glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

Therefore will I [1]give praise unto thee among the [2]Gentiles, And sing unto thy name.
10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye [2]Gentiles, with his people.
11 And again,
Praise the Lord, all ye [2]Gentiles; And let all the peoples praise him.
12 And again, Isaiah saith, There shall be [a]the root of Jesse,
And he that ariseth to rule over the [2]Gentiles; [b]On him shall the [2]Gentiles hope.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all [c]joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, [d]in the power of the Holy Spirit.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of [e]goodness, filled with [f]all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. 15 But I write the more boldly unto you in some measure, as putting you again in remembrance, because of [g]the grace that was given me of God, 16 that I should be [h]a minister of Christ Jesus unto the [2]Gentiles, [3]ministering the [4][i]gospel of God, that the [k]offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 17 I have therefore my [l]glorying in Christ Jesus in [m]things pertaining to God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any [5]things save those which [n]Christ wrought through me, for the obedience of the [2]Gentiles, by word and deed, 19 in the power of [o]signs and [o]wonders, [d]in the power of [6]the Holy Spirit; so that [p]from Jerusalem, and round about even [q]unto Illyricum, I have [7]fully preached the [4]gospel of Christ; 20 yea, [8]making it my aim so to [9][r]preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, [s]that I might not build upon another man's foundation; 21 but, as it is written,

They shall see, to whom no tidings of him came,
And they who have not heard shall understand.

22 Wherefore also [t]I was hindered these many times from coming to you: 23 but now, having no more any place in these regions, and [u]having these many years a longing to come unto you, 24 whensoever I [v]go unto Spain (for I hope to see you in my journey, and to be [x]brought on my way thitherward by you, if first in some measure I shall have been [y]satisfied with your company)—25 but now, I say, [z]I go unto Jerusalem, [a]ministering unto the saints. 26 For it hath been the good pleasure of [b]Macedonia and [c]Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints that are at Jerusalem. 27 Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are. For [d]if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to minister unto them in carnal things. 28 When therefore I have accomplished this, and [e]have sealed to them this fruit, I will [v]go on by you unto Spain. 29 And I know that, when [u]I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by [f]the love of the Spirit, that ye [g]strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; 31 that I may be [h]delivered from them that are disobedient in Judæa, and that my [i]ministration which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the [k]saints; 32 that [l]I may come unto you in joy through [m]the will of God, and together with you find rest. 33 Now [n]the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

I [o]commend unto you Phœbe our sister, who is a [10]servant of the church that is at [p]Cenchreæ: 2 that ye [q]receive her in the Lord, worthily of the [k]saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever matter she may have need of you: for she herself also hath been a helper of many, and of mine own self.

Divers Salutations. Dissension and Apostasy warned against. Salutations from the Apostle's Companions

3 Salute [a]Prisca and [a]Aquila my fellow-workers [b]in [c]Christ Jesus, 4 who for my life laid down their own necks; unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles: 5 and salute [d]the church that is in their house. Salute Epænetus my beloved, who is the [e]firstfruits of [f]Asia unto Christ. 6 Salute Mary, who bestowed much labor on you. 7 Salute Andronicus and [1]Junias, my [g]kinsmen, and my [h]fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also have been [b]in Christ before me. 8 Salute Ampliatus my beloved in the Lord. 9 Salute Urbanus our fellow-worker [b]in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. 10 Salute Apelles the approved [b]in Christ. Salute [i]them that are of the household of Aristobulus. 11 Salute Herodion my [g]kinsman. Salute [i]them of the household of Narcissus, that are in the Lord. 12 Salute Tryphæna and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Salute Persis the beloved, who labored much in the Lord. 13 Salute [k]Rufus the chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. 14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren that are with them. 15 Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all [l]the saints that are with them. 16 [m]Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them that are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, [n]contrary to the [2]doctrine which ye learned: and [o]turn away from them. 18 For they that are such [p]serve not our Lord Christ, but [q]their own belly; and by their [r]smooth and fair speech they beguile the hearts of the innocent. 19 For your obedience [s]is come abroad unto all men. I rejoice therefore over you: but [t]I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple unto that which is evil. 20 And [u]the God of peace shall bruise [v]Satan under your feet shortly.

[x]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

21 [y]Timothy my fellow-worker saluteth you; and [z]Lucius and [a]Jason and [b]Sosipater, my [g]kinsmen. 22 I Tertius, [3]who [c]write the epistle, salute you in the Lord. 23 [d]Gaius my host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. [e]Erastus the treasurer of the city saluteth you, and Quartus the brother.[4]

25 [5][f]Now to him that is able to establish you [g]according to my [6]gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of [h]the mystery which hath been kept in silence through [i]times eternal, 26 but now is manifested, and [7]by [k]the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known unto all the [8]nations unto [l]obedience [9]of faith: 27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, [10][m]to whom be the glory [11]for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

CORINTHIANS

Salutation. Thankgiving. Exhortation to Unity. "Christ the Power of God and the Wisdom of God"

1 Paul,[a] called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ [b] through the will of God, and [c] Sosthenes [1] our [d] brother, 2 unto [e] the church of God which is at [f] Corinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, [g] called to be saints, with all that [h] call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours: 3 [i] Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

[1] Gr. the brother.

4 [k] I thank [2] my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; 5 that in every thing ye were [l] enriched in him, in all [3][m] utterance and [m] all knowledge; 6 even as [n] the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: 7 so that ye come behind in no gift; [o] waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; 8 [p] who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be unreproveable in [q] the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 [r] God is faithful, through whom ye were [s] called into the [t] fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

[2] Some ancient authorities omit my.

10 Now [u] I beseech you, [v] brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no [4][x] divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in [y] the same mind and in the same judgment. 11 For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by [z] them that are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. 12 Now this I mean, that [a] each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of [b] Apollos; and I of [c] Cephas; and I of Christ. 13 [5] Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye [d] baptized into the name of Paul? 14 [6] I thank God that I [e] baptized none of you, save [e] Crispus and [f] Gaius; 15 lest any man should say that ye were baptized into my name. 16 And I baptized also the [g] household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. 17 [h] For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to [7] preach the gospel: [i] not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

[4] Gr. schisms.

[5] Or, Christ is divided! Was Paul crucified for you?

[6] Some ancient authorities read I give thanks that.

[7] Gr. bring good tidings. Comp. Mt 11. 5.

18 For the word of the cross is to [k] them that [8] perish [l] foolishness; but unto us who [9] are saved it is [m] the power of God. 19 For it is written,

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And the discernment of the discerning will I bring to naught.

[8] Or, are perishing

[9] Or, are being saved

Is. xxix. 14.

20 [n] Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of [o] this [10] world? hath not God [p] made foolish the wisdom of [q] the world? 21 For seeing that in the wisdom of God [q] the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was [r] God's good pleasure through the [l] foolishness of the [11] preaching to [s] save them that believe. 22 Seeing that [t] Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom: 23 but we preach [12][u] Christ crucified, [v] unto Jews a stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles [l] foolishness; 24 but unto [13] them that are [x] called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [m] the power of God, and [y] the wisdom of God. 25 Because the [l] foolishness of God is wiser than men; and [a] the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For [1] behold your [b] calling, brethren, that [c] not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: 27 but [d] God chose the foolish things of [e] the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of [e] the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and the base things of [e] the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, yea [2] and [f] the things that are not, that he might [g] bring to nought the things that are: 29 that [h] no flesh should glory before God. 30 But of him are ye in [i] Christ Jesus, who was made unto us [k] wisdom from God, [3] and [l] righteousness and [m] sanctification, and [n] redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, [o] He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came [p] not with excellency of [4] speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you [q] the [5] testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, save [r] Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3 And I [s] was with you in [t] weakness, and in [u] fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my [4] speech and my [6] preaching were [p] not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of [v] the Spirit and of power: 5 that your faith should not [7] stand in the wisdom of men, but in [x] the power of God.

6 We speak wisdom, however, among them that are [y] fullgrown: yet a wisdom not of [z] this [8] world, nor of the rulers of [z] this [8] world, who are [a] coming to nought: 7 but we speak God's wisdom in a [b] mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God [c] foreordained before the [8] [d] worlds unto our glory: 8 [e] which none of the rulers of [z] this [8] world hath known: for had they known it, they would not have crucified [f] the Lord of glory: 9 but as it is written,

Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not,
And which entered not into the heart of man, Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him.

10 [9] [g] But unto us God revealed [10] them [h] through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the [i] deep things of God. 11 For who among men knoweth the things of a man, save the [k] spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. 12 But we [l] received, not the spirit of [m] the [11] world, but the spirit which is from God; that we might know the things that were freely given to us of God. 13 Which things also we speak, [n] not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth; [12] combining spiritual things with spiritual words. 14 Now the [13] [o] natural man [p] receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are [q] foolishness unto him; and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually [14] judged. 15 But he that is [r] spiritual [15] judgeth all things, and he himself is [14] judged of no man. 16 For [s] who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But [t] we have the mind of Christ.

3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto [r] spiritual, but as unto [u] carnal, as unto [v] babes in Christ. 2 I fed you with [x] milk, not with meat; for ye [y] were not yet able to bear it: nay, not even now are ye able; 3 for ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you [z] jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and do ye not walk [a] after the manner of men? 4 For when [b] one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not [c] men? 5 What then is Apollos? and what is Paul? [d] Ministers through whom ye believed; and each [e] as the Lord gave to him. 6 [f] I planted, [g] Apollos watered; but [h] God gave the increase. 7 So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall [a]receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's [b]fellow-workers: ye are God's [1c]husbandry, God's [d]building.

[1] Gr. tilled land.

10 According to [e]the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder [f]I laid a foundation; and [g]another buildeth thereon. But let each man take heed how he buildeth thereon. 11 For [h]other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 But if any man buildeth on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble; 13 [i]each man's work shall be made manifest: for [k]the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; [2]and the fire itself shall prove each man's work of what sort it is. 14 If any man's work shall abide which he built thereon, he shall [a]receive a reward. 15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet [l]so as through fire.

[2] Or, and each man's work, of what sort it is, the fire shall prove it.

16 [m]Know ye not that [n]ye are a [3]temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 17 If any man destroyeth the [3]temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the [3]temple of God is holy, [4]and such are ye.

[3] Or, sanctuary

[4] Or, which temple ye are 18 [o]Let no man deceive himself. [p]If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in [q]this [5]world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. 19 For [q]the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He that taketh the wise in their craftiness: 20 and again, The Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain. 21 Wherefore [r]let no one glory in men. For [s]all things are yours; 22 [t]whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or [u]life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; 23 and [v]ye are Christ's; and [w]Christ is God's.

Job v. 13.

Ps. xciv. 11.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of [y]ministers of Christ, and [z]stewards of [a]the mysteries of God. 2 Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be [6]judged of you, or of man's [7]judgment: yea, I [8]judge not mine own self. 4 For I [b]know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby [c]justified: but he that [9]judgeth me is the Lord. 5 Wherefore [d]judge nothing before the time, [e]until the Lord come, who will both [f]bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man [g]have his praise from God.

[6] Or, examined

[7] Gr. day. See ch. 3. 13.

[8] Or, examine

[9] Or, examineth

6 Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to go beyond [h]the things which are written; that no one of you be [i]puffed up [k]for the one against the other. 7 For who maketh thee to differ? and [l]what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it? 8 [m]Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have come to reign without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. 9 For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men [n]doomed to death: for we are [o]made a spectacle unto the world, [10]both to angels and men. 10 We are [p]fools for Christ's sake, but [q]ye are wise in Christ; [r]we are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonor. 11 Even unto this present hour we both [s]hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place; 12 and we toil, [t]working with our own hands: being [u]reviled, we bless; being [v]persecuted, we endure; 13 being defamed, we entreat: we are [x]made as the [11]filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even until now.

[10] Or, and to angels, and to men.

[11] Or, refuse

14 I write not these things to [a]shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved [b]children. 15 For though ye have ten thousand [c]tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for in [d]Christ Jesus I [e]begat you through the [1][f]gospel. 16 I beseech you therefore, be ye [g]imitators of me. 17 For this cause [h]have I sent unto you [i]Timothy, who is my [k]beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, [l]even as I teach everywhere in every church. 18 Now some are [m]puffed up, as though I were not [n]coming to you. 19 But I [o]will come to you shortly, [p]if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them that are [m]puffed up, but the power. 20 For the kingdom of God is [q]not in word, but in power. 21 What will ye? [r]shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath [s]his father's wife. 2 And [2]ye are [m]puffed up, and [3]did not rather [t]mourn, that he that had done this deed might be [u]taken away from among you. 3 For I verily, being [v]absent in body but present in spirit, have already as though I were present judged him that hath so wrought this thing, 4 [x]in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, [y]with the power of our Lord Jesus, 5 to [z]deliver such a one unto [a]Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in [b]the day of the Lord [4]Jesus. 6 [c]Your glorying is not good. [d]Know ye not that [e]a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? 7 Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our [f]passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ: 8 wherefore let us [5]keep the feast, [g]not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in my epistle to [h]have no company with fornicators; 10 [6]not at all meaning with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with [i]idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world: 11 but [7]as it is, I wrote unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named [k]a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or [l]an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat. 12 For what have I to do with judging [m]them that are without? [n]Do not ye judge them that are within? 13 But them that are without God judgeth. [o]Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against [8]his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and [p]not before the saints? 2 [d]Or know ye not that [q]the saints shall judge [r]the world? and if the wor[illegible]is judged by you, are ye unw[illegible] [9]to judge the smallest ma[illegible] 3 [d]Know ye not that we [illegible] judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life? 4 If then ye have [10]to judge things pertaining to this life, [11]do ye set them to judge who are of no account in the church? 5 [s]I say this to move you to shame. [12]What, cannot there be found among you one wise man who shall be able to decide between his [t]brethren, 6 but brother goeth to law with brother, and that before [u]unbelievers? 7 Nay, already it is altogether [13]a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. [v]Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be defrauded? 8 Nay, but ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that your [x]brethren. 9 Or [d]know ye not that the unrighteous shall not [y]inherit the kingdom of God? [z]Be not deceived: [a]neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall [a] inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And [b] such were some of you: but ye [1] were [c] washed, but ye were [d] sanctified, but ye were [e] justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.

12 [f] All things are lawful for me; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for me; but I will not be brought under the power of any. 13 [g] Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall [h] bring to nought both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but [i] for the Lord; and [k] the Lord for the body: 14 and God both [l] raised the Lord, and [m] will raise up us through his power. 15 [n] Know ye not that [o] your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members of a harlot? 7 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote: It is [y] good for a man not to touch a woman. 2 But, because of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render unto the wife her due: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. 4 The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife. 5 [z] Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that [a] Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. 6 But this I say by way of concession, [b] not of commandment. 7 [3] Yet I would that all men were [c] even as I myself. Howbeit [d] each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is [y] good for them if they abide [c] even as I. 9 But if they have not continency, [e] let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. 10 But unto the married I give charge, [f] yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband 11 (but should she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. 12 But to the rest say [g] I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. 13 And the woman that hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they [h] holy. 15 Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called [4] us [i] in peace. 16 For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt [k] save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? 17 Only, [l] as the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. And [m] so ordain I in [n] all the churches. 18 Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become [o] uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? of the commandments of God. 20 [a]Let each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. 21 Wast thou called being a bondservant? care not for it: [1]nay, even if thou canst become free, use it rather. 22 For he that was called in the Lord being a bondservant, is [b]the Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called being free, is [c]Christ's bondservant. 23 [d]Ye were bought with a price; become not bondservants of men. 24 Brethren, [a]let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have [e]no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgment, as one that hath [f]obtained mercy of the Lord to be trustworthy. 26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the [g]distress that is upon us, namely, that [h]it is good for a man [2]to be as he is. 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 28 But shouldest thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you. 29 But this I say, brethren, [i]the time [3]is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not; 31 and those that use the world, as not [k]using it to the full: for [l]the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is [m]unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his [4]wife, 34 and is divided. So also the woman that is unmarried and the virgin is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a [5]snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his [6]virgin daughter, if she be [n]past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. 37 But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own [6]virgin daughter, shall do well. 38 So then both he that giveth his own [6]virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. 39 [o]A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be [7]dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only [p]in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she abide as she is, [q]after my judgment: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning [r]things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have [s]knowledge. Knowledge [t]puffeth up, but love [8][u]edifieth. 2 [v]If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he [x]knoweth not yet as he ought to know; 3 but if any man loveth God, the same [y]is known by him. 4 Concerning therefore the eating of [r]things sacrificed to idols, we know that [z]no idol is anything in the world, and that [a]there is no God but one. 5 For though there be [b]that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; 6 yet to us [a]there is one God, [c]the Father, [d]of whom are all things, and we unto him; and [e]one Lord, Jesus Christ, [f]through whom are all things, and we through him. 7 Howbeit there is not in all men [g]that knowledge: but [h]some, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. 8 But [i]food will not [9]commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, [10]are we the worse; nor, if we eat, [11]are we the better.

Apostolic Liberty and Paul's use of it 9 But [a]take heed lest by any means this [1]liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the [b]weak. 10 For if a man see thee who hast [c]knowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, [2]be emboldened to eat [d]things sacrificed to idols? 11 For [3]through [e]thy knowledge he that is weak [e]perisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. 12 [f]And thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin [g]against Christ.

13 Wherefore, [h]if meat causeth my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I cause not my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not [i]free? am I not an [k]apostle? have I not [l]seen Jesus our Lord? are not ye [m]my work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for the [n]seal of mine [o]apostleship are ye in the Lord. 3 My defence to them that examine me is this. 4 [p]Have we no right to eat and to drink?
5 Have [q]we no right to lead about a wife that is a [4]believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the [r]brethren of the Lord, and [s]Cephas? 6 Or I only and [t]Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working? 7 What [u]soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who [v]planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? 8 Do I speak these things [x]after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same?
9 For it is written in the law of Moses, [y]Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it for [z]the oxen that God careth, 10 or saith he it [5]assuredly for our sake? Yea, [a]for our sake it was written: because [b]he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking. 11 [c]If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal things? 12 If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we [d]did not use this right; but we bear all things, [e]that we may cause no hindrance to the [6][f]gospel of Christ. 13 [g]Know ye not that they that [h]minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they that wait upon the altar have their portion with the altar? 14 Even so did [i]the Lord ordain that they that proclaim the [6][f]gospel should [k]live of the [6]gospel. 15 But I have [d]used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case; for it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make [l]my glorying void. 16 For if I [7]preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for [m]necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I [7]preach not [f]the gospel. 17 For if I do this of mine own will, I have a [n]reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a [o]stewardship intrusted to me. 18 What then is my [n]reward? That, when I [7]preach the gospel, I may make the [6]gospel [p]without charge, so as [q]not to use to the full my right in the [6]gospel. 19 For though I was [r]free from all men, I brought myself under [s]bondage to all, that I might [t]gain the more.
20 And [u]to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, [v]not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; 21 to them that are [x]without law, [y]as without law, not being without law to God, but [z]under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. 22 To the [a]weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become [b]all things to all men, [c]that I may by all means [d]save some.
23 And I do all things for the [6]gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof. 24 [e]Know ye not that they that run in a [8]race run all, but one receiveth [f]the prize? Even so [g]run; that ye may attain. 25 And every man that [a] striveth in the games exerciseth self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible [b] crown; but we an incorruptible. 26 I therefore so [c] run, as not uncertainly; so [1] fight I, as not [d] beating the air: 27 but I [2] buffet [e] my body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I [3] have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 For [f] I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, that our fathers were all [g] under the cloud, and all [h] passed through the sea; 2 and were all [i] baptized [4] unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3 and did all [k] eat the same spiritual food; 4 and did all [l] drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was [5] Christ. 5 Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased: for [m] they were overthrown in the wilderness. 6 Now [6] these things were our [n] examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as [o] they also lusted. 7 Neither be ye [p] idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to [q] play. 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as [r] some of them committed, and fell in one day [s] three and twenty thousand. 9 Neither let us make trial of the [7] Lord, as [t] some of them made trial, and perished by the serpents. 10 Neither murmur ye, [u] as some of them murmured, and [v] perished by the [x] destroyer. 11 Now these things happened unto them [8] by way of [n] example; and [y] they were written for our admonition, upon whom [z] the ends of the ages are come. 12 Wherefore let him that [a] thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as man can bear: but [b] God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be [c] tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that ye may be able to endure it.

14 Wherefore, my [d] beloved, flee from [e] idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. 16 The [f] cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a [9] communion of the blood of Christ? The [10] [g] bread which we break, is it not a [9] communion of the body of Christ? 17 [11] seeing that we, [h] who are many, are one [10] bread, one body: for we all partake [12] of the one [10] bread. 18 Behold Israel [i] after the flesh: have not they that [k] eat the sacrifices communion with the altar? 19 What say I then? that a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or [l] that an idol is anything? 20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they [m] sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have communion with demons. 21 [n] Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and of [o] the table of demons. 22 Or do we [p] provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we [q] stronger than he?

23 [r] All things are lawful; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful; but not all things [13] [s] edify. 24 Let no man [t] seek his own, but each [14] his neighbor's good. 25 [u] Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eat, asking no question for conscience' sake; 26 for [v] the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. 27 If [x] one of them that believe not biddeth you to a feast, and ye are disposed to go; [y] whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience' sake. 28 But [z] if any man say unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, eat not, for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: 29 conscience, I say, not thine own, but the other's; for [a] why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 [15] If I partake with thankfulness, [b] why am I evil spoken of for that for which I [c] give thanks? 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or

Women to be veiled. Disorder at the Lord's Table

[a] whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 32 [b] Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to [c] the church of God: 33 even as I also [d] please all men in all things, [e] not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, [f] that they may be saved.

11 1 [g] Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now [h] I praise you that ye [i] remember me in all things, and [k] hold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know, that the [l] head of every man is Christ; and [m] the head of the woman is the man; and the [n] head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or [o] prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoreth his head. 5 But every [p] woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoreth her head; for it is one and the same thing as if she were [q] shaven. 6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the [r] image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For [s] the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: 9 for neither was the man created for the woman; but [t] the woman for the man: 10 for this cause ought the woman to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but [u] all things are [v] of God. 13 [x] Judge ye [1] in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled? 14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. 16 But if any man seemeth to be contentious, [y] we have no such custom, neither [z] the churches of God.

17 But in giving you this charge, [a] I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when ye come together [2] in the church, I hear that [3] [b] divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. 19 For there [c] must be also [4] factions among you, [d] that they that are approved may be made manifest among you. 20 When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: 21 for in your eating each one taketh before other his own supper; and one is hungry, and [e] another is drunken. 22 What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the [5] [f] church of God, and [g] put them to shame that [6] have not? What shall I say to you? [7] shall [a] I praise you? In this I praise you not. 23 For [h] I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that [i] the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was [8] betrayed took bread; 24 and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which [9] is for you: this do in remembrance of me. 25 In like manner also [k] the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the [l] new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death [m] till he come. 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be [n] guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man [o] prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. 29 For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he [10] discern not the body. 30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few [p] sleep. 31 But if we [11] discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. 32 But [12] when we are judged, we are [q] chastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with [a] the world. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. 34 If any man is [b] hungry, let him eat [c] at home; that your coming together be not unto judgment. And the rest will I [d] set in order [e] whensoever I come.

12 Now concerning [f] spiritual gifts, brethren, [g] I would not have you ignorant. 2 [h] Ye know that when ye were Gentiles ye were [i] led away unto those [k] dumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. 3 Wherefore I make known unto you, that no man speaking [l] in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is [m] anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is [n] Lord, but [l] in the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are [o] diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of workings, but the same [p] God, who worketh all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit [q] to profit withal. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of [r] wisdom; and to another the word of [s] knowledge, according to the same Spirit: 9 to another [t] faith, in the same Spirit; and to another [u] gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another workings of [1][v] miracles; and to another [x] prophecy; and to another [y] discernings of spirits: to another divers [z] kinds of tongues; and to another the [a] interpretation of tongues: 11 but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, [b] dividing to each one severally even as he will.

12 For [c] as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; [d] so also is Christ. 13 For [e] in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether [f] Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to [g] drink of one Spirit. 14 For [h] the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? 18 But now hath God [i] set the members each one of them in the body, [k] even as it pleased him. 19 And if they were all one member, where were the body? 20 But now [l] they are many members, but one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. 22 Nay, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: 23 and those parts of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we [2] bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness; 24 whereas our comely parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to that part which lacked; 25 that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. 26 And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or one member is [3] honored, all the members rejoice with it. 27 Now ye are [m] the body of Christ, and [4][n] severally members thereof. 28 And God hath [o] set some in [p] the church, first [q] apostles, secondly [r] prophets, thirdly [s] teachers, then [1][t] miracles, then [u] gifts of healings, helps, [5][v] governments, divers [x] kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of [1] miracles? 30 have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all [y] interpret? 31 But [z] desire earnestly the greater gifts. And moreover a most excellent way show I unto you.

"The Greatest of these is Love." Prophesying is better than Speaking with Tongues

[a] clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have the gift of [b] prophecy, and know all [c] mysteries and [d] all knowledge; and if I have [e] all faith, so as to [f] remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And if I [g] bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I [h] give my body [1] to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. 4 Love [i] suffereth long, and is kind; love [k] envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not [l] puffed up, 5 doth not behave itself unseemly, [m] seeketh not its own, is not provoked, [n] taketh not account of evil; 6 [o] rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but [p] rejoiceth with the truth; 7 [2] [q] beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 8 Love never faileth: but whether there be [r] prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be [s] tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. 9 For we [t] know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. 12 For now we [u] see in a mirror, [3] darkly; but then [v] face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I [x] was fully known. 13 But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the [4] greatest of these is [y] love.

14 [z] Follow after love; yet [a] desire earnestly [b] spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may [c] prophesy. 2 For he that [d] speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man [5] understandeth; but in the spirit he speaketh [e] mysteries. 3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men [f] edification, and [6] [g] exhortation, and consolation. 4 He that [d] speaketh in a tongue [7] [f] edifieth himself; but he that [h] prophesieth [7] [f] edifieth the church. 5 Now I would have you all [d] speak with tongues, but [i] rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that prophesieth than he that [d] speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive [f] edifying. 6 But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of [k] revelation, or of [l] knowledge, or of [h] prophesying, or of [m] teaching? 7 Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For if [n] the trumpet give an uncertain voice, who shall prepare himself for war? 9 So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be [o] speaking into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and [8] no kind is without signification. 11 If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a [p] barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian [9] unto me. 12 So also ye, since ye are zealous of [10] spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the [f] edifying of the church. 13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 [q] What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will [r] sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16 Else if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of [11] the unlearned say [s] the Amen at thy [t] giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not [12] [f] edified. 18 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all: 19 howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

in mind: yet in malice [a]be ye babes, but in mind be [1]men. 21 In [b]the law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but [c]prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. 23 If therefore the whole church be assembled together and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that [d]ye are mad? 24 But if all [c]prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is [2][e]reproved by all, he is judged by all; 25 [f]the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will [g]fall down on his face and worship God, [h]declaring that God is [3]among you indeed.

26 [i]What is it then, [k]brethren? When ye come together, [l]each one hath a [m]psalm, hath a [n]teaching, hath a [n]revelation, hath a [o]tongue, hath an [p]interpretation. Let [q]all things be done unto edifying. 27 If any man speaketh in a [o]tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one [p]interpret: 28 but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And let the [r]prophets speak by two or three, and let the others [4][s]discern. 30 But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. 31 For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be [5]exhorted; 32 and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for God is not a God of [t]confusion, but of peace.

As in [u]all the churches of the [v]saints, 34 let the women [x]keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but [y]let them be in subjection, as also saith [z]the law. 35 And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church. 36 What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone?

37 [a]If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or [b]spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, [c]that they are the commandment of the Lord. 38 [6]But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, my brethren, [d]desire earnestly to [e]prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. 40 But [f]let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now [g]I make known unto you, brethren, the [7][h]gospel which I [8]preached unto you, which also ye received, [i]wherein also ye stand, 2 by which also ye are saved, [k]if ye hold fast [9]the word which I [8]preached unto you, [l]except ye believed [10]in vain. 3 For [m]I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received: that Christ died [n]for our sins [o]according to the scriptures; 4 and that he was buried; and that he hath been [p]raised on the third day [q]according to the scriptures; 5 and that [r]he appeared to [s]Cephas; then [t]to the twelve; 6 then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some [u]are fallen asleep; 7 then he appeared to [11][v]James; then to [x]all the apostles; 8 and last of all, as to the child untimely born, [y]he appeared to me also. 9 For I am [z]the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I [a]persecuted the church of God. 10 But by [b]the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found [12]vain; but I [c]labored more abundantly than they all: yet [d]not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there [a]is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised: 14 and [b]if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching [1]vain, [2]your faith also is [1]vain. 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he [c]raised up [3]Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: 17 and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; [d]ye are yet in your sins. 18 Then they also that [e]are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 [4]If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are [f]of all men most pitiable.

20 But now [g]hath Christ been raised from the dead, the [h]firstfruits of them that [e]are asleep. 21 For since [i]by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For [k]as in Adam all die, so also in [3]Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ [h]the firstfruits; then [l]they that are Christ's, at [m]his [5]coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up [n]the kingdom to [6][o]God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished [p]all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, [q]till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be [r]abolished is death. 27 For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. [7]But when he saith, [s]All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. 28 And when [t]all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that [u]God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do that are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? 30 why do we also stand [v]in jeopardy every hour? 31 I protest by [8]that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [x]I die daily. 32 If after the manner of men I [y]fought with beasts at [z]Ephesus, [9]what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, [a]let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 33 [b]Be not deceived: Evil companionships corrupt good morals. 34 [c]Awake to soberness righteously, and sin not; for some have [d]no knowledge of God: [e]I speak this to move you to shame.

35 But [f]some one will say, How are [g]the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? 36 [h]Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself [i]sowest is not quickened except it die: 37 and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; 38 but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and [k]to each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. 42 [l]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in [m]corruption; it is raised in [n]incorruption: 43 it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in [o]glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: 44 it is sown a [10][p]natural body; it is raised a [q]spiritual body. If there is a [10]natural body, there is also a spiritual body. 45 So also it is written, The first man Adam became a living soul. The [r]last Adam became a [s]life-giving spirit. 46 Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is [10]natural; then that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is [t]of the earth, [u]earthy: the second man is of heaven. 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, [v]such are they also that are heavenly. 49 And as we have [x]borne the image of the earthy, [1] we [a] shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [b] flesh and blood cannot [c] inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit [d] incorruption. 51 Behold, I tell you a [e] mystery: [2] We all shall not sleep, but we shall all be [f] changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for [g] the trumpet shall sound, and [h] the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and [i] we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on [d] incorruption, and this [k] mortal must put on immortality. 54 But when [3] this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up [4] in victory. 55 O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? 56 The sting of [l] death is sin; and [m] the power of sin is the law: 57 but [n] thanks be to God, who giveth us the [o] victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 [p] Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in [q] the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not [5] vain in the Lord.

16 Now concerning [r] the collection for [s] the saints, as [t] I gave order to the churches of [u] Galatia, so also do ye. 2 Upon [v] the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper, that [x] no collections be made when I come. 3 And when I arrive, [6][y] whomsoever ye shall approve, them will I send with letters to carry your bounty unto Jerusalem: 4 and if it be meet for me to go also, they shall go with me. 5 But I [z] will come unto you, when I shall have passed through [a] Macedonia; for I [b] pass through Macedonia; 6 but with you it may be that I shall abide, or even winter, that ye may [c] set me forward on my journey whithersoever I go. 7 For I do not wish to see you now [d] by the way; for I hope to tarry a while with you, [e] if the Lord permit. 8 But I will tarry at [f] Ephesus until [g] Pentecost; 9 for a [h] great door and effectual is opened unto me, and [i] there are many adversaries.

10 Now if [k] Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear; for he worketh [q] the work of the Lord, as I also do: 11 [l] let no man therefore despise him. But [c] set him forward on his journey [m] in peace, that he may come unto me: for I expect him with the brethren. 12 But as touching [n] Apollos the brother, I besought him much to come unto you with the brethren: and it was not at all [7] his will to come now; but he will come when he shall have opportunity.

13 [o] Watch ye, [p] stand fast in the faith, [q] quit you like men, [r] be strong. 14 Let all that ye do be done [s] in love.

15 Now I beseech you, brethren (ye know the [t] house of Stephanas, that it is the [u] firstfruits of [v] Achaia, and that they have set themselves to [x] minister unto [y] the saints), 16 that [z] ye also be in subjection unto such, and to every one that helpeth in the work and laboreth. 17 And I rejoice at the [8][a] coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for [b] that which was lacking on your part they supplied. 18 For they [c] refreshed my spirit and yours: [d] acknowledge ye therefore them that are such.

19 The churches of [e] Asia salute you. [f] Aquila and Prisca salute you much in the Lord, with [g] the church that is in their house. 20 All the brethren salute you. [h] Salute one another with a holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with [i] mine own hand. 22 If any man loveth not the Lord, let him be [k] anathema. [9][l] Marana tha. 23 [m] The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

CORINTHIANS

Salutation. "The God of all Comfort." Paul's conscious Sincerity. Not Fickle in purposing to revisit Them

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]through the will of God, and [d]Timothy [1]our brother, unto [e]the church of God which is at [f]Corinth, with all the saints that are in the whole of [g]Achaia: 2 [h]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [i]Blessed be [2]the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and [k]God of all comfort; 4 who [l]comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. 5 For [m]as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also aboundeth through Christ. 6 But whether we are afflicted, it is [n]for your comfort and salvation; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: 7 and our hope for you is stedfast; knowing that, [o]as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye of the comfort. 8 For [p]we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning our [q]affliction which befell us in [r]Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, insomuch that we despaired even of life: 9 [3]yea, we ourselves have had the [4]sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead: 10 who [s]delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver: [t]on whom we have [5]set our hope that he will also still deliver us; 11 ye also [u]helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed upon us by means of [v]many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of [x]our conscience, that in holiness and [y]sincerity of God, [z]not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 13 For we write no other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge [a]unto the end: 14 as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in [a]the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to [b]come first unto you, that ye might have a second [6][c]benefit; 16 and by you to [d]pass into [e]Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be [f]set forward on my journey [g]unto Judæa. 17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I show fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [h]according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay? 18 But as [i]God is faithful, [k]our word toward you is not yea and nay. 19 For [l]the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you [7]by us, even [7]by me and [m]Silvanus and [n]Timothy, was not yea and nay, but [o]in him is yea. 20 For [p]how many soever be the promises of God, [o]in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is [q]the Amen, unto the glory of God through us. 21 Now he that [r]establisheth us with you [1]in Christ, and [a]anointed us, is God; 22 [2]who also [b]sealed us, and [c]gave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 But [d]I call God for a witness upon my soul, that [e]to spare you I forbare to come unto [f]Corinth. 24 Not that we have [g]lordship over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for in [3]faith 2 ye [h]stand fast. 1 [4]But I determined this for myself, that I [i]would not come again to you with sorrow. 2 For if I [k]make you sorry, who then is he that maketh me glad but he that is made sorry by me? 3 And I [l]wrote this very thing, lest, [i]when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having [m]confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I [l]wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.
5 But [n]if any hath caused sorrow, he hath caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too heavily) to you all. 6 Sufficient to such a one is [o]this punishment which was inflicted by [5]the many; 7 so that contrariwise ye should [6]rather [p]forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. 8 Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end also [q]did I write, that I might know [r]the proof of you, [7]whether ye are [s]obedient in all things. 10 But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also:
for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it [t]in the [8]presence of Christ; 11 that no advantage may be gained over us by [u]Satan: for [v]we are not ignorant of his devices.
12 Now when I came to [x]Troas for the [9][y]gospel of Christ, and when a [z]door was opened unto me in the Lord, 13 I [a]had no relief for my spirit, because I found not [b]Titus my brother: but [c]taking my leave of them, I went forth into [d]Macedonia.
14 [e]But thanks be unto God, who always [f]leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the [g]savor of his [h]knowledge in every place. 15 For we are a [g]sweet savor of Christ unto God, in [i]them that [10]are saved, and in them that [11]perish; 16 [k]to the one a savor from death unto death; to the other a savor from life unto life.
And who is [l]sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as the many, [12][m]corrupting the word of God: but [n]as of sincerity, but as of God, [o]in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.
3 Are we beginning again to [p]commend ourselves? or need we, as do some, [q]epistles of commendation to you or from you? 2 [r]Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men; 3 being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, [s]ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of [t]the living God; not in [u]tables of stone, but in [v]tables that are [x]hearts of flesh.
4 And such [y]confidence have we through Christ to God-ward: 5 not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but [z]our sufficiency is from God; 6 who also made us sufficient as [a]ministers of a [b]new covenant; not of [c]the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but [d]the spirit giveth life. 7 But if the [e]ministration of death, [13][u]written, and engraven on stones, came [14]with glory, [f]so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which glory [15]was passing away: 8 how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be with glory?
9 [16]For if [g]the ministration of condemnation hath glory, much [16] Many ancient authorities read For if the ministration of condemnation is glory.

rather doth the [a]ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
10 For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth.
11 For if that which [1]passeth away was [2]with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.
12 [b]Having therefore such a hope, [c]we use great boldness of speech, 13 and are not as Moses, [d]who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly [3]on the end of that which [4]was passing away: 14 but their [5]minds were [e]hardened: for until this very day at the [f]reading of [g]the old covenant the same veil [6]remaineth, it not being revealed to them that it is done away in Christ. 15 But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. 16 [h]But whensoever [7]it shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where [i]the Spirit of the Lord is, [k]there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face [8][l]beholding as in a mirror the [m]glory of the Lord, are [n]transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from [o]the Lord the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this [p]ministry, even as we [q]obtained mercy, we [r]faint not:
2 but we have renounced the hidden [s]things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor [t]handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth [u]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 And even if our [9][v]gospel is [x]veiled, it is veiled in [y]them that [10]perish: 4 in whom [z]the god of [a]this [11]world hath [b]blinded the [5]minds of the unbelieving, [12]that the [13][c]light of the [9]gospel of the [d]glory of Christ, who is the [e]image of God, should not dawn upon them. 5 For we preach [f]not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your [14]servants [15]for Jesus' sake.
6 Seeing it is God, that said, Light shall shine out of darkness, who [g]shined in our hearts, to give the [13][c]light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in [h]earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of [i]the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; 8 we are [k]pressed on every side, yet not [l]straitened; [m]perplexed, yet not unto despair; 9 [n]pursued, yet not [16][o]forsaken; [p]smitten down, yet not destroyed; 10 [q]always bearing about in the body the [17]dying of Jesus, that [r]the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh.
12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same [s]spirit of faith, according to that which is written, I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that he that [t]raised up [18]the Lord Jesus [u]shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall [v]present us with you. 15 For all things are [x]for your sakes, that the grace, being [y]multiplied through [19]the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.
16 Wherefore we [z]faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our [a]inward man is [b]renewed day by day. 17 For our [c]light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we [d]look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

is from heaven: 3 if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For indeed we that are in this [1]tabernacle do [a]groan, [2]being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be [b]clothed upon, that what is [c]mortal may be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who [d]gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, [e]whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord 7 (for [f]we walk by faith, not by [3]sight); 8 we are of good courage, I say, and are [g]willing rather to be absent from the body, and [h]to be at home with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we [4]make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be [i]well-pleasing unto him.
10 For we must all be made manifest before [k]the judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done [5]in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the [l]fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are [m]made manifest also in your consciences.
12 We are not [n]again commending ourselves unto you, but speak as giving you [o]occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we [6]are [p]beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto you. 14 For the love of Christ [q]constraineth us; because we thus judge, that [r]one died for all, therefore all died; 15 and he died for all, that they that live should no longer [s]live unto themselves, but unto him who for their sakes died and rose again. 16 Wherefore we henceforth know no man [t]after the flesh: even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. 17 Wherefore if any man is [u]in Christ, [7]he is [v]a new creature: [x]the old things are passed away; behold, they are become new. 18 But [y]all things are of God, [z]who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and gave unto us the [a]ministry of reconciliation; 19 to wit, that [b]God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, [c]not reckoning unto them their trespasses, and having [8]committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 We are [d]ambassadors therefore on behalf of Christ, [e]as though God were entreating by us: we beseech you on behalf of Christ, be ye [z]reconciled to God.
21 Him who [f]knew no sin he made to be [g]sin on our behalf; that we might become the [h]righteousness of God in him.

6 1 And [i]working together with him [k]we entreat also that ye receive not [l]the grace of God in vain 2 (for he saith,

At an acceptable time I hearkened unto thee, And in a day of salvation did I succor thee:

behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation): 3 [m]giving no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our ministration be not blamed; 4 but in everything [n]commending joicing; as [a]poor, yet making many rich; as [b]having nothing, and yet possessing [c]all things.

11 [d]Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, our [e]heart is enlarged. 12 Ye are not straitened in us, but [f]ye are straitened in your own affections. 13 Now for a [g]recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my [h]children), be ye also enlarged.

14 [i]Be not unequally yoked with [k]unbelievers: for what [l]fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And what [m]concord hath Christ with [1]Belial? or what portion hath a [n]believer with an [k]unbeliever? 16 And [o]what agreement hath a [2]temple of God with idols? for we are [p]a [2]temple of [q]the living God; even as God said, I will [r]dwell in them, and [s]walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore

[t]Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord,
And touch no unclean thing;
And I will receive you, 18 And will be to you a Father, And ye shall be to me [u]sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

7 1 Having therefore these promises, [v]beloved, [x]let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 [3][y]Open your hearts to us: we wronged no man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man. 3 I say it not to condemn you: for I have said [z]before, that ye are [a]in our hearts to die together and live together. 4 Great is my [b]boldness of speech toward you, great is my [c]glorying on your behalf: I am filled with [d]comfort, I overflow with [e]joy in all our affliction.

5 For even when we were come into [f]Macedonia our flesh had no relief, but we were [g]afflicted on every side; [h]without were fightings, within were fears. 6 Nevertheless [i]he that comforteth the lowly, even God, [k]comforted us by the [4]coming of [l]Titus; 7 and not by his [4]coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. 8 For though I [m]made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it: though I did regret it ([5]for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season), 9 I now rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow worketh [n]repentance [6]unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 11 For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea what clearing of yourselves, yea what indignation, yea what fear, yea what [o]longing, yea what zeal, yea what [p]avenging! In everything ye [q]approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although [r]I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that [s]did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore we have been [k]comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of [l]Titus, because his [t]spirit hath been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have [c]gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before [l]Titus was found to be truth. 15 And his affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembereth the [u]obedience of you all, how with [v]fear and trembling ye received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything [x]I am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been [y]given in the churches of [z]Macedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto [a] the riches of their [1] liberality. 3 For [b] according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 beseeching us with much entreaty in regard of [c] this grace and the fellowship in the [d] ministering to the saints: 5 and this, not as we had hoped, but first they [e] gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through [f] the will of God. 6 Insomuch that we [g] exhorted [h] Titus, that as he had [i] made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you [c] this grace also. 7 But as ye [k] abound [l] in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in [2] your love to us, see that ye [k] abound in this grace also. 8 I speak [m] not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For ye know [n] the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, [o] though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. 10 And herein I [p] give my judgment: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning [q] a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. 11 But now complete the doing also; that as there was the [r] readiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable [s] according as a man hath, not according as he hath not. 13 For I say not this that others may be eased and ye distressed; 14 but by equality: your abundance being a supply at this present time for [t] their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for [t] your want; that there may be equality: 15 as it is written, He that gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack.

16 But [u] thanks be to God, who [v] putteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of [h] Titus. 17 For he accepted indeed our [g] exhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. 18 And we have sent together with him [x] the brother whose praise in the [3][y] gospel is spread through [z] all the churches; 19 [a] and not only so, but who was also [b] appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of [c] this grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to show our [r] readiness: 20 avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: 21 for we [d] take thought for things honorable, not only in [e] the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. 23 Whether any inquire about [f] Titus, he is my [g] partner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our [h] brethren, they are the [4][i] messengers of the churches, they are [k] the glory of Christ. 24 [5] Show ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our [l] glorying on your behalf.

9 For as touching the [m] ministering to the saints, [n] it is superfluous for me to write to you: 2 for I know your readiness, of which I [l] glory on your behalf to them of [o] Macedonia, that [p] Achaia hath been prepared for [q] a year past; and [6] your zeal hath stirred up [7] very many of them. 3 But I have sent the brethren, that our [l] glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, [r] even as I said, ye may be prepared: 4 lest by any means, if there come with me any of [o] Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. 5 I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the [s] brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your aforepromised [8][t] bounty, that the same might be ready as a [u] matter of [t] bounty, and [v] not of [9] extortion.

6 But this I say, [x] He that He hath scattered abroad, he hath given to the poor;

His righteousness abideth for ever.

10 And he that supplieth [d]seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and [e]increase the fruits of your righteousness: 11 ye being [f]enriched in everything unto all [3]liberality, which worketh through us [g]thanksgiving to God. 12 For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of [h]the wants of the saints, but aboundeth also [g]through many thanksgivings unto God; 13 seeing that through the proving of you by this [i]ministration they [k]glorify God for the obedience of your [l]confession unto the [4][m]gospel of Christ, and for the [3]liberality of your contribution unto them and unto all; 14 while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. 15 [n]Thanks be to God for his unspeakable [o]gift.

10 Now [p]I Paul myself [q]entreat you by the [r]meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who [s]in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you: 2 yea, I beseech you, that [t]I may not when present show courage with the confidence wherewith I count to be bold against [u]some, who count of us as if we walked [v]according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war [v]according to the flesh 4 (for the [x]weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty [y]before God [z]to the casting down of strongholds); 5 casting down [5]imaginations, and every [a]high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the [b]obedience of Christ; 6 and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when [c]your obedience shall be made full. 7 [6][d]Ye look at the things that are before your face. [e]If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, [f]so also are we. 8 For though [g]I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning our [h]authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame: 9 that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters. 10 For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is [i]weak, and [k]his speech of no account. 11 Let such a one reckon this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. 12 For we are not bold [7]to number or compare ourselves with certain of them that [l]commend themselves: but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. 13 But we will not glory [m]beyond our measure, but [n]according to the measure of the [8]province which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even unto you. 14 For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for [o]we [9]came even as far as unto you in the [4][p]gospel of Christ: 15 not glorying [m]beyond our measure, that is, in [q]other men's labors; but having hope that, as [r]your faith groweth, we shall be [s]magnified in you according to our [8]province unto further abundance, 16 so as to [10][t]preach the gospel even unto [u]the parts beyond you, and not to glory in [q]another's [8]province in regard of things ready to our hand. 17 But

Jer. ix. 24.

[a] he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 18 For not he that [b] commendeth himself is approved, but [c] whom the Lord commendeth.

11 Would that ye could [d] bear with me in a little [e] foolishness: [1] but indeed ye do bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with [2] a godly jealousy: for I [f] espoused you to one husband, that I might [g] present you as a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the [h] serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your [3] minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is toward Christ. 4 For if he that cometh preacheth [i] another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a [k] different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a [l] different [4] gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do [m] well to [n] bear with him. 5 For I reckon that I am [o] not a whit behind [5] the very chiefest apostles. 6 But though I be [p] rude in speech, yet am I not in [q] knowledge; [6] nay, in every way have we [r] made this manifest unto you in all things. 7 Or [s] did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I [7] preached to you the [t] gospel of God [u] for nought? 8 I robbed other churches, [v] taking wages of them that I might minister unto you; 9 and when I was present with you and was in want, I was [x] not a burden on any man; for [y] the brethren, when they came from [z] Macedonia, supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself from [x] being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. 10 [a] As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of [b] this glorying in the regions of [c] Achaia. 11 Wherefore? [d] because I love you not? [e] God knoweth. 12 But what I do, that I will do, [f] that I may cut off [8] occasion from them that desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. 13 For such men are [g] false apostles, [h] deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ. 14 And no marvel; for even [i] Satan fashioneth himself into an [k] angel of light. 15 It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; [l] whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say [m] again, Let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory a little. 17 That which I speak, I speak [n] not after the Lord, but as [o] in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying. 18 Seeing that [p] many glory [q] after the flesh, I will glory also. 19 For ye bear with the foolish gladly, [r] being wise yourselves. 20 For ye bear with a man, if he [s] bringeth you into bondage, if he [t] devoureth you, if he [u] taketh you captive, if he [v] exalteth himself, if he [x] smiteth you on the face. 21 I speak by way of [y] disparagement, as though we had been [z] weak. Yet whereinsoever any is [a] bold (I [b] speak in foolishness), I am bold also. 22 Are they [c] Hebrews? [d] so am I. Are they [e] Israelites? [e] so am I. Are they the [f] seed of Abraham? [g] so am I. 23 Are they [h] ministers of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I more; in [i] labors more abundantly, in [k] prisons more abundantly, in [l] stripes above measure, in [m] deaths oft. 24 Of the Jews five times received I [n] forty stripes save one. 25 Thrice was I [o] beaten with rods, once was I [p] stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep; 26 in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my [9] [q] countrymen, in perils from the [r] Gentiles, in perils in the [s] city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among [t] false brethren; 27 in [u] labor and travail, in watchings often, in [v] hunger and thirst, in [x] fastings often, in cold and [y] nakedness. 28 [1] Besides those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for [a] all the churches. 29 Who is [b] weak, and I am not weak? who is caused to stumble, and I burn not? 30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my [c] weakness. 31 [2] The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, [d] he who is blessed [3] for evermore [e] knoweth that I lie not. 32 In [f] Damascus the [4] [g] governor under Aretas the king [h] guarded the city of the Damascenes in order to take me: 33 and [i] through a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 [5] I must needs [k] glory, though it is not expedient; but I will come to visions and [l] revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man [m] in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; [n] God knoweth), such a one [o] caught up even to the [p] third heaven. 3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I know not; [n] God knoweth), 4 how that he was [o] caught up into [q] Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 5 [r] On behalf of such a one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my [s] weaknesses. 6 For if I should desire to glory, I shall not be [t] foolish; [u] for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me to be, or heareth from me. 7 And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the [6] [v] revelations, that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a [7] [x] thorn in the flesh, a [y] messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted overmuch. 8 Concerning this thing I besought the Lord [z] thrice, that it might depart from me. 9 And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my [a] power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather [s] glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may [8] rest upon me. 10 Wherefore [b] I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in [c] necessities, in [d] persecutions, in [c] distresses, [e] for Christ's sake: for [f] when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become [t] foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for [g] in nothing was I behind [9] the very chiefest apostles, though [h] I am nothing. 12 Truly the [i] signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all [10] patience, by signs and wonders and [11] mighty works. 13 For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that [k] I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me [l] this wrong.

14 Behold, [m] this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I [k] will not be a burden to you: for I [n] seek not yours, but [o] you: for the [p] children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the [q] parents for the children. 15 And I will [r] most gladly spend and be [12] spent for your souls. If [s] I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? 16 But be it so, I [t] did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I [u] caught you with guile. 17 [v] Did I take advantage of you by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? 18 I [x] exhorted [y] Titus, and I sent [z] the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? walked we not [13] in the same [a] spirit? walked we not [b] in the same steps?

19 [14] Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. [c] In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But all things, [d] beloved, are [e] for your edifying. 20 For I fear, lest by any means, [f] when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be [g] strife, jealousy, [h] wraths, [i] factions, [k] backbitings, [l] whisperings, [m] swellings, [15] [n] tumults; 21 lest again when I come

Offenders to be rigorously dealt with. Admonitions. Salutation. Benediction my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have [a] sinned heretofore, and repented not of the [b] uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

13 [c] This is the third time I am coming to you. [d] At the mouth of two witnesses or three shall every word be established. 2 I have said [1] beforehand, and I do say [1] beforehand, [2] as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to them that have [a] sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, [e] if I come again, I will not [f] spare; 3 seeing that ye [g] seek a proof of [h] Christ that speaketh in me; who to you-ward is not weak, but is [i] powerful in you: 4 for he was [k] crucified through weakness, yet he liveth [l] through the power of God. For we also are [m] weak [3] in him, but [n] we shall live with him through the power of God toward you. 5 [o] Try your own selves, whether ye are in the faith; [p] prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye be [q] reprobate. 6 But I hope that ye shall know that we are not reprobate. 7 Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honorable, [4] though we be as reprobate. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we rejoice, when we are [r] weak, and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even your [s] perfecting. 10 For this cause I write these things while absent, [t] that I may not when present deal [u] sharply, according to the [v] authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down.

11 [x] Finally, brethren, [5] farewell. [s] Be perfected; be comforted; [y] be of the same mind; [z] live in peace: and [a] the God of love and peace shall be with you. 12 [b] Salute one another with a holy kiss.

13 [c] All the saints salute you.

14 [d] The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the [e] love of God, and the [f] communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

GALATIANS

Salutation. The Galatians' Apostasy surprising. The Gospel I preach came from God; was not learned at Jerusalem

1. 1

1 Paul, [a]an apostle ([b]not from men, neither through [1]man, but [c]through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who [d]raised him from the dead), 2 and all [e]the brethren that are with me, unto [f]the churches of Galatia: 3 [g]Grace to you and peace [2]from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who [h]gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of [i]this present evil [3]world, according to the will of [4][k]our God and Father: 5 [l]to whom be the glory [5]for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are [m]so quickly removing from [n]him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a [o]different [6]gospel; 7 [7]which is not another gospel: only there are some that [p]trouble you, and would pervert the [6]gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or [q]an angel from heaven, should [8]preach [9]unto you any gospel [10]other than that which we [8]preached unto you, let him be [r]anathema. 9 As we [s]have said before, so say I now again, [t]If any man [8]preacheth unto you any gospel [10]other than that which ye received, let him be [r]anathema. 10 For am I now [u]seeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a [11][v]servant of Christ.

11 For [x]I make known to you, brethren, as touching the [6]gospel which was [8]preached by me, that it is [y]not after man. 12 For [z]neither did I receive it from [1]man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through [a]revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye have heard of [b]my manner of life in time past in [c]the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I [d]persecuted [e]the church of God, and [f]made havoc of it: 14 and I [g]advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age [12]among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the [h]traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it was [i]the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and [k]called me through his grace, 16 to reveal his Son in me, that I might [8][l]preach him among the Gentiles; [m]straightway I conferred not with [n]flesh and blood: 17 [o]neither went I up to Jerusalem to them that were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto [p]Damascus.

18 Then [q]after three years I went up [r]to Jerusalem to [13]visit [s]Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days. 19 But other of the apostles saw I none, [14]save [15][t]James the Lord's brother. 20 Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, [u]before God, I lie not. 21 Then [v]I came into the regions of [x]Syria and [y]Cilicia. 22 And I was still unknown by face unto [z]the churches of Judæa which were [a]in Christ: 23 but they only heard say, He that once persecuted us now [8]preacheth [b]the faith of which he once [f]made havoc; 24 and they [c]glorified God in me.

2 Then after the space of fourteen years I [d]went up again to Jerusalem with [e]Barnabas, taking [f]Titus also with me.

yet was endorsed by "the Three," and maintained against Peter. The folly of relapsing to the Law;

2 And I went up [a]by revelation; and I laid before them the [1][b]gospel which I preach among the Gentiles but privately before them who [2]were of repute, lest by any means I should be [c]running, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even [d]Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was [e]compelled to be circumcised: 4 [3]and that because of the [f]false brethren privily brought in, who [g]came in privily to spy out our [h]liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might [i]bring us into bondage: 5 to whom we gave place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that [k]the truth of the [1]gospel might continue with you. 6 But from those who [2]were [l]reputed to be somewhat ([4]whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [m]God accepteth not man's person)—they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: 7 but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been [n]intrusted with the [1][o]gospel of the uncircumcision, even as [p]Peter with the [1]gospel of the circumcision 8 (for he that wrought for Peter unto the [q]apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); 9 and when they perceived [r]the grace that was given unto me, [5][s]James and [p][t]Cephas and John, they who [2]were [l]reputed to be [u]pillars, gave to me and [v]Barnabas the [x]right hands of fellowship, that we should [y]go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; 10 only they would that we should remember the poor; [z]which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when [p]Cephas came to [a]Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before that certain came from [s]James, he [b]ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, [c]fearing them that were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even [v]Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they [d]walked not uprightly according to [k]the truth of the [1]gospel, I said unto [p]Cephas before them all, If thou, being a Jew, [e]livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? 15 We being [f]Jews by nature, and not [g]sinners of the Gentiles, 16 yet knowing that [h]a man is not [6]justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by [i]faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because [k]by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found [l]sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? [m]God forbid. 18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I [n]prove myself a transgressor. 19 For I through the law [o]died unto the law, that I might live unto God. 20 I have been [p]crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but [q]Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in [r]the Son of God, who [s]loved me, and [t]gave himself up for me. 21 I do not make void the grace of God: for [u]if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

3 O foolish [v]Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ [x]was openly set forth crucified? 2 This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the [7][y]hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, [8]are ye now perfected in the flesh? 4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? [z]if it be indeed in vain. 5 He therefore that [a]supplieth to you the Spirit, and [b]worketh [9]miracles [10]among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the [7][y]hearing of faith? 6 Even as [c]Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 7 [1] Know therefore that [a] they that are of faith, the same are [b] sons of Abraham. 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God [2] would justify the [3] Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the nations be blessed. 9 So then [c] they that are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. 11 Now that [d] no man is justified [4] by the law before God, is evident: for, [e] The righteous shall live by faith; 12 and the law is not of faith; but, [f] He that doeth them shall live in them. 13 Christ [g] redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on [h] a tree: 14 that [i] upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we [k] might receive [l] the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 [m] Brethren, [n] I speak after the manner of men: [o] Though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. 16 Now [p] to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, [q] And to thy seed, which is Christ. 17 Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came [r] four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. 18 For [s] if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but [t] God hath granted it to Abraham by promise. 19 [u] What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till [v] the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was [x] ordained through angels [y] by the hand of a mediator. 20 Now [z] a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? [a] God forbid: for [b] if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. 22 But the scripture [c] shut up all [d] things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

Gen. xiii. 15; xvii. 8.

23 But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, [c] shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 So that the law is become our [e] tutor to bring us unto Christ, that [f] we might be justified by faith. 25 But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a [e] tutor. 26 For ye are all [g] sons of God, through faith, in [h] Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as were [i] baptized into Christ did [k] put on Christ. 28 [l] There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for [m] ye all are one man in [h] Christ Jesus. 29 And if [n] ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to [o] promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; 2 but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father. 3 So we also, when we were children, were held [p] in bondage under the [5] [q] rudiments of the world: 4 but when [r] the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, [s] born of a woman, born [t] under the law, 5 that he might redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of [g] sons. 6 And because ye are sons, [u] God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, [v] Abba, Father. 7 So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and [x] if a son, then an heir through God.

The Two Covenants typified of Old. Adherents of the Law Bondmen; Christ sets Free. Hold fast your Freedom come to know God, or rather to be [a] known by God, [b] how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly [1][c] rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be [d] in bondage over again? 10 Ye [e] observe days, and months, and seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, [f] brethren, [g] become as I am, for I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: 13 but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I [2] preached the gospel unto you the [3] first time: 14 and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor [4] rejected; but [h] ye received me as an angel of God, even as [i] Christ Jesus. 15 Where then is that gratulation [5] of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then am I become your enemy, [6][k] by telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and [l] not only when I am present with you. 19 [m] My little children, of whom [n] I am again in travail until [o] Christ be formed in you — 20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for [p] I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not [q] hear the law? 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the freewoman. 23 Howbeit [r] the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but [s] the son by the freewoman is born through promise. 24 Which things [t] contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from [u] mount Sinai, bearing children unto [v] bondage, which is Hagar. 25 [7] Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But [x] the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. 27 For it is written,

Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;
Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:
For more are the children of the desolate than of her that hath the husband.

28 Now [8] we, brethren, [y] as Isaac was, are [z] children of promise. 29 But as then [a] he that was born after the flesh [b] persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, [c] so also it is now. 30 Howbeit what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for [d] the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

[e] For freedom did Christ set us free: [f] stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a [g] yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, [h] I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive [i] circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yea, I [k] testify again to every man that receiveth [i] circumcision, that he is a debtor to [l] do the whole law. 4 Ye are [9] severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are [m] fallen away from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit by faith [n] wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in [o] Christ Jesus [p] neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but [q] faith [10] working through love. 7 Ye were [r] running well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion came not of [s] him that calleth you. 9 [t] A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 [u] I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye [v] will be none otherwise minded: but he that [x] troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still [y] persecuted? then hath [z] the stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that [a] they that unsettle you would even [11][b] go beyond circumcision.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for [a]freedom; [b]only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love [c]be servants one to another. 14 For [d]the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: [e]Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 15 But if ye [f]bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

Lev. xix. 18.

16 But I say, [g]Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil [h]the lust of the flesh. 17 For [i]the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; [k]that ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are [l]led by the Spirit, [m]ye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are [n]these: [o]fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 idolatry, [p]sorcery, enmities, [q]strife, jealousies, wraths, [r]factions, divisions, [1][s]parties, 21 envyings, [t]drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I [2]forewarn you, even as I did [2]forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not [u]inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But [v]the fruit of the Spirit is [x]love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, [y]faithfulness, 23 meekness, [z]self-control; against such [a]there is no law. 24 And they that are of [b]Christ Jesus have [c]crucified the flesh with the passions and [d]the lusts thereof.

6 But [r]let him that is taught in [s]the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. 7 [t]Be not deceived; [u]God is not mocked: for [v]whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. 8 [x]For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap [y]corruption; but [z]he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 And [a]let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we [b]faint not. 10 So then, [7][c]as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the [d]household of [e]the faith.

7 Or, whil

11 See with how large letters I [8]write unto you [f]with mine own hand. 12 As many as desire [g]to make a fair show in the flesh, they [h]compel you to be circumcised; only that they [i]may not be persecuted [9]for the cross of Christ. 13 For not even they who [10]receive circumcision do themselves [k]keep the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may [l]glory in your flesh. 14 But [m]far be it from me to glory, [n]save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, [o]through [11]which the world hath been crucified unto me, and [p]I unto the world. 15 For [q]neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a [r]new [12]creature. 16 And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the [s]Israel of God.

8 Or, have written

9 Or, by reason of 10 Some ancient authorities read have been circumcised.

11 Or, whom

12 Or, creation

17 Henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear [t]branded on my body the [u]marks of Jesus.

18 [v]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be [x]with your spirit, [y]brethren. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS

Salutation. The Blessings of Redemption, which the Apostle prays that his Readers may have more fully 1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]through the will of God, to the [d]saints that are [1]at [e]Ephesus, and [f]the faithful in [b]Christ Jesus: 2 [g]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [h]Blessed be [2]the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with every spiritual blessing in [i]the heavenly places in Christ: 4 even as [k]he chose us in him before [l]the foundation of the world, that we should be [m]holy and without blemish before [3]him [n]in love: 5 having [o]foreordained us unto [p]adoption as sons through Jesus Christ unto himself, [q]according to the good pleasure of his will, 6 [r]to the praise of the glory of his grace, [4]which he freely bestowed on us in [s]the Beloved: 7 [t]in whom we have our [u]redemption [v]through his blood, the [x]forgiveness of our trespasses, according to [y]the riches of his grace, 8 [5]which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 [z]making known unto us the mystery of his will, [q]according to his good pleasure which he [a]purposed in him 10 unto a dispensation of [b]the fulness of the [6]times, [c]to sum up all things in Christ, the things [7]in the heavens, and the things upon the earth; in him, I say, 11 in whom also we [d]were made a heritage, having been [e]foreordained [f]according to the purpose of him who worketh all things [g]after the counsel of his will; 12 to the end that we should be [h]unto the praise of his glory, we who [8]had before hoped in Christ: 13 in whom ye also, having heard [i]the word of the truth, the [9]gospel of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, ye were [k]sealed with [l]the Holy Spirit of promise, 14 which is an [m]earnest of [n]our inheritance, unto the [o]redemption of [p]God's own possession, [q]unto the praise of his glory.

15 For this cause I also, [r]having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is [10]among you, and [11]the love which ye show toward [s]all the saints, 16 [t]cease not to give thanks for you, [u]making mention of you in my prayers; 17 that the [v]God of our Lord Jesus Christ, [x]the Father of glory, may give unto you a spirit of [y]wisdom and [z]revelation in the knowledge of him; 18 [a]having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that ye may know what is the [b]hope of his [c]calling, what [d]the riches of the glory of [e]his inheritance in [f]the saints, 19 and what the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, [g]according to that working of the [h]strength of his might 20 which he wrought in Christ, when he [i]raised him from the dead, and made him to [k]sit at his right hand in [l]the heavenly places, 21 far above [m]all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every [n]name that is named, not only in [o]this [12]world, but also in that which is to come: 22 and he [p]put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be [a] head over all things to the church, 23 which is his [b] body, the [c] fulness of him that [d] filleth [e] all in all.

2 And you did he [f] make alive, when ye were [f] dead through your trespasses and sins, 2 wherein ye [g] once walked according to the [1] course of [h] this world, according to [i] the prince of the [2] powers of the air, of the spirit that now worketh in [k] the sons of disobedience; 3 among whom we also all [l] once lived in [m] the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the [3] mind, and were [n] by nature [o] children of wrath, [p] even as the rest:—4 but God, being [q] rich in mercy, for [r] his great love wherewith he loved us, 5 even when we were [s] dead through our trespasses, [s] made us alive together [4] with Christ ([t] by grace have ye been saved), 6 and [u] raised us up with him, and [v] made us to sit with him in [x] the heavenly places, in [y] Christ Jesus: 7 that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding [z] riches of his grace in [a] kindness toward us in Christ Jesus: 8 for [t] by grace have ye been saved [b] through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is [c] the gift of God; 9 [d] not of works, that [e] no man should glory. 10 For we are his workmanship, [f] created in [y] Christ Jesus for [g] good works, which God [h] afore prepared that we should [i] walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that [g] once [k] ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called [l] Uncircumcision by that which is called [l] Circumcision, in the flesh, made by hands; 12 that ye were at that time separate from Christ, [m] alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from [n] the covenants of the promise, having [o] no hope and [p] without God in the world. 13 But now in [y] Christ Jesus ye that [g] once were [q] far off are [q] made nigh in [r] the blood of Christ. 14 For he is [s] our peace, [t] who made both one, and brake down the middle wall of partition, 15 having [u] abolished in his flesh the enmity, even [v] the law of commandments contained in ordinances; that he might [f] create in himself of the two [x] one new man, so making [s] peace; 16 and might [y] reconcile them both in [z] one body unto God through the cross, having [a] slain the enmity thereby: 17 and [b] he came and [5] preached [c] peace to you that were [q] far off, and peace to them that were [q] nigh: 18 for through him we both have [d] our access in [e] one Spirit unto [f] the Father. 19 So then ye are no more [g] strangers and sojourners, but ye are [h] fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the [i] household of God, 20 being [k] built upon [l] the foundation of [m] the apostles and prophets, [n] Christ Jesus himself being the [o] chief corner stone; 21 [p] in whom [6] each several building, fitly framed together, groweth into [q] a holy [7] temple in the Lord; 22 in whom ye also are [r] builded together [8] for a [s] habitation of God in the Spirit.

3 For this cause I Paul, [t] the prisoner of [u] Christ Jesus [v] in behalf of you [x] Gentiles,—2 if so be that ye have heard of the [9] [y] dispensation of that grace of God which was given me to you-ward; 3 [z] how that [a] by revelation was [b] made known unto me [c] the mystery, [d] as I wrote before in few words, 4 whereby, when ye read, ye can perceive [e] my understanding in the [c] mystery of Christ; 5 which in other generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy [m] apostles and prophets in the Spirit; 6 to wit, that the Gentiles are [f] fellow-heirs, and [g] fellow-members of the body, and [h] fellow-partakers of the promise in [u] Christ Jesus through the [1] gospel, 7 [a] whereof I was made a [b] minister, according to the gift of [c] that grace of God which was given me [d] according to the working of his power. 8 Unto me, who am [e] less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to [2][f] preach unto the Gentiles the unsearchable [g] riches of Christ; 9 and to [3] make all men see what is the dispensation of the [h] mystery which for ages hath been [i] hid in God [k] who created all things; 10 to the intent that now unto the [l] principalities and the powers in [m] the heavenly places might be [n] made known through the church the manifold [o] wisdom of God, 11 [p] according to the [4] eternal purpose which he purposed in [q] Christ Jesus our Lord: 12 in whom we have [r] boldness and [s] access in [t] confidence through [5] our faith in him. 13 Wherefore I ask that [6] ye may not [u] faint at my tribulations [v] for you, which [7] are your glory.

14 For this cause I [x] bow my knees unto the Father, 15 from whom every [8] family in heaven and on earth is named, 16 that he would grant you, according to [y] the riches of his glory, that ye may be [z] strengthened with power through his Spirit in [a] the inward man; 17 that [b] Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being [c] rooted and [d] grounded in love, 18 may be strong to apprehend with [e] all the saints what is [f] the breadth and length and height and depth, 19 and to know [g] the love of Christ which [h] passeth knowledge, that ye may be [i] filled unto all the [k] fulness of God.

20 [l] Now unto him that is [m] able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, [n] according to the power that worketh in us, 21 [o] unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto [9] all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

I therefore, [p] the prisoner in the Lord, [q] beseech you to [r] walk worthily of the [s] calling wherewith ye were [t] called, 2 with all [u] lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another [v] in love; 3 giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the [x] bond of peace. 4 There is [y] one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one [z] hope of your calling; 5 [a] one Lord, one faith, one baptism, 6 one God and Father of all, [b] who is over all, and through all, and in all. 7 But [c] unto each one of us was [d] the grace given [e] according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 8 Wherefore he saith,

When he ascended on high, he [f] led captivity captive,
And gave gifts unto men.

Ps. lxviii. 18.

9 (Now this, He [g] ascended, what is it but that he also descended [10] into [h] the lower parts of the earth? 10 He that descended is the same also that ascended [i] far above all the heavens, that he might [k] fill all things.) 11 And he [l] gave [m] some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, [n] evangelists; and some, pastors and [o] teachers; 12 [p] for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of [q] the body of Christ: 13 till we all attain unto [r] the unity of the faith, and of the [s] knowledge of the Son of God, unto a [t] fullgrown man, unto the measure of the stature of the [u] fulness of Christ: 14 that we may be [v] no longer children, [x] tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in [y] craftiness, after the [z] wiles of error; 15 but [11] speaking truth [a] in love, may [b] grow up in all things into him, who is the [c] head, even Christ; 16 from whom [d] all the body fitly framed and knit together [12] through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself [a] in love.

17 [a]This I say therefore, and [b]testify in the Lord, [c]that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the [d]vanity of their mind, 18 being [e]darkened in their understanding, alienated from [f]the life of God, because of the [g]ignorance that is in them, because of the [h]hardening of their heart; 19 who [i]being past feeling [k]gave themselves up to [l]lasciviousness, [1]to work all uncleanness with [2]greediness. 20 But ye did not so [m]learn Christ; 21 if so be that ye [n]heard him, and were [o]taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: 22 that ye [p]put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the [q]old man, that waxeth corrupt after the [r]lusts of deceit; 23 and that ye be [s]renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and [t]put on the [u]new man, [3]that [v]after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

25 Wherefore, [p]putting away falsehood, [x]speak ye truth each one with his neighbor: for we are [y]members one of another. 26 [z]Be ye angry, and sin not: let not [a]the sun go down upon your [4]wrath: 27 neither [b]give place to the devil. 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather [c]let him labor, [d]working with his hands the thing that is good, [e]that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need. 29 Let no [f]corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for [5][g]edifying as the need may be, that it may give grace to them that hear. 30 And [h]grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were [i]sealed unto the day of redemption. 31 [k]Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and railing, be [l]put away from you, with all [m]malice: 32 and [n]be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, [o]even as God also in Christ forgave [6]you.

5 [p]Be ye therefore imitators of God, as beloved children; 2 and [q]walk in love, even as Christ also [r]loved you, and [s]gave himself up for [7]us, an [t]offering and a sacrifice to God for an [u]odor of a sweet smell. 3 But [v]fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; 4 nor [f]filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which [x]are not befitting: but rather [y]giving of thanks. 5 For this ye know of a surety, that [z]no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom [a]of Christ and God. 6 [b]Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh [c]the wrath of God upon [d]the sons of disobedience. 7 Be not ye therefore [e]partakers with them; 8 for [f]ye were once [g]darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as [h]children of light 9 (for [i]the fruit of the light is in all [k]goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 [l]proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord; 11 and [m]have no fellowship with the unfruitful [n]works of [g]darkness, but rather even [8][o]reprove them; 12 for the things which are done by them in secret it is a shame even to speak of. 13 But all things [p]when they are [9]reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made manifest is light. 14 Wherefore [q]he saith, [r]Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from [s]the dead, and Christ [t]shall shine upon thee.

15 Look therefore carefully how ye [u]walk, not [v]as unwise, but as wise; 16 [10][v]redeeming the time, because [x]the days are evil. 17 Wherefore be ye not foolish, but [y]understand what the will of the Lord is. 18 And [z]be not drunken with wine, wherein is [a]riot, but be [b]filled [11]with the Spirit; 19 [c]speaking [12]one to another in [a] psalms and [b] hymns and spiritual [c] songs, [d] singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; 20 [e] giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to [1][f]God, even the Father; 21 [g] subjecting yourselves one to another in the [h] fear of Christ.

22 [i] Wives, [k] be in subjection unto your own husbands, [l] as unto the Lord. 23 For [m] the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the [n] head of the church, being himself [o] the saviour of the body. 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, [2] so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. 25 [p] Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and [q] gave himself up for it; 26 [r] that he might sanctify it, having [s] cleansed it by the [3][t] washing of water with [u] the word, 27 that he might [v] present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be [x] holy and without blemish. 28 Even so ought husbands also to [p] love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; 30 because we are [y] members of his [z] body. 31 [a] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh. 32 This mystery is great: but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally [p] love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she [b] fear her husband.

6 [c] Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou [4] mayest live long on the [5] earth. 4 And, ye [d] fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [e] nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord.

5 [6][f] Servants, be obedient unto them that according to the flesh are your [7] masters, [g] with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, [h] as unto Christ; 6 [i] not in the way of eyeservice, as [k] menpleasers; but as [6][l] servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the [8] heart; 7 with good will doing service, [m] as unto the Lord, and not unto men: 8 [n] knowing that [o] whatsoever good thing each one doeth, the same shall he receive again from the Lord, [p] whether he be bond or free. 9 And, ye [7] masters, do the same things unto them, and [q] forbear threatening: knowing that [r] he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is [s] no respect of persons with him.

10 [9] Finally, [10][t] be strong in the Lord, and in [u] the strength of his might. 11 [v] Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the [x] wiles of the devil. 12 For our [y] wrestling is not against [11][z] flesh and blood, but [a] against the principalities, against the powers, against the [b] world-rulers of this [c] darkness, against the [d] spiritual hosts of wickedness in [e] the heavenly places. 13 Wherefore take up [f] the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to [g] withstand in [h] the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, [i] having girded your loins with truth, and having [v] put on the [k] breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having [l] shod your feet with the preparation of the [12] gospel of peace; 16 withal taking up the [m] shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the [n] fiery darts of [o] the evil one. 17 And take the [p] helmet of salvation, and the [q] sword of the Spirit, which is [r] the word of God: 18 with all [s] prayer and supplication [t] praying at all seasons [u] in the Spirit, and [v] watching thereunto in all [x] perseverance

PHILIPPIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving and Supplication on the Readers' behalf. "To live is Christ, to die is Gain"

1 [a] Paul and [b] Timothy, [1] [c] servants of [d] Christ Jesus, to [e] all the [f] saints in Christ Jesus that are at [g] Philippi, with the [2] [h] bishops and [i] deacons: 2 [k] Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [l] I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, 4 always [m] in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, 5 for your [n] fellowship in furtherance of the [3] [o] gospel [p] from the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until [q] the day of Jesus Christ: 7 even as [r] it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because [4] I [s] have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in [t] my bonds and in the [u] defence and confirmation of the [3] [o] gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. 8 For [v] God is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of [d] Christ Jesus. 9 And this I pray, that [x] your love may abound yet more and more in [y] knowledge and all discernment; 10 so that ye may [5] [z] approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto [q] the day of Christ; 11 being filled with the [6] [a] fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me [b] have fallen out rather unto the progress of the [3] [o] gospel; 13 so that [c] my bonds became manifest in Christ [7] throughout the whole prætorian guard, and to [d] all the rest; 14 and that most of the brethren in the Lord, [8] being confident through [c] my bonds, are more abundantly [e] bold to speak the word of God without fear. 15 [f] Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: 16 [9] the one do it of love, knowing that I am [g] set for the defence of the [3] [o] gospel; 17 [10] but the other proclaim Christ [h] of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in [c] my bonds. 18 What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this shall turn out to my salvation, [i] through your supplication and the supply of [k] the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my [l] earnest expectation and [m] hope, that in nothing shall I be [m] put to shame, but that with [e] all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be [n] magnified in my body, [o] whether by life, or by death. 21 For to me [p] to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 [11] But if to live in the flesh,—if [12] this shall bring [q] fruit from my work, then [13] what I shall choose I know not. 23 But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the [r] desire to depart and [s] be with Christ; for it is very far better: 24 yet to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. 25 And [t] having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy [14] in the faith; 26 that your [u] glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again. 27 Only [15] let your manner of life be [v] worthy of the [1][a]gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye [b]stand fast in [c]one spirit, with one soul [d]striving [2]for the faith of the [1]gospel; 28 and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them [e]an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; 29 because to you [f]it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to [g]suffer in his behalf: 30 having the same [h]conflict which [i]ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any [3]consolation of love, if any [k]fellowship of the Spirit, if any [l]tender mercies and compassions, 2 [m]make full my joy, that ye [n]be of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, [4]of one mind; 3 doing nothing through [o]faction or through [p]vainglory, but in lowliness of mind [q]each counting other better than himself; 4 [r]not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. 5 [s]Have this mind in you, which was also in [t]Christ Jesus: 6 who, [u]existing in the [v]form of God, [x]counted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but [y]emptied himself, taking the form of a [5][z]servant, [6][a]being made in the likeness of men; 8 and being found in fashion as a man, [y]he humbled himself, becoming [b]obedient even unto death, yea, the [c]death of the cross. 9 [d]Wherefore also God [e]highly exalted him, and gave unto him [f]the name which is above every name; 10 that in the name of Jesus [g]every knee should bow, of [h]things in heaven and things on earth and [7]things under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is [i]Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, [k]even as ye have always obeyed, not [8]as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own [l]salvation with [m]fear and trembling; 13 for it is [n]God who worketh in you both to will and to work, [o]for his good pleasure. 14 Do all things without [p]murmurings and questionings; 15 that ye may become [q]blameless and harmless, [r]children of God without blemish in the midst of a [s]crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye [t]are seen as [9][u]lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in [v]the day of Christ, that I did not [x]run in vain neither [y]labor in vain. 17 Yea, and if I am [10][z]offered upon [a]the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all: 18 and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to [b]send [c]Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. 20 For I have no man [d]likeminded, who will care [11]truly for your state. 21 For they all [e]seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But ye know [f]the proof of him, that, [g]as a child serveth a father, so [d]he served with me in furtherance of the [1]gospel. 23 [b]Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: 24 but [h]I trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. 25 But I counted it necessary to send to you [i]Epaphroditus, my brother and [k]fellow-worker and [l]fellow-soldier, and your [12][m]messenger and [n]minister to my need; 26 since he longed [13]after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: 27 for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 [o]Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and [a] hold such in honor: 30 because [b] for the work of [1] Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to [c] supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brethren, [d] rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the [e] dogs, beware of the [f] evil workers, beware of the concision: 3 for [g] we are the circumcision, who [h] worship by the Spirit of God, and [i] glory in [k] Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: 4 though [l] I myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man [2] thinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 [m] circumcised the eighth day, of the [n] stock of Israel, of the [o] tribe of Benjamin, a [n] Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, [p] a Pharisee; 6 as touching zeal, [q] persecuting the church; as touching the [r] righteousness which is in the law, found [s] blameless. 7 Howbeit [t] what things were [3] gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the [u] knowledge of [k] Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but [v] refuse, that I may gain Christ, 9 and be found in him, [4] not having [x] a righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, [y] the righteousness which is from God [5] by faith: 10 that I may [u] know him, and [z] the power of his resurrection, and the [a] fellowship of his sufferings, becoming [b] conformed unto his death; 11 if by any means I may [c] attain unto the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already [d] obtained, or am already [e] made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may [6][f] lay hold on that for which also I [g] was laid hold on by [k] Christ Jesus. 13 Brethren, I count not myself [7] yet to have laid hold: but one thing I do, [h] forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, 14 I [i] press on toward the goal unto the prize of the [8][k] high calling of God in [l] Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are [9][m] perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are [n] otherwise minded, this also shall [o] God reveal unto you: 16 only, whereunto we have attained, [p] by that same rule let us walk.

17 Brethren, be ye [q] imitators together of me, and mark them that so walk even as ye have us for an [r] ensample. 18 For [s] many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even [t] weeping, that they are the enemies of [u] the cross of Christ: 19 whose end is perdition, whose god is [v] the belly, and whose [x] glory is in their shame, who [y] mind earthly things. 20 For [z] our [10] citizenship is in heaven; whence also we [a] wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: 21 who shall [b] fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be [c] conformed to the [d] body of his glory, [e] according to the working whereby he is able even to [f] subject all things unto himself.

4 Wherefore, my brethren beloved and [g] longed for, my joy and crown, so [h] stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to [i] be of the same mind in the Lord. 3 Yea, I beseech thee also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they labored with me in the [11] gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my [k] fellow-workers, whose [l] names are in the book of life.

4 [m] Rejoice in the Lord always: again I will say, Rejoice. 5 Let your [12] forbearance be known unto all men. [n] The Lord is at hand. 6 In nothing be [o] anxious; but in everything by [p] prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. 7 And [q] the peace of God, which [r] passeth all understanding, shall [a] guard your hearts and your [b] thoughts in [c] Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, [d] whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [1] honorable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are [2] of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, [3] think on these things. 9 The things which ye both learned and received and heard and saw [e] in me, these things do: and [f] the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I [4] rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length [g] ye have revived your thought for me; [5] wherein ye did indeed take thought, but ye lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therein to be [h] content. 12 I know how to be abased, and I know also how to abound: in everything and in all things have I learned the secret both to be filled and to be [i] hungry, both to abound and to be [k] in want. 13 I can do all things in him that [l] strengtheneth me. 14 Howbeit ye did well that ye had [m] fellowship with my affliction. 15 And ye yourselves also know, ye Philippians, that in [n] the beginning of the [6] gospel, when I departed from [o] Macedonia, no church had [p] fellowship with me in the matter of giving and receiving but ye only; 16 for even in [q] Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my need. 17 [r] Not that I seek for the gift; but I seek for the fruit that increaseth to your account. 18 But I have all things, and abound: I am filled, having received from [s] Epaphroditus the things that came from you, an [t] odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. 19 And [u] my God shall supply every need of yours according to his [v] riches in glory in Christ Jesus. 20 Now unto [7] [x] our God and Father [y] be the glory [8] for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. [z] The brethren that are with me salute you. 22 [a] All the [b] saints salute you, especially they that are of Cæsar's household.

23 [c] The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [d] be with your spirit.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

COLOSSIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Attainments and Prayer for their Progress. The Preëminence of the Son

1 [a] Paul, [b] an apostle of Christ Jesus [c] through the will of God, and [d] Timothy [1] our brother, 2 [2] to the [e] saints and faithful brethren in Christ that are at Colossæ: [f] Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

3 [g] We give thanks to God [h] the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 [i] having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the [k] love which ye have toward [l] all the saints, 5 because of the [m] hope which is [n] laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye [o] heard before in the word of the truth of the [3] gospel, 6 which is come unto you; even as it is also [p] in all the world bearing [q] fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye [r] heard and knew the grace of God in truth; 7 even as ye learned of [s] Epaphras our [t] beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on [4] our behalf, 8 who also declared unto us your [u] love in the Spirit.
9 For this cause we also, [v] since the day we heard it, [x] do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the [y] knowledge of his will in all spiritual [z] wisdom and understanding, 10 to [a] walk worthily of the Lord [5] unto all [b] pleasing, [q] bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing [6] in the knowledge of God; 11 [7] [c] strengthened [8] with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all [9] patience and [d] longsuffering with joy; 12 giving thanks unto [e] the Father, who made [10] us meet to be partakers of [f] the inheritance of the saints in [g] light; 13 who delivered us out of the power of [g] darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of [h] the Son of his love; 14 [i] in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: 15 who is the [k] image of the [l] invisible God, the [m] firstborn of all creation; 16 for [n] in him were all things created, [n] in the heavens and upon the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether [o] thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; [p] all things have been created through him, and unto him; 17 and he is [q] before all things, and in him all things [11] consist. 18 And he is the [r] head of [s] the body, the church: who is [t] the beginning, [u] the firstborn from the dead; [12] that in all things he might have the preëminence. 19 [13] For it was [v] the good pleasure of the Father that in him should all [x] the fulness dwell; 20 and through him to [y] reconcile all things [14] unto [15] himself, having made [z] peace through [a] the blood of his cross; through him, I say, [b] whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens. 21 And you, [c] being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, 22 yet now [16] hath he [y] reconciled in the [d] body of his flesh through death, to [e] present you [f] holy and without blemish and unreproveable before him: 23 if so be that ye continue in the faith, [g] grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the [h] hope of the [3] gospel which ye heard, which was preached [a] in all creation under heaven; [b] whereof I Paul was made a [c] minister.

24 [d] Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and [e] fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for [f] his body's sake, which is the church; 25 [g] whereof I was made a minister, according to the [1][h] dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God, 26 even [i] the mystery which hath been hid [2] for ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested to his saints, 27 to whom [k] God was pleased to make known what is [l] the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is [m] Christ in you, the [n] hope of glory: 28 whom we proclaim, [o] admonishing every man and teaching every man in all [p] wisdom, that we may [q] present every man [r] perfect in Christ; 29 whereunto I [s] labor also, [t] striving [u] according to his working, which worketh in me [3] mightily.

2 For I would have you know how greatly I [t] strive for you, and for them at [v] Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2 that their [x] hearts may be comforted, they being [y] knit together in love, and unto all [l] riches of the [4][z] full assurance of understanding, that they [k] may know [i] the mystery of God, [5] even Christ, 3 in whom are all [a] the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. 4 [b] This I say, that no one may delude you with [c] persuasiveness of speech. 5 For though I am [d] absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your [e] order, and the [f] stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As therefore ye received [g] Christ Jesus the Lord, so [h] walk in him, 7 [i] rooted and [k] builded up in him, and [l] established [6] in your faith, even as ye [m] were taught, abounding [7] in thanksgiving.

8 [8][n] Take heed lest there shall be any one that maketh spoil of you through his [o] philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the [9][p] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: 9 for in him dwelleth all the [q] fulness of the Godhead bodily, 10 and in him ye are [r] made full, [s] who is the head of [t] all principality and power: 11 in whom [u] ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of [v] the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; 12 having been [x] buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also [y] raised with him through faith in the working of God, who [z] raised him from the dead. 13 And you, being [a] dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, I say, did he [b] make alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; 14 having blotted out [10][c] the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and [d] he hath taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15 [11] having [e] despoiled the [t] principalities and the powers, he [f] made a show of them openly, [g] triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore [h] judge you in [i] meat, or in [i] drink, or in respect of a [k] feast day or a [l] new moon or a [m] sabbath day: 17 which are [n] a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. 18 Let no man [o] rob you of your prize [12] by a [p] voluntary humility and [13] worshipping of the angels, [14] dwelling in the things which he hath [15] seen, vainly [q] puffed up by his [r] fleshly mind, 19 and not holding fast [s] the Head, from whom [t] all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 [u] If ye died with Christ from the [9][v] rudiments of the world, [x] why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to [a] ordinances, 21 Handle not, nor taste, nor touch 22 (all which things are [b] to perish with the using), after the [c] precepts and doctrines of men? 23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in [d] will-worship, and humility, and [e] severity to the body; but are not of any [1] value against [f] the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then ye were [g] raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, [h] seated on the right hand of God. 2 [i] Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth. 3 For ye [k] died, and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, [l] who is [2] our life, shall be manifested, [m] then shall ye also with him be manifested in glory.

5 [n] Put to death therefore your [o] members which are upon the earth: [p] fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; 6 for which things' sake cometh [q] the wrath of God [3] upon the sons of disobedience: 7 [4] [r] wherein ye also once walked, when ye lived in these things; 8 but now do ye also [s] put them all away: [t] anger, wrath, malice, railing, [u] shameful speaking out of your mouth: 9 [v] lie not one to another; seeing that ye have [x] put off the old man with his doings, 10 and have [y] put on the new man, that is being [z] renewed unto knowledge [a] after the image of him that [b] created him: 11 where [c] there cannot be Greek and Jew, [d] circumcision and uncircumcision, [e] barbarian, [f] Scythian, [g] bondman, freeman; but [h] Christ is all, and in all.

12 [y] Put on therefore, as [i] God's elect, holy and beloved, [k] a heart of compassion, kindness, [l] lowliness, meekness, [m] longsuffering; 13 [n] forbearing one another, and [o] forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any; [o] even as [5] the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: 14 and above all these things put on love, which is [p] the bond of [q] perfectness. 15 And let [r] the peace of Christ [6] rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called in [s] one body; and be ye thankful. 16 Let [t] the word of [7] Christ dwell in you [8] richly; in all wisdom [u] teaching and admonishing [9] one another [v] with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [x] singing with grace in your hearts unto God. 17 And [y] whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, [z] giving thanks to God the Father through him.

18 [a] Wives, [b] be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. 19 [c] Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. 20 [d] Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing in the Lord. 21 [e] Fathers, provoke not your children, that they be not discouraged. 22 [10] [f] Servants, obey in all things them that are your [11] masters according to the flesh; [g] not with eye-service, as menpleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord: 23 whatsoever ye do, work [12] heartily, [h] as unto the Lord, and not unto men; 24 [i] knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the recompense of [k] the inheritance: ye [l] serve the Lord Christ. 25 For [m] he that doeth wrong shall [13] receive again for the wrong that he hath done: and [n] there is no respect of persons.

4 1 [11] Masters, render unto your [10] servants that which is just and [14] equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 [o] Continue stedfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; 3 withal praying [p] for us also, that God may open unto us a [q] door for [r] the word, to speak [s] the mystery of Christ, for which I am also [t] in bonds; 4 that I may make it manifest, [t] as I ought to speak. 5 [u] Walk in wisdom toward [v] them that are

THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Reception of the Gospel. Reminder of his Labors among them

1 [a] Paul, and [b] Silvanus, and [c] Timothy, unto the [d] church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: [e] Grace to you and peace.

2 [f] We give thanks to God always for you all, [g] making mention of you in our prayers; 3 remembering without ceasing your [h] work of faith and labor of [i] love and [1][k] patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before [2][l] our God and Father; 4 knowing, [m] brethren beloved of God, [n] your election, 5 [3] how that our [4][o] gospel came not unto you in word only, but also [p] in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much [5][q] assurance; even as ye know [r] what manner of men we showed ourselves toward you for your sake. 6 And ye became [s] imitators of us, and of the Lord, [t] having received [u] the word in much affliction, with [v] joy of the Holy Spirit; 7 so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in [x] Macedonia and in [y] Achaia. 8 For from you hath [z] sounded forth [a] the word of the Lord, not only in [x] Macedonia and [y] Achaia, but [b] in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what manner of [c] entering in we had unto you; and how ye [d] turned unto God [e] from idols, to serve a [f] living and true God, 10 and to [g] wait for his Son from heaven, whom he [h] raised from the dead, even Jesus, who [i] delivereth us from [k] the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our [l] entering in unto you, that [m] it hath not been found vain: 2 but having suffered before and been [n] shamefully treated, as ye know, at [o] Philippi, we waxed bold in our God [p] to speak unto you the [4][q] gospel of God in much [r] conflict. 3 For our [s] exhortation is not of [t] error, nor of [u] uncleanness, nor in [v] guile: 4 [x] but even as we have been approved of God to be [y] intrusted with the [4] gospel, so we speak; [z] not as pleasing men, but God who [a] proveth our hearts. 5 For neither at any time were we found using words of flattery, as ye know, nor [b] a cloak of covetousness, [c] God is witness; 6 nor [d] seeking glory of men, neither from you nor from others, when we might have [6] claimed authority as [e] apostles of Christ. 7 But we were [7][f] gentle in the midst of you, [g] as when a nurse cherisheth her own children: 8 even so, being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased to [h] impart unto you, not the [4][q] gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were become very dear to us. 9 For ye remember, brethren, our [i] labor and travail: [k] working night and day, that we might not [l] burden any of you, we preached unto you the [4][q] gospel of God. 10 Ye are witnesses, and [m] God also, [n] how holily and righteously and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you that believe: 11 as ye know how we dealt with each one of you, as [o] a father with his own children, [p] exhorting you, and encouraging you, and [q] testifying, 12 to the end that ye should [a]walk worthily of God, who [1][b]calleth you into his own kingdom and [c]glory.

13 And for this cause we also [d]thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us [2][e]the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it [f]not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, [g]which also worketh in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became [h]imitators of [i]the churches of God which are [k]in Judæa in Christ Jesus: for [l]ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, [m]even as they did of the Jews; 15 [n]who both killed the Lord Jesus and [o]the prophets, and drove out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; 16 [p]forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles [q]that they may be saved; to [r]fill up their sins always: but the [s]wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for [3]a short season, [t]in presence not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly [u]to see your face with great desire: 18 because [v]we would fain have come unto you, I Paul [x]once and again; and [y]Satan [z]hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or [a]joy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his [4][b]coming? 20 For ye are [c]our glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore [d]when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at [e]Athens alone; 2 and sent [f]Timothy, our brother and [5]God's minister in the [6]gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; 3 that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that [g]hereunto we are appointed. 4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you [7]beforehand that we are to suffer affliction; [h]even as it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this cause I also, [d]when I could no longer forbear, [i]sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means [k]the tempter had tempted you, and [l]our labor should be in vain. 6 But when [m]Timothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of [n]your faith and love, and that ye have [o]good remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as we also to see you; 7 for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith: 8 for now we live, if ye [p]stand fast in the Lord. 9 For [q]what thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 [r]night and day praying exceedingly that we may [s]see your face, and may [t]perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 [u]Now may [8][v]our God and Father [x]himself, and our Lord Jesus, [y]direct our way unto you: 12 and the Lord make you to increase and [z]abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you; 13 to the end he may [a]establish your hearts [b]unblameable in holiness before [9][v]our God and Father, at [c]the [4]coming of our Lord Jesus [d]with all his saints.[10]

4 [e]Finally then, [f]brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to [g]walk and to [h]please God, even as ye do walk,—that ye [z]abound more and more. 2 For ye know what [11]charge we gave you through the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye [i]abstain from fornication; 4 that [k]each one of you know how to possess himself of his own [l]vessel in sanctification and [m]honor, 5 not in the [n]passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who [o]know not God; 6 that no man [12]transgress, and [p]wrong his brother [q]in the matter: because [r]the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we [13]forewarned you and [s]testified. 7 For [t]God called us not for [a]uncleanness, but in sanctification. 8 Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who [b]giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

9 But concerning [c]love of the brethren ye [d]have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are [e]taught of God to love one another; 10 for indeed [f]ye do it toward all the brethren that are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye [g]abound more and more; 11 and that ye [1]study [h]to be quiet, and to [i]do your own business, and to [k]work with your hands, even as we charged you; 12 that ye may [l]walk becomingly toward [m]them that are without, and may [n]have need of nothing.

13 But [o]we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that [p]fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as [q]the rest, who have [r]no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, [s]even so [t]them also that are fallen asleep [2]in Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you [u]by the word of the Lord, that [v]we that are alive, that are left unto [x]the [3]coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede [t]them that are fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord [y]himself [z]shall descend from heaven, with [a]a shout, with the voice of [b]the archangel, and with [c]the trump of God: and [d]the dead in Christ shall rise first; 17 then [v]we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be [e]caught up [f]in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever [g]be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore [4]comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the [h]times and the seasons, brethren, ye [i]have no need that aught be written unto you. 2 For yourselves know perfectly that [k]the day of the Lord so cometh [l]as a thief in the night. 3 When they are saying, [m]Peace and safety, then sudden [n]destruction cometh upon them, as [o]travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in [p]darkness, that that day should overtake you [5][l]as a thief: 5 for ye are all [q]sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor of [p]darkness; 6 so then let us not [r]sleep, as do [s]the rest, but let us watch and [t]be sober. 7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that are drunken are [u]drunken in the night. 8 But let us, since [v]we are of the day, [t]be sober, putting on the [x]breastplate of [y]faith and love; and for a [z]helmet, the [a]hope of salvation. 9 For God appointed us not unto [b]wrath, but unto [c]the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 [d]who died for us, that, whether we [6]wake or sleep, we should live together with him. 11 Wherefore [7]exhort one another, and [e]build each other up, even as also ye do.

12 But we beseech you, brethren, to [f]know them [g]that labor among you, and [h]are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; 13 and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake. [i]Be at peace among yourselves. 14 And we exhort you, brethren, admonish [k]the disorderly, encourage [l]the fainthearted, support [m]the weak, be [n]longsuffering toward all. 15 See that [o]none render unto any one evil for evil; but always [p]follow after that which is good, one toward another, and toward all. 16 [q]Rejoice always; 17 [r]pray without ceasing; 18 in everything [s]give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus to you-ward. 19 [t]Quench not the Spirit; 20 despise not [u]prophesyings; 21 [8][v]prove all things; [p]hold fast that which is good; 22 abstain from every form of evil.

23 And [x]the God of peace [y]himself sanctify you wholly; and may your [z]spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, [a]with-

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Faith and Fidelity. The Lord's Coming to be preceded by the Lawless One

1 [a]Paul, and [b]Silvanus, and [c]Timothy, unto the [d]church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; 2 [e]Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound [f]to give thanks to God always for you, [g]brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the [h]love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth; 4 so that we ourselves [i]glory in you in [k]the churches of God for your [1]patience and faith [k]in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which ye endure; 5 which is a [l]manifest token of the righteous judgment of God; to the end that ye may be [m]counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: 6 if so be that [n]it is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you, 7 and to you that are afflicted rest with us, [o]at the revelation of the Lord Jesus [p]from heaven [q]with the angels of his power [r]in flaming fire, 8 rendering vengeance to them that [s]know not God, and to them that [t]obey not the [2]gospel of our Lord Jesus: 9 who shall suffer punishment, even [u]eternal destruction [v]from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, 10 when he shall come to be [x]glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our [y]testimony unto you was believed) in that [z]day. 11 To which end we also [a]pray always for you, that our God may [b]count you worthy of your [c]calling, and fulfil every [3]desire of [d]goodness and every [e]work of faith, with power; 12 that the [f]name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now we beseech you, [g]brethren, [4]touching [h]the [5]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our [i]gathering together unto him; 2 to the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by [k]spirit, or by [l]word, or by [m]epistle as from us, as that [n]the day of the Lord is [o]just at hand; 3 [p]let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the [q]falling away come first, and [r]the man of [6]sin be revealed, the [s]son of perdition, 4 he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all [t]that is called God or [7]that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the [8]temple of God, [u]setting himself forth as God. 5 Remember ye not, that, [v]when I was yet with you, I told you these things? 6 And now ye know [x]that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. 7 For [y]the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: [9]only there is [x]one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of the way. 8 And then [r]shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord [10]Jesus shall [11]slay [z]with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the [a]manifestation of his [5]coming; 9 even he, whose [5]coming is according to the working of [b]Satan with all [1] power and [a] signs and lying wonders, 10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness for [b] them that [2] perish; because they received not the love of [c] the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this cause [d] God sendeth them a working of [e] error, that they should believe a lie: 12 that they all might be judged who [f] believed not the truth, but [g] had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 [h] But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, [i] brethren beloved of the Lord, for that [k] God chose you [3] from the beginning [l] unto salvation [m] in sanctification of the Spirit and [4] belief of the truth: 14 whereunto he [n] called you through [o] our [5] gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brethren, [p] stand fast, and [q] hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether [r] by word, or [r] by epistle of ours.

16 [s] Now our Lord Jesus Christ [t] himself, and God our Father who [u] loved us and gave us eternal comfort and [v] good hope through grace, 17 [x] comfort your hearts and [y] establish them in every good work and word.

3 [z] Finally, [a] brethren, [b] pray for us, that [c] the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with you; 2 and that we may be [d] delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for all have not faith. 3 But [e] the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and guard you from [6] [f] the evil one. 4 And we have [g] confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both [h] do and will do the things which we command. 5 And the Lord [i] direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the [7] patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, [k] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye [l] withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh [m] disorderly, and not after [q] the tradition which [8] they received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to [n] imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we [o] eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in [p] labor and travail, [q] working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not [r] the right, but to make ourselves [s] an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even [t] when we were with you, this we commanded you, [u] If any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that [v] walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are [x] busybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and [y] exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with [z] quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, [a] brethren, [b] be not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by [c] this epistle, note that man, that ye [d] have no company with him, to the end that he may be [e] ashamed. 15 And yet [f] count him not as an enemy, but [g] admonish him as a [h] brother.

16 Now [i] the Lord of peace [k] himself give you peace at all times in all ways. [l] The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of me Paul [m] with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. 18 [n] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

TIMOTHY

Salutation. Charge respecting Misuse of the Law. Personal Thanksgiving. The Charge reënforced

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]according to the commandment of [d]God our Saviour, and [b]Christ Jesus our [e]hope; 2 unto [f]Timothy, [g]my true child in faith: [h]Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and [b]Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at [i]Ephesus, when I was going into [k]Macedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not to [l]teach a different doctrine, 4 neither to give heed to [m]fables and endless [n]genealogies, which minister [o]questionings, rather than [p]a [1]dispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. 5 But the end of the [q]charge is love [r]out of a pure heart and a [s]good conscience and [t]faith unfeigned: 6 from which things some having [2]swerved have turned aside unto [u]vain talking; 7 [v]desiring to be [x]teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. 8 But we know that [y]the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that [z]law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and [a]unruly, for the [b]ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and [c]profane, for [3]murderers of fathers and [3]murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 [d]for fornicators, for [e]abusers of themselves with men, for [f]menstealers, for [g]liars, for [h]false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to [i]the [4]sound [5]doctrine; 11 according to [k]the [6]gospel of the glory of [l]the blessed God, which was [m]committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that [7][n]enabled me, even [o]Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, [p]appointing me to his service; 13 though I was before a blasphemer, and [q]a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit I [r]obtained mercy, because [s]I did it ignorantly in unbelief; 14 and the [t]grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with [u]faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 [v]Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [x]Christ Jesus came into the world to [y]save sinners; of whom [z]I am chief: 16 howbeit for this cause I [r]obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ [a]show forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them that should thereafter believe on him unto eternal life. 17 Now unto the [b]King [8]eternal, [9][c]immortal, [d]invisible, the [e]only God, [f]be honor and glory [10]for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This [g]charge I commit unto thee, [h]my child Timothy, according to the [i]prophecies which led the way to thee, that by them thou mayest [k]war the good warfare; 19 holding [l]faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning [m]the faith: 20 of whom is [n]Hymenæus and [o]Alexander; whom I [p]delivered unto Satan, that they might be [q]taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, [11]that [r]supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2 [a] for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of [b] God our Saviour; 4 [c] who would have all men to be [d] saved, and [e] come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is [f] one God, [g] one mediator also between God and men, himself [h] man, Christ Jesus, 6 who [i] gave himself a ransom for all; the [k] testimony to be borne [l] in its own times; 7 [m] whereunto I was appointed a [1] preacher and [n] an apostle ([o] I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of [p] the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I [q] desire therefore that the men pray [r] in every place, [s] lifting up [t] holy hands, without wrath and [2] disputing. 9 In like manner, that [u] women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; 10 but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. 11 [v] Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12 [v] But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 [x] For Adam was first formed, then Eve; 14 and Adam was not beguiled, but [y] the woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression: 15 but she shall be saved through [3] her childbearing, if they continue in [z] faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 [4] [a] Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the [b] office of a [5] bishop, he desireth a good work. 2 [c] The [5] bishop therefore must be without reproach, [d] the husband of one wife, [e] temperate, soberminded, orderly, [f] given to hospitality, [g] apt to teach; 3 [6] [h] no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, [i] no lover of money; 4 one that [k] ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; 5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of [l] the church of God?) 6 not a novice, lest being [m] puffed up he fall into the [7] [n] condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must [o] have good testimony from [p] them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and [q] the snare of the devil. 8 [r] Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, [s] not given to much wine, [t] not greedy of filthy lucre; 9 [u] holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And [v] let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless. 11 Women in like manner must be grave, [x] not slanderers, [y] temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let [r] deacons be [y] husbands of one wife, [z] ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For they that have served well as deacons [a] gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; 15 but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know [8] how men ought to behave themselves in [b] the house of God, which is the [c] church of [d] the living God, the [e] pillar and [9] ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is [f] the mystery of godliness;

[h] Justified in the spirit, [i] Seen of angels, [k] Preached among the [11] nations, [l] Believed on in the world, [m] Received up in glory.

4 But [n] the Spirit saith expressly, that [o] in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to [p] seducing spirits and [q] doctrines of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, [12] [r] branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; 3 [s] forbidding to marry, and com- manding [a] to abstain from meats, which [b] God created to be [c] received with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. 4 For [d] every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be [c] received with thanksgiving: 5 for it is sanctified through [e] the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put [f] the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good [g] minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the [h] good doctrine which thou [i] hast followed until now: 7 but refuse [k] profane and old wives' [l] fables. And exercise thyself unto [m] godliness: 8 for [n] bodily exercise is profitable [1] for a little; but [m] godliness is profitable for all things, [o] having promise of the life [p] which now is, and of that which is to come. 9 [q] Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation. 10 For to this end we labor and strive, because we have [r] our hope set on [s] the living God, who is [t] the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. 11 [u] These things command and teach. 12 [v] Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou [x] an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, [y] in love, in faith, in purity. 13 [z] Till I come, give heed to [a] reading, to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [b] by prophecy, with the [c] laying on of the hands of the [d] presbytery. 15 Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. 16 [e] Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt [f] save both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 [g] Rebuke not an [h] elder, but exhort him as a father; [i] the younger men as brethren: 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows that are [k] widows indeed. 4 But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, [l] let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is [m] acceptable in the sight of God. 5 Now she that is [k] a widow indeed, and desolate, [n] hath her hope set on God, and continueth in [o] supplications and prayers night and day. 6 But she that [p] giveth herself to pleasure is [q] dead while she liveth. 7 [r] These things also command, that they may be without reproach. 8 But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath [s] denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let none be [t] enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been [u] the wife of one man, 10 well reported of for [v] good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath [u] used hospitality to strangers, if she [x] hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath [y] relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. 11 But younger widows refuse: for when they have [z] waxed wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; 12 having condemnation, because they have rejected their first [2] pledge. 13 And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but [a] tattlers also and [b] busybodies, speaking [c] things which they ought not. 14 [d] I desire therefore that the younger [3] widows [e] marry, bear children, [f] rule the household, [g] give no occasion to the adversary for reviling: 15 for already some [h] are turned aside after [i] Satan. 16 If any woman that believeth [k] hath widows, let her [y] relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are [l] widows indeed.

17 Let [m] the elders that [n] rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who [o] labor in the word and in teaching. 18 For the scripture saith, [p] Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, [q] The laborer is worthy of his hire. 19 Against an [m] elder receive not an accusation, except at the mouth of [a] two or three witnesses. 20 Them that sin [b] reprove in the sight of all, [c] that the rest also may be in fear. 21 [d] I charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without [1] prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 [e] Lay hands hastily on no man, neither be [f] partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but [g] use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. 24 Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgment; and some men also they [h] follow after. 25 In like manner also [2] there are good works that are evident; and [i] such as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 [k] Let as many as are [3] servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, [l] that the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are [m] brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that [4] partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. [n] These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man [o] teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to [5] [p] sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is [q] according to godliness; 4 he is [r] puffed up, knowing nothing, but [6] doting about [s] questionings and [t] disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, [u] evil surmisings, 5 wranglings of [v] men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, [x] supposing that godliness is a way of gain. 6 [y] But godliness with [z] contentment [a] is great gain: 7 for [b] we brought nothing into the world, for neither can we carry anything out; 8 but [c] having food and covering [7] we shall be therewith content. 9 [d] But they that are minded to be rich fall into a temptation and [e] a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For [f] the love of money is a [g] root of all [8] kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been [h] led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O [i] man of God, [k] flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, [l] faith, [m] love, [9] patience, meekness. 12 [n] Fight the good fight of [o] the faith, [p] lay hold on the life eternal, [q] whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good [r] confession in the sight of [s] many witnesses. 13 [t] I charge thee in the sight of God, who [10] giveth life to all things, and of [u] Christ Jesus, who [v] before Pontius Pilate witnessed [r] the good confession; 14 that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the [x] appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: 15 which in [11] [y] its own times he shall show, who is [z] the blessed and [a] only Potentate, [b] the [c] King of [12] kings, and [d] Lord of [13] lords; 16 [e] who only hath immortality, [f] dwelling in light unapproachable; [g] whom no man hath seen, nor can see: [h] to whom be honor and power eternal. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in [i] this present [14] world, that they [k] be not highminded, nor [l] have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, [m] who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; 18 that they do good, that they be rich in [n] good works, [o] that they be ready to distribute, [15] willing to communicate; 19 [p] laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may [q] lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

20 O [r] Timothy, guard [16] [s] that which is committed unto thee, turning away from the [t] profane babblings and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; 21 which some professing [u] have [17] erred concerning [v] the faith.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

TIMOTHY

Salutation. Timothy charged to stir up the Gift in him, and guard his Trust. Onesiphorus faithful amid Desertions

1. 1

1 Paul, [a] an apostle of [b] Christ Jesus [c] through the will of God, according to the promise of [d] the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to [e] Timothy, my beloved [f] child: [g] Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 [h] I thank God, whom I [i] serve from my forefathers in a [k] pure conscience, [l] how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day 4 [m] longing to see thee, [n] remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with [1] joy; 5 having been reminded of the [o] unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and [p] thy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, in thee also. 6 For which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou [2] stir up [q] the gift of God, which is in thee through the [q] laying on of my hands. 7 For God gave us not [r] a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and [3] discipline. 8 [s] Be not ashamed therefore of [t] the testimony of our Lord, nor of me [u] his prisoner: but [v] suffer hardship with the [4][x] gospel according to the power of God; 9 who [y] saved us, and [z] called us with a holy [a] calling, [b] not according to our works, but according to his own [c] purpose and grace, which was given us in [d] Christ Jesus [5] before [e] times eternal, 10 but [f] hath now been manifested by the [g] appearing of our Saviour [d] Christ Jesus, who [h] abolished death, and brought life and [6] immortality to light through the [4] gospel, 11 [i] whereunto I was appointed a [7] preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. 12 For which cause I suffer also these things: yet [k] I am not ashamed; for I know him [l] whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to [m] guard [8] that which I have committed unto him against [n] that day. 13 [o] Hold the [p] pattern of [9][q] sound words [r] which thou hast heard from me, in [s] faith and love which is in [d] Christ Jesus. 14 [10][m] That good thing which was committed unto thee guard through the Holy Spirit which [t] dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all that are in [u] Asia [v] turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16 The Lord grant mercy unto [x] the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and [y] was not ashamed of my [z] chain; 17 but, when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me 18 (the Lord grant unto him to find mercy of the Lord in [n] that day); and in how many things he ministered at [a] Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

2 Thou therefore, my [b] child, [c] be strengthened in the grace that is in [d] Christ Jesus. 2 And the things [r] which thou hast heard from me among [e] many witnesses, the same [f] commit thou to [g] faithful men, who shall be [h] able to teach others also. 3 [11][i] Suffer hardship with me, as a good [k] soldier of [d] Christ Jesus. 4 No soldier on service [l] entangleth himself in the affairs of this life; that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 And if also a man [m] contend in the games, he is not crowned, except he have contended lawfully. 6 [a]The husbandman that laboreth must be the first to partake of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, [b]risen from the dead, of [c]the seed of David, [d]according to my [1]gospel: 9 wherein I [e]suffer hardship unto [f]bonds, as a [g]malefactor; but [h]the word of God [i]is not bound. 10 Therefore [k]I endure all things for [l]the elect's sake, [m]that they also may obtain the [n]salvation which is in [o]Christ Jesus with [p]eternal glory.
11 [q]Faithful is the [2]saying: For [r]if we died with him, we shall also live with him: 12 if we endure, [s]we shall also reign with him: if we shall [t]deny him, he also will deny us: 13 if we are faithless, [u]he abideth faithful; for [v]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [x]charging them in the sight of [3]the Lord, that they [y]strive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of them that hear. 15 Give diligence to [z]present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, [4]handling aright [a]the word of truth. 16 But [b]shun [c]profane babblings: for they will proceed further in ungodliness, 17 and their word will [5]eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is [d]Hymenæus and Philetus; 18 men who concerning the truth have [6]erred, saying that [7][e]the resurrection is past already, and overthrow [f]the faith of some.
19 Howbeit the [g]firm foundation of God standeth, having this [h]seal, [i]The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, [k]Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness. 20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and [l]some unto honor, and some unto dishonor. 21 If a man therefore purge himself from [m]these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, meet for the master's use, [n]prepared unto every good work. 22 But [o]flee youthful lusts, and [o]follow after righteousness, [p]faith, love, peace, with them that [q]call on the Lord [r]out of a pure heart. 23 But foolish and ignorant [s]questionings refuse, knowing that they [t]gender strifes.
24 And [u]the Lord's [8]servant must not strive, but be gentle towards all, [v]apt to teach, forbearing, 25 [x]in meekness [9]correcting them that oppose themselves; [y]if peradventure God may give them repentance unto [z]the knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may [10]recover themselves out of [a]the snare of the devil, having been [11][b]taken captive [12]by him unto his will.

3 But know this, that [c]in the last days grievous times shall come. 2 For men shall be [d]lovers of self, [e]lovers of money, [f]boastful, [f]haughty, [g]railers, [f]disobedient to parents, [h]unthankful, [i]unholy, 3 [k]without natural affection, implacable, [l]slanderers, without self-control, fierce, [m]no lovers of good, 4 [n]traitors, [o]headstrong, [p]puffed up, [q]lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; 5 holding a [r]form of [s]godliness, but having [t]denied the power thereof: [u]from these also turn away. 6 For of these are they that [v]creep into houses, and take captive [x]silly women laden with sins, led away by [y]divers lusts, 7 ever learning, and never able to [z]come to the knowledge of the truth. 8 And even as [a]Jannes and Jambres [b]withstood Moses, so do these also withstand the truth; [c]men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their [d]folly shall be evident unto all men, [e]as theirs also came to be. 10 But thou [f]didst follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, longsuffering, [g]love, [13]patience, 11 [h]persecutions, [i]sufferings; what things befell me at [k]Antioch, at [l]Iconium, at [m]Lystra;

Inspired Scripture profitable. Charge. My Departure near. Matters Personal. Salutations. Benediction what [a]persecutions I endured: and out of them all [b]the Lord delivered me. 12 Yea, and all that would live godly in Christ Jesus [c]shall suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and impostors [d]shall wax worse and worse, [e]deceiving and being deceived. 14 But [f]abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of [1]whom thou hast learned them; 15 and that [g]from a babe thou hast known [h]the sacred writings which are able to [i]make thee wise unto [k]salvation through faith which is in [l]Christ Jesus. 16 [2][m]Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for [3]instruction which is in righteousness: 17 that [n]the man of God may be complete, [o]furnished completely unto every good work.

4 [4][p]I charge thee in the sight of God, and of Christ Jesus, who shall [q]judge the living and the dead, and by his [r]appearing and his kingdom: 2 preach [s]the word; be urgent in season, out of season; [5][t]reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all [u]longsuffering and teaching. 3 For [v]the time will come when they will not endure [x]the [6]sound [7]doctrine; but, having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts; 4 and [y]will turn away their ears from the truth, and [z]turn aside unto [a]fables. 5 But [b]be thou sober in all things, [c]suffer hardship, do the work of an [d]evangelist, [e]fulfil thy [f]ministry. 6 For I am already being [8][g]offered, and the time of [h]my departure is come. 7 [i]I have fought the good fight, I have finished [k]the course, I have kept [l]the faith: 8 henceforth there [m]is laid up for me [n]the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, [o]the righteous judge, shall give to me at [p]that day; and not to me only, but also to [q]all them that have loved his [r]appearing.

9 [s]Give diligence to come shortly unto me: 10 for [t]Demas forsook me, having loved [u]this present [9]world, and went to [v]Thessalonica; Crescens to [10][x]Galatia, [y]Titus to Dalmatia. 11 [z]Only [a]Luke is with me. Take [b]Mark, and bring him with thee; [c]for he is useful to me for ministering. 12 But [d]Tychicus I sent to [e]Ephesus. 13 The cloak that I left at [f]Troas with Carpus, bring when thou comest, and the books, especially the parchments. 14 [g]Alexander the coppersmith [11]did me much evil: [h]the Lord will render to him according to his works: 15 of whom do thou also beware; for he greatly withstood our words. 16 At my first defence no one took my part, but all forsook me: [i]may it not be laid to their account. 17 But the Lord stood by me, and [12][k]strengthened me; that through me [l]the [13]message might be [m]fully proclaimed, and that all [n]the Gentiles might hear: and I was [o]delivered out of [p]the mouth of the lion. 18 The Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will [q]save me unto his [r]heavenly kingdom: [s]to whom be the glory [14]for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and [t]Aquila, and [u]the house of Onesiphorus. 20 [v]Erastus remained at [x]Corinth: but Trophimus I left at [y]Miletus sick. 21 [z]Give diligence to come before [a]winter. Eubulus saluteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 [b]The Lord be with thy spirit. [c]Grace be with you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

TITUS

Salutation. Qualifications of an Elder. Disorderly Teachers to be reproved. Duties of the Aged, the Young, etc

1 Paul, [a]a [1]servant of God, and [b]an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of [c]God's elect, and [d]the knowledge of the truth which is [e]according to godliness, 2 in [f]hope of eternal life, which God, [g]who cannot lie, [h]promised [2]before [i]times eternal; 3 but in [3][k]his own seasons manifested his word in [l]the [4]message, [m]wherewith I was intrusted [n]according to the commandment of [o]God our Saviour; 4 to [p]Titus, [q]my true child after [r]a common faith: [s]Grace and peace from God the Father and [t]Christ Jesus our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in [u]Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and [v]appoint [x]elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; 6 [y]if any man is blameless, the [z]husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of [a]riot or [b]unruly. 7 For [c]the [5]bishop must be blameless, as [d]God's steward; not [e]self-willed, not soon angry, [6][f]no brawler, no striker, [g]not greedy of filthy lucre; 8 but [h]given to hospitality, [i]a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled; 9 [k]holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in [l]the [7]sound [8]doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

10 [m]For there are many [n]unruly men, [o]vain talkers and deceivers, specially [p]they of the circumcision, 11 whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole [q]houses, teaching [r]things which they ought not, [s]for filthy lucre's sake. 12 [t]One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, [u]Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle [9]gluttons.

13 This testimony is true. For which cause [v]reprove them [x]sharply, that they may be [10][y]sound in the faith, 14 not giving heed to Jewish [z]fables, and [a]commandments of men who [b]turn away from the truth. 15 [c]To the pure all things are pure: but [d]to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their [e]mind and their conscience are defiled. 16 [f]They profess that they know God; but by their works they [g]deny him, being [h]abominable, and [i]disobedient, and [k]unto every good work [l]reprobate.

2 But speak thou the things which befit [m]the [7]sound [8]doctrine: 2 that [n]aged men be [o]temperate, grave, [o]sober-minded, [10][y]sound [p]in faith, in love, in [11]patience: 3 that aged women likewise be reverent in demeanor, [q]not slanderers nor [r]enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; 4 that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be sober-minded, chaste, [s]workers at home, kind, being [t]in subjection to their own husbands, [u]that the word of God be not blasphemed: 6 [v]the younger men likewise exhort to be [o]sober-minded: 7 in all things showing thyself [x]an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, 8 sound speech, that cannot be condemned; [a]that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us. 9 Exhort [1][b]servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; 10 not purloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of [c]God our Saviour in all things. 11 For the grace of God [2]hath [d]appeared, [e]bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and [f]worldly lusts, [g]we should live soberly and righteously and godly in [h]this present [3]world; 13 looking for the blessed hope and [i]appearing of the glory [4]of [k]the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; 14 who [l]gave himself for us, [m]that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and [n]purify unto himself a [o]people for his own possession, [p]zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and [q]exhort and [q]reprove with all [5]authority. [r]Let no man despise thee.

3 [s]Put them in mind [t]to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be [u]ready unto every good work, 2 to speak evil of no man, [v]not to be contentious, [v]to be gentle, [x]showing all meekness toward all men. 3 [y]For we also once were foolish, [z]disobedient, [a]deceived, [b]serving [c]divers lusts and pleasures, living in [d]malice and [d]envy, hateful, hating one another. 4 But when the [e]kindness of [f]God our Saviour, and his love toward man, [g]appeared, 5 [h]not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but [i]according to his mercy he [k]saved us, through the [6][l]washing of regeneration [7]and [m]renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 [n]which he poured out upon us [o]richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; 7 that, being justified by his grace, we might be made [8][p]heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 [q]Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things [r]I desire that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they who have [s]believed God may be careful to [9][t]maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men: 9 but [u]shun [v]foolish questionings, and [x]genealogies, and strifes, and [y]fightings about the law; for they are [z]unprofitable and vain. 10 [a]A factious man [b]after a first and second admonition [10][c]refuse; 11 knowing that such a one is [d]perverted, and sinneth, being self-condemned.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or [e]Tychicus, [f]give diligence to come unto me [g]to Nicopolis: for there I have determined to [h]winter. 13 [i]Set forward Zenas the [k]lawyer and [l]Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. 14 And let [m]our people also learn to [9][n]maintain good works for [o]necessary [11]uses, that they be not [p]unfruitful.

15 [q]All that are with me salute thee. Salute them that love us [r]in faith.

[s]Grace be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

PHILEMON

Salutation. Thanksgiving for Philemon's Love and Fellowship. Onesimus no longer a Servant. Benediction

1 [a] Paul, [b] a prisoner of [c] Christ Jesus, and [d] Timothy [1] our brother, to Philemon our beloved and [e] fellow-worker, 2 and to Apphia [2] [f] our sister, and to [g] Archippus our [h] fellow-soldier, and to [i] the church in thy house: 3 [k] Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [l] I thank my God always, [m] making mention of thee in my prayers, 5 [n] hearing of [3] thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; 6 that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the [o] knowledge of every good thing which is in [4] you, unto Christ. 7 For I had much [p] joy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been [q] refreshed through thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, [r] though I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which is [s] befitting, 9 yet for love's sake I rather [t] beseech, being such a one as Paul [5] the [u] aged, and now [v] a prisoner also of [c] Christ Jesus: 10 I [t] beseech thee for my [x] child, whom I have begotten in my bonds, [6] [y] Onesimus, 11 who once was unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: 12 whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 13 whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might minister unto me in the [z] bonds of the [7] gospel: 14 but without thy mind I would do nothing; that thy goodness should [a] not be as of necessity, but of free will. 15 For perhaps [b] he was therefore parted from thee for a season, that thou shouldest have him for ever; 16 [c] no longer as a [8] servant, but more than a [8] servant, [d] a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much rather to thee, both [e] in the flesh and in the Lord. 17 If then thou countest me a [f] partner, receive him as myself. 18 But if he hath wronged thee at all, or oweth thee aught, put that to mine account; 19 [g] I Paul write it with mine own hand, I will repay it: [h] that I say not unto thee that thou owest to me even thine own self besides. 20 Yea, brother, let me have [9] joy of thee in the Lord: [i] refresh my heart in Christ.

21 [k] Having confidence in thine obedience I write unto thee, knowing that thou wilt do even beyond what I say. 22 But withal prepare me also [l] a lodging: for [m] I hope that through [n] your prayers [o] I shall be granted unto you.

23 [p] Epaphras, my [q] fellow-prisoner in [r] Christ Jesus, saluteth thee; 24 and so do [s] Mark, [t] Aristarchus, [u] Demas, [u] Luke, my [v] fellow-workers.

25 [x] The grace of [10] our Lord Jesus Christ be [y] with your spirit. [11] Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO THE

HEBREWS

God's Final Word spoken through his Son, who is superior to the Angels and more to be heeded

1 God, having of old time [a] spoken unto the fathers in [b] the prophets by divers portions and [c] in divers manners, 2 hath [d] at the end of these days [a] spoken unto us in [1] [e] his Son, whom he appointed [f] heir of all things, [g] through whom also he made the [2] [h] worlds; 3 who being the [i] effulgence of his glory, and [3] the very [k] image of his substance, and [l] upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made [m] purification of sins, [n] sat down on the right hand of the [o] Majesty on high; 4 having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent [p] name than they. 5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [q] Thou art my Son,

This day have I begotten thee?

and again,

I will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?

6 [4] And when he again [5] [r] bringeth in the firstborn into [6] [s] the world he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. 7 And of the angels he saith,

Who maketh his angels winds,
And his ministers a flame of fire:

8 but of the Son he saith, [7] Thy [t] throne, O God, is for ever and ever;

And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of [8] thy kingdom.
9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; [u] Therefore God, thy God, hath [v] anointed thee With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And,

Thou, Lord, in the beginning didst lay the foundation of the earth, And the heavens are the works of thy hands: 11 They shall perish; but thou continuest: [x] And they all shall wax old as doth a garment; 12 And as a mantle shalt thou roll them up, As a garment, and they shall be changed:
But thou art [y] the same,
And thy years shall not fail.

13 But of which of the angels hath he said at any time, [z] Sit thou on my right hand, [a] Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet?

14 Are they not all [b] ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall [c] inherit [d] salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply [e] we drift away from them. 2 For if the word [f] spoken through [g] angels proved stedfast, and [h] every transgression and disobedience received a just [i] recompense of reward; 3 [k] how shall we escape, if we neglect so great a [d] salvation? which having at the first been [f] spoken through the Lord, was [l] confirmed unto us by them that heard; 4 God also bearing witness with them, both by [m] signs and [m] wonders, and by [n] manifold powers, and by [9] [o] gifts of the Holy Spirit, [p] according to his own will.

5 For not unto angels did he subject [10] [q] the world to come, whereof we speak. 6 But one hath [r] somewhere [s] testified, saying,

Ps. viii. 4 ff.

What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
7 Thou madest him [1]a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst him with glory and honor, [2]And didst set him over the works of thy hands: 8 [a]Thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet.

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now [b]we see not yet all things subjected to him. 9 But we behold him who hath been [c]made [1]a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, [d]because of the suffering of death [e]crowned with glory and honor, that [f]by the grace of God he should [g]taste of death [h]for every man. 10 For [i]it became him, [k]for whom are all things, and [k]through whom are all things, [3]in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the [4][l]author of their salvation [m]perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he that [n]sanctifieth and they that [o]are sanctified are all [p]of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them [q]brethren, 12 saying,

Ps. xxii. 22.

I will declare thy name unto my brethren,
In the midst of the [5]congregation will I sing thy praise.

Is. viii. 17 f.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children whom God hath given me. 14 Since then the children are sharers in [6][r]flesh and blood, [s]he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that [t]through death he [7]might bring to nought [u]him that [8]had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and [7]might deliver all them who through [v]fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 [9]For verily not to angels doth he give help, but he giveth help to the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore it behooved him in all things [x]to be made like unto his brethren, that he might [y]become a merciful and faithful [z]high priest in [a]things pertaining to God, to [b]make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 [10]For [11]in that he himself hath suffered being [c]tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

3 Wherefore, [d]holy brethren, partakers of a [e]heavenly calling, consider [f]the Apostle and [z]High Priest of our [g]confession, even Jesus; 2 who was faithful to him that [12]appointed him, as also was [h]Moses in all [13]his house. 3 [i]For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he that [14]built the house hath more honor than the house. 4 For every house is [14]builded by some one; but he that [14]built all things is God. 5 And [h]Moses indeed was faithful in all [13]his house as [k]a servant, [l]for a testimony of those things [m]which were afterward to be spoken; 6 but Christ as [n]a son, over [13]his house; [o]whose house are we, [p]if we hold fast our [q]boldness and the [r]glorying of our [s]hope firm unto the end. 7 Wherefore, even as [t]the Holy Spirit saith, Ps. xcv. 7 ff.

[u]To-day if ye shall hear his voice, 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, Like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness, 9 [15]Where your fathers tried me by proving me,
And saw my works [v]forty years.
10 Wherefore I was displeased with this generation, And said, They do always err in their heart:
But they did not know my ways; 11 [16][x]As I sware in my wrath, [17]They shall not enter into my rest.

12 [y]Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from [z]the living God: 13 but [a]exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by the [b]deceitfulness of sin: 14 for we are become partakers [1] of Christ, [a] if we hold fast the beginning of our [b] confidence firm unto the end: 15 while it is said,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice, Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For who, when they heard, did [c] provoke? nay, [d] did not all they that came out of Egypt by Moses? 17 And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, [e] whose [2] bodies fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom sware he [f] that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were [g] disobedient?
19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of [h] unbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to have [i] come short of it. 2 For indeed we have had [3] good tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but [k] the word of hearing did not profit them, because [4] it was not united by faith with them that heard.
3 [5] For we who have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said,

[6] [l] As I sware in my wrath, [7] They shall not enter into my rest:

although the works were finished [m] from the foundation of the world.
4 For he hath said [n] somewhere of the seventh day on this wise, And God [o] rested on the seventh day from all his works; 5 and in this place again,

[7] [p] They shall not enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some should enter thereinto, and they to whom [8] the good tidings were before preached failed to enter in because of [q] disobedience, 7 he again defineth a certain day, To-day, saying [r] in David so long a time afterward (even [s] as hath been said before),

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts.

8 For [t] if [9] Joshua had given them rest, he would not have [u] spoken afterward of another day. 9 There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God.
10 For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also [v] rested from his works, as [x] God did from his.
11 Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall [10] after the same [y] example of [q] disobedience. 12 For [z] the word of God is [a] living, and [b] active, and sharper than any two-edged [c] sword, and piercing even to the dividing of [d] soul and [d] spirit, of both joints and marrow, and [e] quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And [f] there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are [g] naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Having then a great [h] high priest, who hath [i] passed through the heavens, Jesus [k] the Son of God, let us hold fast our [l] confession.
15 For we have not [m] a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points [n] tempted like as we are, yet [o] without sin. 16 Let us therefore [p] draw near with [q] boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

5 For every high priest, [r] being taken from among men, is appointed for men in [s] things pertaining to God, that he may [t] offer both gifts and sacrifices [u] for sins: 2 [v] who can bear gently with the [x] ignorant and [y] erring, for that he himself also is [z] compassed with infirmity; 3 and by reason thereof is bound, [a] as for the people, so also for himself, to offer [u] for sins. 4 And [b] no man taketh the honor unto himself, but when he is called of God, even [c] as was Aaron. 5 So Christ also [d] glorified not himself to be made a [e] high priest, but he that [f] spake unto him,

Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee:

6 as he saith also in another place,

[g] Thou art a priest for ever After [h] the order of Melchizedek.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, [a]having offered up prayers and supplications with [b]strong crying and tears unto him that was [c]able to save him [1]from death, and having been heard for his [d]godly fear, 8 though he was [e]a Son, yet learned [f]obedience by the things which he suffered; 9 and having been made [g]perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the [2]author of eternal salvation; 10 named of God [h]a high priest after [i]the order of Melchizedek.

11 Of [3]whom we have many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hearing. 12 For when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again [4]that some one teach you [k]the rudiments of the [5][l]first principles of the [m]oracles of God; and are become such as have need of [n]milk, and not of solid food. 13 For every one that partaketh of milk is [6]without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is a [o]babe. 14 But solid food is for [7][p]fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses [q]exercised to [r]discern good and evil.

6 Wherefore [s]leaving [8]the doctrine of [t]the first principles of Christ, let us press on unto [9][u]perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance from [v]dead works, and of faith toward God, 2 [10]of [x]the teaching of [11]baptisms, and of [y]laying on of hands, and of [z]resurrection of the dead, and of [z]eternal judgment.
3 And this will we do, [a]if God permit. 4 For as touching those who were once [b]enlightened [12]and tasted of [c]the heavenly gift, and were made [d]partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and [13][e]tasted the good [f]word of God, and the powers of [g]the age to come, 6 and then fell away, it is [h]impossible to renew them again unto repentance; [14][i]seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. 7 For the land which hath drunk the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [k]for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing from God: 8 but if it beareth thorns and thistles, it is rejected and [l]nigh unto a curse; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, [m]beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that [15]accompany salvation, though we thus speak: 10 for [n]God is not unrighteous to forget [o]your work and the love which ye showed toward his name, in that ye [p]ministered unto the saints, and still do minister. 11 And we desire that each one of you may show the same diligence unto the [16][q]fulness of [r]hope even to the end: 12 that ye be not sluggish, but [s]imitators of them who through [t]faith and patience [u]inherit the promises.

13 For [v]when God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he [x]sware by himself, 14 saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.
15 And thus, [y]having patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
16 [z]For men swear by the greater: and in every dispute of theirs [a]the oath is final for confirmation.
17 Wherein God, being minded to show more abundantly unto [b]the heirs of the promise [c]the immutability of his counsel, [17]interposed with an oath; 18 that by two immutable things, in which interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; 3 without father, without mother, [a] without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto [b] the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the [c] patriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief spoils. 5 And they indeed of [d] the sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 but he [e] whose genealogy is not counted from them [f] hath taken tithes of Abraham, and [f] hath blessed him that [g] hath the promises. 7 But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there one, [h] of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. 9 And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; 10 for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 [i] Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it [k] hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise [l] after the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. 13 For [m] he of whom [n] these things are said [1] belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath [o] sprung out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. 15 And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, 16 who hath been made, not after the law of a [p] carnal commandment, but after the power of [q] an [2] endless life: 17 for it is witnessed of him,

[r] Thou art a priest for ever After the order of Melchizedek.

18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment [s] because of its weakness and unprofitableness 19 (for [t] the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better [u] hope, through which we [v] draw nigh unto God. 20 And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath 21 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath [3] by him that saith [4] of him,

[r] The Lord sware and [x] will not repent himself, Thou art a priest [y] for ever);

22 by so much also hath Jesus become the [z] surety of [a] a better covenant. 23 And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing: 24 but he, because he abideth [y] for ever, [5] hath his priesthood [6] unchangeable. 25 Wherefore also he is able to [b] save [7] to the uttermost them that [c] draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to [d] make intercession for them.

26 For such a [e] high priest became us, [f] holy, [g] guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and [h] made higher than the heavens; 27 who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to [i] offer up sacrifices, [k] first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people: for this he did [l] once for all, when he [m] offered up himself. 28 For the law appointeth men high priests, [n] having infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth [o] a Son, [p] perfected for evermore.

8 [8] Now [9] in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a [q] high priest, who sat down on [r] the right hand of the throne of the [s] Majesty in the heavens, 2 a [t] minister of [10] the sanctuary, and of the [u] true tabernacle, which the Lord [v] pitched, not man. 3 For every [q] high priest is appointed [x] to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have somewhat to offer. 4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who [x] offer the gifts according to the law; 5 who serve that which is [a]a copy and [b]shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is [c]warned of God when he is about to [1]make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was showed thee in the mount. 6 But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by so much as he is also the [d]mediator of [e]a better covenant, which hath been enacted upon better promises. 7 For [f]if that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for a second. 8 For [2]finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, That I will [3]make [g]a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers In the day that I [h]took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt;

For they continued not in my covenant,
And I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
10 For [i]this is the covenant that [4]I will make with the house of Israel After those days, saith the Lord;
I will put my laws into their mind,
And [k]on their heart also will I write them:
And I will be to them a God,
And they shall be to me a people: 11 And they shall not teach every man his fellow-citizen, And every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord:
For [l]all shall know me,
From the least to the greatest of them.
12 For I will be merciful to their iniquities, [m]And their sins will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, [g]A new covenant, he hath made the first old. [n]But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.

9 Now even the first covenant had [o]ordinances of divine service, and [p]its sanctuary, a sanctuary [q]of this world. 2 For there was [r]a tabernacle prepared, the first, wherein [5]were [s]the candlestick, and [t]the table, and [6][u]the showbread; which is called the Holy place. 3 And after [v]the second veil, the tabernacle which is called [x]the Holy of holies; 4 having a golden [7][y]altar of incense, and [z]the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein [8]was [a]a golden pot holding the manna, and [b]Aaron's rod that budded, and [c]the tables of the covenant; 5 and above it [d]cherubim of glory [e]overshadowing [9]the mercy-seat; of which things we cannot now speak severally. 6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests [f]go in continually into [r]the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services; 7 but into [g]the second [h]the high priest alone, [i]once in the year, [k]not without blood, which he [l]offereth for himself, and for the [10][m]errors of the people: 8 [n]the Holy Spirit this signifying, [o]that the way into the holy place hath not yet been made manifest, while the first tabernacle is yet standing; 9 which is [p]a figure for the time present; according to which are [q]offered both gifts and sacrifices that cannot, as touching the conscience, [r]make the worshipper perfect, 10 being only (with [s]meats and [t]drinks and divers [u]washings) [v]carnal ordinances, imposed until [x]a time of reformation.

13 For if [a]the blood of goats and bulls, and [b]the ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more shall [c]the blood of Christ, who through [1][d]the eternal Spirit [e]offered himself without blemish unto God, [f]cleanse [2]your conscience from [g]dead works to serve [h]the living God? 15 And for this cause [i]he is the [k]mediator of a [l]new [3]covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first [3]covenant, they that have been [m]called may [n]receive the promise of [o]the eternal inheritance. 16 For where a [3]testament is, there must of necessity [4]be the death of him that made it. 17 For a [3]testament is of force [5]where there hath been death: [6]for it doth never avail while he that made it liveth. 18 Wherefore even the first covenant hath not been dedicated without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been [p]spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, [q]he took the [r]blood of the calves and the goats, with [s]water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both [t]the book itself and all the people, 20 saying, [u]This is the blood of the [3]covenant which God commanded to you-ward. 21 Moreover [v]the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. 22 And according to the law, I may [x]almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and [y]apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.

23 It was necessary therefore that the [z]copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but [a]the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ [b]entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to [c]the true; but into [d]heaven itself, now [e]to appear before the face of God for us: 25 nor yet that he should offer himself often, as [f]the high priest entereth into [g]the holy place [h]year by year with blood not his own; 26 else must he often have suffered since [i]the foundation of the world: but now [k]once at [l]the [7]end of the ages hath he been [m]manifested to put away sin [8][n]by the sacrifice of himself. 27 And inasmuch as [o]it is [9]appointed unto men once to die, and after this [p]cometh judgment; 28 so Christ also, having been [q]once offered to [r]bear the sins of many, shall appear [s]a second time, [t]apart from sin, to them that [u]wait for him, unto [v]salvation.

10 For the law having [x]a shadow of [y]the good things to come, not the very image of the things, [10]can [z]never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, [a]make perfect them that [a]draw nigh. 2 Else would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more [b]consciousness of sins. 3 But [c]in those sacrifices there is a remembrance made of sins year by year. 4 For it is [d]impossible that [e]the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. 5 Wherefore [f]when he cometh into the world, he saith,

Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,
But [g]a body didst thou prepare for me; 6 In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure: 7 Then said I, Lo, I am come (In [h]the roll of the book it is written of me) To do thy will, O God.

8 Saying above, [i]Sacrifices and offerings and [k]whole burnt offerings and sacrifices [l]for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), 9 then hath he said, [m]Lo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. 10 [11]By which will we have been [n]sanctified through [o]the offering of [g]the body of Jesus Christ [q]once for all. 11 And every [12]priest indeed standeth day by day ministering and [p]offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which [a] can never take away sins: 12 but he, when he had offered one sacrifice [b] for [1] sins [c] for ever, [d] sat down on the right hand of God; 13 henceforth expecting till [e] his enemies be made the footstool of his feet. 14 For by one offering he hath [f] perfected [c] for ever them that are sanctified. 15 And [g] the Holy Spirit also beareth witness to us; for after he hath said, 16 [h] This is the covenant that [2] I will make with them After those days, saith the Lord:

I will put my laws on their heart,
And upon their mind also will I write them;

then saith he,

17 [i] And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, [k] boldness to [l] enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by [m] the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through [n] the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21 and having [o] a great priest [p] over the house of God; 22 let us [q] draw near with a true heart in [3] [r] fulness of faith, having our hearts [s] sprinkled from an evil [4] conscience: and having our body [t] washed with pure water, 23 let us hold fast the [u] confession of our [v] hope that it waver not; for [x] he is faithful that promised: 24 and let us consider one another [y] to provoke unto love and [z] good works; 25 not forsaking our own [a] assembling together, as the custom of some is, but [b] exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see [c] the day drawing nigh.

26 For if we [d] sin wilfully after that we have received [e] the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain fearful expectation of [f] judgment, and a [5] [g] fierceness of fire which shall devour the adversaries. 28 [h] A man that hath set at nought Moses' law dieth without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses: 29 [i] of how much sorer punishment, think ye, shall he be judged worthy, [k] who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted [l] the blood of the covenant [m] wherewith he was sanctified [6] an unholy thing, and hath [n] done despite unto the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him that said, [o] Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. 31 It is a [p] fearful thing to fall into the hands of [q] the living God. (Yea, and a more fearful thing [illegible] the hands of the living God.)

32 But call to remembrance [r] the former days, in which, after ye were [s] enlightened, ye endured a great [t] conflict of sufferings; 33 partly, being [u] made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, becoming [v] partakers with them that were so used. 34 For ye both [x] had compassion on them that were in bonds, and took [y] joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, knowing that [7] ye have for yourselves [z] a better possession and an abiding one. 35 Cast not away therefore your [a] boldness, which hath great [b] recompense of reward. 36 For ye have need of [8] [c] patience, that, having done the will of God, ye may [d] receive the promise.

37 For [e] yet a very little while, [f] He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.
38 But [9] [g] my righteous one shall live by faith:
And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not [10] of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the [11] saving of the soul.

11

Now faith is [12] [h] assurance of things [i] hoped for, a [13] conviction of [k] things not seen. 2 For therein [l] the elders [m] had witness borne to them. 3 By faith we understand that the [14] [n] worlds have been framed [o] by

Faith defined and its Triumphs set forth the [a] word of God, so that what is seen hath [b] not been made out of things which appear. 4 By faith [c] Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he [d] had witness borne to him that he was righteous, [1] God bearing witness [2] in respect of his [e] gifts: and through it he [f] being dead yet speaketh. 5 By faith [g] Enoch was translated that he should not [h] see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: [3] for he hath had witness borne to him that before his translation he had been well-pleasing unto God: 6 and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him; for he that [i] cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him. 7 By faith [k] Noah, being [l] warned of God concerning [m] things not seen as yet, [n] moved with godly fear, [o] prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of [p] the righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith [q] Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to [r] receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he became a sojourner in [s] the land of promise, as in a land not his own, [4] [t] dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, [u] the heirs with him of the same promise: 10 for he looked for [v] the city which hath [x] the foundations, [y] whose [5] builder and maker is God. 11 By faith even [z] Sarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him [a] faithful who had promised: 12 wherefore also there sprang of one, and [b] him as good as dead, [c] so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea-shore, innumerable.

13 [d] These all died [6] in faith, [e] not having received the promises, but [f] having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having [g] confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. 15 And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, [h] they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a [i] heavenly: wherefore [k] God is not ashamed of them, to be [l] called their God; for [m] he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith [n] Abraham, being tried, [7] offered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly [o] received the promises was offering up his only begotten son; 18 even he [8] to whom it was said, [p] In Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 accounting that [q] God is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a [r] figure receive him back. 20 By faith [s] Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith [t] Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and [u] worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith [v] Joseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. 23 By faith [x] Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the [y] king's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, [z] when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; 25 choosing rather to [a] share ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; 26 [b] accounting the reproach of [9] Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the [c] recompense of reward. 27 By faith he [d] forsook Egypt, not [e] fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as [f] seeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith he [10] [g] kept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that [h] the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith they [a] passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. 30 By faith [b] the walls of Jericho fell down, [c] after they had been compassed about for seven days. 31 By faith [d] Rahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of [e] Gideon, [f] Barak, [g] Samson, [h] Jephthah; of [i] David and [k] Samuel and the prophets: 33 who through faith [l] subdued kingdoms, [m] wrought righteousness, [n] obtained promises, [o] stopped the mouths of lions, 34 [p] quenched the power of fire, [q] escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, [r] waxed mighty in war, [r] turned to flight armies of aliens. 35 [s] Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were [1] [t] tortured, not accepting [2] their deliverance; [u] that they might obtain a better resurrection: 36 and others had trial of [v] mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of [x] bonds and imprisonment: 37 they were [y] stoned, they were [z] sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were [a] slain with the sword: they went about [b] in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, [c] ill-treated 38 ([d] of whom the world was not worthy), [e] wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth. 39 And these all, having [f] had witness borne to them through their faith, [g] received not the promise, 40 God having [3] provided [h] some better thing concerning us, that [i] apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let [k] us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, [l] lay aside every [4] weight, and the sin which [5] doth so easily beset us, and let us [m] run with [6] [n] patience the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus the [7] [o] author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him [p] endured the cross, [q] despising shame, and hath [r] sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For [s] consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against [8] himself, that ye wax not weary, [t] fainting in your souls. 4 [u] Ye have not yet resisted [v] unto blood, striving against sin: 5 and ye have forgotten the exhortation which reasoneth with you as with sons,

My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord, Nor [t] faint when thou art reproved of him; 6 For [x] whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 [9] It is for chastening that ye endure; [y] God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father chasteneth not? 8 But if ye are without chastening, [z] whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we [a] gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto [b] the Father of [10] spirits, and [c] live? 10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, [d] that we may be partakers of his holiness. 11 All chastening seemeth [e] for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yieldeth [f] peaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the fruit of righteousness. 12 Wherefore [11] [g] lift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; 13 and [h] make straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not [12] turned out of the way, but rather [i] be healed.

14 [k] Follow after peace with all men, and the [l] sanctification without which no man shall [m] see the Lord: 15 looking carefully [13] lest there be any man that [14] [n] falleth short of the grace of God; lest any [a] root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be [b] defiled; 16 [1] lest there be any [c] fornicator, or [d] profane person, as Esau, [e] who for one mess of meat sold his own birthright. 17 For ye know that even [f] when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was [2] rejected; for he found no place for a change of mind in his father, though he sought it diligently with tears.

18 [g] For ye are not come unto [3] [h] a mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, 19 and the [i] sound of a trumpet, and the [k] voice of words; which voice they that heard [l] entreated that no word more should be spoken unto them; 20 for they could not endure that which was enjoined, If even a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned; 21 and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake: 22 but [m] ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto [n] the city of [o] the living God, [p] the heavenly Jerusalem, [4] and to [5] [q] innumerable hosts of angels, 23 to the general assembly and [r] church of the firstborn who [s] are enrolled in heaven, and to God [t] the Judge of all, and to the [u] spirits of just men made perfect, 24 and to Jesus the [v] mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of [x] sprinkling that speaketh better [6] than [y] that of Abel. 25 [z] See that ye refuse not him that [a] speaketh. For [b] if they escaped not when they [c] refused him that [d] warned them on earth, much more shall not we escape who turn away from him [7] that [d] warneth from heaven: 26 [e] whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more will I make to tremble not the earth only, but also the heaven. 27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth [f] the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. 28 Wherefore, receiving a [g] kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have [8] grace, whereby we may [h] offer service well-pleasing to God with [9] reverence and awe: 29 for [i] our God is a consuming fire.

13 Let [k] love of the brethren continue. 2 Forget not to [l] show love unto strangers: for thereby some have [m] entertained angels unawares. 3 [n] Remember [o] them that are in bonds, as bound with them; them that are ill-treated, as being yourselves also in the body. 4 [p] Let marriage be had in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: [q] for fornicators and adulterers God will judge. 5 [10] Be ye [r] free from the love of money; [s] content with such things as ye have: for himself hath said, I will in no wise fail thee, neither will I in any wise forsake thee. 6 So that with good courage we say,

The Lord is my helper; I will not fear:
What shall man do unto me?

7 Remember [t] them that had the rule over you, men that spake unto you [u] the word of God; and considering [v] the issue of their [11] life, [x] imitate their faith. 8 [y] Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and to-day, yea and [12] for ever. 9 [z] Be not carried away by divers and strange teachings: for it is good that the heart [a] be established by grace; not by [b] meats, [c] wherein they that [13] occupied themselves were not profited. 10 We have an altar, [d] whereof they have no right to eat that [e] serve the tabernacle. 11 For [f] the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place [14] by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned without the camp 12 Wherefore Jesus also, [g] that he might sanctify the people [h] through his own blood, suffered [i] without the gate. 13 Let us therefore go forth unto him without the camp, [k] bearing his reproach. 14 For [l] we have not here an abiding city, but we seek after [m] the city which is to come. 15 [n] Through him

[1]then let us offer up a [a]sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, [b]the fruit of lips which make confession to his name. 16 But to do good and to [c]communicate forget not: for [d]with such sacrifices God is well pleased. 17 [e]Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit to them: for [f]they watch in behalf of your souls, as they that shall give account; that they may do this with joy, and not with [2]grief: for this were unprofitable for you.
18 [g]Pray for us: for we are persuaded that we have a [h]good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. 19 And I exhort you the more exceedingly to do this, [i]that I may be restored to you the sooner.
20 Now [k]the God of peace, who [l]brought again from the dead the [m]great shepherd of the sheep [3]with [n]the blood of an [o]eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, 21 [p]make you perfect in every good

[5]us that [r]which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; [s]to whom be the glory [6]for ever and ever. Amen.

22 But [t]I exhort you, [u]brethren, bear with the [t]word of exhortation: for [v]I have written unto you in few words. 23 Know ye that [x]our brother Timothy hath been set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.
24 Salute all [e]them that have

THE EPISTLE OF

JAMES

Address and Greeting. Pray in Faith. Rejoice in Lowliness. Temptation not from God. Be Doers of the Word

1 [1][a] James, a [2][b] servant of God and [c] of the Lord Jesus Christ, to [d] the twelve tribes which are of [e] the Dispersion, [3][f] greeting.

2 [g] Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into [h] manifold [4] temptations; 3 knowing that [i] the proving of your [k] faith worketh [5][l] patience. 4 And let [5][l] patience have its perfect work, that ye may be [m] perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you [n] lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and [o] upbraideth not; and [p] it shall be given him. 6 But let him [q] ask in faith, [r] nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the surge of the sea [s] driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think [6] that he shall receive anything of the Lord; 8 a [t] doubleminded man, [u] unstable in all his ways.

9 [v] But let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate: 10 and the rich, in that he is made low: because [x] as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. 11 For the sun ariseth with [y] the scorching wind, and [z] withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 [a] Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been approved, he shall receive [b] the crown of life, which the Lord [c] promised to them that [d] love him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, [e] I am tempted [7] of God; for God [8] cannot be tempted with [9] evil, and he himself tempteth no man: 14 but each man is [10] tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. 15 Then the lust, [f] when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and the [g] sin, when it is fullgrown, bringeth forth death. 16 [h] Be not deceived, [i] my beloved brethren. 17 Every good [11] gift and every perfect gift is [k] from above, coming down from [l] the Father of lights, [m] with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning. 18 Of [n] his own will he [o] brought us forth by [p] the word of truth, that we should be a kind of [q] firstfruits of his creatures.

19 [12][r] Ye know this, [i] my beloved brethren. But let every man be [s] swift to hear, [t] slow to speak, [u] slow to wrath: 20 for [v] the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. 21 Wherefore [x] putting away all filthiness and overflowing of [13] wickedness, receive with meekness [y] the [14] implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 [z] But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves. 23 For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding [15] his natural face [a] in a mirror: 24 for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. 25 But he that looketh into the perfect law, [b] the law of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth but a doer that work-eth, this man shall be [a] blessed in his doing. 26 If any man [1] thinketh himself to be religious, while he [b] bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is vain. 27 Pure religion and undefiled [c] before our God and Father is this, to [d] visit [e] the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from [f] the world.

2 [g] My brethren, [2] hold not [h] the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [i] the Lord of glory, with [k] respect of persons. 2 For if there come into your [3] synagogue a man with a gold ring, in [l] fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in [m] vile clothing; 3 and ye have regard to him that weareth the [l] fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; 4 [4] do ye not make distinctions [5] among yourselves, and become judges [n] with evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, [g] my beloved brethren; did not [o] God choose them that are poor as to the world to be [p] rich in faith, and [q] heirs of the kingdom which he [r] promised to them that love him? 6 But ye have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves [s] drag you before the judgment-seats? 7 [t] Do not they blaspheme the honorable name [6] by which ye are called? 8 Howbeit if ye [u] fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well: 9 but if ye have [k] respect of persons, ye commit sin, being [v] convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet [x] stumble in one point, he is become [y] guilty of all. 11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by [z] a law of liberty. 13 For [a] judgment is without mercy to him that hath showed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgment.

14 [b] What doth it profit, [g] my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? 15 [c] If a brother or sister be naked and in lack of daily food, 16 and one of you say unto them, [d] Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? 17 Even so [e] faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. 18 [7] [f] Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy [g] faith apart from thy works, and I [h] by my works will [i] show thee my faith. 19 Thou believest that [8] [k] God is one; [l] thou doest well: [m] the demons also believe, and shudder. 20 But wilt thou know, [n] O vain man, that [e] faith apart from works is barren? 21 [o] Was not Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 [9] Thou seest that [p] faith wrought with his works, and by [q] works was faith made perfect; 23 and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [r] And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called [s] the friend of God. 24 Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25 And in like manner was not also [t] Rahab the harlot justified by works, [u] in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so [e] faith apart from works is dead.

3 [v] Be not many of you teachers, [x] my brethren, knowing that we shall receive [10] heavier judgment. 2 For in many things we all [y] stumble. [z] If any stumbleth not in word, the same is [a] a perfect man, able to [b] bridle the whole body also. 3 Now [c] if we put the horses' bridles into their mouths that they may obey us, we turn about their whole body also. 4 Behold,

[1] Or, seemeth to be

[2] Or, do ye, in accepting persons, hold the faith . . . glory?

the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth. 5 So the tongue also is a little member, and [a] boasteth great things. [b] Behold, [1] how much wood is kindled by how small a fire! 6 And [c] the tongue is [2] a fire: [3] the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which [d] defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of [4] nature, and is set on fire by [5][e] hell. 7 For every [6] kind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed [7] by [8] mankind: 8 but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is full of [f] deadly poison. 9 Therewith bless we [g] the Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, [h] who are made after the likeness of God: 10 [i] out of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Doth the fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter? 12 [k] can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? [l] let him show by his [m] good life his works in meekness of wisdom. 14 But if ye have bitter [n] jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against [o] the truth. 15 This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down [p] from above, but is [q] earthly, [9][r] sensual, [10][s] devilish. 16 For where [n] jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every vile deed. 17 But the wisdom that is [u] from above is first [t] pure, then [u] peaceable, [v] gentle, easy to be entreated, [x] full of mercy and good fruits, without [11][y] variance, without [z] hypocrisy. 18 And the [a] fruit of righteousness is sown in peace [12] for them that make peace.

4 Whence come wars and whence come [b] fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your pleasures that [c] war in your members? 2 Ye lust, and have not: ye [d] kill, and [13] covet, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war; ye have not, because ye ask not. 3 Ye ask, and [e] receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may spend it in your pleasures. 4 Ye [14][f] adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of [g] the world is [h] enmity with God? [i] Whosoever therefore would be a friend of the world maketh himself an enemy of God. 5 Or think ye that the scripture [15][k] speaketh in vain? [16][l] Doth the spirit which [17] he made to dwell in us long unto envying? 6 But [m] he giveth [18] more grace. Wherefore the scripture saith, [n] God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. 7 [o] Be subject therefore unto God; but [p] resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 [q] Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. [r] Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and [s] purify your hearts, ye [t] doubleminded. 9 [u] Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. 10 [v] Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall exalt you.

11 [x] Speak not one against another, [y] brethren. He that speaketh against a brother, or [z] judgeth his brother, speaketh against [a] the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not [b] a doer of the law, but a judge. 12 One only is [c] the lawgiver and judge, even he who is [d] able to save and to destroy: but [e] who art thou that judgest thy neighbor?

13 [f] Come now, ye that say, [g] To-day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain: 14 whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For [h] ye are a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. 15 [19] For that ye ought to say, [a] If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or that. 16 But now ye glory in your vauntings: [b] all such glorying is evil. 17 [c] To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

5 [d] Come now, [e] ye rich, [f] weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you. 2 [g] Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver are rusted; and their rust shall be for a testimony [1] against you, and shall eat your flesh as fire. Ye have laid up your treasure [h] in the last days. 4 Behold, [i] the hire of the laborers who mowed your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and [k] the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of [l] the Lord of Sabaoth. 5 Ye have [m] lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts in [n] a day of slaughter. 6 Ye have condemned, ye have [o] killed [p] the righteous one; he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, [q] brethren, [r] until the [2] coming of the Lord. [s] Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until [3] it receive [t] the early and latter rain. 8 [u] Be ye also patient; [v] establish your hearts: for [r] the [2] coming of the Lord is [x] at hand. 9 [y] Murmur not, [q] brethren, one against another, that ye be not judged: behold, [z] the judge standeth [a] before the doors. 10 Take, [q] brethren, for an example of suffering and of patience, [b] the prophets who spake in the name of the Lord. 11 Behold, we call them [c] blessed that endured: ye have heard of [d] the [4] patience of Job, and have seen [e] the end of the Lord, how that [f] the Lord is full of pity, and merciful.

12 But above all things, [g] my brethren, [h] swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but [5] let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under judgment.

13 Is any among you [i] suffering? [k] let him pray. Is any cheerful? let him [l] sing praise. 14 Is any among you sick? let him call for [m] the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [6][n] anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: 15 and the [o] prayer of faith shall [p] save him that is sick, and the Lord shall [q] raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be forgiven him. 16 [r] Confess therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be [s] healed. [t] The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working. 17 Elijah was [u] a man of like [7] passions with us, and [v] he prayed [8] fervently that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth for [x] three years and six months. 18 And he [y] prayed again; and [z] the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 My brethren, [a] if any among you err from [b] the truth, and one convert him; 20 [9] let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall [c] save a soul from death, and shall [d] cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF

PETER

Address and Salutation. The "Inheritance incorruptible and that fadeth not away"

1 [a]Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to [b]the elect who are [c]sojourners of [d]the Dispersion in [e]Pontus, [f]Galatia, [g]Cappadocia, [h]Asia, and [i]Bithynia, 2 according to the [k]foreknowledge of God the Father, [l]in sanctification of the Spirit, unto [m]obedience and [n]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: [o]Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

3 [p]Blessed be [1]the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who [q]according to his great mercy [r]begat us again unto [s]a living hope by the [t]resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 unto an [u]inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that [v]fadeth not away, [x]reserved in heaven for you, 5 who by the power of God are [y]guarded [z]through faith unto [a]a salvation ready [b]to be revealed in the last time. 6 [c]Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now [d]for a little while, [e]if need be, ye have been put to grief in [f]manifold [2]trials, 7 that [g]the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth [h]though it is proved by fire, [i]may be found unto praise and glory and honor at [k]the revelation of Jesus Christ: 8 whom not having seen ye [l]love; on whom, [m]though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and [3]full of glory: 9 receiving the [n]end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 10 [o]Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who [p]prophesied of the [q]grace that should come unto you: 11 searching what time or what manner of time [r]the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it [p]testified beforehand the sufferings [4]of Christ, and the glories that should follow them. 12 To whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that [5][s]preached the gospel unto you [6]by [t]the Holy Spirit sent forth from heaven; which things [u]angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore [v]girding up the loins of your mind, [x]be sober and set your [y]hope perfectly on the [q]grace that [7]is to be brought unto you at [k]the revelation of Jesus Christ; 14 as children of [z]obedience, not [a]fashioning yourselves according to your former lusts in the time of your [b]ignorance: 15 but [8]like as [c]he who called you is holy, [d]be ye yourselves also holy [e]in all manner of living; 16 because it is written, Ye shall be holy; for I am holy. 17 And if ye [f]call on him as Father, who [g]without respect of persons [h]judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your [i]sojourning in [k]fear: 18 knowing that ye were [l]redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your [m]vain manner of life handed down from your fathers; 19 but with precious [n]blood, as of a [o]lamb without blemish and without spot, even the blood of Christ: 20 who was [p]foreknown indeed before [q]the foundation of the world, but was [a] manifested at the end of the times [b] for your sake, 21 who through him are [c] believers in God, that raised him from the dead, and [d] gave him glory; so that your faith and [e] hope might be in God. 22 Seeing ye have [f] purified your souls in your [g] obedience to the truth unto unfeigned [h] love of the brethren, love one another [1] from the heart fervently: 23 having been [i] begotten again, [k] not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through [l] the word of [2] God, which liveth and abideth. 24 For, [m] All flesh is as grass,

And all the glory thereof as the flower of grass.
The grass withereth, and the flower falleth: 25 But the [3] word of the Lord abideth for ever.

And this is [n] the [3] word of good tidings which was [4] preached unto you.

2 [o] Putting away therefore all [5] wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all [p] evil speakings, 2 [q] as newborn babes, long for the [6] spiritual [r] milk which is without guile, that ye may [s] grow thereby unto salvation; 3 if ye have [t] tasted [u] that the Lord is gracious: 4 unto whom coming, a living stone, [v] rejected indeed of men, but with God elect, [7] precious, 5 [x] ye also, as living stones, are built up [8] [y] a spiritual house, to be a holy [z] priesthood, to [a] offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 Because it is contained in [9] scripture, [b] Behold, I lay in Zion a [c] chief corner stone, elect, [7] precious:

And he that believeth on [10] him shall not be put to shame.

7 [11] [d] For you therefore that believe is the [12] preciousness: but for such as disbelieve,

[e] The stone which the builders [v] rejected,
The same was made the head of the corner;

8 and,

A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence;

[13] [f] for they [14] stumble at the word, being disobedient: [g] whereunto also they were appointed. 9 But ye are [h] an elect race, a royal [z] priesthood, a [i] holy nation, [k] a people for God's own possession, that ye may show forth the excellencies of him who called you [l] out of darkness into his marvellous light: 10 [m] who in time past were no people, but now are the people of God: who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 [n] Beloved, [o] I beseech you as [p] sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from [q] fleshly lusts, which [r] war against the soul; 12 [s] having your behavior seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they [t] speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, [u] glorify God [v] in the day of visitation.
13 [x] Be subject to every [15] ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme; 14 or unto governors, as sent [16] by him [y] for vengeance on evil-doers and [z] for praise to them that do well. 15 For [a] so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should [b] put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: 16 as [c] free, and not [17] using your freedom for a cloak of [5] wickedness, but as [d] bondservants of God. 17 [e] Honor all men. [f] Love the brotherhood.
[g] Fear God. [h] Honor the king.
18 [18] [i] Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and [k] gentle, but also to the froward. 19 For this is [19] acceptable, if for [l] conscience [20] toward God a man endureth griefs, suffering wrongfully. 20 For what glory is it, if, when ye sin, and are buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, [m] when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is [19] acceptable with God. 21 For [n] hereunto were ye called: [o] because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you [p] an example, that ye should follow his steps: 22 who [a] did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: 23 who, when he was [b] reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but committed [1] himself to him that judgeth righteously: 24 who his own self [2] [c] bare our sins in his body upon [d] the tree, that we, [e] having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; [f] by whose [3] stripes ye were [g] healed. 25 For ye were [h] going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the [i] Shepherd and [4] Bishop of your souls.

3 [k] In like manner, ye wives, [l] be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word [m] be gained by the [5] behavior of their wives; 2 beholding your chaste [5] behavior coupled with fear. 3 [n] Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel; 4 but let it be [o] the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 5 For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, [p] who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own [6] husbands: 6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, [q] calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not [7] [r] put in fear by any terror.

7 [s] Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor [8] unto the woman, as unto the weaker [t] vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, [u] be ye all likeminded, [9] compassionate, [v] loving as brethren, [x] tenderhearted, [y] humbleminded: 9 [z] not rendering evil for evil, or [a] reviling for reviling; but contrariwise [b] blessing; for [c] hereunto were ye called, that ye should [d] inherit a blessing. 10 For,

He that would love life,
And see good days,
Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips that they speak no guile: 11 And let him turn away from evil, and do good; Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, And his ears unto their supplication:
But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil.

13 And [e] who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous of that which is good? 14 But even if ye should [f] suffer for righteousness' sake, [g] blessed are ye: and [h] fear not their fear, neither be troubled; 15 but sanctify in your hearts [i] Christ as Lord: being ready always [k] to give answer to every man that asketh you a reason concerning the [l] hope that is in you, yet [m] with meekness and [n] fear: 16 having a [o] good conscience; that, wherein [p] ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of life in Christ. 17 For [q] it is better, [r] if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. 18 Because [s] Christ also [10] suffered for sins [t] once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might [u] bring us to God; being put to death [v] in the flesh, but made alive [x] in the spirit; 19 in which also he went and [x] preached unto the spirits in prison, 20 that aforetime were disobedient, when the [y] longsuffering of God [z] waited in the days of Noah, while [a] the ark was a preparing, [11] wherein few, that is, [b] eight [c] souls, were saved through water: 21 [d] which also [12] after a true likeness doth now save you, even baptism, [e] not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the [13] interrogation of a [o] good conscience toward God, through [f] the resurrection of Jesus Christ; 22 [g] who is on the right hand of God, [h] having gone into heaven; [i] angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

"No longer live to the Lusts of Men but to the Will of God." "As partakers of Christ's Sufferings, Rejoice"

4 Forasmuch then as [a]Christ suffered in the flesh, [b]arm ye yourselves also with the same [1]mind; for [c]he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased [2]from sin; 2 [d]that [3]ye no longer should live [e]the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 3 For [f]the time past may suffice to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have [g]walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries: 4 wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them into the same [4]excess of [h]riot, [i]speaking evil of you: 5 who shall give account to him that is ready to judge [k]the living and the dead. 6 For unto this end [5]was [l]the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [m]the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and [n]be sober unto [6]prayer: 8 above all things being [o]fervent in your love among yourselves; for [p]love covereth a multitude of sins: 9 [q]using hospitality one to another without [r]murmuring: 10 [s]according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good [t]stewards of the manifold grace of God; 11 [u]if any man speaketh, speaking as it were [v]oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering as of [x]the strength which God supplieth: that [y]in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, [z]whose is the glory and the dominion [7]for ever and ever. Amen.

12 [a]Beloved, think it not strange concerning the [b]fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto you: 13 but insomuch as ye are [c]partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the [d]revelation of his glory also [e]ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14 If ye are reproached [8]for [f]the name of Christ, [g]blessed are ye; [h]because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God resteth upon you. 15 For [i]let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as [k]a meddler in other men's matters: 16 but if a man suffer as a [l]Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him [m]glorify God in this name. 17 For the time is come for judgment [n]to begin at [o]the house of God: and if it begin [p]first at us, what shall be the end of them [q]that obey not the [9][r]gospel of God? 18 And [s]if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the [t]ungodly and sinner appear? 19 Wherefore let them also that suffer according to [u]the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 [v]The elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a [x]fellow-elder, and a [y]witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also [z]a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: 2 Tend [a]the flock of God which is among you, [10]exercising the oversight, [b]not of constraint, but willingly, [11]according to the will of God; [c]nor yet for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; 3 neither as [d]lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves [e]ensamples to the flock. 4 And when the chief [f]Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive the [g]crown of glory that [h]fadeth not away. 5 [12]Likewise, ye [i]younger, [k]be subject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird yourselves with [l]humility, to serve one another: for [m]God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. 6 [n]Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; 7 casting all your [o]anxiety upon him, because he careth for you. 8 [p]Be sober, [q]be watchful: your adversary [r]the devil, as a roaring [s]lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: 9 [r]whom withstand [t]stedfast in [13]your faith, knowing that [u]the same sufferings are [14]accomplished

12 By [h] Silvanus, [5] our faithful brother, as I account him, [i] I have written unto you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is [k] the true grace of God: [l] stand ye fast therein. 13 [6] She that is

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

PETER

1 [1]Simon Peter, a [2][a]servant and [b]apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [3]a [c]like precious faith with us in [d]the righteousness of [4][e]our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 [f]Grace to you and peace be multiplied in [g]the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; 3 seeing that his [h]divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the [g]knowledge of him that [i]called us [5]by his own glory and virtue; 4 whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great [k]promises; that through these ye may become [l]partakers of [6]the divine nature, having [m]escaped from the [n]corruption that is in [o]the world by lust. 5 Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith [p]supply [q]virtue; and in your virtue [r]knowledge; 6 and in your knowledge [s]self-control; and in your self-control [7][t]patience; and in your [7]patience [u]godliness; 7 and in your godliness [8][v]brotherly kindness; and in your [8]brotherly kindness love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor [x]unfruitful unto [g]the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he that lacketh these things is [y]blind, [9]seeing only what is near, having forgotten the [z]cleansing from his old sins. 10 Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your [a]calling and [b]election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never [c]stumble: 11 for thus shall be [d]richly [e]supplied unto you the entrance into [f]the eternal kingdom of our [g]Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore [h]I shall be ready always to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in [i]the truth which is with you. 13 And I think it [k]right, as long as I am in [l]this tabernacle, to [m]stir you up by putting you in remembrance; 14 knowing that [n]the putting off of my tabernacle cometh swiftly, [o]even as our Lord Jesus Christ signified unto me. 15 Yea, I will give diligence that at every time ye may be able after my [10][p]decease to call these things to remembrance. 16 For we did not follow cunningly devised [q]fables, when we made known unto you the [r]power and [11]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were [s]eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he [12]received from God the Father honor and glory, when there was borne such [t]a voice to him by the [u]Majestic Glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: 18 and this voice we ourselves heard borne out of heaven, when we were with him in the [v]holy mount. 19 And we have [x]the word of prophecy made more [y]sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto [z]a lamp shining in a [13]dark place, until the [a]day dawn, and the [b]day-star arise [c]in your hearts: 20 [d]knowing this first, that [e]no prophecy of scripture is of [14]private interpretation. 21 For [f]no prophecy ever [15]came by the will of man: but men spake from God, being [g]moved by the Holy Spirit.

False Teachers and Bondservants of Corruption warned against ψευδωδιδασκαλοι

2 But there arose "[a]false prophets" also among the people, as [b]among you also there shall be [c]false teachers, who shall [d]privily bring in [1][e]destructive heresies, [f]denying even the [g]Master that [h]bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many shall follow their [i]lascivious doings; by reason of whom [k]the way of the truth shall be [l]evil spoken of. 3 And in [m]covetousness shall they with [n]feigned words [o]make merchandise of you: [p]whose sentence now from of old lingereth not, and their destruction slumbereth not. 4 For [q]if God spared not angels when they sinned, but [2]cast them down to [3]hell, and [r]committed them to [4]pits of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 5 and spared not [s]the ancient world, but preserved [t]Noah with seven others, [5]a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a [u]flood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 and [v]turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an [x]example unto those that should [y]live ungodly; 7 and [z]delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the [i]lascivious life of [a]the wicked 8 (for that [b]righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, [6]vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless deeds): 9 [c]the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto [d]the day of judgment; 10 but chiefly them that [e]walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and [f]despise dominion. Daring, [g]selfwilled, they tremble not to [f]rail at [7]dignities: 11 [h]whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgment against them before the Lord. 12 But [i]these, as creatures without reason, [k]born [8]mere animals [9]to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall in their [10]destroying surely be destroyed, 13 suffering wrong as [l]the hire of wrong-doing; men that count it pleasure to [m]revel in the [n]day-time, spots and blemishes, [m]revelling in their [11]deceivings [o]while they feast with you; 14 having eyes full of [12]adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; [p]enticing [q]unstedfast souls; having a heart exercised [r]in covetousness; [s]children of cursing; 15 forsaking [t]the right way, they went astray, having followed [u]the way of Balaam the son of [13]Beor, who loved [v]the hire of wrong-doing; 16 but he was rebuked for his own transgression: [x]a dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed the madness of the prophet. 17 These are [y]springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; [z]for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved. 18 For, uttering [a]great swelling words of [b]vanity, they [p]entice in the lusts of the flesh, by [c]lasciviousness, those who are just [d]escaping from them that live in error; 19 promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for [e]of [14]whom a man is overcome, of the same is he also brought into bondage. 20 For if, after they have [f]escaped the defilements of the world through [g]the knowledge of [15]the [h]Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again [i]entangled therein and overcome, [k]the last state is become worse with them than the first. 21 [l]For it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from [m]the holy commandment [n]delivered unto them. 22 It has happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire. Prov. xxvi. 11.

Mockers and their Destiny. "The Day of the Lord will come as a Thief." Exhortation to Stedfastness. Doxology words which were spoken before by [a] the holy prophets, and [b] the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: 3 [c] knowing this first, that [1] [d] in the last days [e] mockers shall come with mockery, [f] walking after their own lusts, 4 and saying, [g] Where is the promise of his [2] [h] coming? for, from the day that the fathers [i] fell asleep, all things continue as they were [k] from the beginning of the creation. 5 For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth [l] compacted out of water and [3] amidst water, [m] by the word of God; 6 by which means [n] the world that then was, being overflowed with water, [o] perished: 7 but [p] the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been [4] stored up for [q] fire, being reserved against [r] the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8 But forget not this one thing, [s] beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [t] a thousand years as one day. 9 [u] The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but [v] is longsuffering to you-ward, [x] not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But [y] the day of the Lord [z] will come as a thief; in the which [p] the heavens [a] shall pass away with a great noise, and the [5] [b] elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and [c] the earth and the works that are therein shall be [6] burned up. 11 Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living and godliness, 12 [d] looking for and [7] earnestly desiring the [8] coming of the day of God, by reason of which [p] the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the [5] [b] elements shall melt with fervent heat? 13 But, according to his [e] promise, we look for [f] new heavens and a new earth, [g] wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 [h] Wherefore, [s] beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be [i] found in peace, [k] without spot and blameless in his sight. 15 And account that the [l] longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as [m] our beloved brother Paul also, [n] according to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; 16 as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of [o] these things; [p] wherein are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and [q] unstedfast wrest, as they do also [r] the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. 17 Ye therefore, [s] beloved, knowing these things beforehand, [t] beware lest, being carried away with [u] the error of [v] the wicked, ye [x] fall from your own stedfastness. 18 But grow in the grace and [y] knowledge of our [z] Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. [a] To him be the glory both now and [9] for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF

JOHN

Introduction. "Walk in the light . . . even as He walked." The Contrasted Darkness

1 That which was [a] from the beginning, that which we have [b] heard, that which we have [c] seen with our eyes, that which we [d] beheld, and our hands [e] handled, concerning the [1f] Word of life 2 (and [g] the life was manifested, and we have [c] seen, and [h] bear witness, and declare unto you the life, [i] the eternal life, which was [k] with the Father, and was [g] manifested unto us); 3 that which we have [c] seen and [b] heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our [l] fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: 4 and [m] these things we write, that [2] our [n] joy may be made full.

5 And [o] this is the message which we have heard from him and announce unto you, that [p] God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 [q] If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we [r] lie, and [s] do not the truth: 7 but if we [t] walk in the light, as [u] he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and [v] the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 8 [x] If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the [y] truth is not in us. 9 [z] If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and [v] to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 [x] If we say that we have not sinned, we [a] make him a liar, and [b] his word is not in us.

2 [c] My little children, [d] these things write I unto you that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, [e] we have an [3f] Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: 2 and he is [g] the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also [h] for the whole world. 3 And [i] hereby we know that we [k] know him, if we [l] keep his commandments. 4 He that saith, [m] I [k] know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a [n] liar, and [o] the truth is not in him; 5 but whoso [p] keepeth his word, in him verily hath the [q] love of God been perfected. [i] Hereby we know that we are in him: 6 he that saith he [r] abideth in him [s] ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

7 [t] Beloved, [u] no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had [v] from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye heard. 8 Again, [x] a new commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because [y] the darkness is passing away, and [z] the true light already shineth. 9 He that saith he is in the light and [a] hateth his [b] brother, is in the darkness even until now. 10 [c] He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him. 11 But he that [a] hateth his brother is in the darkness, and [d] walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath [e] blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, my [f] little children, because [g] your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. 13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye know him [a]who is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because [b]ye have overcome [c]the evil one. [1]I have written unto you, little children, because [d]ye know the Father. 14 [1]I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him [a]who is from the beginning. [1]I have written unto you, young men, because ye are [e]strong, and the [f]word of God abideth in you, and [g]ye have overcome the evil one. 15 Love not [h]the world, neither the things that are in the world. [i]If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, [k]the lust of the flesh and [l]the lust of the eyes and [m]the vainglory of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. 17 And [n]the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, [o]it is the last hour: and as ye heard that [p]antichrist cometh, [q]even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last hour. 19 [r]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but they went out, [s]that they might be made manifest [2]that they all are not of us. 20 And ye have an [t]anointing from [u]the Holy One, [3]and [v]ye know all things. 21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but [x]because ye know it, and [4]because no lie is [y]of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but [z]he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is [p]the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father and the Son. 23 [a]Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also. 24 As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard [b]from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also [c]shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. 25 And [d]this is the promise which he promised [5]us, even the life eternal. 26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that would [e]lead you astray. 27 And as for you, the [f]anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing [g]teacheth you concerning all things, [6]and is [h]true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, [7]ye abide in him. 28 And now, my [i]little children, abide in him; that, if he [k]shall be manifested, we may have [l]boldness, and [m]not be ashamed [8]before him at his [9][n]coming. 29 If ye know that [o]he is righteous, [10]ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness [p]is begotten of him.

3 Behold [q]what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called [r]children of God; and such we are. For this cause the world knoweth us not, because [s]it knew him not. 2 [t]Beloved, now are we [r]children of God, and [u]it is not yet made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if [11]he [k]shall be manifested, we shall be [v]like him; for we shall [x]see him even as he is. 3 And every one that hath this [y]hope set on him [z]purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 4 Every one that doeth sin doeth also lawlessness; and [a]sin is lawlessness. 5 And ye know that he [b]was manifested to [12][c]take away sins; and [d]in him is no sin. 6 Whosoever abideth in him [e]sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither [13][f]knoweth him. 7 My [g]little children, let no man [h]lead you astray: [i]he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous: 8 he that doeth sin is [k]of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was [l]the Son of God [b]manifested, [m]that he might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Whosoever is [p]begotten of God [n]doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. 10 In this the [a] children of God are manifest, and the [b] children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that [c] loveth not his [d] brother. 11 [e] For this is the message [f] which ye heard from the beginning, [g] that we should love one another: 12 not as [h] Cain was of [i] the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because [k] his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, brethren, if [l] the world hateth you. 14 We know that we have [m] passed out of death into life, [n] because we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. 15 Whosoever [o] hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [p] no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 16 Hereby know we love, because [q] he laid down his life for us: and [r] we ought to lay down our lives for the [s] brethren. 17 But [t] whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and [u] shutteth up his compassion from him, [v] how doth the love of God abide in him? 18 My [x] little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and [y] truth. 19 Hereby shall we know that we are [z] of the truth, and shall [1] assure our heart [2] before him: 20 because if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 [a] Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we have [b] boldness toward God; 22 and [c] whatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we [d] keep his commandments and do [e] the things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should [3][f] believe in [g] the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as [h] he gave us commandment. 24 And he that [d] keepeth his commandments [i] abideth in him, and he in him. And [k] hereby we know that [l] he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4 [a] Beloved, believe not every [m] spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God; because [n] many false prophets are gone out into the world. 2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [o] every spirit that [p] confesseth that [q] Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: 3 and every spirit that [4][r] confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the spirit of the [s] antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; and [t] now it is in the world already. 4 Ye are of God, my [u] little children, and [v] have overcome them: because [x] greater is he that is in you than [y] he that is in the world. 5 [z] They are of the world: therefore speak they as of the world, and the world heareth them. 6 [a] We are of God: [b] he that knoweth God heareth us; [c] he who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know [d] the spirit of truth, and [e] the spirit of error.

7 [f] Beloved, let us [g] love one another: for love is of God; and [h] every one that loveth is [i] begotten of God, and [k] knoweth God. 8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for [l] God is love. 9 Herein was the love of God manifested [5][m] in us, that [n] God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world that we might live through him. 10 Herein is love, [o] not that we loved God, but that [n] he loved us, and sent his Son to be [p] the propitiation for our sins. 11 [f] Beloved, if God so loved us, [q] we also ought to love one another. 12 [q] No man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his [r] love is perfected in us: 13 [s] hereby we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 14 And we have beheld and [t] bear witness that the Father hath [u] sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. 15 [v] Whosoever shall confess that [x] Jesus is the Son of God, God [a] abideth in him, and he in God. 16 And [b] we know and have believed the love which God hath [1][c] in us. [d] God is love; and he that [e] abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him. 17 Herein is [f] love made perfect with us, that we may have [g] boldness in [h] the day of judgment; because [i] as he is, even so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love: but [k] perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not [f] made perfect in love. 19 [l] We love, because he first loved us. 20 [m] If a man say, I love God, and [n] hateth his brother, he is a [o] liar: for [p] he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, [2][q] cannot love God whom he hath not seen. 21 And [r] this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God [s] love his brother also.

5 [t] Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is [u] begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begat [v] loveth him also that is begotten of him. 2 [x] Hereby we know that [y] we love the children of God, when we love God and do his commandments. 3 For [z] this is the love of God, that we [a] keep his commandments: and [b] his commandments are not grievous. 4 For whatsoever is [u] begotten of God [c] overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith. 5 And who is he that overcometh the world, but he that [d] believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This is he that came [e] by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not [3] with the water only, but [3] with the water and [3] with the blood. 7 And it is [f] the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 8 For there are [g] three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the three agree in one. 9 [h] If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that [i] he hath borne witness concerning his Son. 10 He that believeth on the Son of God [k] hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath [l] made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his Son. 11 And the witness is this, that God gave unto us [m] eternal life, and [n] this life is in his Son. 12 [o] He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

13 [p] These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have [m] eternal life, even unto you that [q] believe on the name of the Son of God. 14 And this is [r] the boldness which we have toward him, that, [s] if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us: 15 and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, [t] we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him. 16 If any man see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, [4][u] he shall ask, and God will give him life for them that sin not unto death. [v] There is [5] a sin unto death: [x] not concerning this do I say that he should make request. 17 [y] All unrighteousness is sin: and [z] there is [5] a sin not unto death.

18 [t] We know that [a] whosoever is begotten of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God [b] keepeth [6] himself, and [c] the evil one [d] toucheth him not. 19 [t] We know that [e] we are of God, and [f] the whole world lieth in the evil one. 20 And [t] we know that [g] the Son of God is come, and hath [h] given us an understanding, that we know [i] him that is true, and we [k] are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. [l] This is the true God, and [m] eternal life. 21 My [n] little children, guard yourselves from [o] idols.

Salutation. "Walk after His Commandments." "Abide in the Teaching of Christ." Farewell

1 [a]The elder unto the [b]elect [1][c]lady and her children, whom I [d]love in truth; and not I only, but also all they that [e]know the truth; 2 for [f]the truth's sake which abideth [g]in us, and it shall be [h]with us for ever: 3 [i]Grace, mercy, peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 [k]I rejoice greatly that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received commandment from the Father. 5 And now I beseech thee, [1]lady, [l]not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had [l]from the beginning, that we [m]love one another. 6 And [n]this is love, that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, [o]even as ye heard [l]from the beginning, that ye should walk in it. 7 For [p]many deceivers are [q]gone forth into the world, even they that [r]confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the flesh. This is [p]the deceiver and the [s]antichrist. 8 [t]Look to yourselves, [u]that ye [2]lose not the things which [3]we have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward. 9 Whosoever [4]goeth onward and [v]abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the Son. 10 If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth not this teaching, [x]receive him not into your house, and give him no greeting: 11 for he that giveth him greeting [y]partaketh in his evil works.

12 [z]Having many things to write unto you, I would not write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face, that your [a]joy may be made full. 13 The children of thine [b]elect sister salute thee.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN

1 [a]The elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I [b]love in truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. 3 For I [1][c]rejoiced greatly, when [d]brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou [c]walkest in truth. 4 Greater joy have I none than [2]this, to hear of [e]my children [c]walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are [d]brethren and [f]strangers withal; 6 who bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to [g]set forward on their journey [h]worthily of God: 7 because that for the sake of [i]the Name they went forth, [k]taking nothing of the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers [3]for the truth.

9 I wrote somewhat unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the [l]preëminence among them, receiveth us not. 10 Therefore, [m]if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself [n]receive the [d]brethren, and them that would he forbiddeth and [o]casteth them out of the church. 11 Beloved, [p]imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. [q]He that doeth good is of God: [r]he that doeth evil hath not seen God. 12 Demetrius [s]hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness; and [t]thou knowest that our witness is true.

13 [u]I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen: 14 but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. [v]Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends [x]by name.

THE EPISTLE OF

JUDE

General Salutation. "Contend earnestly for the Faith." The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

1 [1][a] Jude, a [2][b] servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of [3] James, [4] to [c] them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and [d] kept for Jesus Christ: 2 [e] Mercy unto you and peace and love [f] be multiplied.

3 [g] Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our [h] common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to [i] contend earnestly for [k] the faith which was once for all [l] delivered unto [m] the saints. 4 For there are certain men [n] crept in privily, even they who were of old [5][o] written of beforehand unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning [p] the grace of our God into [q] lasciviousness, and [r] denying [6] our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to [s] put you in remembrance, though [t] ye know all things once for all, that [7] the Lord, [u] having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, [8] afterward destroyed them that believed not. 6 And [v] angels that kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath [x] kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as [y] Sodom and Gomorrah, and the [z] cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication and [a] gone after strange flesh, are set forth [9] as an [b] example, suffering the [c] punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings [d] defile the flesh, and [d] set at nought dominion, and [d] rail at [10] dignities. 9 But [e] Michael [f] the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about [g] the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing judgment, but said, [h] The Lord rebuke thee. 10 But [i] these rail at whatsoever things they know not: and [k] what they understand naturally, [i] like the creatures without reason, in these things are they [11] destroyed. 11 Woe unto them! for they went in [l] the way of Cain, and [12] ran riotously in [m] the error of Balaam for hire, and [n] perished in the gainsaying of Korah. 12 These are they who are [13] hidden rocks [o] in your love-feasts when they feast with you, [p] shepherds that without fear feed themselves; [q] clouds without water, [r] carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, [s] plucked up by the roots; 13 [t] wild waves of the sea, foaming out [u] their own [14] shame; wandering stars, [v] for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved for ever. 14 And to these also [x] Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, [y] Behold, the Lord came with [15] ten thousands of his holy ones, 15 [z] to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have ungodly wrought, and of all the hard things which [a] ungodly sinners have spoken against him. 16 These are [b] murmurers, complainers, [c] walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaketh [d] great swelling words), showing respect of persons [e] for the sake of advantage.

17 But ye, [f] beloved, [g] remember ye the words which have been spoken before by [h] the apostles

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN

Address to Gaius. Prayer for his Prosperity. "He that doeth good is of God." "Peace be unto Thee"

1 [a]The elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I [b]love in truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. 3 For I [1][c]rejoiced greatly, when [d]brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou [c]walkest in truth. 4 Greater joy have I none than [2]this, to hear of [e]my children [c]walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are [d]brethren and [f]strangers withal; 6 who bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to [g]set forward on their journey [h]worthily of God: 7 because that for the sake of [i]the Name they went forth, [k]taking nothing of the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers [3]for the truth.

9 I wrote somewhat unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the [l]preëminence among them, receiveth us not. 10 Therefore, [m]if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself [n]receive the [d]brethren, and them that would he forbiddeth and [o]casteth them out of the church. 11 Beloved, [p]imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. [q]He that doeth good is of God: [r]he that doeth evil hath not seen God. 12 Demetrius [s]hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness; and [t]thou knowest that our witness is true.

13 [u]I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen: 14 but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. [v]Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends [x]by name.

THE EPISTLE OF

---

1 [1][a] Jude, a [2][b] servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of [3] James, [4] to [c] them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and [d] kept for Jesus Christ: 2 [e] Mercy unto you and peace and love [f] be multiplied.

3 [g] Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our [h] common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to [i] contend earnestly for [k] the faith which was once for all [l] delivered unto [m] the saints. 4 For there are certain men [n] crept in privily, even they who were of old [5][o] written of beforehand unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning [p] the grace of our God into [q] lasciviousness, and [r] denying [6] our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to [s] put you in remembrance, though [t] ye know all things once for all, that [7] the Lord, [u] having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, [8] afterward destroyed them that believed not. 6 And [v] angels that kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath [x] kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as [y] Sodom and Gomorrah, and the [z] cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication and [a] gone after strange flesh, are set forth [9] as an [b] example, suffering the [c] punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings [d] defile the flesh, and [d] set at nought dominion, and [d] rail at [10] dignities. 9 But [e] Michael [f] the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about [g] the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing judgment, but said, [h] The Lord rebuke thee. 10 But [i] these rail at whatsoever things they know not: and [k] what they understand naturally, [i] like the creatures without reason, in these things are they [11] destroyed. 11 Woe unto them! for they went in [l] the way of Cain, and [12] ran riotously in [m] the error of Balaam for hire, and [n] perished in the gainsaying of Korah. 12 These are they who are [13] hidden rocks [o] in your love-feasts when they feast with you, [p] shepherds that without fear feed themselves; [q] clouds without water, [r] carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, [s] plucked up by the roots; 13 [t] wild waves of the sea, foaming out [u] their own [14] shame; wandering stars, [v] for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved for ever. 14 And to these also [x] Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, [y] Behold, the Lord came with [15] ten thousands of his holy ones, 15 [z] to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have ungodly wrought, and of all the hard things which [a] ungodly sinners have spoken against him. 16 These are [b] murmurers, complainers, [c] walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaketh [d] great swelling words), showing respect of persons [e] for the sake of advantage.

17 But ye, [f] beloved, [g] remember ye the words which have been spoken before by [h] the apostles things which are, and the things which shall come to pass [a]hereafter; 20 the [b]mystery of the [c]seven stars which thou sawest [1]in my right hand, and the [d]seven golden [2]candlesticks. The [c]seven stars are the angels of [e]the seven churches: and the seven [2,f]candlesticks are seven churches.

2 To the angel of the church in [g]Ephesus write:

These things saith he that holdeth [h]the seven stars in his right hand, he that walketh [i]in the midst of the seven golden [2]candlesticks: 2 [k]I know thy works, and thy toil and [3]patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst [l]try them that call themselves [m]apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false; 3 and thou hast [3]patience and didst bear [n]for my name's sake, and hast not grown weary. 4 But I have this against thee, that thou didst [o]leave thy first love. 5 Remember therefore whence thou art fallen, and [p]repent and [q]do the first works; or else I come to thee, and will move thy [4,r]candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. 6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the [s]Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 [t]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. [u]To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of [v]the tree of life, which is in the [5,x]Paradise of God.

8 And to the angel of the church in [y]Smyrna write:

These things saith [z]the first and the last, who [6,a]was dead, and lived again: 9 I know thy [b]tribulation, and thy [c]poverty (but thou art [c]rich), and the [7]blasphemy of them that [d]say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of [e]Satan. 10 Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be [f]tried; [8]and ye shall have [9]tribulation [g]ten days. Be thou [h]faithful unto death, and I will give thee [i]the crown of life. 11 [t]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. [u]He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the [k]second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in [l]Pergamum write:

These things saith he that hath [m]the sharp two-edged sword: 13 I know where thou dwellest, even where [e]Satan's throne is; and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny [n]my faith, even in the days [10]of Antipas my [o]witness, my [h]faithful one, who was killed among you, [p]where Satan dwelleth. 14 But [q]I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there some that hold the [r]teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, [s]to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication. 15 So hast thou also some that hold the teaching of the [t]Nicolaitans in like manner. 16 [u]Repent therefore; or else [v]I come to thee quickly, and I will make war against them with [x]the sword of my mouth. 17 [y]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. [z]To him that overcometh, to him will I give of the hidden [a]manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a [b]new name written, [c]which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.

18 And to the angel of the church in [d]Thyatira write:

These things saith [e]the Son of God, [f]who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like unto burnished brass: 19 [g]I know thy works, and thy love and faith and ministry and [3]patience, and that thy last works are more than the first. 20 But [h]I have this against thee, that thou sufferest [11]the woman [i]Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess; and she teacheth and seduceth my [12]servants [s]to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And [k]I gave her time that she should repent; and she [l]willeth not to repent of her fornication. 22 Behold, I cast her into a bed, and them that [m]commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of [1]her works. 23 And I will kill her children with [2]death; and all the churches shall know that I am he that [a]searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto each one of you according to your works. 24 But to you I say, to the rest that are in [b]Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, who know not the [c]deep things of Satan, as they are wont to say; I [d]cast upon you none other burden. 25 Nevertheless [e]that which ye have, hold fast [f]till I come. 26 And [g]he that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works [h]unto the end, to him will I give [i]authority over the [3]nations: 27 and he shall [k]rule them with a rod of [4]iron, [l]as the vessels of the potter are broken to shivers; as I also have received of my Father: 28 and I will give him [m]the morning star. 29 [n]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

3 And to the angel of the church in [o]Sardis write:

These things saith he that hath [p]the seven Spirits of God, and [q]the seven stars: [r]I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and thou art [s]dead. 2 Be thou watchful, and establish the things that remain, which were ready to die: for I have [5]found no works of thine perfected before my God. 3 [t]Remember therefore how thou hast received and didst hear; and keep it, and [t]repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, [u]I will come [v]as a thief, and thou shalt not know [x]what hour I will come upon thee. 4 But thou hast a few [y]names in [o]Sardis that did not [z]defile their garments: and they shall walk with me [a]in white; for they are worthy. 5 [b]He that overcometh shall thus be arrayed in [c]white garments; and I will in no wise [d]blot his name out of the book of life, and [e]I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. 6 [f]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in [g]Philadelphia write:

These things saith [h]he that is holy, [i]he that is true, he that hath [k]the key of David, he that openeth and none shall shut, and that shutteth and none openeth: 8 [l]I know thy works (behold, I have [6]set before thee [m]a door opened, which none can shut), that thou hast a little power, and didst keep my word, and [n]didst not deny my name. 9 Behold, I give of [o]the synagogue of Satan, of them that say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to [p]come and [7]worship before thy feet, and to know that [q]I have loved thee. 10 Because thou didst [r]keep the word of [s]my [8]patience, [t]I also will keep thee from the hour of [9][u]trial, that hour which is to come upon the whole [10][v]world, to [11]try [x]them that dwell upon the earth. 11 [y]I come quickly: [z]hold fast that which thou hast, that no one take thy [a]crown. 12 [b]He that overcometh, I will make him a [c]pillar in the [12]temple of my God, and he shall go out thence no more: and I will write upon him the [d]name of my God, and [e]the name of the city of my God, [f]the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God, and mine own [g]new name. 13 [h]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

14 And to the angel of the church in [i]Laodicea write:

These things saith [k]the Amen, [l]the faithful and true witness, [m]the beginning of the creation of God: 15 [n]I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: [o]I would thou wert cold or hot. 16 So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. 17 Because thou sayest, [p]I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked: 18 I counsel thee to

The Throne in Heaven. The Book sealed with Seven Seals

[a] buy of me [b] gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and [c] white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and that [d] the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see. 19 [e] As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and [f] repent. 20 Behold, I stand [g] at the door and [h] knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, [i] I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. 21 [k] He that overcometh, I will give to him [l] to sit down with me in my throne, as [m] I also overcame, and sat down with my Father in his throne. 22 [n] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

4 After [o] these things I saw, and behold, [p] a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, a voice [q] as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, [r] Come up hither, and I will [s] show thee the things which must [1] come to pass hereafter. 2 Straightway I was [t] in the Spirit: and behold, there was [u] a throne set in heaven, and [v] one sitting upon the throne; 3 and he that sat was to look upon like a [x] jasper stone and a [y] sardius: and there was a [z] rainbow round about the throne, like an [a] emerald to look upon. 4 And [b] round about the throne were [c] four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones I saw [d] four and twenty elders [l] sitting, arrayed in [e] white garments; and on their heads [f] crowns of gold. 5 And out of the throne proceed [g] lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were [h] seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are [i] the seven Spirits of God; 6 and before the throne, as it were a [2] [k] sea of glass like unto crystal; and in the midst [3] of the throne, and [l] round about the throne, [m] four living creatures [n] full of eyes before and behind. 7 [o] And the first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face as of a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle. 8 And the [m] four living creatures, having each one of them [p] six wings, are [n] full of eyes round about and within: and [q] they have no rest day and night, saying,

[r] Holy, holy, holy, is the [s] Lord God, the Almighty, [t] who was and who is and [4] who is to come.

9 And when the living creatures shall give glory and honor and thanks to him that [u] sitteth on the throne, to [v] him that liveth [5] for ever and ever, 10 the [x] four and twenty elders shall [y] fall down before him that [u] sitteth on the throne, and shall worship [v] him that liveth [5] for ever and ever, and shall cast their [z] crowns before the throne, saying,

11 [a] Worthy art thou, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power: for thou [b] didst create all things, and because of thy will they were, and were created.

5 And I saw [6] in the right hand of him that [c] sat on the throne a [d] book written within and on the back, [e] close sealed with seven seals. 2 And I saw a [f] strong angel proclaiming with a great voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? 3 And no one [g] in the heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look thereon. 4 And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look thereon: 5 and one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not; behold, the [h] Lion that is [i] of the tribe of Judah, the [k] Root of David, hath overcome to open the book and the seven seals thereof. 6 And I saw [7] in the midst of the throne and of the [l] four living creatures, and in the midst of [m] the elders, a [n] Lamb standing, as though it had been [o] slain, having seven [p] horns, and [q] seven eyes, which are [r] the [8] seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth. 7 And he came, and he [9] taketh [s] it out of the right hand of him that [s] sat on the throne.

The Opening of the Seals: the First Seal; Second Seal; Third Seal; Fourth Seal; Fifth Seal; Sixth Seal

8 And when he had taken the book, the [a]four living creatures and the [b]four and twenty elders [c]fell down before the [d]Lamb, having each one a [e]harp, and [f]golden bowls full of incense, which are the [g]prayers of the saints. 9 And they sing a [h]new song, saying,

[i]Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast [k]slain, and didst [l]purchase unto God with thy blood men of [m]every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, 10 and madest them to be unto our God a [n]kingdom and [n]priests; and they [o]reign upon the earth.

11 And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels [p]round about the throne and the [a]living creatures and the [b]elders; and the number of them was [q]ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; 12 saying with a great voice, [r]Worthy is the [d]Lamb that hath been [k]slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honor, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [s]every created thing which is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying,

Unto him that [t]sitteth on the throne, and unto the [d]Lamb, [u]be the blessing, and the honor, and the glory, and the dominion, [1]for ever and ever.

14 And the [a]four living creatures said, [v]Amen. And the [b]elders [c]fell down and [2]worshipped.

And I saw when the [d]Lamb opened one of [x]the seven seals, and I heard one of the [a]four living creatures saying as with a [y]voice of thunder, Come[3]. 2 And I saw, and behold, a [z]white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him [a]a crown: and he came forth [b]conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the [c]second living creature saying, Come[3]. 4 And another horse came forth, [d]a red horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given to [e]take [4]peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he opened the third seal, I heard the [c]third living creature saying, Come[3]. And I saw, and behold, a [f]black horse; and he that sat thereon had a [g]balance in his hand. 6 And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the [h]four living creatures saying, [5]A measure of wheat for a [6]shilling, and three measures of barley for a [6]shilling; and the oil and the wine [i]hurt thou not.

7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the [c]fourth living creature saying, Come[3]. 8 And I saw, and behold, a [k]pale horse: and he that sat upon him, his name was [l]Death; and [l]Hades followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, [m]to kill with sword, and with famine, and with [7]death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw [n]underneath the [o]altar the [p]souls of them that had been slain [q]for the word of God, and for the [r]testimony which they held: 10 and they cried with a great voice, saying, [s]How long, O [t]Master, the [u]holy and true, dost thou not [v]judge and avenge our blood on [x]them that dwell on the earth? 11 And [y]there was given them to each one a white robe; and it was said unto them, that they should [z]rest yet for a little time, [a]until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, who should be killed even as they were, should [8]have [b]fulfilled their course.

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great [c]earthquake; and [d]the sun became black as [e]sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; 13 and [f]the stars of the heaven fell unto the earth,

The Sixth Angel sounds. The Angel with the Little Book. The Book eaten up. The Fate of the City and the Temple don, and in the Greek tongue he hath the name [1] Apollyon.

12 [a] The first Woe is past: behold, there come yet two Woes hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard [2] a voice from the [b] horns of the [c] golden altar which is before God, 14 one saying to the sixth angel that had the trumpet, Loose the [d] four angels that are bound at the [e] great river Euphrates. 15 And the four angels were [f] loosed, that had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the [g] third part of men. 16 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice [h] ten thousand times ten thousand: [i] I heard the number of them. 17 And thus I saw the horses [k] in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of [l] brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and [m] out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and [l] brimstone. 18 By these three plagues was the [g] third part of men killed, by the [n] fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them they hurt. 20 And the rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, [o] repented not of the [p] works of their hands, that they should not [3] [q] worship demons, and [r] the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk: 21 and they [o] repented not of their murders, nor of their [s] sorceries, nor of their [t] fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another [u] strong angel [v] coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the [x] rainbow was upon his head, and [y] his face was as the sun, and his [z] feet as pillars of fire; 2 and he had in his hand a [a] little book open: and he set [b] his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth; 3 and he cried with a great voice, [c] as a lion roareth: and when he cried, the [d] seven thunders uttered their voices. 4 And when the seven thunders uttered their voices, [e] I was about to write: and I [f] heard a voice from heaven saying, [g] Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. 5 And the angel that I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth [h] lifted up his right hand to heaven, 6 and sware by [i] him that liveth [4] for ever and ever, who [k] created the heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, [5] and the sea and the things that are therein, that [l] there shall be [6] delay no longer: 7 but in the days of the voice of the [m] seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished [n] the mystery of God, according to the good tidings which he declared to his [7] servants the prophets. 8 And [o] the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard it again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take [p] the book which is open in the hand of the angel that [p] standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. 9 And I went unto the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. And he saith unto me, [q] Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but in thy mouth it shall be sweet as honey. 10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was made bitter. 11 And [r] they say unto me, Thou must [s] prophesy again [8] over [t] many peoples and nations and tongues and [u] kings.

11 And there was given me a [v] reed like unto a rod: [9] and [r] one said, Rise, and measure the [10] temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. 2 And the [x] court which is without the [10] temple [11] leave without, and measure it not; for [y] it hath been given unto the [12] nations: and [z] the holy city shall they [a] tread under foot [b] forty and two months. 3 And I will give unto my two [a] witnesses, and they shall prophesy a [b] thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in [c] sackcloth. 4 These are the [d] two olive trees and the two [1] candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth. 5 And if any man desireth to hurt them, [e] fire proceedeth out of their mouth and devoureth their enemies; and if any man shall desire to hurt them, [f] in this manner must he be killed. 6 These have the power to [g] shut the heaven, that it rain not during [h] the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to [i] turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they shall desire. 7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, [k] the beast [l] that cometh up out of the [m] abyss shall [n] make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. 8 And their [2] dead bodies lie in the street of the [o] great city, which spiritually is called [p] Sodom and [q] Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. 9 And from among [r] the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do men look upon their [2] dead bodies three days and a half, and [s] suffer not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10 And [t] they that dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall [u] send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented [t] them that dwell on the earth. 11 And after the three days and a half [v] the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them that beheld them. 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, [x] Come up hither. And they [y] went up into heaven in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. 13 And in that hour there was a great [z] earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and there were killed in the earthquake [3] seven thousand persons: and the rest were affrighted, and [a] gave glory to the [b] God of heaven.

14 The second [c] Woe is past: behold, the third Woe cometh quickly.

15 And the [d] seventh angel sounded; and there followed [e] great voices in heaven, and they said, [f] The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of [g] his Christ: and [h] he shall reign [4] for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, who [i] sit before God on their thrones, [k] fell upon their faces and worshipped God, 17 saying,

We give thee thanks, [l] O Lord God, the Almighty, who art and who wast; because thou hast taken thy great power, and didst [m] reign. 18 And [n] the nations were wroth, and thy wrath came, and [o] the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy [5] [p] servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, [q] the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth.

19 And [r] there was opened the [6] temple of God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his [6] temple [s] the ark of his covenant; and there followed [t] lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and [u] great hail.

And a great [v] sign was seen [x] in heaven: [y] a woman [z] arrayed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; 2 and she was with child; and she [a] crieth out, travailing in birth, and in pain to be delivered. 3 And there was seen [b] another sign in heaven: and behold, a great red [c] dragon, having [d] seven heads and [e] ten horns, and upon his heads [f] seven diadems. 4 And his tail draweth the [g] third part of the stars of heaven, and did [h] cast them to the earth: and the [c] dragon standeth before the woman that is about to be delivered, that when she is delivered [a] he may devour her child. 5 And she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to [b] rule all the [1] nations with a rod of iron: and her child was [c] caught up unto God, and unto his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her [d] a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [e] Michael and his angels going forth to war with the [f] dragon; and the dragon warred and [g] his angels; 8 and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And the great [f] dragon was cast down, the old [h] serpent, he that is called the Devil and [i] Satan, the [k] deceiver of the whole [2] world; he was [l] cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. 10 And I heard [m] a great voice in heaven, saying,

[3] Now is come the [n] salvation, and the power, and the [o] kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the [p] accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accuseth them before our God day and night. 11 And they [q] overcame him because of [r] the blood of the Lamb, and because of [s] the word of their testimony; and they [t] loved not their life even unto death. 12 Therefore [u] rejoice, O heavens, and [v] ye that [4] dwell in them. [x] Woe for the earth and for the sea: because [y] the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but [z] a short time.

13 And when the [f] dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted [a] the woman that brought forth the man child. 14 And there were given to the woman the [b] two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly [c] into the wilderness unto her place, where she is nourished for [d] a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15 And the [h] serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water [e] as a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon waxed wroth with the woman, and went away to [f] make war with the rest of her [g] seed, that [h] keep the commandments of God, and [i] hold the testimony of Jesus: 13 1 and [5] he stood upon the sand of the sea.

And I saw a [k] beast coming up out of the sea, having [l] ten horns and [l] seven heads, and on his horns [m] ten diadems, and upon his heads [n] names of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was [o] like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of [p] a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of [q] a lion: and the [r] dragon gave him his power, and his [s] throne, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads as though it had been [6] smitten unto death; and his [t] death-stroke was healed: and the whole earth [u] wondered after the beast; 4 and they [7] worshipped the [r] dragon, because he [r] gave his authority unto the beast; and they [7] worshipped the beast, saying, [v] Who is like unto the beast? and who is able to war with him? 5 and there was given to him a mouth [x] speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to him authority [8] to continue [y] forty and two months. 6 And he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, even [z] them that [4] dwell in the heaven. 7 [9] And it was given unto him to [a] make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over [b] every tribe and people and tongue and nation. 8 And all that [c] dwell on the earth shall [7] worship him, every one [d] whose name hath not been [10] written [e] from the foundation of the world in the book of life of [f] the Lamb that hath been slain. 9 [g] If any man hath an ear, let him hear. 10 [1][a]If any man [2]is for captivity, into captivity he goeth: [b]if any man shall kill with the sword, with the sword must he be killed. Here is [c]the [3]patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And [d]I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had [e]two horns like unto a lamb, and he spake as a [f]dragon. 12 And he [f]exerciseth all the authority of the first beast [g]in his sight. And he maketh [h]the earth and them that dwell therein to [4][i]worship the first beast, whose [k]death-stroke was healed. 13 And he [l]doeth great signs, that he should even make [m]fire to come down out of heaven upon the earth in the sight of men. 14 And he [n]deceiveth [h]them that dwell on the earth by reason of [o]the signs which it was given him to do [g]in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who hath the [k]stroke of the sword and lived. 15 And it was given unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, [5]that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that [p]as many as should not [4][i]worship the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And he causeth all, [q]the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a [r]mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead; 17 and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the [r]mark, even [s]the name of the beast or [t]the number of his name. 18 [u]Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number [v]of a man: and his number is [6]Six hundred and sixty and six.

14 And I saw, and behold, [x]the Lamb standing on the [y]mount Zion, and with him a [z]hundred and forty and four thousand, having [a]his name, and the [a]name of his Father, written [b]on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as [c]the voice of many waters, and as the [d]voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of [e]harpers harping with their harps: 3 and they sing as it were [f]a new song before the throne, and before the [g]four living creatures and the [h]elders: and [i]no man could learn the song save the [z]hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that had been [k]purchased out of the earth. 4 [l]These are they that were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they that [m]follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were [k]purchased from among men, to be [n]the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb. 5 And [o]in their mouth was found no lie: they are [p]without blemish.

6 And I saw another angel flying in [q]mid heaven, having [7][r]eternal good tidings to proclaim unto [s]them that [8]dwell on the earth, and unto [t]every nation and tribe and tongue and people; 7 and he saith with a great voice, [u]Fear God, and [v]give him glory; for the hour of his judgment is come: and [4]worship him that [x]made the heaven and the earth and sea and [y]fountains of waters.

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying, [z]Fallen, fallen is [a]Babylon the great, that hath [b]made all the nations to drink of the [c]wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, If any man [4][d]worshippeth the beast and his [e]image, and receiveth a [f]mark on his forehead, or upon his hand, 10 he also shall drink of the [g]wine of the wrath of God, which is [9]prepared unmixed [h]in the cup of his anger; and he shall be tormented with [i]fire and brimstone in the presence of the [k]holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: 11 and the [l]smoke of their torment goeth up [10]for ever and ever; and [m]they have no rest day and night, they that [4][d]worship the beast and his [e]image, and whoso receiveth the [n]mark of his name. 12 Here is [a] the [1] patience of the saints, they that [b] keep the commandments of God, and [c] the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, [d] Blessed are the dead who [e] die [2] in the Lord [f] from henceforth: yea, [g] saith the Spirit, that they may [h] rest from their labors; for their [i] works follow with them.

14 And I saw, and behold, a [k] white cloud; and on the cloud I saw one sitting [l] like unto a son of man, having on his head a golden [m] crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. 15 And another angel [n] came out from the [3] temple, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, [o] Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for the [p] harvest of the earth is [4] ripe. 16 And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel [n] came out from the [3] temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out from [q] the altar, [r] he that hath power over fire; and he called with a great voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [o] Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; [s] for her grapes are fully ripe. 19 And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the [5] vintage of the earth, and cast it into [t] the winepress, the great winepress, of the wrath of God. 20 And the winepress was trodden [u] without the city, and there came out [v] blood from the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

15 And I saw [x] another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [y] seven angels having [z] seven plagues, which are [a] the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a [6] [b] sea of glass mingled with fire; and them that [c] come off victorious from the [d] beast, and from [e] his image, and from the [f] number of his name, standing [7] by the [6] [b] sea of glass, having [g] harps of God. 3 And they sing the [h] song of Moses [i] the [8] servant of God, and the [k] song of the Lamb, saying,

[l] Great and marvellous are thy works, [m] O Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are thy ways, thou [n] King of the [9] ages. 4 [o] Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for [p] all the nations shall come and [10] worship before thee; for thy [q] righteous acts have been made manifest.

5 And after these things I saw, and [r] the [3] temple of the [s] tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: 6 and there [t] came out from the [3] temple the [u] seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed [11] with [v] precious stone, pure and bright, and [x] girt about their breasts with golden girdles. 7 And one of the [y] four living creatures gave unto the [u] seven angels seven [z] golden bowls full of the [a] wrath of God, who [b] liveth [12] for ever and ever. 8 And the [3] temple was filled with [c] smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the [3] temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

16 And I heard a great voice out of [r] the [3] temple, saying to the [u] seven angels, Go ye, and [d] pour out the [z] seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl [e] into the earth; and [13] it became a noisome and grievous [f] sore upon the men [g] that had the mark of the beast, and that [10] worshipped his image.

3 And the second poured out his bowl [h] into the sea; and [13] it became blood as of a dead man; and every [14] living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

4 And the third poured out his bowl into the [i] rivers and the fountains of the waters; [15] and [13] it [k] became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, [a]Righteous art thou, [b]who art and who wast, thou [c]Holy One, because thou didst thus [1][d]judge: 6 for they poured out [e]the blood of saints and prophets, and [f]blood hast thou given them to drink: they are worthy. 7 And I heard [g]the altar saying, Yea, O [h]Lord God, the Almighty, [i]true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth poured out his bowl upon [k]the sun; [l]and it was given unto [2]it to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat: and they [m]blasphemed the name of God who hath the power over these plagues; and they [n]repented not to [o]give him glory.

10 And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the [p]throne of the beast; and his kingdom was [q]darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, 11 and they [m]blasphemed the [r]God of heaven because of their pains and their [s]sores; and they [n]repented not of their works.

12 And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the [t]great river, the river Euphrates; and [u]the water thereof was dried up, that [v]the way might be made ready for the kings that come [x]from the sunrising. 13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the [y]dragon, and out of the mouth of the [z]beast, and out of the mouth of the [a]false prophet, three [b]unclean spirits, as it were [c]frogs: 14 for they are [d]spirits of demons, [e]working signs; which go forth [3]unto the kings of the [f]whole [4]world, to [g]gather them together unto the war of the [h]great day of God, the Almighty. 15 (Behold, [i]I come as a thief. [k]Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [l]lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.) 16 And they [m]gathered them together into the place which is called [n]in Hebrew [5]Har-[o]Magedon.

17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon [p]the air; and there came forth a [q]great voice out of the [6][r]temple, from the throne, saying, [s]It is done: 18 and there were [t]lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there was [u]a great earthquake, [v]such as was not since [7]there were men upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. 19 And [x]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the [8]nations fell: and [y]Babylon the great was [z]remembered in the sight of God, to give unto her [a]the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 And [b]every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And [c]great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: and men [d]blasphemed God because of the [e]plague of the hail; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

17 [f]And there came one of the [g]seven angels that had the [h]seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee [i]the judgment of the [k]great harlot that [l]sitteth upon many waters; 2 with whom [m]the kings of the earth committed fornication, and [n]they that dwell in the earth were [o]made drunken with the wine of her fornication. 3 And [p]he carried me away [q]in the Spirit [r]into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a [s]scarlet-colored beast, [9]full of [t]names of blasphemy, having [u]seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman [v]was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and [10]decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand [x]a golden cup full of abominations, [11]even the unclean things of her fornication, 5 and upon her forehead a name written, [12][y]MYSTERY, [z]BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF [a]THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the [b]blood of the saints, and with the blood of the [13]martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder?

The "Mystery" of the Scarlet Woman and Beast interpreted. The Fall and Desolation of Babylon: its Extent;

I will tell thee the [a]mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the [b]seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest [c]was, and is not; and is about to [d]come up out of the [e]abyss, [1]and to [f]go into perdition. And [g]they that dwell on the earth shall [h]wonder, they [i]whose name hath not been written [2]in the book of life [k]from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that [c]he was, and is not, and [3]shall come. 9 [l]Here is the [4]mind that hath wisdom. The [m]seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: 10 and [5]they are seven [n]kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. 11 And the beast that [c]was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he [f]goeth into perdition. 12 And the [o]ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, [p]for one hour. 13 These have [q]one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. 14 These shall [r]war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall [s]overcome them, for he is [t]Lord of lords, and [t]King of kings; and [u]they also shall overcome that are with him, [v]called and chosen and faithful. 15 And he saith unto me, The [x]waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are [y]peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. 16 And the [z]ten horns which thou sawest, and the beast, these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her [a]desolate and [b]naked, and shall [c]eat her flesh, and shall [d]burn her utterly with fire. 17 For [e]God did put in their hearts to do his mind, and to [f]come to one mind, and to give their kingdom unto the beast, until the [g]words of God should be accomplished. 18 And the woman whom thou sawest is [h]the great city, which [6]reigneth over the kings of the earth.

18 After these things I saw [i]another angel [k]coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was [l]lightened with his glory. 2 And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, [m]Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and [n]is become a habitation of demons, and a [7]hold of every [o]unclean spirit, and a [7]hold of every unclean and hateful bird. 3 For [8]by [9]the [p]wine of the wrath of her fornication all the nations are fallen; and [q]the kings of the earth committed fornication with her, and the [r]merchants of the earth waxed rich by the power of her [10] [s]wantonness.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [t]Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye have no fellowship with her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues: 5 for her sins [11]have [u]reached even unto heaven, and God hath [v]remembered her iniquities. 6 [x]Render unto her even as she rendered, and double unto her the double according to her works: in the [y]cup which she mingled, mingle unto her double. 7 [z]How much soever she glorified herself, and [s]waxed [12]wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning: for she saith in her heart, [a]I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall in no wise see mourning. 8 Therefore [b]in one day shall her plagues come, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be [c]utterly burned with fire; for [d]strong is [13]the Lord God who judged her. 9 And [q]the kings of the earth, who committed fornication and [s]lived [14]wantonly with her, shall [e]weep and wail over her, when they [f]look upon the smoke of her burning, 10 [g]standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [h]Woe, woe, [i]the great city, Babylon, the strong city! for in [k]one hour is thy judgment come. 11 And the [r]merchants of the earth [l]weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their [15]merchandise any more; 12 [15]merchandise of [m]gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and all thyine wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; 13 and cinnamon, and [1] spice, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep; and merchandise of horses and chariots and [2] slaves; and [3] [a] souls of men. 14 And the fruits which thy soul lusted after are gone from thee, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous are perished from thee, and men shall find them no more at all. 15 The [b] merchants of [c] these things, who were made rich by her, shall [d] stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; 16 saying, [e] Woe, woe, [f] the great city, she that [g] was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and [4] decked with gold and precious stone and pearl! 17 for in [h] one hour so great riches is made [i] desolate. And [k] every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any whither, and mariners, and as many as [5] gain their living by sea, [d] stood afar off, 18 and [l] cried out as they [m] looked upon the smoke of her burning, saying, [n] What city is like [o] the great city? 19 And they cast [p] dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, [q] Woe, woe, the great city, wherein all that had their ships in the sea were [r] made rich by reason of her costliness! for in [h] one hour is she made [i] desolate. 20 [s] Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye saints, and [t] ye apostles, and ye prophets; for [u] God hath judged your judgment on her.

21 And [6] a [v] strong angel [x] took up a stone as it were a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, [o] the great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at all. 22 And [y] the voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, [7] of whatsoever craft, shall be found any more at all in thee; and the [z] voice of a mill shall be heard no more at all in thee; 23 and the light of a lamp shall shine no more at all in thee; and the [a] voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy [b] merchants were the princes of the earth; for [c] with thy sorcery were all the nations deceived. 24 And in her was found the [d] blood of prophets and of saints, and of [e] all that have been slain upon the earth.

19 After these things I heard as it were a [f] great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying,

[g] Hallelujah; [h] Salvation, and [i] glory, and power, belong to our God: 2 for [k] true and righteous are his [l] judgments; for he hath judged the [m] great harlot, her that corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he hath [n] avenged the blood of his [8] servants at her hand.

3 And a second time they [9] say, [g] Hallelujah. And her [o] smoke goeth up [10] for ever and ever. 4 And the [p] four and twenty elders and the [q] four living creatures [r] fell down and worshipped God that sitteth on the throne, saying, [s] Amen; [g] Hallelujah. 5 And a voice came forth from the throne, saying,

[t] Give praise to our God, all ye his [8] servants, [u] ye that fear him, the small and the great.

6 And I heard as it were [f] the voice of a great multitude, and as [v] the voice of many waters, and as the [x] voice of mighty thunders, saying,

[g] Hallelujah: for the [y] Lord our God, the Almighty, reigneth.
7 Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad, and let us [z] give the glory unto him: for [a] the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his [b] wife hath made herself ready.
8 And it was given unto her that she should array herself in [c] fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine linen is the [d] righteous acts of the saints.

9 And [e] he saith unto me, [f] Write, [g] Blessed are they that are bidden to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, [a] These are true words of God. 10 And [b] I fell down before his feet to [1] worship him. [c] And he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a [d] fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren that [e] hold the testimony of Jesus: [1] worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw [f] the heaven opened; and behold, a [g] white horse, and he that sat thereon [2] called [h] Faithful and True; and in [i] righteousness he doth judge and make war. 12 And his [k] eyes are a flame of fire, and upon his head are many [l] diadems; and he hath a [m] name written which no one knoweth but he himself. 13 And he is arrayed in a [n] garment [3] sprinkled with blood: and his name is called [o] The Word of God. 14 And the armies which are in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in [p] fine linen, [q] white and pure. 15 And [r] out of his mouth proceedeth a sharp sword, that [s] with it he should smite the nations: and he shall [t] rule them with a rod of iron: and [u] he treadeth the [4] winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. 16 And he hath on his garment and on his thigh [m] a name written, [v] KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw [5] an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to [x] all the birds that fly in [y] mid heaven, [z] Come and be gathered together unto the [a] great supper of God; 18 that ye may [b] eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of [6] captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of them that sit thereon, and the flesh of all men, [c] both free and bond, and [d] small and great.

19 And I saw [e] the beast, and [f] the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that [g] sat upon the horse, and against his army. 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the [h] false prophet that [i] wrought the signs [k] in his sight, wherewith he [l] deceived them that had received the [m] mark of the beast and them that [1] [n] worshipped his image: they two were cast alive into the [o] lake of [p] fire that burneth with brimstone: 21 and the rest were killed with the sword of him that [g] sat upon the horse, even the sword which [q] came forth out of his mouth: and [r] all the birds were filled with their flesh.

And I saw [s] an angel coming down out of heaven, having the [t] key of the abyss and a great chain [7] in his hand. 2 And he laid hold on the [u] dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and [v] bound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the [x] abyss, and shut it, and [y] sealed it over him, that he should [z] deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

4 And I saw [a] thrones, and [b] they sat upon them, and [c] judgment was given unto them: and I saw [d] the souls of them that had been [e] beheaded for the [f] testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as [1] [n] worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the [m] mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they [g] lived, and [h] reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. [i] This is the first resurrection. 6 [k] Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the [l] second death hath no [8] power; but they shall be [m] priests of God and of Christ, and shall [h] reign with him [9] a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be [n] loosed out of his prison, 8 and shall come forth to [z] deceive the nations which are in the [o] four corners of the earth, [p] Gog and Magog, to [q] gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the [r] sand of the sea. 9 And they [s] went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the [a] camp of the saints about, and the [b] beloved city: and [c] fire came down [1] out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And [d] the devil that [d] deceived them was cast into the [e] lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the [f] beast and the [f] false prophet; and they shall be [g] tormented day and night [2] for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white [h] throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face [i] the earth and the heaven fled away; and [k] there was found no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the [l] great and the small, standing before the throne; and [m] books were opened: and another book was opened, which is [n] the book of life: and the dead [o] were judged out of the things which were written in the books, [p] according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and [q] death and Hades [r] gave up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man [p] according to their works. 14 And [q] death and Hades were cast into [e] the lake of fire. This is the [s] second death, even the lake of fire. 15 And if any was not found written in [n] the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21 And I saw [t] a new heaven and a new earth: for [u] the first heaven and the first earth are passed away; and the sea is no more. 2 And I saw [3] [v] the holy city, [x] new Jerusalem, [y] coming down out of heaven from God, [z] made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, [a] the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall [4] [b] dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, [5] and be their God: 4 and he shall [c] wipe away every tear from their eyes; and [d] death shall be no more; [e] neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: [f] the first things are passed away. 5 And [g] he that sitteth on the throne said, Behold, I [f] make all things new. And he saith, [6] Write: for [h] these words are faithful and true. 6 And he said unto me, [i] They are come to pass. I am the [k] Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. [l] I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the [m] water of life freely. 7 [n] He that overcometh shall inherit these things; and [o] I will be his God, and he shall be my son. 8 [p] But for the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in [q] the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the [r] second death.

9 [s] And there came one of the seven angels who had the [t] seven bowls, who were laden with the [u] seven last plagues; and he spake with me, saying, [v] Come hither, I will show thee the [x] bride, the wife of the Lamb. 10 And [y] he carried me away [z] in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me [a] the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having [b] the glory of God: her [7] light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a [c] jasper stone, clear as [d] crystal: 12 having a wall great and high; [e] having twelve [8] [f] gates, and at the [8] gates twelve angels; and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: 13 on the east were three [8] gates; and on the north three [8] gates; and on the south three [8] gates; and on the west three [8] gates. 14 And the wall of the city had [g] twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the [h] twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 And he that spake with me had for a measure a golden [i] reed to measure the city, and the [8] [k] gates thereof, and the wall thereof. 16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand fur-

1 And [v] he showed me a [x] river of [y] water of life, bright [z] as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of [10] the Lamb, 2 in the midst of [a] the street thereof. And [b] on this side of the river and on that was [11] [c] the tree of life, bearing twelve [12] manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the [d] leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3 And [e] there shall be [13] no curse any more: and [f] the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein: and his [14] servants shall [g] serve him; 4 and they shall [h] see his face; and his [i] name shall be on their [k] foreheads. 5 And [l] there shall be night no more; and they need [m] no light of lamp, neither light of sun; for the Lord God shall give them light: and they shall [n] reign [15] for ever and ever.

6 And [v] he said unto me, [o] These words are faithful and true: and the Lord, the [p] God of the spirits of the prophets, [q] sent his angel to show unto his [14] servants the things which must shortly come to pass. 7 And behold, [r] I come quickly. [s] Blessed is he that keepeth [t] the words of the prophecy of this book.

8 And [u] I John am he that heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, [v] I fell down to [16] worship before the feet of the angel that showed me these things. 9 And [v] he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a [x] fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren the prophets, and with them that keep the words of [t] this book: [16] worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, [y] Seal not up [t] the words of the prophecy of this book; [z] for the time is at hand. 11 [a] He that is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness [17] still: and he that is filthy, let him be made filthy [17] still: and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness [17] still: and he that is holy, let him be made holy [17] still. 12 Behold, [b] I come quickly; and my [18] [c] reward is with me, [d] to render to each man according as his work is. 13 I am the [e] Alpha and the Omega, [f] the first and the last, [g] the beginning and the end. 14 Blessed are they that [h] wash their robes, that they may have [19] the right to come to [i] the tree of life, and may [k] enter in by the [3] [l] gates into the city. 15 [m] Without are the [n] dogs, and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one that loveth and [1] maketh a lie.

16 [a] I Jesus have sent [b] mine angel to testify unto you these things [2] [c] for the churches. I am [d] the root and the [e] offspring of David, the bright, [f] the morning star.

17 [3] And the [g] Spirit and the [h] bride say, Come. And he that heareth, let him say, Come. And [i] he that is athirst, let him come: he that will, let him take the [k] water of life freely.

18 I testify unto every man that heareth [l] the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall [m] add [4] unto them, God shall add [4] unto him [n] the plagues which are written in [l] this book: 19 and if any man shall [m] take away from the [l] words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from [o] the tree of life, and out of the holy city, [5] [p] which are written in this book.

APPENDIX

List of Readings and Renderings which appear in the Revised New Testament of 1881 in place of those preferred by the American New Testament Revision Company

CLASSES OF PASSAGES

I. Insert "S." (i.e. Saint) in the title, and the heading of the pages, of the Gospels.

II. Insert "the Apostle" in the title of the Pauline Epistles (except Galatians, Titus, and Philemon), and "of Paul the Apostle" in the title of the Epistle to the Hebrews; let the title of the Epistles of James, Peter, 1 John, and Jude, together with that of the Revelation, run "The General Epistle of James," "The First Epistle General of Peter," "The Second Epistle General of Peter," "The First Epistle General of John," "The General Epistle of Jude," and "The Revelation of S. John the Divine."

III. For "Holy Spirit" retain "Holy Ghost" as the rendering in the text in the following passages: Matt. i. 18, 20; iii. 11; xxviii. 19; Mark i. 8; xiii. 11; Luke i. 15, 35, 41, 67; iii. 16, 22; John xx. 22; Acts i. 2, 5, 8, 16; ii. 33, 38; iv. 8, 25, 31; v. 3, 32; vii. 51, 55; viii. 15, 17, 18, 19; ix. 17, 31; x. 38, 44, 45, 47; xi. 15, 16, 24; xiii. 2, 4, 9, 52; xv. 8, 28; xvi. 6; xix. 2 (twice), 6; xx. 23, 28; xxi. 11; xxviii. 25; Rom. v. 5; ix. 1; xiv. 17; xv. 13, 16, 19; 1 Cor. vi. 19; 2 Cor. vi. 6; xiii. 14; 1 Thess. i. 5, 6; 2 Tim. i. 14; Tit. iii. 5; Heb. ii. 4; iii. 7; vi. 4; ix. 8; x. 15; 1 Pet. i. 12; 2 Pet. i. 21.

IV. Omit the explanatory margin added to the word "worship" in Matt. ii. 2, etc.

V. Retain in the text the rendering "by" for "through" in reference to prophecy, in the following passages: Matt. ii. 5, 17, 23; iii. 3; iv. 14; viii. 17; xii. 17; xiii. 35; xxi. 4; xxiv. 15; xxvii. 9; Luke xviii. 31; Acts ii. 16; xxviii. 25; Rom. i. 2; and add "Or, through" in the margin.

VI. Retain "tempt" ("temptation") in the text, instead of the rendering "try," "make trial of" ("trial"), even in cases where there is no direct reference to wrongdoing, viz. in Matt. iv. 7; xvi. 1; xix. 3; xxii. 18, 35; Mark viii. 11; x. 2; xii. 15; Luke iv. 12; x. 25; xi. 16; John viii. 6 (with marg. "Or, trying"); Acts v. 9; xv. 10; 1 Cor. x. 9 (twice); Heb. iii. 8, 9.

VII. Retain sundry archaic forms of speech, viz.:—

"aforetime" for "once" (with change of order in most instances) in Eph. ii. 2, 11; Col. iii. 7; Tit. iii. 3; Philem 11.

"alway" in many instances for "always," the form adopted everywhere in this edition.

"an hungred" for "hungry" in Matt. xii. 1, 3; xxv. 35, 37, 42, 44; Mark ii. 25; Luke vi. 3.

"be" for "is," "are," "art," in the present indicative in the following passages: Matt. vii. 13, 14; xvi. 28; xxvi. 63; Mark vii. 4; ix. 1; Luke ix. 27; xiii. 23; xx. 6; John vii. 17; viii. 33; ix. 25; Acts xix. 26; Rom. iii. 8; 1 Cor. iv. 17; 2 Cor. xiii. 5; Gal. iii. 7, 9; Phil. iii. 15; 1 Thess. v. 7; Heb. v. 12 marg.

"do" and "did," as auxiliary forms, in many instances.

"drave" for "drove" in Acts xviii. 16.

"for to" for "to" (the infinitive) in many instances.

"hale" for "drag" in Luke xii. 58; Acts viii. 3.

"holpen" for "given help to" in Luke i. 54.

"how that" for "that" in many instances.

"lade" for "load" in Luke xi. 46.

"listed" for "would" in Matt. xvii. 12; Mark ix. 13.

"listeth" for "will" in John iii. 8.

"plait" for "plat" in Matt. xxvii. 29; Mark xv. 17; John xix. 2.

"quick" for "living" in Acts x. 42; 2 Tim. iv. 1; 1 Pet. iv. 5.

"quicken" for "make alive" in Eph. ii. 1, 5; Col. ii. 13; 1 Pet. iii. 18. For "give life" or "give life to" in John v. 21 (twice); vi. 63; Rom. iv. 17; viii. 11; 1 Tim. vi. 13.

"shew" for "show," "judgement" for "judgment," in all instances.

"the which" for "which" in John xviii. 1; Acts xi. 6; Gal. v. 21; Jas. ii. 7.

"trode" for "trod" in Luke xii. 1.

"twain" for "two" in Matt. v. 41; xix. 5, 6; xxvii. 21, 51; Mark x. 8 (twice); xv. 38; Eph. ii. 15; v. 31.

"whether" for "which" in Matt. ix. 5; xxi. 31; xxiii. 17, 19; Mark ii. 9; Luke v. 23; xxii. 27.

"which" in a multitude of passages instead of "who" or "that" in reference to persons.

"wist" for "knew" in Mark ix. 6; xiv. 40; Luke ii. 49; John v. 13; Acts xii. 9; xxiii. 5.

"wot" for "know" in Acts iii. 17; vii. 40; Rom. xi. 2; Phil. i. 22 (text and marg.).

VIII. Retain "devil" ("devils") as the rendering of the Greek words δαίμων, δαιμόνιον, and "possessed with a devil" (or "devils") for the rendering "demoniac" or "possessed with a demon" (or "demons"); and add in the marg. "Gr. demon." (or "Gr. demons."), or "Or, demoniacs"

IX. After "baptize" let the marg. "Or, with" and the text "in" exchange places, viz. in Matt. iii. 11 (twice); Mark i. 8 (twice); Luke iii. 16 (twice); John i. 26, 31, 33 (twice); Acts i. 5; xi. 16.

X. Add "Or, testament" in the marg., as an alternate, to the rendering "covenant" in the following passages: Matt. xxvi. 28; Mark xiv. 24; Luke xxii. 20; 1 Cor. xi. 25; 2 Cor. iii. 6, 14; Gal. iii. 15, 17; Heb. vii. 22; viii. 6, 8, 9 (twice), 10; x. 16; xii. 24; Rev. xi. 19.

XI. Omit the marg. "Or, stedfastness" wherever it appears as an alternate to "patience" in the rendering of the Greek word ὑπομονή.

XII. Retain "farthing" as the rendering of ἀσσάριον (Matt. x. 29; Luke xii. 6), and "penny" as the rendering of δηνάριον in all cases.

XIII. Omit the marginal rendering "Or, God and the Father" in Rom. xv. 6; 2 Cor. i. 3; xi. 31; Eph. i. 3; 1 Pet. i. 3; also the marginal rendering "Or, God and our Father" in Gal. i. 4; Phil. iv. 20; 1 Thess. i. 3; iii. 11, 13; together with the marg. "Or, God and his Father" in Rev. i. 6.

XIV. Retain "fulfil" (in the sense of "make full") in the following passages: John iii. 29; xv. 11; xvi. 24; xvii. 13; 2 Cor. x. 6; Phil. ii. 2; 1 John i. 4; 2 John 12.

XV. For "Teacher" (as the rendering of διδάσκαλος when applied to Jesus) read "Master," with the marg. "Or, Teacher," in all instances in the Gospels. For "teacher" (applied to others than Jesus) read "master," with the marg. "Or, teacher," in Matt. x. 24, 25; Luke vi. 40 (twice). In Luke ii. 46 read "doctors," with the marg. "Or, teachers."

XVI. Omit the repetition of marginal renderings against many words, as: "gospel," "preach the gospel," "betray," "deliver up," "nations," "gentiles," "chief captain," "James," "sanctuary" (in Rev.), but (in most instances) add "and so elsewhere" against the first occurrence. Similarly the marginal note against the word "publican" is not repeated.

Sundry other slight differences occur, particularly in spelling and in minor details of phraseology. These need not be recorded here. The few additional ones which a reader may detect are obviously designed to preserve either uniformity or precision of rendering.
